Civil War Veteran

SANDY, June 7.-After eight months of great suffering the spirit of Bernhard George Krebs, (aged 79 years) took it's fight to another sphere last Friday, June 3. The funeral was held on Sunday. There was a short, private service at the family home after which a public service was held at the Lutheran church, Rev. Dobberful officiating . At the Sandy cemetery the remarks were in English and a large number of friends and relatives assembled to pay their last respects to "Grandpa" Krebs.

Born in Kohln, Germany Dec. 26, 1842. coming to America at the age of twenty-one he enlisted in the civil war and served two years with the 11th Michigan cavalry, and in 1866 was married to Miss Mary Schafer. Eleven children were born of this union, ten of whom are still living as follows: Mrs. Mary Crouch, of Benton, Arkansas, Charles Krebs, George, Walter, Herman, and Mrs. Caroline Herman of Sandy vicinity. Emil of Tilla mook, Otto of Sherwood, Bernhard, Jr. of Canada and Mrs Emma Conzel also of Sherwood. Mr. and Mrs. Krebs lived in eight different states and moved forty-eight times. Besides the widow Mrs. Mary Krebs, thirty-seven grandchildren and one great grandchild survive. Many friends extend sympathy to Mrs. Krebs who has been so brave and faithful during her husband's long siege of illness.

Reception Is Given To Departing Friends

SANDY, June 7 .- At the close of the regular meeting of the Eastern Star a reception was held in honor of Mrs. S. J. Allen. Mr. and Mrs. B. E. Sykes and Miss Bess Barton and a most enjoyable evening was spent. The This program is under the direction most enjoyable evening was spent. The of Mrs. Duke and Mrs. George Perret. program consisted of a solo by Rev. of Mrs. Duke and Mrs. George Perret. Earl Cotton and a spring song dance by little Doris Allen who gave the highland fling for an encore It is to go after this . The entertainment said the lunch was "A No. 1," but that was expected when it was known that the popular worthy, Mrs. Delia Eddy and Miss Lulu Eddy were in charge of the arrangements. Those present felt happy to be there to enjoy both the program and the dainty supper. The chapter is sorry to lose Miss Barton and Mrs. Allen who have so faithtully given their services during the year and wish them and Mr. and Mrs. Sykes a happy future in their new starting out in life, not from a money, but from a character standpoint. He Passes at Old Age urged members of the community to back up the schools in progressive education. Because in the earlier days when our school facilities were not the best many men through struggling along made good was no reason why we should hang onto the old way. New methods and new equipment are necessary now if we keep abreast of the times.

Sometimes Dr. Taylor was droll, cometimes serious, but for an hour he interested both old and young.

Fred Junker, Josephine Dixon, Mary Scharnke, Eugenia Proctor and Hazel Beers received high school diplomas, and Bertha Yabs, Dorothy Esson, Dorothy aMttingly, Edith Hein and Carl Kubitza received eighth grade diplomas, Mayor Junker and A. L. Mattingly presenting the same.

Miss Bess Barton played the processional while those taking part in the program marched to the platform | which was beautifully decorated with elk-horn moss and pink roses. Rev. Earl Cotton delivered the invocation after which Miss Mary Junker, lyric oprano, sang a selection, accompaned by her sister, Mrs. Frank Schmitz. Miss Mixter introduced the speaker. After the address the Misses Josephine and Pearl Dixon sang a duet. George Beers closed the program with a violin solo
