Dinner Is Given to Departing Friends

JENNINGS LODGE, June 15.—Ira Hart and daughter Miss Ellen entertained with a dinner Sunday honoring Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Allenstein, who leave by auto for their home in Iowa Monday. The ten guests had a very pleasant time as they had all lived neighbors in the Hawkeye state and were the Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Allenstein and three children the Misses Lillian and Eva Allenstein and Leslie M. and Mrs. Henry Smith and Deed Smith. The family will journey over the Southern route, going leisurely through California and stopping at many interesting places along the way. After spending a year in the Pacific Northwest, the majority of which was in Washington, the family will upon their return, take up farming in the home where Mr. Allenstein owns several hundred acres of choice land.

School Board Meets At Jennings Lodge

JENNINGS LODGE, June 15.—A regular meeting of the school board was held Monday evening of last week. The teachers signed up for the next year's work. At the close of the business session, ice cream, cake and strawberries were served by Mesdames Caldwell, Rusek, Card and Thompson and their families and Mesdames Altman, Moore, MacDonald enjoyed this social part very much.

According to an opinion of Attorney General Van Winkle a question of legality of the coming school election which especially applies to the budget and before the tax levies can be made, new forms are necessitated by reason of amendments to the budget law enacted by the last legislature, which repealed many of the provisions of the old law and introduced several other requirements which school boards must meet before levying any school tax.

On Monday evening, June 13 there was a meeting of the Board of School Directors to finish up the year's affairs of the district. Messrs. Holaway, Tillman and Rogers audited the clerk's books. The annual meeting will be held on June 20 at the school house for the election of directors and clerk.

Oswego News Mrs. Cora Bulcock

Oswego Lake Float Boosting for Fair

Oswego, June 14.—Oswego Lake is over looking no opportunity to boost its advantages as a site for the 1925 fair and was represented in the floral parade by an "Oswego 1925" float.

The float typified the lake and the woodland surrounding it and was manned by a sextet of lusty school boys who with their "yeell" boosted for their home town.

C. A. Mabel and bride of Cloverdale will make their home in Oswego. They will occupy the Charles Meagler cottage on A Avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Monk and Mrs. B. R. Raley have gone to Rockaway to visit Willie Monk and wife for a week or two.

Mrs. Jessie Dahlstrom and mother, Mrs. Carlson, left Sunday for Corvallis, to attend the commencement exercises. Miss Jennie Carlson was one of the graduates to finish O. A. C last Monday.

C. C. Hayden and family have moved up from Briarwood, and will occupy one of the Westergard houses on E street.

Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Waling of Rockaway beach motored to Oswego recently with William Monk where they visited P. H. Jarisch.

The Oswegoans turned out in force election day to do their "bit" in putting the bonus bill "over the top" and are much elated over the success of the measure. Oswego was represented by nearly 100 men in the world war and felt that the bonus was a small mark of appreciation for the sacrifices the Oswego lads made along with millions of other heroes.

The William Busch family have returned from California and are living for the present, in Henry Koedler's house on Eighth street.

Little Ava Bickner is confined to her home with chickenpox, but is getting along nicely.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Horn of Los Angeles, have moved into the cottage of Mrs. Eugene Worthinton in South Oswego.

On Tuesday afternoon Mrs. L. C. Newlands home was a scene of a happy gathering when the Camp Fire Girls entertained in honor of all the little folks who helped make their play "The Princess of Poppoland," a success. Games dancing and refreshments were served, after which movements were given.

Mrs. John Erickson was a Portland guest at Carlston's last week.

The Neighborhood house of Portland has established a camp, for girls for the summer at the Hallinor house, at the west end of the bridge in South Oswego over looking the lake, Miss Rubins, who will be in charge of the camp, expects to have groups of girls come out for a few days each week and it is the hope of those interested to make the venture such a success that a permanent camp can be established each summer for the benefit of the girls.

W. S. Westling, general Western manager of Pathe, and son, William, left this week for a six weeks trip to Los Angeles.

Miss Margaret Huey, who makes her home with Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Smith left Sunday morning for Happy Camp, Cal., where she will spend her vacation with her parents returning in about two weeks.

Last Friday evening was one that will be remembered by the boys and girls of Mrs. Mary Bickner's seventh and eighth grades. Miss Bickner and Mrs. Duncan gave an outdoor party for the young people at the Duncan home in the grove. All kinds of prize games and races were played, and delicious refreshments were served. Everyone had a most delightful time and went home praising their hostesses.

Miss Vivian Emmons of Albany spent the week end with her aunt, Miss Frea Gilmore.

Milwaukie To Have Clean Up Day Soon

MILWAUKIE, June 14.—The home of Mr. and Mrs. Emory on 32nd street was partially destroyed by fire last Monday. Had it not been for the prompt action of the local fire department, the damage would have been much greater. The loss is estimated at $400 covered by insurance.

Milwaukie closed up shop Thursday afternoon to take in the Rose Festival parade.

The Thompson Bull's Shingle Mill is still unable to operate owing to the high water.

That there is a strong demand for homes in this locality by people from other localities is evidenced by the number of inquiries received by our local realty dealers. Zelaco and Parvy report the closing of two sales since June 1.

The Misses Haxtons are visitors at the home of Dr. Smith.

The Milwaukie Commercial Club held their regular meeting last Wednesday evening. There was a motion made and carried to have a clean up day. The day was fixed for June 26th. It is hoped that everyone will get behind this move and see what can be done to make this little city a cleaner and more attractive place to live. The club also took up the telephone re-hearing case. An attorney has been retained by the members of the club and when the rehearing comes off, he will show the public service commissioners where Milwaukie is paying an exorbitant rate for the privilege of making Portland calls.

Mrs. George Gell and Mrs. Arthur Orton were guests at the Milwaukie hotel Saturday. Their home is at Tidal Vail.

Rock Island Park opened their summer resort by giving a dance Saturday evening. They are going to give dances Sunday afternoon and evenings, Wednesday evening and also every Saturday evening. They are making a ferry between Milwaukie and the island.

Milwaukie is to have another industry, which will help to make us known as a manufacturing community. There is a structure being erected on the lake property on Monroe street opposite the fine home, when completed to be used as a brass foundry.

A very pretty home wedding occurred on Tuesday evening, June 14 at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Thiessen near Milwaukie, when their daughter Minerva Derry Thiessen was married to Captain Edmond Herre, Reverend W. L. McCollough officiated. "Oh, Promissae Me" was rendered by Mrs. H. A. Thiessen. Miss Inez Outfield played Mendelssohn's Wedding March.

Mrs. Herre is a successful high school teacher in the state. She is a graduate of Monmouth Normal school and of Reed college. She also attended Cornell University and the University of Pennsylvania. Captain Herre is a Master Mariner. He holds an unlimited ocean license for both steam and sailing vessels. He superintended the building of the motorship "Libby Maine." This vessel, which he commanded for three years, was built during the war and is owned by the Libby, McNeal company.

Three Make Threats; Put Under Big Bond

Thomas Van Zant, C. H. Van Zant and E. L. Van Zant, of Holcomb, were today placed under $1000 bond each by Justice Noble, as the result of an altercation near Holcomb which has been in progress for the past few days. The three brothers, it appears, have purchased a piece of land which R. L. Johnson has under cultivation. Johnson has been renting the land, and refused to give up possession until he could harvest his crops.

In the dispute following the purchase, gunplay was resorted to, but without injury. The three men threatened the life of Johnson, with the result that they were taken to court and put under bonds not to disturb the peace. The ownership of the land has not been settled.

Oswego News Mrs. Cora Bulcock

The school had a holiday Thursday to allow pupils and teachers to see the parade in Portland.

Miss Thelma Buley of Eugene is visiting her brother, A. D. Buley and family.

Geo. Michels left for Buffalo N. Y. after several months here with the family of F. N. Little.

Campers are arriving daily at Oak Grove beach and this promises to be the "big" camping season.

The funeral for the late J. C. Morgan who passed away suddenly last week was held Thursday at the parlors of the East Side undertakers.

Mrs. F. N. Little attended the district convention of Women of the Woodcraft last week at Hood River.

Mrs. W. M. Davenport is, in very poor health at her home on Center street. A nurse is in attendance.

Mr. and Mrs. David Logreun are visiting relatives in Chicago where they will spend several weeks and then go to Iowa for a month before returning home.

C. F. Anderson has returned to his home in Willamina after a visit with J. R. Fagerstrom.

Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Speck and daughters have gone to Wisconsin for a month's visit with relatives.

Mrs. R. Mayfield accompanied by her three children have gone to New Hampshire to visit her parents and friends of her girlhood days.

The different grades are each preparing an entertainment for the last week of school. The three primary grades will present a pretty flower and bird cantata. The fourth grade the story of Persephone. The domestic science class will have an exhibit of their work before school closes as will the sewing class.

A class of six boys and six girls will graduate this year from the eighth grade having commencement exercises on June 17.

Several girls chaperoned by Miss Garden enjoyed a picnic at Sellwood park on Memorial day.

The fifth and sixth grades in Miss Gardens room are preparing a cantata called the "Gypsy Festival" and will present same on Friday afternoon June 17.

The manual training exhibits are about ready and show nice work done by the boys.

The Parent-Teachers are planning for a basket dinner for the closing week of school and for picnics and lawn fetes during the vacation.

Mrs. A. R. Hartman of Brighton is visiting her parents Mr. and Mrs. H. Strome.

Mrs. Rilla Rethsten of Nebraska is visiting at home of O. T. Skoog.

Griffith Funeral Is Held in Portland

Funeral services of the late William W. Griffith, of this city, a prominent mining man of the northwest, were held from the Skeweg funeral chapel, Portland, Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock, with Dr. Seaman officiating, assisted by the Masonic order, of which Mr. Griffith has been a member for many years.

The remains were interred in the family lot in River View cemetery, and laid to rest beside his wife, Mary Malissa Griffith, who died in 1913.

The pallbearers were E. P. Bands, H. S. Clyde, Julia Goldsmith, D. M. Drake, Alvin Wiley and Wilford A. White.

William Griffith, who was a native of Ponte Prede, Wales, was born May 20, 1844, and came to the United States with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Griffith when he was four years of age. The family settled in Wisconsin, where they remained until the Civil war broke out, when William, the son, enlisted April 15, 1861 in Company D, 19th U. S. Infantry volunteers. He was mustered out of the army on April 1, 1865, at Newport, Mass., but never returned to the family home. While in the army he served with General Grant and with Sherman in the engagements in which Sherman took part. Among these were Vicksburg, Pittsburg Landing and Battle of the Wilderness. At the close of the war Mr. Griffith settled in LaSalle county, Ill., in 1865, where he engaged in coal mining, and served for 13 years on the police force at that place.

On April 15, 1870, he married Mary Malissa Bunker at Streator, Ill., and to this union there were born six children, three girls and three boys, four of whom survive and are William E. Griffith, of Halley, Idaho; Rowland and George Griffith of Oregon City; Mrs. Gertrude Inskip, of Powell's Butte, Oregon.

In 1886 Mr. Griffith moved to Montana, and in the fall moved to Roslyn, Wash. At this place he was superintendent of mines, and first inspector of mines of Washington.

In 1887 he accepted the position of superintendent of the mines near Kelo, Wash., serving in that capacity for two years, when he moved his family to Cottage Grove in 1890, where he became interested in the Bohemian mines and operated the mines with his sons, and in 1901 moved to Oregon City, where he purchased a home. He was interested in mines at Halley, Idaho from 1906 until the time of his death. He organized the Fields Mutual Mining company, and was superintendent and at the time of his death was assistant superintendent.

Mr. Griffith joined the Masonic order, Streator lodge, No. 74, of Streator, Ill., and was a charter member of Roslyn Masonic order, of Roslyn, Wash.; charter member of St. Thomas lodge, of Kelo, Wash.; and affiliated with Multnomah lodge No. 1, Oregon City, of which his three sons are members.

Mr. Griffith is the last member of his family, his last brother having been buried at Carus, Clackamas county, Oregon, a number of years ago.

Newsy Items From Oak Grove Section

For once this column agrees with the administration.
Tender our congratulations.
In fact we are willing to do most anything.
To endorse their plan.
Except by voting for them.
When they come up again.
For election.
Our rejoicing is based over the welcome news that we "Deserving Democrats" who hold the federal offices are to be left on the job.
Until our terms of office expire.
We opine the real reason for this action.
Comes for the purpose of setting a worthy example.
So that when the Democrats are returned to pomp and power in November, 1924, we will be willing to reciprocate.
Maybe the real reason is because the Republican party has been so long away from the public trough.
That it's necessary to give Clyde Huntley and a few others a little more training to fit the chairs.
Heretofore warmed by Democrats, and they pass out an excuse instead of a reason.
It's all right with his column. For we shall be so busy with this column for the next four years that about all the extra work we can do will be to O. K. Plans for the new city hall.

Nose Dives and Tail Spins By W. W. Woodbeck.

MANHASSET, N. Y., June 15.—Georges Carpenter is becoming a glutton for rest. Manager Descamps Wednesday ordered for him another 24 hours' leisure and the "secret training" at the Manhasset farm, was largely carried on in the cool little front parlor. Descamps professes to be perfectly satisfied with his charge's condition and Georges himself is in noticeably higher spirits than for some time.

RATE DECISION FINAL

WASHINGTON, June 14.—The federal trade commission, through Hudson Thompson, chairman, declined today to withdraw and reconsider its recent report to congress on the northwest lumber industry.

The refusal came at the close of a conference with Robert B. Allen, manager of the West Coast Lumbermen's association.

BABE RUTH GOING GOOD

NEW YORK, June 15.—Babe Ruth's two home runs Tuesday placed him 16 days ahead of his record of last year. They also established the record of seven home runs in five days. He hit two on Monday. Ruth is succeeding at the rate of 65 1/2 home runs a season. But like all other American league players, he has not been able to make more than two circuit swats a game while in the National league the record is four, made by R. L. Lowe, Boston, in 1894, and equaled by E. Delahanty, Philadelphia, in 1896.

STRAWBERRY CRATES NEEDED

There is a general shortage of strawberry boxes and crates in Oregon City and elsewhere, which is partly due to the high water in Portland causing a number of box factories to close. In order to supply the demand dealers in Portland have been forced to have boxes and crates shipped from Washington.

Some of the berries went up to $1.50 and $1.75 per box and one of the merchants dealing in berries said Tuesday afternoon that if there were plenty of boxes and crates to supply the big demand, as states of the middle west are demanding berries from the coast states.

RYAN ADMINISTERS K. O.

BAKER, Or., June 15.—After having it all his way for most of the round, Billy Ryan, Portland lightweight, knocked out ergle Hutsell, Boise, Idaho, just before the bell at the end of the first round here. The bout was scheduled for 10 rounds. Both weighed in at 115 pounds.
