

LOCALS AND PERSONALS

Mrs. Sarah Dallas, formerly of Damascus and well-known experienced nurse who came to the aid of the people of Oregon City during the influenza epidemic, and who has recently made her home in Portland was in Oregon City Friday. Mr. and Mrs. Dallas have purchased a beautiful home on 82nd street, the land consisting of four acres, where Mrs. Dallas will open a sanitarium, which will be used as a maternity home, special care being devoted to elderly people and invalids or to give the rest cure for those desiring the same. The new home of the Dallas family is of eight rooms, sleeping porch and modern throughout, with trees of various kinds casting their shadows in the various nooks of the place, making it an ideal location for an institution of this kind. There are all kinds of flowering plants which add to the attractiveness of the place. An excellent view of Mt. Hood can also be secured.

Mrs. Edith Wambaugh, mail carrier on Oregon City route 2 has purchased a home in this city and moved her family here. Mrs. Wambaugh, who has also been assisting as an operator for the telephone company at Redland during her spare time, has resigned from that position. She was a most capable operator and an efficient in delivering her daily mail over a 30-mile trip each day, which she will continue. It was during the war times that Mrs. Wambaugh came to the rescue to help out Uncle Sam, and so efficient has been that the government has retained her.

Attorney and Mrs. Dean Butler and son, Orville, of Oak Grove, accompanied by the former's brother, Dr. Frank Butler and wife, of Portland, will leave about July 1 for a motoring trip to Yellowstone park. They are to make the trip in two automobiles and will go prepared to camp and to visit many of the scenic points while making the trip. They will go by way of Central Oregon and will return by way of Spokane, Wash., visiting relatives while on the trip. Attorney Butler says he will forget all about his duties in his law office during his absence as this will be in charge of E. J. Noble.

John Tucker, residing near Crescent was in Oregon City on business Saturday. Mr. Tucker, who owns a 90-acre place, says the hay of this year is of exceptionally fine quality and is selling at $12 per ton in the field. He has several varieties including the mixed clover and mesquite, as well as the wheat and vetch, which is as fine a quality as has been grown in the county. Mr. Tucker is also turning his attention to strawberries, having two varieties, these being the Oregon and Everbearing. The latter will ripen at a later date and he will be able to market these as late as fall.

A number of Clackamas county ranchers have returned from Astoria where they attended the Guernsey Gaities. They visited farms in Clatsop county and Pacific county, Washington, on the north shore of the Columbia. At Astoria they were the guests of the Chamber of Commerce at a banquet and were tendered a salmon bake at seaside. The party was composed of Mrs. A. Hedgcock, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Cooter, John T. Waley, and Mrs. Mr. Octave Veget and Mrs. H. L. Carrol.

Oak Grove is planning a three-day celebration, July 2-4. Arrangements have been made to provide a large crowd with dancing, music, swimming and various outdoor sports. A symphony orchestra has been engaged. A swimming instructor from Portland has been secured there for the season. An airplane has been chartered to make passenger flights.

A party composed of Miss Maude Park, Miss Shirley Park, Miss Frances Blake, Marvin and Roland Eby, of this city and Mr. and Mrs. Kiley of Kansas, recently arriving here from Kansas, spent Sunday on the banks of the Molalla river, where they met with success in fishing and thoroughly enjoyed the day. Before returning to Oregon City they visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Mort Cocroft, formerly residents of this city, and with her children also joined the party on the Molalla.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Lavier and daughter, Miss Bernice, of this city, and Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Wenger of Parkplace, were among those enjoying an outing on Saturday and Sunday at Willott Springs. They made the trip in their automobile and were among those enjoying the dance at the resort Saturday evening.

Among those enjoying an outing on Sunday at Oswego lake were Mr. and Mrs. Henry Vonderdale, formerly of this city, now of Carus; Mr. and Mrs. Pearson and children, of Beaver Creek, and Miss Reardon, of Carus. This was their first visit to that resort and they thoroughly enjoyed the outing.

Mrs. Ora Caples Dimick, formerly of this city now of Forest Grove, accompanied by her son, Norman, who have been enjoying two weeks' visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Johnkenke of Canby, passed through Oregon City the latter part of the week. They were on their way home.

Mrs. William Blair and five children of Edgemont, N. D., are the guests of her brother T. M. Lockett of West Linn. Mr. Blair is detained in the east closing up his business there for the family hopes to settle in Oregon permanently.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Rall, residing near Woodburn, and ormerly of this city, were Oregon City visitors Monday.

Ira Dickey, one of the most prominent residents of Clackamas county, was in the city on business Tuesday, and visited among some of his old time friends. Mr. Dickey has been a resident of Molalla for many years, and is one of the pioneers of that section of the county, residing in what is known as Dickey Prairie.

George Armstrong of Redland, was in Oregon City Tuesday. Mr. Armstrong, who is one of the boosters for that section of the county, came here to complete plans for an entertainment at the Bethel church at Redland Thursday evening of this week.

Leonard Hall has gone to the farm of Claude March near Molalla where he will probably remain all summer and work as he did last vacation.

Mrs. Mary Bergquist, whose home is at Carus, was in this city on business Tuesday afternoon.

Mrs. B. H. Stewart and daughters, Miss Dorothea and Anna Margaret, of Redland, were in this city Tuesday.

Among those to arrive in Oregon City on Monday for a visit in Oregon City is M. Miller of Monroe, Or.

Mrs. I. S. McArthur of New Era, was among those to visit in this city Tuesday.

Farm Crops Expert Visits Clackamas

W. S. Carpenter of O. A. C., farm crops expert for the state of Oregon, and in charge of seed certification, with County Agricultural Agent W. A. Holt yesterday visited a number of farms in the county inspecting seed potatoes.

Most of the inspection was confined to Wilsonville, where special effort toward the raising of certified seed is being taken. Seed before being certified, is inspected three times during the year, to assure it being free from disease and from healthy stock.

C. J. Hurd, assistant county agent, leader of Oregon, passed through the city yesterday, visiting the local county agent's office.

520 Is New Number of Fire Department

For fire call 520! This is the new instruction issued by the Oregon City fire department, and is intended to supersede the old practice of calling central. Delay, according to Fire Chief Ruchonich, is caused by the repetition of messages by central. The fire department under the new system will be able to give quicker service in cases of emergency. People throughout the city are asked to make a note of this number to avoid confusion.

Growers' Organizer to Speak at Picnic

An all day picnic of the farmers will be held at Clarks today. Farmers from over the entire county will attend.

C. I. Lewis organization manager of the Oregon Growers will speak upon orchard methods and will probably aid the farmers in their discussions on cooperative marketing.

Harold Swafford in Serious Condition

Harold Swafford, mill manager of the Crown Willamette Paper company at Lebanon, and formerly connected with the office at West Linn, who has been ill for several months, underwent a critical operation in the Good Samaritan hospital the first of the week.

Mrs. Swafford, formerly Miss Ivy Ford, and her sister, Miss Sady's Evelyn Ford, of this city, have taken rooms near the hospital to be at the bedside of the former's husband, who is still in a serious condition.

DIVORCES ASKED

Blanch E. Gates today filed a complaint against her husband, John Gates, asking for a divorce. Chleo Sweeney started action to secure a divorce from his wife, Mae Sweeney and the custody of Jeffery, his son, aged two. He charges desertion.

ASK DIVORCES FOR DESERTION

Alleging desertion, Elsie E. Kingsley has filed a complaint against her husband, Charles G. Kingsley, asking a decree of divorce.

TWO LICENSES ISSUED

Two marriage licenses were issued in the clerk's office yesterday. Paul T. Schewe, 24, of Multno, received a license to marry Bertha R. Cummings, 16, of Hillsdale. A license was granted to Charles Pransa, 29, of Clatsop, Wis., and Elsie Nemeck of Stafford.

PAUL STAHL ARRAIGNED.

Paul Stahl, who was indicted by the grand jury on the charge of assault of L. Steurnagel with intent to kill, was arraigned in the circuit court today. He waived time to plead, entering a plea of not guilty. The date of his trial has not been set.

FIVE DECREES GRANTED.

Five decrees of divorce were issued in the circuit court today. They were in the cases of Myrtle Shields vs. Orbin Shields, Effie E. Gaynor against Roy F. Gaynor, Doris Peterson vs. Soren Peterson, Amelia J. Hale vs. Everett Hale and Ethel E. Gabriel vs. O. B. Gabriel.

TWO LICENSES ISSUED.

Two marriage licenses were issued here today. E. M. Andrews, 23, of Carver took a license to marry Ruth M. Smith, 22, of Clackamas. A license was issued to H. A. French, 25, of Ashland, and Myrtle Peterson, 20, of Boring.

TWO ARE HURT WHEN 3 CARS COLLIDE ON HIGHWAY AT COALCO

Republic Truck and 2 Fords in Smash; Men Pinned Against Fence

W. H. Rusco and C. D. Lawrence, both of 1867 East Main street, Portland, were injured and two machines damaged when three cars smashed on the Pacific highway near Coalco at 2:30 o'clock Saturday afternoon.

Two of the machines were Fords, one driven by Lawrence and the other by D. L. Webster, 426 E. Fifteenth street, also of Portland. The third machine was a Republic truck driven by J. R. Potter, 582 Sixth street, Portland.

Lawrence's car was parked on the highway, when Webster attempted to pass the truck, which was going south. The road, being too narrow to accommodate three cars, Webster's machine and the truck collided swinging the Republic truck into the Ford which was parked by the roadside.

Lawrence and Rusco were caught between the side of their car and the fence. Rusco's leg and arm were badly bruised and torn, and Lawrence's cheek bone was broken.

The men were brought here for medical treatment. Lawrence is in the Oregon City hospital.

LOCAL FIRE FIGHTERS GET NEW EQUIPMENT

New fire fighting equipment has reached Oregon City to be used by the local fire department. It consists of scaling ladders, Morris life line and belt and life line.

The new equipment will be used by the fire company in a demonstration in the near future, the Masonic temple having been selected as the place where the test will be made. Here the scaling ladders will be used, the firemen can reach story after story of the building by transferring ladders to each window will be used.

During the demonstration the life line and belt will be brought into use, showing how one can escape from the burning building. The local men are practicing for the event by jumping from a small building and so adjust how they become at jumping that larger buildings will be tried this week.

The fire company is composed of the following: Chief L. Ruchonich; assistant chief, William Priebe; captain G. W. Warner; captain, Harry Seiler; lieutenant, L. R. Noble. The hoemen are A. E. Anderson, John Frison, George Snook, Walter (Scoop) Young, J. Bigham, Joe Beallan, Joe Saunders, H. Thomas, S. Holliday, Al Cox, Ed Surfus, R. Elliott, Colby Hutchinson, Gilbert Calif, D. Hammond, Harry Woodward and William Bosynska.

Traffic Violators Get Fines in Court

For driving a truck for commercial purpose with a dealer's license, G. Goldberg and E. P. Steinhoff were fined in the justice court Monday morning. Goldberg, who owns the truck, was assessed $20 and Steinhoff, the driver, was fined $5.

L. T. Littlepage was fined $10 for speeding. He was picked up Sunday by Officer Long on the Molalla road going at the rate of 45 miles an hour. The case was tried at the justice court Monday morning.

Seventeen Apply For Naturalization

Seventeen residents of Clackamas county appeared before the circuit court to be examined for citizenship. Nine are from Oregon City, the remaining eight being from the outlying towns.

Those applying are natives of six different countries, England, Russia, Germany, Finland, Sweden and Switzerland.

Mrs. Hadley Struck By Auto; Badly Hurt

Mrs. James Hadley, an old resident of Oregon City was badly injured at 5 o'clock Saturday afternoon when she was struck by an automobile. Her head and leg were badly bruised whether any bones were broken cannot be ascertained until an x-ray is taken.

Mrs. Hadley was alighting from the jitney at Molalla and Lucas streets when a passing car brushed her to the pavement. She was given immediate medical attention and is reported as improving.

Fire Burns Home; Damage Is $3000

Fire at midnight Saturday destroyed the home of Hugh P. Ridings in the Twilight section, causing a loss of about $3000. The family had just returned from a show and were able to save the piano and some furniture. The cause of the blaze is unknown.

MARRIAGE LICENSE ISSUED

George L. Bell, 25, of Boring and Pauline Walsh, 23, of Gresham, Oregon, were given a license to wed here Monday.

COURT ORDERS COMMITMENT

James Pennington of Parkplace was Saturday committed to the state hospital in Salem. He is 57 years of age. Unbalance is due to mental strain.

Society

Mr. and Mrs. Dave Catto entertained at dinner Sunday in their new home in West Gladstone in honor of a few of their relatives and friends. The home was decorated with calli-lilies in vases and potted plants.

Covers were laid for Hugh Junior and son, Edward, of Vancouver, Wa., Mr. and Mrs. James Catto, of St. Johns; Mrs. Charles Dimick and children, Carlos and Vada, of Trout Lake, Wash.; Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Allred; and Mrs. N. M. Allred, of Oregon City.

The Ladies Aid Society of the Congregational church held an all-day "silver offering" picnic Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Beacraft in Gladstone.

This affair is the last meeting until fall.

A delicious dinner was served under the large maple trees and a most enjoyable day spent.

Present were Mrs. C. H. Caulfield, president; Mrs. Laura Thornberry, secretary; Mrs. H. C. Stevens and daughter, Miss Muriel Stevens, Mrs. David Caulfield, Mrs. Ada Pearl, Mrs. C. D. Latourette, Mrs. Snover, Mrs. Marlin Snover, Mrs. Minda Church, Mrs. Julia Haskell, Mrs. J. M. Mark, Mrs. A. W. White, Mrs. C. H. Dye, Mrs. Lena Charman, Miss June Charman, James Wilkinson, deacon, Rev. and Mrs. Morgan, of Oregon City; Mrs. Charles Blumh and daughters, Kathryn and Margaret of Pendleton; Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Woodbeck, of Jonings Lodge; Mrs. Wishart, of Portland; Mr. and Mrs. Rogers and Mrs. J. W. Moffatt, of West Linn; Mr. and Mrs. James Roake, Mrs. Chapell, Mrs. Allen, of Camas, Wash.; Mrs. William Money, of Ocean Falls, B. C.; Mrs. F. P. Nelson, Mrs. John McGetchie, Mrs. Surber, Leonard Charman, Mrs. Garland Chapel and Mrs. Beacraft of Gladstone.

Mrs. J. G. Nash entertained in a charming manner Wednesday afternoon from 2 to 5 at her home in East Gladstone in honor of her son, Gordon Bennett's birth anniversary.

The Nash home was prettily decorated with French marigolds, roses and delphiniums and orange crepe paper festoons. Tiny decorated hearts with appropriate "jingles" were used as place cards. The table was centered with a kelpie.

The afternoon was spent in games and contests enjoyed on the lawn.

Mrs. Nash was assisted in serving dainty refreshments by the young host's grandmother, Mrs. S. R. Bennett, and Mrs. Albert Roake, of Oregon City. The lad was the recipient of many beautiful gifts.

These enjoying the afternoon were Rex Brandle, Jack Eby, Dwight Miller, Raymond Thomson, Howard Youngchild, Warren Smith, Parker Wilson, Walter Krause and Gordon Nash.

One of the events of the past week that came as a surprise to the many friends of Miss Clara Weiss, of Glen Echo, and William Moessner, of Portland, when they were quietly united in marriage Thursday, June 16. Rev. Stocker, of Portland, performed the ceremony, which took place at 6 p. m.

Mrs. Anna Berry, sister of the bride, and Mrs. J. Stocker and son were the witnesses. The engagement of the young couple was announced last fall, but the date at that time was not given, and their marriage is the result of a romance of two years, while Miss Weiss was touring the Eastern States, where she met Mr. Moessner.

The bride was born and reared in Cincinnati, Ohio, has a host of friends in that city as well as in Portland, Oregon.

The bridegroom formerly resided in Detroit, Michigan, in which city the young lady who has become his bride was visiting when the romance occurred.

Mr. and Mrs. Moessner will make their home at the beautiful home of G. E. Weiss, of Glen Echo.

Members of Willamette Rebekah Lodge made a fraternal visit to Utopia Rebekah Lodge of Portland Thursday evening, leaving here on the 7 o'clock car.

Impressive floor work was put on for the entertainment of the Oregon City delegation and highly appreciated by those from Rebekah Lodge.

Following the ceremony the remainder of the evening was devoted to a social time and refreshments were served.

From this city attending were Mrs. Walter Wentworth, Mrs. William Raker, Mrs. August Raker, Miss Clara Winkler, Mrs. Esther Taylor, Mrs. Julia Haskell, Mrs. Minda Church, Mrs. James Shannon, Mrs. Theodore Myers, Miss Mabie Myers, Miss Harriet Phipps, Mrs. May Yonce, Mrs. Charica Hannford, Mrs. F. A. Albright, Mrs. Ellen Scouton, Miss Abbie Scouton, Mrs. J. K. Morris, Mrs. J. L. Waldron, Mrs. A. H. Finnigan, Mrs. Parberry, Mrs. G. A. Bergren, Mrs. Ella Rossman, and Mrs. G. Noe.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Reinke were host and hostess, at a surprise party planned and carried out by friends of the family in honor of Mr. Reinke's birthday of recent date.

The guests were entertained with cards, games and music. A prettily decorated cake was presented to the host by his wife.

been given in this city under the direction of Mrs. Vann when these students in vocal instruction have been heard. The affair is to be given Tuesday evening, June 28.

Owing to the length of the program there will be no encores given. A number of the vocalists are from Portland.

Among the features of the program will be the rendition of "Don't You Hear," the "Sandman," a composition of Mrs. Frank Schoenborn.

The program is the following: "I'll Think of Thee," by Edwards—Eloise Hall Cook, Hilda Lindborg, Mary Adele Vann and Della Green; "My Ain Folk," by Lemon—Grace Wentworth.

"When My Caravan Has Rested," by Lohé—Bessie Wire. "A Son of the Desert Am I"—Fred J. Tootz, Jr.

"The Lilac Tree," by Gartlan—Lillian Schell. "Don't You Hear the Sandman"—(Written by Laura Schoenborn)—Agnes Clifford.

"I Passed by Your Window," by Brahe—Peter Rotter. (a) "Ave Maria," by Gonno; (b) "Fjorton," by Lindblad—Violin Obligate, Vendilla Hill, Hilda Lindborg; "A Southern Lullaby," by Terry—Elnora Benawa.

(a) "O Were Thou in the Cold Blast," (b) "The Maybell and the Flowers," by Mendelssohn—Eloise Hall Cook and Mary Adele Vann. "I Hear a Thrush at Eve," by Cadman—Homer Slegfried. "The Cradle Song," by De Koven—Dorothy Terrill.

"Lullaby" (from Jocelyn) by Godard, Violin Obligate, Vendilla Hill—Amy Francis. "The Blind Ploughman," by Clarke—Lyman Warnock.

(a) "Si me vers avient des alle," by Hahn; (b) "Birth of Morn," by Leoni—Elizabeth Martin. "Vale," by Russell—B. C. Norblad. "Reveries," by Speake—Laura Schoenborn.

"His Lullaby," by Bond—Anna Lee Snyder. "Rockin' in De Win," by Neidlinger—Ladies Quartet.

One of the most enjoyable events held during the season by the King's Daughters of the St. Paul's Episcopal church was at the home of Mrs. A. C. Warner, the Lilacs at Mount Pleasant, Wednesday afternoon, June 15.

The afternoon was devoted to needlework, and a most enjoyable time was had.

Strawberries, cake and coffee were served by the hostess.

This is the annual event held at the home of Mrs. Warner, and the strawberries served were home grown, and were delicious.

The rooms of the Warner home were attractively and artistically decorated for the occasion, when bright colored, bachelor buttons, roses and murguerites, intermingled with ferns, were used.

Attending were Mrs. H. M. Mound, Mrs. J. T. Tobin, Mrs. E. E. Brodie, Mrs. William Krassig, Mrs. C. G. Miller, Mrs. E. A. Chapman, Mrs. Samuel Stevens, Mrs. Wallace Caulfield, Mrs. Frank Young, Mrs. Nieta Barlow Lawrence, Mrs. J. R. Humphry, Mrs. Kent Moody, Mrs. Sophia Moody, Mrs. Neal Sullivan, Mrs. A. L. Beattie, Mrs. William B. Howell, Mrs. William McKillop, Miss May Tobin, Betty Howell.

A most enjoyable surprise party of the week was given in honor of Mrs. Charles Moran, of Gladstone, on Thursday, Mrs. M. F. Bennett, of Baker, who is here visiting her brother, J. G. Noe, was present. Mrs. Moran and Mrs. Bennett were old time friends in Iowa and had not met for 49 years.

Mrs. Moran was the recipient of several beautiful presents and a profusion of lovely flowers.

During the afternoon refreshments were served.

Present were Mrs. Gace Eby, Mrs. Frank Ballard, Mrs. N. Schouts, of Oregon City; Mrs. M. F. Bennett, of Baker; Mrs. J. G. Noe, of Gladstone.

H. S. Rankin, familiarly known as "Jerry" entertained his Friday School class of eight boys Friday evening at his home on East Clackamas boulevard.

After a "snappy" game of base ball in which Jerry won several "outs," members of the party went to "Billy Goat" Island and roasted wienies over a camp fire and enjoyed sandwiches and cake.

Clackamas county the grain crop is to be of unusual size and extra fine quality. The recent rains, say the farmers, have done much to benefit the crops. In many places the grain has reached a height of about three feet, and is now heading, while in sections of the county the heads are of unusual large size.

Grain and Potatoes Looking Good; Strawberry Market Poor.

Throughout Clackamas county the grain crop is to be of unusual size and extra fine quality. The recent rains, say the farmers, have done much to benefit the crops. In many places the grain has reached a height of about three feet, and is now heading, while in sections of the county the heads are of unusual large size.

Along the highway between New Era and Canby can be seen a good demonstration of the growth the grain has made during the past few weeks. Potatoes have similarly been benefited by the recent weather conditions.

The apple crop is encouraging from latest reports from the various sections of the county. In some places where the peach trees have been damaged by late frosts, there will be a small crop. This will be larger than that of last year, as last year's crop was damaged by the severe winter of 1919-20.

Growers of the country are looking forward to having large yields this season. Many of the farmers of the county are turning their attention to growing walnuts as well as the filberts, and are meeting with success. In the sections where this industry is being carried on is at Stafford, Wilsonville and Redland.

The cherry season is now near its height, but there seems little demand for the fruit and only certain varieties are in demand at the canneries, and these that are being shipped to the canneries are not receiving the price as paid last year. Growers of the Bing cherry find that they have large yields, but some of the canneries are purchasing this variety.

The strawberry season is nearing its close, although fine berries are being sold at $1.00 and $1.5 per crate. Raspberries as well as Loganberries are arriving in the local markets and are find a ready sale. These two varieties of berries are also of large yield. Few have arrived so far, and are bringing a price of 10 cents per box.

Red currants are making their appearance in the local markets with a retail price of 10 cents per box quoted.

They are so capable of serving on events of this kind.

The King's Daughters will hold the last meeting of the season in the apartments of Mrs. Frank Young on Twelfth and Main streets Wednesday afternoon. Business of the season will be closed.

The silver tea to have been given last week, has been indefinitely postponed.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Fosberg's home was the scene of a merry gathering Wednesday evening, when a few of their friends gathered at the spacious hall and later proceeded by automobile to the Fosberg residence. The affair, in honor of her birthday anniversary, was planned and carried out by several of the friends.

The evening was devoted to a social time and music, and refreshments were served.

The hostess received a number of pretty and useful gifts.

Attending were Mr. and Mrs. Frank Doty, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Burns and son, Jack, Mr. and Mrs. William Weismandel, Mr. and Mrs. Al Cox, Mrs. Nellie McDonald, Mrs. Minnie Donovan, Mrs. Ida Parker, Ray Welsh, Mr. and Mrs. Fosberg.

A reception will be given in the parlors of the Congregational church Thursday evening in honor of Rev. and Mrs. Caraboc Morgan, recently arriving in Oregon City, the former having accepted the pastorate of the Congregational church.

The affair is for members and friends of the church, and will commence at 8 o'clock.

Mrs. Charles D. Latourette is chairman of the committee in charge, and her assistants are Mrs. W. A. White, Mrs. C. H. Caulfield and Mr. and Mrs. L. Adams.

CLACKAMAS COUNTY CROPS EXPECTED TO BE LARGE THIS YEAR

Grain and Potatoes Looking Good; Strawberry Market Poor.

Throughout Clackamas county the grain crop is to be of unusual size and extra fine quality. The recent rains, say the farmers, have done much to benefit the crops. In many places the grain has reached a height of about three feet, and is now heading, while in sections of the county the heads are of unusual large size.

Along the highway between New Era and Canby can be seen a good demonstration of the growth the grain has made during the past few weeks. Potatoes have similarly been benefited by the recent weather conditions.

The apple crop is encouraging from latest reports from the various sections of the county. In some places where the peach trees have been damaged by late frosts, there will be a small crop. This will be larger than that of last year, as last year's crop was damaged by the severe winter of 1919-20.

Growers of the country are looking forward to having large yields this season. Many of the farmers of the county are turning their attention to growing walnuts as well as the filberts, and are meeting with success. In the sections where this industry is being carried on is at Stafford, Wilsonville and Redland.

The cherry season is now near its height, but there seems little demand for the fruit and only certain varieties are in demand at the canneries, and these that are being shipped to the canneries are not receiving the price as paid last year. Growers of the Bing cherry find that they have large yields, but some of the canneries are purchasing this variety.

The strawberry season is nearing its close, although fine berries are being sold at $1.00 and $1.5 per crate. Raspberries as well as Loganberries are arriving in the local markets and are find a ready sale. These two varieties of berries are also of large yield. Few have arrived so far, and are bringing a price of 10 cents per box.

Red currants are making their appearance in the local markets with a retail price of 10 cents per box quoted.