country where he expects to do hauling. The mill at Molalla closed down and he tried another job but was not pleased with the lay out.

Uncle Morgan, the inspector at Boring, was in town recently. Charley Krebs bought up all the "fancy" crockery at the sheriff's auction sale Monday—so the ladies say, and they didn't have half a chance.

A surprise party was given Henry Widmer of Sandy-ridge by a few of his neighbors Sunday night in honor of his sixty-fourth birthday. Cards were enjoyed and an abundance of fine refreshments served.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Brown are getting nicely settled in the Bonell house and it is hoped they are as well pleased with Sandy as the town is with them.

Thomas and John Dunn are battling over at the Deep Creek "works" where the new crusher is being installed.

Walter Krebs has just finished setting out four hundred loganberry plants and his neighbor Carl Wendland set out four hundred and Ed. Gesch two hundred. Quite an acreage of various kinds of berries are being planted, which will mean an income in two or three years, especially where a number of neighbors plant, as it will insure cheaper marketing if there is co-operative hauling.

T. G. Jonsrud, Kelso's "grand old man" has been plowing his garden and getting it ready for planting the past week. He is eighty-five, but he and his capable wife keep at work and enjoy every day of life which is more than some young folks do.

The Jonsrud-Gundersen mill has been running part of the time the past week and has worked ahead for lumber orders. They are planting up stock this week and are also building a dry shed.

The Boring mail stage started going the Kelso road again last week. The road is not very smooth, but is much nearer.

George Beers has "trolled up" his old flyrod till it looks almost new. Clarence Cassidy is around town again. Cassidy expects to get some maple cut and ready to make rustic furniture later.

Paul Meinig is making a new garage, and is building it as an annex to his feed warehouse. Jack Sneed moved his family up to Welches the past week. Sneed will haul passengers only this season from Portland direct to mountains, it is said taking no freight whatsoever.

Alvin Gray has been helping out his sister Miss Isabel Gray the past week as "central". Walter Krebs said the other day, "did you hear the news? The Long highway is on the way out from Portland and 'rah says everybody."

Jack Greenwood donated a half day's labor to the city and "purloined" the lumber to put in plankings on "Paris Avenue" or "Pie Alley" or whatever the street is between Shaw's blacksmith shop and Meinig's store.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Dixon and Dorothy went to Portland yesterday and took in the circus. Wish the rest of us could have been there!

C. D. Purcell spent a day in the city on legal business last week. F. Lohmann bought seed potatoes from Pizzola and Boltano last week.

SANDY SCHOOL NOTES.

SANDY, May 11.—The Cottrell Parent-Teacher met on another of its splendid programs last Friday night which was largely attended and greatly enjoyed. One of the main features was a "jazz band" of home talent that was repeatedly recalled. A portion of the program was a solo by Mrs. Lindquist accompanied by violin and guitar; recitation, by Mrs. M. L. Criss; a reading by Mrs. Laura Calder; Organ solo by Zaidie Alt; vocal solo, Mildred Duke, with accompaniment by Mr. Lindquist. Recitation, Fred Radford; then the "Ford" quartette was also a "scream." They sang "My Fiver, 'is of Thee," and the "Short Cut to Poverty." Tin pail lunches were auctioned off to the amount of twelve dollars during the business session Mrs. Ben Alt, president of the P. T. was elected as a delegate to the state P. T. which is in session this week at Pendleton. Messrs Radford, Lindquist and Clarence Browning were the program committee for this month's meeting.

It was decided to hold the next Cottrell P. T. meeting at Dodge Park the first Friday in June if there is no conflict with other dates. There will be out of door sports, a basket dinner and a big time generally. Miss Caroline Vaeretti said she recently put some mischievous children two grades ahead in their work with the result they had to work and there was no more trouble about order.

Walter Dodson is learning the bachelor art from Lewis Murray now that the home folks have moved back to Snag Camp.

A number of school children are selling China fire saving stamps and everyone, of course, is buying for who could turn down so worthy a cause?

Josephine and Pearl Dixon were to have sang a duet at church Sunday night but Pearl was not feeling well enough to sing which was disappointing, as their work is appreciated. School parties are always dear to the hearts of the younger generation and especially so when there is a house party in connection with a birthday! Dorothy Mattingly celebrated her fourteenth birthday Saturday night very happily, three friends remaining over the week end. They were Dorothy Esson, Edith Hein and

BREAK ON TARIFF

WASHINGTON, May 11.—The defection of Senator Moses in the tariff fight may mean that he is unhappy over certain schedules or that he is dissatisfied with the whole tariff policy of the administration.

The Misses Eunice and Dorothy Jonsrud were out from Portland to spend the week end with the home folks at Kelso.

Miss Margaret Canning who is teaching the Woodmere school at Portland, gave a delightful entertainment with her school children last Friday night.

Little Arletha Proctor has been housed up the past few days with the "mumpy-mumps," very uncomfortable "germs" to have, though the attack is not a heavy one.

One of the Wolfe children has also been on the sick list during the week. Mrs. Henry Perret and Mrs. Dittler visited the grade school last week.

Attillio Cereghino was on the sick list part of the week, having to leave school on last Friday noon.

All of the high school students are busy making preparations for the closing days of school. The schedule for the high school commencement will be as follows: Saturday, May 28, the class play, "A Rose O' Plymouth," Sunday, May 29, Baccalaureate sermon; Tuesday, May 31, Junior banquet at Piercerville, Kansas.

Commissioner Proctor went to Oregon City the first of the week to look after business in connection with the county court.

George Beers has promised to play a violin number for the community musical program Sunday night, and Mrs. George Perrett will be the accompanist.

The petition for the Casper Junker road is now before the county commissioners and the people of Sandy and Sandy Ridge are looking forward to the opening and improving of this road which will be a feeder for the town of Sandy. The old road has been neglected with the expectation of putting the money all on the new road which is shorter, a better grade and will be put on the line. It is hoped the county court will accept the petition so as to save the community further expense.

ARGENTINE BOYCOTT ON U. S. SHIP ENDS

BUENOS AIRES, May 11.—Representations made by the United States government to the Argentine government as a result of the port workers boycott that has kept the United States shipping board steamer Martha Washington idle here for more than forty days, have resulted in a solution of the case satisfactory to both governments, said a statement issued by the minister of finance last night.

NEW TRAFFIC LAWS WANTED

PORTLAND, May 11.—Recommendations for a double belt line of one-way traffic streets in the congested area, elimination of parking on certain streets, curtailment of parking privileges on other streets, and the elimination of for-hire cars and taxis from busy thoroughfares are contained in a communication filed Wednesday with the city council by the Portland Chamber of Commerce.

Business Conditions Make Improvement

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 11.—Dispatches from industrial America seem to forecast tomorrow's progress toward prosperity. There has been a measurable change for the better in business conditions during the week now ending, advices from the chief centers show, but full return to work waits on the wage earners. Commodity prices, with a few notable exceptions, have been deflated generally, wages are now going through the deflation process. Business everywhere will continue to progress slowly and substantially, is the view of scores of varied industries, during the period of labor's come-down from high wage levels, quickening its step as the wage deflation nears completion.

Chief of the industries waiting on the wage earner are the building trades. Hundreds of thousands of dwellings and other buildings are contemplated when wages come down still further. Attempts to put wage cuts into effect have met with strikes in such centers as Cleveland and Philadelphia where completed construction runs into hundreds of millions of dollars. The men are out, but the firm conviction prevails that they will go back at less wages after a time. Proof of this conviction is found in the extraordinary demand for lumber. New Orleans reporting orders during the week for 72,000,000 feet, or 25 per cent more than at the mills in the district can produce.

COMEDIAN LOSES PANTS

It was said Wednesday at his home. The comedian was said to regard the destruction of a pair of patched pants familiar to millions of film patrons as the worst feature of the accident.

Land Fraud Charge Denied by John Todd

VANCOUVER, Wash., May 11.—General denial of land fraud charges set forth in a secret indictment returned against him, was made Wednesday by John W. Todd, president of the Vancouver Rotary club and a farmer living near the city.

Mr. Todd is charged in the indictment with having used the United States mails with intent to defraud by promising to locate clients upon valuable land in Oregon and Washington, charging a fee of from $300 to $500 for so doing. It was estimated the total might aggregate $80,000, but Mr. Todd said Wednesday it would not be more than $50,000.

Mr. Todd said that C. L. Byron, of Seattle, was at the head of the land locating scheme, signed all contracts and received all money, which provided that if the land was not satisfactory, the money would be returned, but the clients received neither.

Mr. Todd, who formerly was a resident of Salem, says he did not defraud his acquaintances in that city, as reported, his part in the transaction consisting merely of introducing Byron to his friends. It had been reported that Mr. Todd was principal of a Vancouver school, but this is not the case. He has been arrested and placed under $5000 bonds.

Byron has previously been indicted convicted of land locating frauds and sentenced to the federal penitentiary at McNeil's island.

Naming of Officers Is Cause of Wrangle

THE DALLES, May 11.—A tempest rages here in the American Legion post as the result of action taken Monday night, when a large number of members met and elected new officers after the commander of the post had postponed the meeting. Pat Foley, hotel proprietor, was named commander.

In April Commander Corberth announced that a regular meeting would be held the second Monday night in May to elect officers, but this meeting was not called. So Foley and his adherents held a meeting of their own and completed what was virtually a new organization.

Tuesday Commander Corberth announced that the regular election would be held Friday night. Wires to Portland were kept busy Tuesday by members who are endeavoring to get state officials of the legion here for the Friday night session.
