

PRESIDENT ASKS WOMEN TO STICK WITH THE PARTY

PHILADELPHIA, May 4.—A telegram from President Harding declaring the greatest service of women in politics...

Nose Dives and Tail Spins

By W. W. Woodbeck.

Four years ago About this season of the year The red blooded young men Of the United States Were putting on the uniforms Of fighting men. Whenever a bunch of them Marched by Those of us Who "kept the home fires burning," And hung service flags In the windows And talked about our patriotism. Assuring a war stricken world That we were Americans, Of the 100 per cent variety; That we would ever hold The boys who went to the front In grateful remembrance. Some of the boys are home; Some are sleeping Beneath the popples That bloom on Flanders' field. Anything within reason Should be theirs for the asking. For more than a year The American Legion Has been trying to arouse Public sentiment For the purpose Of erecting a memorial For the boys of Clackamas county. Sentiment is about all There has been to it so far. And now the boys Who fought your battles Are forced to stage A cheap street show To raise the necessary funds For that purpose. Heaven forbid, That it should ever Have become necessary To resort to this method For a memorial for such A worthy cause. Maybe if they would appoint A committee to visit Henry Abers They might get enough To build a first class memorial, For he has a good opinion Of this country now. That the war is ended And the recent ruling Has been announced.

chased recently and is fitting it up for a first class work shop. Gus Dahrens is out of work a week while the Dwyer Co. is adjusting things but expects to be put to work at "steam shovelling" in a week or so. Mrs. A. E. Collier and little Hazel and David and Miss Barton drove to Hood River on Saturday. Mr. Collier returned with them in the evening. Douglas Fairbanks in "Arizona" at Sandy Community Theatre Saturday night. Adv. Dave Douglas, stockman, farmer, road supervisor, and well known Cherryvilleite was down here again last Monday. Clarence Brown a newcomer in Sandy who is recently from the east and his bride of last Sunday will move into the Ernest Bonett home this week and we shall be glad to welcome them as one of us. Mr. Brown is employed at the Smith garage. The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Bonett are sorry they will be away for a year and perhaps longer, but hope the change may benefit Mrs. Mrs. Bonett's health. Friends of Mrs. N. Schmitz will be glad to learn that she is gradually improving. Joe Abel has been suffering with an infected hand recently which has caused him a lot of pain as well as "botheration." Max Woensche is still walking a little farther on his crutches day by day which shows constant improvement. Mrs. Dock Hite of Kelso was taken to a Portland hospital last week by Dr. A. Williams who has charge of the case. Mrs. Mary I. Wilson reports her patient, Mrs. O'Neil as no better and is in a helpless condition. Mr. and Mrs. Willbur Elliott were called to Scio Saturday on account of the sudden death of Mr. Elliott's mother. Ed Hein had the hard luck to slash his knee one day last week while sniping in the woods of the Twin Valley Lumber Co. mill. He is under the care of Dr. A. Williams. SANDY SCHOOL NOTES SANDY, May 4.—Dorothy Esson spent Saturday night and Sunday with her friend Dorothy Mattingly and the twin of these young girls enjoyed the companionship greatly. They practiced piano duets together, which was profitable for each. "Schoolmams" are very busy everywhere now with programs, and everything that goes with the closing of the year work. Plans are being made for the baccalaureate service to be held at the Methodist church on Sunday evening, May 29. The whole town is busiest ever just now, school children included, but everybody feels better when the spirit of enthusiasm abounds in both the school and the home. Ruth Esson missed two days of school last week because of a bilious attack like that which seems to have "been going around." Miss Bertha and Martha Hoffman went to Portland recently for a short stay. Miss Bess Barton was the guest of Mrs. A. E. Collier at dinner last Sunday. Little Laura Hoffman has begun taking plane lessons from Mrs. Purcell. The regular meeting of the Sandy Parent Teacher was poorly attended last Friday night, which showed a lack of interest on the part of many. During the business session it was decided to hold the next meeting at the school house on Friday P. M. May 20, at two o'clock. The election of officers will take place at the meeting. Mrs. Esson presided and light refreshments were served. Those present feel a great interest in the work. Miss Opal Selby went to Oregon City to spend the week with her home folks. Miss Selby is busy with her school program for closing of the term. Miss Louisa Wentz of the Sandy-ridge school has been alling the past week with la grippe and had to miss two days of school. Miss Wentz will close her school on May 20 with a picnic. In June Miss Wentz expects to enter the U. of O. where she will specialize on violin and piano study, which has been a "dream" of hers for some time. Miss Ruth Crum is now rooming at the Loundree home. Fenton Dunn missed several days of school the past week because of a spell of indigestion, and it is not the green apple season either! Catherine and Zelma Allen were slipping around to their little friends with May baskets Sunday evening. Miss Rildie Roberts a student of Jefferson High acted as bridesmaid at the wedding of her sister Miss Luu Roberts of Dover on Sunday, May 1. PEOPLE OF OUR TOWN The Shelley house has been repaired so there is no more leakage from the roof which was recently burned so badly. Mr. and Mrs. J. Scates and family attended the Roberts-Post wedding at Dover on Sunday, May 1. Mrs. M. Summers of Portland came to Sandy to close out a stock of millinery last week but the roads and weather reminded everyone of everything but spring bonnets! The time of three days was too short to make many sales. Mr. and Mrs. James Dixon, little Dorothy and Mrs. Carl Alt drove to Oregon City on business last Tuesday. Mrs. Platts, mother of C. H. Platts, came over from her home at Hubbard, to visit here for awhile. Platts' look nice with their new "touches" about the place. Douglas Fairbanks, well-known globe-trotter and all around good fellow makes an appearance at Sandy Saturday night.—Adv. Jack Scates went to Portland Monday taking little Frankie Costello with him. Frankie is going to Tacoma to his mother after a stay of several weeks with his "Uncle Jack and Aunt Alice." R. E. Esson and J. C. Duke were Portland visitors on Monday. R. C. Prace, George Maroney, George Beers and L. M. Wilson were all city visitors last Sunday, and car

OBITUARIES

Emery Dell French, only son of Mr. and Mrs. Emery French, of this city, died suddenly at the family home on Fifth and Jackson streets Sunday evening. The little fellow was playing during the day with other children, and in the evening was stricken with an attack of bronchitis, causing his death. The child was 6 years of age, and his twin sister died a number of years ago. William H. Hughes, of Hoff, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Hughes, died at the family home Sunday morning at 10 o'clock from an illness of several months. His death was due to leakage of the heart. Deceased was 16 years of age, and was among the popular students of the Hoff school. He is survived by his parents and three sisters. Thomas Hammond, of this city, died at the family residence on Willamette street Sunday morning after a brief illness. Deceased was born in Illinois, and his age was 69 years. He came to Oregon City a number of years ago. Mr. Hammond is survived by his wife and several children. Funeral services over the remains of the late Mrs. Sophia Noe, widow of the late John B. Noe, who died at her home in Woodburn April 27th, were held from the Rock Creek church Friday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, with interment in the Rock Creek cemetery. Rev. Henry Spiess, a former pastor and old friend of the family, officiated. During the services a choir from Molalla composed of Mrs. Grace Park, Mrs. Mary T. Riddings, Thomas Reynolds, George V. Adams and George H. Gregory, sang most impressively, "Nearer My God To Thee," "I Need Thee Every Hour" and "Abide With Me." Rev. Spiess spoke highly of the character of Mrs. Noe, who was held in the highest esteem by her many friends and acquaintances, and the many floral tributes were a silent token of the esteem in which she was held by all. Pallbearers were George C. Perdue, R. I. Garrett, P. J. Scheider, A. A. Schneider, E. L. Stowe and Solon Kimzer. Mrs. Noe, whose maiden name was Sophia E. Gibbs, was born in Vinton county, Ohio, January 30, 1841, and at the time of her death her age was 80 years, 2 months and 27 days. She taught school for some time before her marriage to John B. Noe. To this union were born four children, the eldest daughter, Jessie, died March 10, 1881. Those living are Mrs. Frankie E. Chenoweth, of Woodburn; Mrs. Mattie Archer, residing near Woodburn; Gilbert J. Noe, county recorder, of Clackamas county, whose home is at Gladstone. All her children were at her bedside when death came. Mrs. Noe is also survived by a brother, George F. Gibbs, of Oregon City; two sisters, residing in Iowa, and a grandchild, Iris Chenoweth, a student of the Willamette University. For more than sixty years Mrs. Noe was an active member of the Methodist Episcopal church. The family moved to Oregon from Iowa in January, 1879, residing two years in Gervais, and in 1881 bought a part of the William McCowan donation land claim near where the Rock Creek Methodist Episcopal church now stands. In 1882 they moved to a farm near Estacada, but in 1888 returned to the Rock Creek farm. After the death of Mr. Noe on August 31, 1903, Mrs. Noe moved to Woodburn in 1904, and continued her residence in that city until her death. Deceased was an active worker in the Rock Creek settlement in building the M. E. church and social betterment of the community. The remains of Miss Mable Phillips, formerly of Oregon City, and daughter of Mrs. Phillips, whose maiden name was Miss Bacon, were brought from Portland last Saturday and buried in the family lot of the Bacon family, old time residents of this city. J. M. Bacon, grandfather of the young woman, was a former postmaster in Oregon City. The remains of Miss Phillips, who was 25 years of age, were recently found beneath a skating ring in Portland, after her disappearance seven years ago. It is believed that she was murdered, and her body buried beneath the building. The young woman was an unusually attractive girl, and every effort had been made by the family to find some trace of her. The burial certificate reads that her death was caused by murder. The remains were interred by Mr. Brandt, sexton, and the mother and several other relatives of the young woman were here to attend the burial service. Many friends attended the impressive funeral services of the late L. J. Schwerin, held in the Holman & Pace funeral chapel Saturday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, that were conducted by the Spiritualists of this city, with Mrs. Griffith in charge. Several selections were rendered during the services. The floral tributes were beautiful and in great profusion. Among these were those received from the Crown Willamette Paper company and Northwest Bridge & Iron works. Many flowers remain to their last resting place in Mountain View cemetery, where the remains were laid to rest in the new plot. A son, Arthur Schwerin, who lost his life while fighting for his country in France, during the world war, will be brought here and laid to rest beside those of his father in the near future. Mr. Schwerin, who was 63 years of age, and a native of Iowa, recently underwent a critical operation for appendicitis at the Sellwood hospital, and was rapidly improving from the effects of the operation, when he was stricken with pneumonia last Wednesday, resulting in his death a few days later. He was a prominent resident of Willamette and many from that place were among those attending the funeral services.

Blind Service Men Present "Black Jack" With a Hammock

ASHINGTON, D. C., May 4.—Six soldiers, blinded in France and now taking vocational training at the Evergreen Institution for the Blind at Baltimore, paid a visit to the national capitol and met Mrs. Harding, wife of the president, and General Pershing. They gave Mrs. Harding a basket they had made themselves and General Pershing a hammock. All six are members of the American Legion. "Black Jack," in accepting the hammock, asked James E. O'Hara, formerly of the 13th Field Artillery, with a twinkle in his eye, if there was any significance in their having chosen a hammock for him. "Yes, sir," quickly replied the Legionnaire, "We thought you deserved a soft berth, so we made it for you."

Work or Suicide Writes Ex-Service Man to Legion

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., May 4.—"Must have work or suicide," is the way an unemployed ex-service man expressed his condition in an advertisement in a Houston, Tex., newspaper. It is an indication of a deplorable unemployment situation, which the American Legion is endeavoring to relieve through its more than 10,000 posts. The desperate Houston veteran served two years in the army, which time he spent eight months in France. He is a high school graduate and an experienced railway, warehouse and shipping clerk, and has been out of work for four months on account of the business depression. He has two dependents. Veterans of the world war have suffered most in the unemployment crisis, Legion officials, declare because they are usually the youngest employees. "In these days when hundreds of thousands are out of employment," said John Thomas Taylor, of the Legion's national legislative committee, "the American Legion is making a vigorous effort to see that ex-service men and women do not lose their jobs without sufficient cause. We intend to watch particularly all departments of the government."

Big Explosion at The Dalles Laid to I. W. W.

THE DALLES, May 4.—That the terrific explosion which wrecked the A. D. Kern Construction company's powder house near Mosier Sunday night might have been the work of members of the I. W. W. in line with May day demonstrations was the opinion advanced Wednesday by Sheriff Chrisman, following an investigation Monday. A foreman for the Kern company told the sheriff that he had heard some of the men discussing I. W. W. propaganda and the proposed May day demonstration before and following the explosion. A party of campers near the scene of the explosion informed the sheriff they had seen a man, apparently a laborer, hurry away from the powder house shortly after the blast occurred. About 50 kegs of black powder and 12 cases of dynamite were set off.

DES MOINES, Ia., May 4.—Charles Cain makes his living as a walking advertising signboard. For several days he paraded the streets of Des Moines with bare knees and wearing a skirt of imitation dried grasses and hay advertising a theater. He closed his contract suddenly the other night when an unidentified person touched a lighted match to the lower part of the skirt. Firemen finally caught him and extinguished the blaze. The next day he was confined face downward to his bed.

Big Explosion at The Dalles Laid to I. W. W.

THE DALLES, May 4.—That the terrific explosion which wrecked the A. D. Kern Construction company's powder house near Mosier Sunday night might have been the work of members of the I. W. W. in line with May day demonstrations was the opinion advanced Wednesday by Sheriff Chrisman, following an investigation Monday. A foreman for the Kern company told the sheriff that he had heard some of the men discussing I. W. W. propaganda and the proposed May day demonstration before and following the explosion. A party of campers near the scene of the explosion informed the sheriff they had seen a man, apparently a laborer, hurry away from the powder house shortly after the blast occurred. About 50 kegs of black powder and 12 cases of dynamite were set off.
