

LOCALS AND PERSONALS

Mr. and Mrs. C. Schuebel and daughter, Miss Roberta, who have been spending several weeks in their summer home at Rhododendron, returned to Oregon City Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Brayton, who left Oregon City six weeks ago for Goose Creek, Texas, where she went to visit her daughter, Mrs. P. E. McDonald, and family, returned to Oregon City Thursday morning.

Mrs. Labrot Edwards and baby have left the Oregon City hospital and are at present at the home of Mrs. Edwards' parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Webster, of Twelfth and Jefferson streets.

Mrs. Ray Robinson, formerly of this city, now of Portland, was in Oregon City Friday, where she visited at the home of Mrs. W. H. Sanson.

David Long, of Hazella, was among the Oregon City visitors Thursday. He has just completed harvesting his broccoli, which amounted to 1000 crates.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Eberly are the proud parents of their first daughter, born Monday morning at 10 o'clock at their home at 424 Willamette street.

Mr. and Mrs. Matthew Polajnar, of Twelfth and John Adams streets, are receiving congratulations over the arrival of a daughter at their home.

Fred Erickson, who recently left here for Bellingham, Wash., where he accompanied his son, John, who is a representative of the J. L. Case company, has returned to Oregon City.

Mr. and Mrs. William Kreuger are rejoicing over the arrival of a baby girl at their home on Fourteenth and Washington streets, who was born Saturday evening, May 7.

E. S. Larson, formerly of this city, now of Portland, was in Oregon City on business Thursday. While here he looked after his business interests, and also visited friends.

Mrs. E. L. Sharp, of Stafford, was among the Oregon City visitors on Thursday.

Miss Irene Kirchem, who is attending the Oregon City high school, returned to Oregon City Monday morning after spending the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Kirchem, of Logan.

Miss Pearl Long, who is employed at the Seward hotel in Portland, was in Oregon City Tuesday, where she visited her sister, Mrs. Cora Smith, and both of whom visited their parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Long, of Stringtown.

Mrs. Mary Morley and little daughter, Gwendolyn, accompanied the former's father, Rev. A. Ware, to the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Johnson, of Logan Sunday.

John Geibrich, 23, and Bessie Barth, 18, both of Macksburg, secured a marriage license from the county clerk here yesterday.

A petition for appointment of trustees of the estate of the late V. Harries, was filed in the circuit court yesterday, and Wm. Hammond and E. G. Canfield are named in the petition.

RESOLUTIONS FAVOR SUMMER NORMAL SCHOOL

Nearly one hundred teachers attended the meeting of the Clackamas County Teachers' association in the local high school auditorium Saturday.

"Resolved, That the sense of the Clackamas County Teachers' association is that the teachers of the state of Oregon should organize for the purpose of putting forth a united effort for the purpose of raising the professional standard of teachers, in order to secure the best results; and to this end we suggest that a six weeks' summer Normal be placed at some place convenient to the teachers of this part of the state."

There was much interest in a lecture by Dr. Stansfield, "Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde," as well as in President Ackerman's address on "The Education of the Future: What Will It Be?"

At the business session the association voted to conform to the reorganization of the Oregon State Teachers' association. Clackamas is the second county in the state to conform to the new organization.

Willamette River Open For Fishing

Commercial fishing opened at noon today in the Willamette river below the Oregon City-West Linn bridge but few fishermen took advantage of the early hours of the afternoon.

By nightfall at least 100 boats are expected to put out nets for drifting from the bridge to Jennings Lodge and Oswego.

Freshmen Win From Junior Hi Debate

The championship debate, which was held at the high school Monday between the Freshman and the Juniors was won by the former. This is very unusual, as it is very seldom that a Freshman class wins any school activity, so they are justly proud of their victory.

Both teams had good debates and it was very hard to fortell the outcome. The judges were Mrs. Homer Hollowell, Rev. Wire and Mr. Arthur Beattie.

Trembath Funeral Largely Attended

The chapel of Holman & Pace was filled to capacity Tuesday afternoon when the funeral services of the late Harry Trembath, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. John Trembath, were held.

The services were conducted by the I. O. O. F. lodge, of which Mr. Trembath was a member for many years, assisted by Rev. W. T. Wire, pastor of the Methodist church.

During the services Mrs. W. C. Green, of this city, and Mrs. Christofferson, of Seattle, sang sweetly "Beautiful Isle of Somewhere," and "Abide With Me."

There were about 60 members of the I. O. O. F. lodge attending in a body, and the Knights of Pythias, of which deceased was a member, was largely represented.

The floral tributes were in great profusion and were beautiful. Interment was in the family lot in Mountain View cemetery and the remains laid beside those of his parents.

Funeral services were members of the I. O. O. F. lodge.

The impressive burial service of the I. O. O. F. lodge was held at the cemetery.

Arrangements are being made by County School Superintendent Vedder for holding the eighth grade exercises at the Gladstone park this year.

Two Truck Men and One Fishermen Arrested Thursday

E. Richardson was arrested on a warrant yesterday charging him with fishing in the Willamette river in the closed season with a net. He will be tried before Judge Noble today at 1 p. m. in the justice court.

Constable Fortune served the warrant and two others at Estacada—one on H. Afgreien and another on P. Hostenet, both accused of overloading a truck on the county highways.

They appeared in the justice court and were fined $25 and costs, jointly.

AROUND THE COURT HOUSE

B. Hansen, of Portland, was caught holding three lines in the river Monday and hauled before Judge Noble, where he contributed $50.00 to the county.

Constable Fortune brought J. H. Brockway before the justice court here Monday for overloading a truck on the highway.

He left $15.00 with the judge. O. Jackson, of Silverton, was in court before Judge Noble for speeding and contributed $10.00.

Francis Harney, of Milwaukie, is in jail waiting a bond of $500.00, as he was bound over to the grand jury of Clackamas county, charged with a statutory offence. Harney is 19 years old.

Willamette Board Elects Teachers for Coming School Year

At a recent meeting of the school board of Willamette the following teachers were elected for the coming year: John R. Bowland, principal; Mabel Larson, Mrs. Baty, Florence Fromong, Gladys Trimble, Miss Fellows, and Thelma De Bak.

Mrs. Halley was not an applicant for reelection. She has taught in the Willamette school for five years, taking the seventh and eighth grades, and later the principalship, which she held for two years.

VACCINATION EDICT CAUSES RESIGNATION

Mrs. Winifred H. Osburn, instructor of the teachers' training class of the Oregon City high school, has resigned, and City Superintendent Kirk is in search of a teacher to fill the vacancy.

Mrs. Osburn's resignation followed her refusal to submit to the recent order of the city health department that all teachers and students of the city schools must be vaccinated, unless they had taken such treatment during the last seven years.

McROBERTS BOY LOST Great uneasiness was caused at the home of Mrs. Millie McRoberts, of this city Sunday, when her five-year-old son, Ray, disappeared at 10 o'clock and was not located until 7:30 p. m. when he was found playing in a sandpile at West Linn, not realizing the anxiety he had caused his mother, who had become distracted in the loss of her child.

Police of this city as well as at Portland, were notified and the Oregon City force and friends worked diligently on the case until the little fellow was found.

The home of Mrs. McRoberts is on Third street, and this is the first time the lad had wandered away.

CATCHES FIRST SALMON Mrs. W. A. Huntley, of Portland, caught her first salmon Thursday, which weighed about 20 pounds. She came to this city in company with her husband, and the party formed for fishing was composed of Fred Hunt, phreus and Mrs. Lenox, of this city, with Mrs. Huntley from Portland. Mrs. Huntley was the only member of the party meeting with success in landing a salmon, although Humphreys has made a record during the fishing season.

BUILDING READY SOON Mr. and Mrs. William Feitelson, recently purchasing portion of a lot south of the Hog Brothers' furniture and hardware store from that firm are to erect a two-story fire-proof building. The structure will be commenced the first of June, and the architect is W. A. White, of this city. The lower floor will have two store rooms, and the second floor will be used for offices, the entire building having already been rented to prominent business men of this city.

ANNOUNCEMENT A meeting of the members of St. John's Catholic church will be held in McLaughlin hall this evening for the purpose of organizing a council of the Order of Knights of Columbus.—Adv.

MRS. BARNES PASSES Mrs. Eva Esther Barnes, aged 67, of Willamette, died at the family home Saturday evening. She was a native of New York and had resided here about a year. She is survived by her husband, four sons, and one daughter. Funeral services will be held Monday at 2 o'clock from the Willamette church. Holman & Pace are in charge of the arrangements.

Society

The marriage of Miss Veta Lynch, of this city, and Merritt Willson, of Willamette, was solemnized at the Baptist church Wednesday evening at 6:45 o'clock, with Rev. Willis Pettibone, pastor, officiating.

Only a few of the intimate friends and relatives of the contracting parties witnessed the ceremony.

The bride was pretty in her gown of brown georgette crepe, with picture hat to match, and her corsage bouquet was of Ophelia roses and lilies of the valley.

Miss Umattila Johnson was the bride's maid, and she wore a beaoning gown of navy blue georgette crepe, with a picture hat to match. Her corsage bouquet was of pink rose buds and pink sweet peas.

Robert Welsh was the best man. Following the marriage ceremony, a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Lynch, of Thirteenth and Center streets, where refreshments were served.

The interior of the Lynch home was prettily decorated with dogwood and other spring flowers and ferns.

Mr. and Mrs. Willson left immediately on their honeymoon, which is being spent at Seaside, Oregon.

As the young couple were preparing to take their departure on their bridal trip, the bride was "kidnapped" by several relatives and friends, and rushed away in an automobile but was returned at a later hour in time to leave at nine o'clock for Portland with her husband. The young couple are making the trip by automobile.

The bride is the second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph T. Lynch, and is one of the popular girls of this city. Previous to her marriage, she has been the guest of honor at several social functions. After completing her studies in the Oregon City high school she accepted a position with the Crown Willamette office, and is popular among the employees of that company.

Mr. Willson, who is the eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Willson, of Willamette, attended the Oregon City high school and during the world war was at the training camp. He is a popular young man, and is also connected with the Crown Willamette Paper Company.

Upon the return from the honeymoon, the young couple will make their home in one of the Busch apartments.

Mrs. Adelherd Pauling, of Oswego, pioneer resident of that place, and mother of Mrs. J. U. Campbell, of Oregon City, enjoyed her 76th birthday anniversary at her home on Fourth and B Avenue, Oswego, Monday, when some of her friends called and presented her with a number of pretty and useful gifts and flowers.

Among those calling during the day and extending their best wishes were Mrs. H. W. Brunns, Mrs. Mary Lentz, Mrs. Alvina Brunns, Mrs. Belle Pauling, Mrs. Lucille Pauling, of Portland; Mrs. J. L. Fillen, Mrs. Elizabeth Holzinger, of Sheridan; Mrs. Matthew Diddan, Mrs. A. W. Anderson, of Oswego; Judge and Mrs. J. U. Campbell and daughter, Mary.

A reception was given at the church at Canemah last Tuesday evening in honor of the "newlyweds" Mr. and Mrs. Frank Quinn and Mr. and Mrs. John William Mead, and was attended by a large number of friends of the young couple.

A program had been previously arranged by Mrs. Maxwell Telford and Mrs. Harold Webb, of Canemah, consisting of vocal selections and readings. Taking part were Mrs. Walter Wentworth, who sang "She passed By Your Window" and "When Song is Sweet," with Mrs. Webb as accompanist; vocal selection, Arch Long, solo; Lyle Duncan, recitation; Lyle Duncan, solo; Linn Hatch, recitation; Mrs. Webb, solo.

During the evening William Hedges, prominent resident of Canemah, who was married in the little church 32 years ago, in behalf of the residents of Canemah, presented Mr. and Mrs. Quinn and Mr. and Mrs. Mead with handsome silver teaspoons. The impressive presentation address was responded to by the remainder of the evening was devoted to a social time, and refreshments were served.

The interior of the little church was beautifully decorated with spring blossoms.

The reception proved a most enjoyable one, long to be remembered by those in whose honor this was given and by others having the pleasure of attending.

Mr. and Mrs. Quinn's wedding was solemnized during the latter part of April. Mr. Quinn has resided continuously in Canemah except the time he served during the world war in France. He was among those in the thickest of the fight while overseas, and is the son of William Quinn, one of the prominent pioneers of Oregon, who resides in Canemah.

April 30, proving a pleasant surprise to the honored guests.

Places were laid for 35 guests, each place being marked with a red heart place card, and where a repast was enjoyed. Later in the evening ice cream, coffee and cake were served.

The dining room and tables were tastefully decorated with dog-wood blossoms and evergreens intermingled with red hearts.

There were present Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Lovett, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Ream, Mr. and Mrs. P. W. Middlebrook, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Rauch, Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Aldredge, Mr. and Mrs. Holliday, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Bowland, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Hibbard, Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Rain; Mrs. Gertrude Lethwaite, Mrs. Pearl Manning, Misses Merle Keck, Helen Lovett, Mattilda Michels, Frances Cole, Marie Michels, Marlon Cole; Messrs. F. S. Cramer, Tom Lovett, R. B. W. Dixon, G. R. Jak, J. B. Dustin, A. Hollingsworth, James Swan, W. N. Davis and Roy Woodward.

Miss Sophia Rambalski, and her brother, Frank Rambalski, of this city, were dinner guests Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Shannon, of Third and John Adams street, to meet Mrs. George Beavers, of St. Helens. She has come here to be a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Shannon for a few days.

Miss Mary V. Schlegel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Schlegel, of Park place, became the wife of Harry Allen, of Benton City, Wash., Sunday afternoon at 1 o'clock. The marriage was a very quiet affair, and solemnized at Gresham.

The bride was becomingly attired in dark blue silk and her corsage bouquet was of narcissus.

Following the marriage ceremony the bridal party motored to Park place, where a reception and dinner were enjoyed at the home of the bride's parents.

The interior of the Schlegel home, beautifully decorated with apple blossoms and the table decorations were unusually attractive and appropriate.

Attending the dinner and reception were Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Pace, grandparents of the bride; Henry Page, Mr. and Mrs. Gus Johnson and two children, all of Portland; Miss Jewell Field, of Portland; Mr. and Mrs. Mrs. George Poland, of Oakland, Cal.; Mr. and Mrs. Willard Ingermanson, of Portland; Mrs. Sadie Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. George Schlegel, Miss Olive Schlegel, of Parkplace.

Mr. and Mrs. Allen left Sunday evening for Gresham, where they will make their future home, and where Mr. Allen is engaged in farming.

The bride is an estimable young woman, having a host of friends in this city and in Portland, and Mr. Allen, who has resided at Gresham for some time, is well and favorably known there as well as at Benton City, his former home.

Many pretty gifts were presented to the young couple.

Miss Jane Lindsay, an accomplished instructor of the West Linn high school, recently appearing in an entertainment at Oswego, where she made a most favorable impression, as well as at an entertainment in this city under the auspices of the American Legion, is to make her first appearance before a Portland audience Saturday evening.

One of the enjoyable events of the past week was a shower given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Dryden, of Thirteenth and Center streets, in honor of Miss Veta Lynch, whose marriage to Merritt Willson, was an event of the week. This was followed by a dancing party at the Moose hall.

As the bride-elect and Mr. Willson were dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Peckover, of Fourteenth and Center streets, Tuesday evening, the former was summoned to the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Dryden, where she found a large number of friends congregated to present her with many pretty and useful gifts, as the affair planned and carried out was in the form of a miscellaneous shower. This was planned by Mrs. Joseph Lynch, Mrs. C. O. Dryden and Mrs. Phillip Hampton.

White and purple lilies and dog-wood blossoms were used most effectively in decorating the rooms of the Dryden home.

About thirty-five ladies were present.

Later in the evening the bride-elect was blindfolded and hastened away in an automobile by her brother-in-law, Phillip Thearle, the destination being unknown to Miss Lynch. After a trip into the hill section she was brought back and led into the ball room of the Moose hall, where her friends, who had attended the shower at the Dryden home, and others, were arranged in a huge circle, Miss Lynch was placed in the center and then here eyes were allowed to gaze upon the assembly of friends.

The surprise was complete, and after the young lady had recovered from the shock of being kidnapped, and placed in the center of the circle, she was allowed her freedom, and the remainder of the evening was devoted to dancing, music and cards. Miss Veatrice Rauch presided at the piano for dancing. During the evening refreshments were served in the dining room.

Attending the event were: Mrs. Belle Slight, Mrs. Annalou Meyers, of Portland; Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Lynch, Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Hampton Thearle of this city; Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Hughes, of Gladstone; Mr. and Mrs. Winifred Knight, of Portland; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Peckover, of Parkplace; Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Willson, of Willamette; Mr. and Mrs. Fred Peckover, of this city; Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Edwards, of Gladstone; Mr. and Mrs. G. J. Howell, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Aldredge, Mr. and Mrs. William Wells, of this city; Mr. and Mrs. Edward Rauch, of Gladstone; Mrs. Frank Rintoul, Mrs. A. P. Tour, Mrs. C. M. Peterson, Mrs. Charles Schram, Mrs. Alex Schram, Misses Marie and Mattilda Michels, of Bolton; Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Dryden, of this city; Gertrude Willson, of Willamette; Gladys Moomaw, of Hubbard, Martha Locke, Mildred Dryden, Agnes Emsenbeck, of this city; Amy Peckover, of Portland; Uma Johnson, Lulu Lynch, Genevieve Lynch, Dicksy Dryden, of this city; Veatrice and Vivian Rauch, and Lois Hughes, of Gladstone, Mr. Sam Fuest of this city; Mr. Harry Peckover, of Parkplace; Mr. Mitchell, of Portland; Merritt Willson, Otto Smith, Lee Faust, Robert Welch, Myrtle Howell, Beldon Aldredge, of this city; Albert Hughes, of Gladstone; Harry Romig, of Forest Grove, and Robert Willson, of Willamette.

The past week has been celebrated in Portland as "Oregon Composers' Week." Mrs. Frank Schoenborn, who is a member of the Composers' Society, accompanied by her sister, Mrs. Willard G. Benawa, of Gladstone, attended the luncheon at the hotel Benson on Wednesday.

At this luncheon Mrs. Schoenborn's compositions were spoken of very highly by Dr. Emil Enna, president of the society, and others who were present.

The people of Eldorado community care not for rain or wind or even mud for on Thursday, April 21, which was a very stormy day, a number of friends of Mrs. Henry Schoenborn came with gifts and good things to eat, to welcome into their vicinity Margaret Christine, first daughter to arrive at the Schoenborn home.

A very enjoyable time was had, and many beautiful gifts received by the little lady, who arrived in Eldorado on St. Patrick's day.

The Philathea class of the First Baptist church held its monthly business meeting and social last Monday evening. It was decided to hold a class social at the home of Mrs. Arthur Rugg, the evening of May 24th.

This class has been making very substantial progress during the past months in various lines of activity.

The officers are Mrs. Hugh Matheson, president; Miss Lillian Gillette, secretary; Mrs. Roy Smith, treasurer; Mrs. Willis E. Pettibone, teacher.

At the close of the present studies being pursued by the class on "The Landmarks of Christianity," the members will begin a course on "The Patriarchs, Kings and Prophets of Israel."

Mrs. F. P. Nelson entertained in a charming manner for her sister, Mrs. William Money, of Ocean Falls, B. C., Tuesday evening.

The Nelson home was prettily decorated with shining blossoms. The color scheme was yellow and green.

The hostess was assisted in serving a delicious repast by her niece, Miss Marjorie Money.

During the evening cards were enjoyed.

Present were Mrs. W. E. Hempstead, Mrs. J. G. Nash, Mrs. D. C. Legler, Mrs. Harry O. Padlock, Mrs. J. K. Bauersfeld, Mrs. Frank Oswald, Mrs. H. C. Salsbury, Mrs. William Money, Mrs. Frank Nelson, Mrs. Whitcomb, Miss Eva Moulton and Miss Marjorie Money.

Security Benefit Association held an enjoyable social evening at Moose hall Monday evening. After a brief business meeting, music, games and dancing were enjoyed.

An oyster supper was served in the banquet hall to nearly fifty members.

Those making the affair a success were Mrs. Roy Woodward, Mrs. Geo. Woodward and Mrs. W. C. Green.

An interesting report of the Branch Meeting recently held at Newberg was given by Mrs. M. E. Walker.

The members were delighted with piano selection by Miss Doris Mayville. Dainty refreshments were served by the hostess, who was assisted in serving by Mrs. Hickman.

The members of the World Wide Guild of Gladstone met at the home of their secretary, Miss Edna Rowan, Friday evening.

After a brief business meeting a well arranged program was enjoyed. The girls cut quilt blocks from 4 until 6 o'clock after which a "hot luck" supper was served by Mrs. H. H. Hubbert and Mrs. I. W. Rowan. Rev. and Mrs. Hardie Connor were guests of honor. Three new girls were initiated. These were Misses Goldie Hardie, Elva Peoples and Agnes Hays.

Enjoying Miss Rowan's hospitality were: Rev. and Mrs. Hardie Connor, Mrs. H. H. Hubbert, Mrs. I. W. Rowan, Misses Ollie Amen, Dorris Ellis, Edna Lund, Fern Rensch, Dorothy Shawyer, Leona Daus, Norma Morrel, Vivian Entwistle, of Salem; Agnes Hays, Glenna Miranda, Elva Peoples, Goldie Hardie.

One of the most enjoyable social events of the past week, which was held in the parlors of the Methodist church Tuesday evening, was the dinner prepared and served by the Methodist Sunday School class known as the Loyal Workers and Mrs. M. T. Wire, as instructor. The guests of honor were the mothers of the members and several friends. The affair was called "The Mothers' and Daughters' Banquet."

Dinner was served at 6:30 o'clock, and the long table, with its dainty decorations of lavender lilacs, to correspond with the decorations of the dining room, caused much favorable comment among the guests. Each place was marked with a dainty place card adorned with handpainted baskets of flowers, the handwork of Mrs. Wire, together with little May baskets made a most artistic finish of the table decorative scheme.

The menu prepared by the girls, under the supervision of Mrs. Wire, consisted of fruit salad, meat loaf, scalloped potatoes, creamed peas, tomato salad, relishes, bread and butter, ice cream, cake and coffee.

Mrs. Wire presided as toastmaster, and those giving toasts were Mrs. R. W. Kirk, whose toast was "How To Systemize Time"; Mrs. A. F. Jack, "What the Sunday School Has Meant To My Life"; Mrs. Elmer L. Mayville, "When You and I Were Girls"; Miss Doris Mayville, member of the class, represented the organization with a toast.

Following the dinner the remainder of the evening was devoted to a social time, and a program given. Among the members appearing in selections were Miss Elizabeth Moore and Miss Doris Mayville, in piano duet; Miss Kathryn Kirk and Miss Elizabeth Moore, violin and piano duet; quartet, Misses Elizabeth Moore, Miss Doris Mayville, Kathryn Kirk and Lorena Jack. Many of the popular songs were rendered by the entire class.

There are 15 girls, who are among the most active workers of the church.

The Saturday Club of the Congregational church was entertained in a most charming manner at the home of Mrs. John F. Clark, of West Linn, Monday evening, when Miss Muriel Stevens and Mrs. Clark were the hostesses.

Business of the organization occupied the early part of the evening, followed by refreshments and a social time.

The rooms of the Clark home were prettily decorated for the occasion.

The next meeting was arranged for, which will be at the home of Mrs. George Rakel, with Mrs. Rakel and Mrs. Walter Wentworth entertaining.

Attending were Mrs. L. A. Henderson, Mrs. T. A. Keith, Mrs. H. E. Hendry, Mrs. William Gardner, Mrs. George Gardner, Mrs. L. Adams, Mrs. Walter Wentworth, Mrs. George Rakel, Mrs. S. L. Stevens, Mrs. W. A. White, Mrs. C. D. Latogrette, Mrs. Nellie Shaw, Mrs. J. Snover, Mrs. Ellen Ends, Miss Muriel Stevens, Miss Helen Daulton and Mrs. J. F. Clark, Mrs. D. W. Kelly.

A musical event for the week will be a benefit concert at the Moose hall Saturday evening, May 14th, by the entertainments will be given by Mr. and Mrs. Fred Miller, blind musicians of this city, and several vaudeville acts will be furnished by friends of Mr. and Mrs. Miller. The proceeds of the entertainment are to go towards an operation recently performed on Mrs. Miller's eyes, when it was found necessary to remove both in a Portland hospital a few weeks ago.

A large number of tickets are being sold in this city to help out the good and worthy cause.

The program will be followed by dancing and refreshments are to be donated towards the affair that will be held in the banquet hall for the fund.

Mrs. Miller's vocal numbers will be "One Fleeting Hour," "Schuman's Serenade" and "Senora," a Spanish waltz song. Mr. Miller will sing "When All Was Young," from the opera Faust, and which will be sung in French, also "Only In Dreams" by DeKovin. Mr. Miller, who is also a violinist, of rare ability will play "Traumerlei," by Schumann.

Mrs. Miller, who possesses a sweet and expressive voice, was recently heard before an Oregon City audience at the Midway, and received an ovation when making her appearance. Her husband also accompanied her on the violin at that time. They are graduates in music from schools for the blind, Mrs. Miller receiving her musical education at the State Blind School at Salem.

CUT PRICE OF GAS VANCOUVER, Wash., May 9.—The price of gasoline in British Columbia has been cut from 43 to 41 cents an imperial gallon. Just before the war, gasoline was selling at 18 cents.