

LOCALS AND PERSONALS

Since a few days of sunshine have made their appearance, lads of this city have become affected with "swimming fever," and last Friday made their way to the banks of the Willamette river, near Busch's dock...

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Spencer, of Canemah, left here last Saturday morning for Seaside, Oregon, where they were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Din Meldrum...

A party composed of Mr. and Mrs. Irving T. Rau and children, Maxine and Eloise, Mr. and Mrs. Frank L. Rau, made an automobile trip to Washougal, Wash., last Sunday and round trip to be one of the most delightful of automobile trips...

Miss Della Armstrong, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Armstrong, of West Linn, who is taking a teacher's course at the Mount Angel college, will complete her studies at the institution June 17th...

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Phillip Napoleon, of Fifth and Monroe streets, are receiving congratulations over the arrival of a son. His name is Phillip Napoleon, Jr., and his weight is 7 1/2 pounds...

Miss Ernestine King, recently graduating from the Washington high school in Portland, has accepted a position with the Portland Railway, Light & Power company...

Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Badley, of Portland, after visiting at Mount Pleasant, have returned to their home. Mr. Badley is a Spanish war veteran...

E. B. Miller, of Needy, who recently underwent an operation for amputation of his leg, has improved so that he was able to be in this city Friday...

Mrs. W. A. Barnum, teaching in the high school at Salem, accompanied by her son, Don, arrived in Oregon City Friday evening to spend the weekend at her home at Mount Pleasant...

Born, Sunday, May 22, to Mr. and Mrs. Roland Forsberg, of 412 Fifth street, a son, weight nine pounds. The little fellow is named Bruce Olding Forsberg...

George Armstrong, of Redland, accompanied by his son-in-law, W. E. Bonney, motored to Oregon City Friday. While here they transacted business...

G. A. Martin returned to his home at Molalla, after spending Thursday and Friday morning in Oregon City. While here he registered at the Electric...

Among the Oregon city visitors on Thursday and Friday were Ben F. Evans, whose home is at North Powder, Oregon...

W. W. Everhart, ex-county assessor, was in Oregon City Friday, where he transacted business.

Captain Lowell Blanchard, elder son of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Blanchard, of this city, is critically ill at Boise, Idaho. Captain Blanchard is a former Oregon City young man...

Oregon City was represented at the May day exercises at the Pacific university Friday, when the May queen was crowned with impressive ceremonies...

Gordon Hanniford representing the Hesperia staff of the Oregon City high school, Miss Ethel Gillett and Miss Goldie Hardy, students at the same institution, went to the Oregon State High School Editors' association...

Jacob Pollanz and son, of Port Angeles, Wash., have been in this city as guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Hanniford, having come here to attend the funeral of Mr. Pollanz's father...

Dr. and Mrs. Hugh S. Mount returned to Oregon City Sunday from a motoring trip to southern Oregon. While in the southern part of the state they visited Medford, Grants Pass, Jacksonville and several other of the large cities...

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Stacer are receiving congratulations over the arrival of a son, born at their home at Fifteenth and Washington streets on Thursday morning, May 19...

Mrs. F. M. Merrick, prominent resident of Medford, accompanied by her son and daughter, W. R. Merrick and Miss Stella Merrick, arrived in Oregon City Sunday morning by automobile...

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Martin and daughters, Charlotte and Elizabeth, of Portland, were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Folger, of 12th and Elm streets...

Mr. Livy Stipp will leave this morning for Spokane, Wash., where she will be the guest of Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Thompson. Mrs. Thompson was formerly Miss Ethel Caulfield of this city...

Judge and Mrs. H. S. Anderson, who have been enjoying a trip through the southern states, are in New York according to recent word received by relatives here...

William Vaughan, resident of Clackamas county, whose home is at Molalla, was in Oregon City on business Monday...

Colonel and Mrs. William Aird, whose home is at Pansy Dell on the Pacific highway near New Era, were in Oregon City on business Monday...

John Graves, of Canby, who has been visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Graves, of Mount Pleasant, has returned to his home...

Miss Miriam Flagler, of Hood River, Oregon, has arrived in Oregon City where she is the guest of Miss Helen Lovett, of West Linn...

Charles Thompson, of Oswego, was in Oregon City on business Thursday...

Miss Ethel Graves, who visited friends in Oregon City the first of the week, returned to Portland Monday...

George Kesselring, of Canby, was among the Oregon City visitors on Thursday...

H. H. Taylor, of Clackamas, was in this city on business Thursday...

Martin Boyles, of Molalla, was in this city Thursday...

DIVORCE CASES FILED Two applications for divorce were filed in the office of the county recorder Tuesday...

COLTON GIRL SUFFERS BROKEN ARM AND SHOULDER The ten-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Swanson, of Colton, is suffering from a broken arm and shoulder caused by being thrown from a horse near the Swanson home Friday...

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Cook and son, Thomas, who have been making their home at Saulte Ste. Marie, Ontario, Canada, arrived in Oregon City Sunday evening and are for the present visiting Mrs. Cook's parents...

Mrs. W. H. Nelson and sons, Merrill and Samuel, of Canby, were in Oregon City Tuesday afternoon, where Mrs. Nelson came on business...

Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Carter, who have been spending the past year at their home at Bar View, have arrived for a few days' stay...

Mrs. Albert Grillee, of Portland, but well known in Oregon City, where her husband, the late Albert Grillee, was in charge of the Y. M. C. A. of this city...

W. H. Curtis, employed as driver of the delivery automobile of the Oregon City Laundry for eight and one-half years, has entered into the transfer business in this city...

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Shelton, of Canby, passed through Oregon City on Monday on their way to Portland where they transacted business...

Former County Superintendent J. E. Calavan, who recently purchased a home on 54th street in Portland, will move his household effects there on Wednesday and take up his residence in that city...

Miss Margaret Pedro, who has been in charge of the talking machine department of the Burnmaster & Anderson company, has resigned her position for the summer and has returned to Weiser, Idaho...

Charles Babcock, who has been suffering from a light attack of the smallpox, is rapidly recovering and the family will probably be out of quarantine the first of next week...

Mrs. Juhnke, formerly of this city, now residing at St. Johns, was in this city Tuesday, where she visited with friends. Among those with whom she visited was Mrs. George V. Ely...

CHAUTAUQUA TICKETS DISTRIBUTED Through the generosity of the Willamette Valley Chautauqua Association tickets are being sent to every school district in the county for free distribution to the school children...

Thursday, July 14th, is Clackamas county school rally day at the Chautauqua. The association is giving more than 8000 tickets gratis. At 11 o'clock the children from all over the county will congregate in a big rally, and enjoy the following program...

FISHERMEN ACQUITTED William Freeman and Charles Straight, who were arrested last Friday, on three charges in violation of fishing laws on the Clackamas river, was on trial Tuesday in the justice court of this place...

COUNCIL MEETS The regular session of the council was held at the city hall Tuesday night and was presided over by Mayor Shannon. A resolution was passed setting the grade of John Adams street between Seventh and Ninth streets...

PAPERS IN TWO CASES FILED County Clerk F. A. Miller recorded two cases in the circuit court Friday. McIntosh Motor Co. vs. E. D. Olds for the repossession of a truck. State of Oregon vs. Harold J. Shell, N. D. James and John Brady, on the charge of larceny.

Society

Roy F. Sprague and Mary A. Jensen, of Logan, were married at the Baptist parsonage, by Rev. Willis E. Pettibone, May 26th. The ceremony was witnessed by Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Trullinger, of this city...

Mrs. William Gardner and daughter, Miss Blanche, were taken by a pleasant surprise Wednesday evening, when some of the members of the Portland Chapter of Eastern Star motored to the Gardner home at Meldrum Station, where they spent the evening...

Mrs. Elizabeth Saunders celebrated her seventy-third birthday anniversary Monday when a number of her friends called to wish her happy returns of the day...

One of the first picnics of the season to be given in the Magone park was last Sunday, when Mrs. J. Mulligan and Mrs. James Brady, of this city, chaperoned a party composed of Miss Ethel Mulligan, Miss Josephine Brady, Miss Margaret Brady, Miss Clara Nobel, of this city, and Miss Terry Young, of Portland...

A pretty luncheon was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Parker at Ninth and Railroad Avenue Wednesday, when Edwin Markham, the Oregon poet, was a guest of honor...

Plans are being made by members of the party to again enjoy camp life at that ideal park, having spent last summer in one of the cottages at that resort...

Refreshments were served by Mrs. R. Soloman, Mrs. J. N. Wallace and Mrs. R. Santell. Those enjoying the evening were Mr. and Mrs. R. Santell, of Oregon City; Rev. and Mrs. Hardie Connor, Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Wallace, Mr. and Mrs. R. Soloman, Misses Ollie Amen, Edna Rowan, Helen Carpenter, Leona Daux, Agnes Hayes, Edna Land, Elva Peoples, Goldie Hardie and Miss Ashley; Messrs Elvin Catto, Maynard Brendel, Clay Brendel, Clem Ashley, Lester Kerns, Lester Grimes, Troy Soloman, George, Fred and Albert Young...

Mr. and Mrs. George Mielke entertained with a musical at their home Wednesday evening. Refreshments were served during the evening...

Attending were Mr. and Mrs. Krusckie of Meldrum; Mr. and Mrs. Bert Barnes daughter and son, Verna and Terry, of Willamette; Mrs. Liarious and son, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Mielke...

Mrs. A. F. Parker entertained informally Tuesday afternoon in honor of her sister, Mrs. Whitcomb, of Minneapolis, Minn. Mrs. William Monev, of Powell River, B. C., and Mrs. C. Frost, who is leaving for her new home at Cornelius, Oregon...

The afternoon was spent in a social manner. The hostess served refreshments to Mesdames B. F. Clay, Hardie Connor, Frank Miranda, F. P. Nelson, L. A. Read, T. E. Gault, Frank Oswald, C. A. Read, Mary Whitcomb and William Money...

Mr. and Mrs. John Hornaday entertained in honor of their granddaughter, Miss Joy Johnson on East Arlington street, Gladstone. This was in honor of her birthday anniversary...

Miss Johnson is the daughter of Ex-Chief of Police and Mrs. N. F. Johnson, of Portland and a senior at the Washington High school...

A birthday lunch was served beneath the beautiful maple trees on the banks of the Clackamas river. Those enjoying the afternoon were Mr. and Mrs. John Hornaday, Mrs. N. F. Johnson, Mrs. W. S. Schappell, Miss Adelaide Bartell, Misses Helen Schappell, Elizabeth Simmons, Joy Johnson, of Portland and Mrs. Mary Fairfield, of Gladstone...

One of the most enjoyable social events at Gladstone was the surprise party given in honor of Maynard Brendle at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Brendle, of East Gladstone, Saturday, May 21...

The evening was spent in music and games. Refreshments were served by the hostess...

The Woman's Auxiliary of American Legion will hold a special business meeting Monday evening to complete plans for the Memorial day dinner to be served at Moose hall to ex-soldiers of the world war...

Other important business is to be transacted at this meeting before the social is to be given by the American Legion...

The birthday anniversaries of Clifton Talley of this city, and Miss Lelia Davis, of Portland, were celebrated at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Horace Minor Saturday evening, May 14, in a most enjoyable manner...

Attending were Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Smith, Mrs. J. S. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Horace Minor, Miss Mildred Dryden, of this city; Miss Lelia Davis and Miss Grace Davies of Portland; Miss Elsie Bierstecker, Miss Clara Smith, Lissetta and Maxine Minor, Otto Smith, Michael Long, John Adamsky, George Christy...

with forget-me-nots and sprays of spirea. Covers were laid for Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Frost, Rev. B. F. Clay, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Wheeler, Mrs. L. H. Strickland, Noel Frost and Chas. Peters...

A farewell reception for Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Frost was held at the Christian church Tuesday evening. The Junior orchestra opened the program with a violin trio, the accompanist being Mrs. Frank Miranda at the piano...

Rev. B. F. Clay spoke in appreciation of the work accomplished by Mr. and Mrs. Frost in various church movements since the organization of the church in 1908...

Miss Beatrice Rauch gave a vocal solo in a pleasing manner. Brenton Vedder addressed the assembly and told several clever anecdotes. He also told of the untiring efforts of Mr. Frost while a member of the Gladstone city council and for his aid in the betterment of the city...

Garland Hollowell gave a pleasing vocal selection and responded to a hearty encore with "A Perfect Day". Mrs. T. E. Gault told of the work of Mrs. Frost as a member of the Ladies' Aid and Woman's Missionary Societies. Eugene Vedder rendered a vocal solo, that was highly appreciated...

F. A. Burdon, toastmaster of the evening, spoke of assistance Mr. Frost had given while member of the church board. He has been a member since the first election in 1908...

In behalf of the church, Mr. and Mrs. Frost were presented with two beautiful pictures, one of the Willamette falls, and the other of the Clackamas river. The originals were the art work of Mrs. H. S. Rankin...

Mrs. Frost responded with a few well chosen remarks. After the presentation, refreshments were served to 80 guests...

One of the most enjoyable birthday surprise parties was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Soloman at Gladstone, in honor of their son Troy, Saturday evening in Gladstone...

A party of young people met at the home of Maynard Brendle at 8 o'clock and went in a body to the Soloman home where the evening was spent in music and games. A "mock" marriage was "staged" by the young people proving a "merry maker"...

Rev. Hardie Connor, gave an interesting talk upon the organization of young people's societies. Refreshments were served by Mrs. R. Soloman, Mrs. J. N. Wallace and Mrs. R. Santell...

Those enjoying the evening were Mr. and Mrs. R. Santell, of Oregon City; Rev. and Mrs. Hardie Connor, Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Wallace, Mr. and Mrs. R. Soloman, Misses Ollie Amen, Edna Rowan, Helen Carpenter, Leona Daux, Agnes Hayes, Edna Land, Elva Peoples, Goldie Hardie and Miss Ashley; Messrs Elvin Catto, Maynard Brendel, Clay Brendel, Clem Ashley, Lester Kerns, Lester Grimes, Troy Soloman, George, Fred and Albert Young...

Mr. and Mrs. George Mielke entertained with a musical at their home Wednesday evening. Refreshments were served during the evening...

Attending were Mr. and Mrs. Krusckie of Meldrum; Mr. and Mrs. Bert Barnes daughter and son, Verna and Terry, of Willamette; Mrs. Liarious and son, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Mielke...

Mrs. A. F. Parker entertained informally Tuesday afternoon in honor of her sister, Mrs. Whitcomb, of Minneapolis, Minn. Mrs. William Monev, of Powell River, B. C., and Mrs. C. Frost, who is leaving for her new home at Cornelius, Oregon...

The afternoon was spent in a social manner. The hostess served refreshments to Mesdames B. F. Clay, Hardie Connor, Frank Miranda, F. P. Nelson, L. A. Read, T. E. Gault, Frank Oswald, C. A. Read, Mary Whitcomb and William Money...

Mr. and Mrs. John Hornaday entertained in honor of their granddaughter, Miss Joy Johnson on East Arlington street, Gladstone. This was in honor of her birthday anniversary...

Miss Johnson is the daughter of Ex-Chief of Police and Mrs. N. F. Johnson, of Portland and a senior at the Washington High school...

A birthday lunch was served beneath the beautiful maple trees on the banks of the Clackamas river. Those enjoying the afternoon were Mr. and Mrs. John Hornaday, Mrs. N. F. Johnson, Mrs. W. S. Schappell, Miss Adelaide Bartell, Misses Helen Schappell, Elizabeth Simmons, Joy Johnson, of Portland and Mrs. Mary Fairfield, of Gladstone...

One of the most enjoyable social events at Gladstone was the surprise party given in honor of Maynard Brendle at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Brendle, of East Gladstone, Saturday, May 21...

The evening was spent in music and games. Refreshments were served by the hostess...

The Woman's Auxiliary of American Legion will hold a special business meeting Monday evening to complete plans for the Memorial day dinner to be served at Moose hall to ex-soldiers of the world war...

Other important business is to be transacted at this meeting before the social is to be given by the American Legion...

The birthday anniversaries of Clifton Talley of this city, and Miss Lelia Davis, of Portland, were celebrated at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Horace Minor Saturday evening, May 14, in a most enjoyable manner...

Clifton Talley, Lloyd Minor, Clifford and Raymond Smith, of this city. Refreshments were served by Frank Hammerly and Stan Cissman...

The floor committee was composed of John Ream, chairman; Merritt Willson, Kennedy McClarty, Fire Chief Mitchell, Edward Friedrichs, Carl Buse...

Others assisting in giving the affair were Carl Koelmeier, George Zadigar, Henry Endres and Joseph Munca. A similar ball is being planned for the near future, since that of last Saturday evening proved such a success...

The order of Eastern Star will meet at the Masonic temple Tuesday evening, and after business has been transacted dancing will be enjoyed in the hall...

The music for the dancing will be furnished by an Edison machine with a new Magnavox horn attached, this loaned by Burnmaster & Anderson, and recently arriving here...

Mrs. La Doux entertained Thursday evening in honor of Cecil Green, who will leave Saturday for Brainerd, Minn., his father Roy E. Green, arriving here the first of the week and will accompany him. He will spend the summer vacation with his grandparents...

The affair was in the form of a farewell party, and covers were laid for Mr. and Mrs. Hamlin, Mrs. Beach, Mrs. La Doux, Elvin and Everette Calton, Cecil and Kenneth Green...

One of the most enjoyable Community club meetings was held at the school house at Jennings Lodges Wednesday evening. The auditorium was filled to capacity and a well arranged program was given under the direction of Messrs. James Hendry, Hole and Robbins, and Messrs. Caldwell and Newcomb...

Mrs. J. F. Wilson gave a dramatic reading; Audrey Tillman, a piano solo; solo by Harry Slader; Slumber song by Little Betty Bretscher, Eva and Donald Moritz; solo, Mr. Hole; piano duet by Janet Booth and Elaine Bechtel; vocal solo by Mr. Allen...

Consolidation of Eugene Hospitals EUGENE, May 23.—Arrangements have been completed for the consolidation of the Eugene and Willamette hospitals, and the staffs of the two institutions, according to announcement. Drs. W. Kuykendall, N. E. Winnard and Merle G. Howard, the present staff of the Eugene hospital, will join forces with Drs. P. J. Bartle, W. B. Neal and C. D. Donahue of the Willamette hospital offices. The new hospital will be located on the site of the Eugene hospital, which is remodelled and enlarged...

CASES FILED IN CIRCUIT COURT Divorce cases filed in the county clerk's office for the circuit court Thursday were: Phil L. Fahnlander vs. Helen S. Fahnlander, married at Corvallis, Oregon, December 2, 1918, charge, desertion. Effie E. Gaynor vs. Raymond W. Gaynor, married at Vancouver, Wash., September 12, 1920; charge, cruelty. Fern E. Looney vs. Thomas Y. Looney, married at Portland, June 13, 1913; charge, incompatibility. W. J. Pinnacane vs. Nell Pinnacane, married at Cathlamet, Wash., October 22, 1919; charges cruel and inhuman treatment, ira Anglis, vs. Selma Anglin, married at Minneapolis, Minn., June 19, 1917; charge, cruelty. Edward Charles Hahnel vs. Lillie Editha Hahnel, married at Stoneham, Manitoba, Can., December 21, 1898; charges desertion. Gus Eldin filed a civil suit to recover $2000 on a promissory note; defendants named are M. L. Higgins, and wife and N. M. Apple. The state filed a transcript of the State vs. Helmer Bloom case...

C-W. MANAGER TRANSFERRED F. F. Middlebrook, who has been for the past year office manager for the Crown Willamette Paper company at West Linn, has been transferred to Camas, Wash., where he will hold a similar position. During his stay with the company at West Linn, Mr. Middlebrook has made many friends, and on Saturday evening the employees of the office tendered him a farewell party at West Linn. J. Julien, of Floriston, Calif., who has held a position with the company for a number of years, has arrived here to take the place of office manager at West Linn. Mr. and Mrs. Middlebrook will leave for Camas Monday...

REAL ESTATE BUSINESS GOOD The following deals were recently closed through the office of S. O. Dillman: Mrs. Arthur McFarland to Erich Fisher; Mrs. Mattie M. Kelly to W. P. Weil, home at Fern Ridge; W. P. Weil, 28 acres near Woodburn, Oregon; William Brown to Bert Morgan, home in Oregon City; Mrs. Beth B. Paddock to J. G. Davidson...

AID TO VETERANS PLAN PORTLAND, May 21.—Some definite action to make more land available for settlement by veterans of the recent war will be recommended for the decision of the executive committee of the American Legion for the department of Oregon, as the result of a meeting of the legion land committee at state legion headquarters Thursday...

Various phases of the problem of putting the ex-soldier on the land was discussed at the gathering. Gordon Grimm, commander of Alsea post of the legion, told of the plight of a large number of ex-soldiers who had settled on public land in that district. He said many of them were without funds and were unable to make their final payments on the land and so were in a fair way to lose their rights to the holdings. The various problems will be referred to the next meeting of the legion executive committee Friday of next week. The members of the land committee at the meeting were Ben S. Morrow of Portland, chairman; Thomas A. Sweeney, Portland; Fred E. Kiddle of La Grande, Roy N. Fouch of Klamath Falls, and J. M. Williams of Eugene...