

JENNINGS LODGE

MRS. HUGH ROBERTS, Correspondent.

Surprise Birthday Party Is Enjoyed

JENNINGS LODGE, June 30.—Beautiful in all its details was the surprise birthday dinner for Mrs. John Jennings Thursday which was tendered by Mrs. Spooner and Mrs. Madden. The honored one had been invited to spend the day with Mrs. Spooner, while Mrs. Madden prepared the dinner. Many fowlers had been sent in from friends and these were used about the rooms, sweet peas being artistically arranged on the table. Covers were laid for Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Jennings, Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Madden, Mr. and Mrs. Langdon Spooner, Mrs. Zenger, Mr. Partlow and little Dorothy Spooner. In the evening Portland friends came to extend congratulations and brought many pretty gifts. Among them were Mr. Zenger and Miss Zenger. Mr. and Mrs. Tibbets of Portland and Miss Wilkins of Spokane. The evening was spent in singing and dancing.

Cars Provided for July Fourth Picnic

JENNINGS LODGE, June 30.—Special cars will be chartered to carry the members of the Sunday schools of the Evangelical Association to their beautiful camp grove, where with their friends will picnic with their friends on July 4. There will be splendid music with games and contests and the usual good time is anticipated. This grove has been opened for Sunday School picnics each Independence day for several years and many hundred people attend and as 17 schools will be represented this year, there promises to be a good attendance.

Lodge Motorists on Trip to California

JENNINGS LODGE, June 30.—Combining business and pleasure, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Jacobs and Miss Dorothy will motor to Southern California where they will spend a month. While in Los Angeles will be the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. A. Ostrom also former residents. On their return will visit at Oakland and spend some time at Crater Lake. The Jacobs family will leave on Monday June 27th.

Other well known folks in our community going south are Mr. and Mrs. Frank Boardman and children, former residents, but now located at Canby, who will leave on July 2nd for a two month vacation which will be spent at Los Angeles at the home of Mr. Boardman's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robison. They will be accompanied by Mr. Morris and wife, bookkeeper for the Portland Seed Co. The party will return about September 1st.

River View Grove Scene of Picnic

JENNINGS LODGE, June 30.—About 100 attend the Jennings Lodge Sunday School picnic at the River View Grove on Friday. The day was an ideal one and many of the mothers attended with the little ones. Ball games, races and contests was the diversion of the afternoon and a generous treat of ice cream was enjoyed by all. Rev. Snider and Mr. and Mrs. Blinstone, Mrs. Gardner and Mrs. Kennedy greatly assisted Mr. Jones the superintendent in making it a happy time for the youngsters.

World War Veteran Visits In Lodge

JENNINGS LODGE, June 30.—H. C. Pell, who is known by many as being one of a family of 18 sons, who saw active service in France during the late war, was a caller at Jennings Lodge on Thursday. He reports all of the brothers returned safely but the 13th one of the family, who will be an invalid for life. The Pell family are residents of Portland and H. C. Pell is working his way through college.

MILLER BUYS PROPERTY

JENNINGS LODGE, June 30.—C. W. Miller, who purchased the McMeigal place a year ago, has purchased a tract on Hill Ave. from F. B. Madison on the Bill Jennings homestead.

Mr. Miller will erect a modern bungalow, which he will occupy as soon as completed.

Church Officials Hold Business Meet

JENNINGS LODGE, June 30.—The church officials held a business meeting at the school house on Tuesday evening. A. B. Smith was made treasurer of the church building fund. Those subscribing can make out their checks payable to him.

The old building will be moved back 10 feet, and moved around as far as the narrow lot would permit. Sand, gravel and lumber are on the grounds and E. R. Griffith the head building as pushing the work as rapidly as possible. The building committee Rev. A. B. Snider, W. I. Blinstone and Dan Jones are giving much of their time.

JENNINGS LODGE LOCALS

JENNINGS LODGE, June 30.—Many parties and families are planning on going to the mountains and seashore for over the week end. So many having a half holiday on Saturday, makes quite a vacation time and enables many to go to the coast on Saturday afternoon or to enjoy a two days camp beside a mountain stream.

The busy house wife is in the midst of canning and many are beginning to make preparations to attend Chautauque, hence very little has taken place in a social way.

Wiley Traut motored to Eugene over the week end on a business trip. Miss Jennie Pratt of Rock Creek, Oregon, will spend part of her vacation with her aunt, Mrs. H. Smith.

Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Madden, Mr. and Mrs. Will Booth, Mr. and Mrs. Sheppard and family enjoyed the outing given by the mail clerks at Crystal Lake Park on Sunday.

Miss Della Rush who has visited with her brother W. Rush departed on Monday for Pendleton, where she will teach in the Normal school. W. Rush is attending summer school in Portland and will teach at Freewater the coming term.

Mrs. Zinnis of Astoria visited on Wednesday night and was a dinner guest of Mrs. Warren Swart.

C. E. Pease and wife and Miss Pease motored to Newport Saturday returning Monday.

Miss Julia Rimkes of West Linn was the guest of Winnifred Humphreys on Monday.

Mrs. H. H. Emmons and Mrs. Edith Truscott motored to Gresham Tuesday, to spend the day with Mrs. Osborne.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Smith and children attended a birthday dinner at the home of Mrs. Sanders in Woodstock on Monday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Miller and children and Mrs. Leona Gibbs motored out from Portland and spent Sunday at Stone Gables, the H. H. Emmons home.

Mrs. Ella Spooner visited her son, Langdon M. Spooner on Sunday. She is very much improved in health.

Mr. and Mrs. Claire Maple and Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Ekins enjoyed a trip up the Columbia River on the Bluebird and partook of a picnic dinner at Multnomah Falls.

Mrs. Mary Kitchen departed Friday for her old home in Maine, after spending three years with her daughter, Mrs. Carl Smith. Mrs. Kitchen will be accompanied by friends from Portland to Chicago and a son will meet her in Boston.

Mrs. Arthur Smith attended a stork party at the home of Dr. Hatchley Friday of last week. The affair was given by Mrs. Sanders for Mrs. Hatchley all being residents of the Woodstock district.

Mr. and Mrs. Spever and two little daughters of Everett, Wash., enjoyed a night's repose in the Shady Nook camp, grove journeying on to Santa Cruz, Cal. on Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin and little son Herbert, who have visited Mrs. Z. Kessl, have gone to Forest Grove to spend the summer with Mr. Benjamin's parents. The Benjamins are residents of Umatilla where he teaches school and was re-elected to fill the position this fall.

Miss Winnifred Humphreys and Jack attended a birthday party on Thursday for Miss Margaret Jones of West Linn.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Burco attended a family gathering at Maxson's Park on Sunday. The trip up the river was made in the Swan. A picnic dinner was very much enjoyed.

Mrs. A. F. Russell and son Lester returned on Tuesday morning from a two weeks' visit with relatives in Walla Walla and Colfax, Wash.

Miss Eva Glass is spending her vacation with her sister, Mrs. Arthur Smith.

Mr. and Mrs. George Maple have given up their apartment in Portland and are returning to their home here for the summer.

Aton Tillman of Tacoma is enjoying his vacation with his uncle, W. H. Tillman. The Tacoma visitor spent Wednesday at Hillsboro.

Mrs. Hull is paying a short visit to her mother in Salem and will go to Monmouth to attend summer school.

A large family gathering is being planned to be held at "Maple Hurst" the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Maple on July 4th. Tables are arranged for 50 of the relatives on both sides of the family. A program of stunts, swimming and canoeing and boat riding with fireworks in the evening. After the picnic dinner a short program has been arranged, which will round out a full day of pleasure for old and young.

C. L. Smith is having an extra sleeping room added to their attractive home. Frank Covert being the builder.

OSWEGO NEWS

Mrs. Cora Bullock

Oswego School Selects Teachers

OSWEGO, June 27.—At the annual meeting of the school direct 10, 47 the following directors and teachers were elected: T. R. Clinefelter was reelected to serve a term of three years. John Bickner was elected clerk. Miss Mary Bicker was reelected as principal of the school, Mrs. Gorseline the 5th and 6th grade, Miss Irma Vose, 2nd; Mrs. Ewing, 1st grade; Miss Peterson, 3rd and 4th; Mr. Rodgers, manual training; Miss Faith, domestic science; Miss Cohen, singing teacher.

Mrs. A. Waldorf has left for a two months' stay in Wisconsin where she expects to visit relatives in different parts of the State.

Little Vivian Clinefelter has been ill for the past two weeks she seems to be some better at the present time.

The members of the Oswego Hydro-Electric Club met at the city hall Thursday evening. The main topic of the evening was the celebration of July 4th which will be held at the tennis court and park of the Oswego Portland cement plant, with the officers an employees as hosts. The guests of the company will be confined to residents of Oswego, Lake Grove and other points on the shores of Oswego Lake. Plans for a municipal celebration on the Fourth coincident with the opening of the concrete highway to Portland were called off as the district did not believe it was possible to put on an entertainment commensurate with the crowds that would come. The club adjourned until fall, unless for some reason a special meeting should be required for which President D. B. Vincent of Goodwin, was empowered to call one.

There was much excitement created among the Oswego people Wednesday when a hydroplane sailed around our town and dropped into the Oswego Lake in front of McClean's camp.

Several friends of Mrs. Ethel Simelton were her guests the week end.

Mrs. Lewis E. Smith was a much surprised woman one evening this week when her mother, Mrs. B. X. Bunch of Medford, walked in at dinner time unheralded.

Justice Henry L. Benson of the Oregon supreme court is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Hyskell at Rockaway. Judge Benson has been quite ill, but now is improving steadily, although very slowly. His physicians count upon the complete restoration of his health, but have compelled him to take a rest for an indefinite period.

William H. Davis and wife, also Victor Wolff spent Friday at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Davis.

Mrs. Leonard Hallman, who has been visiting her mother at Rockaway, stopped over with relatives in Oswego while on her way to her home in Redland.

Mr. and Mrs. V. Nelson were presented with an 8 1/2 pound baby daughter on Wednesday morning. Mother and daughter are doing nicely and receiving their friends at St. Vincent hospital, Portland.

Miss Lauretta Sheehan, teacher of the primary grade of Oswego grammar school and former guardian of the Campfire Girls, left for Portland and the coast at the end of the school year.

Misses Myrtle Robbins and Helen Bartlett of Portland spent the week end in Oswego as the house guest of Miss Della Davis.

Guy Haven station agent at Oswego has been ill for several days and is confined to his home.

The Ladies Aid met at the home of Mrs. Charles Bickner on Thursday afternoon. Ice cream and cake were served.

W. G. Weightman and daughter, Marjorie, spent several days in Albany during the week.

A large party of Oswegoians enjoyed the moonlight excursion on the Bluebird Friday evening given by the Minnesota society.

Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Fulton were dinner hosts Tuesday evening honoring Edward Mathews of New York and the Oriant and Mr. and Mrs. Gene Levy, formerly of Salt Lake City.

The Oswego Woman's Club held the last meeting of the season on in the Grove at the foot of the Lake Wednesday. A fine basket lunch was served on long tables under the trees. The business of the day consisted of reelection of Mrs. G. Howard Pettincer as president of the club and a discussion and partial outline of the program to be carried on next season.

Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Eccles of Canby and Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Bullock motored to Monmouth Sunday to visit Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Bullock who was once residents of Oswego and who is now working at the State Normal at Monmouth.

The laying of the cement on the Pacific highway is rapidly progressing under the supervision of F. T. Young, resident engineer of the State highway commission of the Scandia Ship building company contractor laid 720 feet in one day. This is a record day's work in concrete laying in the Pacific Northwest it is declared.

Mrs. Frank Dave of San Francisco, who has been in Oswego visiting her mother, Mrs. Sarah Prosser, has returned to her home.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Yates and daughter Gladys, also George Enrich of Portland and Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Worthington motored up the highway as far as Eagle Creek Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. O. Worthington and Mr. and Mrs. Archie Worthington were the guests of Mrs. Alice Worthington Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. William Lozano and children spent Sunday with relatives in Oak Grove.

Robert Henderson of Portland was in Oswego on business last week.

Edwin Erickson who is employed by the Southern Pacific and has been away from home is now located at Oswego for a while ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Waldorf of Mulino and children were Oswego guests at Mrs. Edna Larsons over Sunday.

Plans are being made for the immediate construction of a new dam at the outlet of Oswego Lake. This dam will furnish power for the Oswego Light, Power & Co. The dam will be a vast improvement over the present structure and will be of concrete. The engineer's estimate of material contents over 2000 barrels of cement. This structure together with the new concrete bridge on the state highway which will be opened for traffic in the very near future materially change the looks of Oswego Lake. This Lake will then offer additional inducements to people who wish to spend the week end in one of Oregon's scenic places.

A sea-plane was trying out landing on Oswego Lake Monday. The pilots will make this one of their regular landing places. This plane attracted much attention from the campers on the lake.

Misses Leona Campbell and Violet Buckley of Kerry, Oregon, who have been the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Bullock have returned home after an extended visit with friends and relatives in and near Oswego.

Work is being rushed on the Elk Rock tunnel in order to complete the same before winter. This will eliminate the dangerous trestle before the bad weather, sets in.

The steamer T. J. Potter one of the famous boats of the little steamboat days is being used to house the employees who are doing the rock excavation work.

Vernon Centers has left for Kentucky as he received news of the serious illness of his father.

Former Residents Visit Sandy Folks

SANDY, June 27.—Dr. and Mrs. B. B. Bacheider, former residents of Sandy, who have many friends here, were in town Sunday calling on Mayor Junker's family and other friends. The Bacheiders had just returned from a motor trip through California where they visited their daughter, Mrs. Gladys McDonald and husband, also other relatives. Mrs. C. C. Heney of Sacramento (Mrs. Haney is also well known here) and her daughter, Mrs. Hazel Radcliffe and little daughter of Portland were also in the party.

Dr. Bacheider, who was a popular physician here four years ago is now located at Tacoma and is assistant surgeon for the N. P. R. R. so there is small hope of his friends of coaxing him back here!

Mrs. Radcliffe will drive her mother, Mrs. Haney, back to Sacramento this week.

Social Service Club Holds Last Meeting

OAK GROVE, June 27.—The Social Service Club held the last meeting of the season recently at home of Mrs. E. C. Youngs at Risley. The club is planning on fencing their property at Rupert Station and during the summer will have plans and estimates for their club house.

John Oiler and family have gone to Salem to reside.

C. W. Jenkins and J. R. Fagerstrom on Third avenue had their homes refreshed with coat of paint.

I. H. Graham who sprained his back two weeks ago is still in very bad condition.

The concert by Professor Emil Enna while only a small audience was present was appreciated and enjoyed. Popular songs and musical selections and readings composed the program.

O. W. Barnett has gone to Seaside to erect houses for the summer season.

Mrs. R. E. Webb and Mrs. H. C. Krum were hostesses at home of Mrs. R. E. Webb at a shower for Banche E. Strong, who will be married this fall. He replace on the corp of teachers has been taken by Miss E. Ehrstensen of Portland.

At a mass meeting held in the school house Wednesday night it was decided to join with Milwaukie and other districts in employing an attorney to represent our case in the toll question as the Portland attorney will not take up that phase of the question at the rehearing.

Mrs. E. R. Ostrom transacted business in Portland Saturday.

Misses F. Kilgore and E. Cook were Portland visitors Saturday.

Mrs. F. A. Smith has a severe case of poison oak.

Mrs. J. B. Evans was transacting business in Oregon City Friday. She has composed several songs which are on sale at the music stores. The latest patriotic song is "Oregon."

Mrs. John Waldron and children have gone to S. Dakota to visit relatives.

The Needlecraft Club met last Tuesday with Mrs. F. A. Smith a pleasant afternoon was spent the hostess serving ice cream and cake. The club will not meet on July 5 on account of it following so close to the fourth but will meet July 19.

Grandpa Waldron has gone to Salem to visit a daughter.

Geo. M. Scott of Graton, Calif., visited his sister, Mrs. Lewis Reese of Courtney last week.

Mrs. F. L. Goulett of Eagle Creek is a guest of Mrs. A. Jamault.

P. Swanson is convalescing nicely in the Oregon City hospital since his operation for appendicitis two weeks ago.

News Items From Macksburg Section

SANDY, June 26.—The Sandy P. T. A. met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. Scales last night, with Elina Esson, the retiring president, in the chair. Plans were discussed for raising money to add to the playground equipment fund but no definite action was taken.

The new president, Miss Alice Scales and the other officers were installed. Marguerite Dittert vice-president, Mrs. Esson, treasurer and Mrs. Vera Smith, secretary among the visitors present were Miss Katherine MacDonald, of the Girl's Polytechnic school, who is an art instructor, and Mary Jane Collier, also of Portland, was present, and ten "fathers" were there! The new president appointed committees on entertainment, refreshments, reception, membership, decoration and publicity. Refreshments were served and everyone had a very pleasant evening at this "homey" affair. Several dollars were taken in from a silver offering and membership dues.

The next meeting will be held in the city hall the last Friday night in July.

Shrock Addresses Dairymen League

SANDY, June 27.—M. S. Shrock addressed the local Dairymen's League here recently which was attended by 50 people, meeting in Junker's restaurant. Mr. Shrock is strong for organization, and referred to the league as being practically the pioneer movement for substantial co-operative effort in Oregon. Mr. Shrock attended the organization of the Oregon Co-operative Council at the O. A. C. last week and explained there are fifteen heads in all in this new body which is composed of experienced workers in the leading co-operative societies of the state, and that they will be able to point out the failures of the past and head off their repetition.

The unit-cost accounting system has recently been introduced into the League management which is cutting the cost of handling the products decidedly according to Shrock.

A strong appeal was made to boost the consumption of cheese in every locality figures being given to show its value as a food.

Dwyer Railroad May Extend Twelve Miles

SANDY, June 27.—There is strong talk of the Dwyer railroad being extended twelve miles from its present ending at the Wilcox place on Deep Creek into the Three Six timber belt. Mr. Dwyer was on Sandy-ridge a few days ago inquiring about rights-of-way and it is generally conceded that farmers will give them readily. Dwyer talks of electrifying this extension and putting on a one man electric service for passengers. Three routes are under consideration and the shortest and cheapest will be chosen. Dwyer's engineer and foreman looked over a portion of the route also. If it can possibly be managed this road will be built soon which will open a fine market for wood and other products.

Four Year-old Lad Scalds Leg and Hip

Clifford Walstrom, four year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Walstrom, 3 E. Division street, was badly scalded this morning. The lad was playing around a washing machine, and pulled the plug from the container.

His hip and leg were scalded by the hot water, taking the flesh. His injuries, however, are not serious.

TRAFFIC VIOLATOR ARRESTED

R. Bailey of Portland, was arrested Wednesday by Constable Ed. Fortune upon a warrant charging him with falling to give way properly upon the highway. He was released on $50 bail to appear in the justice court Friday.

SANDY DEPARTMENT

MRS. J. M. C. MILLER Correspondent

Sandy Is Rarin' to Go on July Fourth

SANDY, June 29.—Let everyone catch the spirit of Freedom and turn out to do honor to our own community and our own Nation on July 4! Be ready to hear the program by 10:30 A. M. in the wonderful Melting Grove.

There will be firecrackers, the store windows are full of them, but there will be other things also. The great day will not be instituted for a "hulla-balloo" time also, but the most sacred thing of life is tied up in one word, Liberty! Every one in this section should come a dystem to the splendid orators, Judge Campbell, Spanish war veteran, who is a magnificent speaker, and another wonderful treat will be the address by Rev. Wm. R. Reece of Portland who is a man that understands the vital things of life and is a charming speaker.

John Revenue who has been identified with the interests of this place for forty years will preside in the morning program.

Former Residents Visit Sandy Folks

SANDY, June 27.—Dr. and Mrs. B. B. Bacheider, former residents of Sandy, who have many friends here, were in town Sunday calling on Mayor Junker's family and other friends. The Bacheiders had just returned from a motor trip through California where they visited their daughter, Mrs. Gladys McDonald and husband, also other relatives. Mrs. C. C. Heney of Sacramento (Mrs. Haney is also well known here) and her daughter, Mrs. Hazel Radcliffe and little daughter of Portland were also in the party.

Dr. Bacheider, who was a popular physician here four years ago is now located at Tacoma and is assistant surgeon for the N. P. R. R. so there is small hope of his friends of coaxing him back here!

Mrs. Radcliffe will drive her mother, Mrs. Haney, back to Sacramento this week.

Services Held for Mrs. William Caldo

SANDY, June 27.—The funeral services of Mrs. Wm. Caldo of Cottrell were held at Pleasant Home today, Rev. Earl Cotton officiating. The interment was at Mt. Scott cemetery.

Two weeks ago Mrs. Caldo took ill with ptomaine poisoning caused from eating strawberries and, under the doctor's care improved, but a week later was stricken with paralysis from which she did not rally, remaining unconscious for a week before she died. Dr. Williams of Sandy and Dr. Hughes of Gresham held consultation but nothing could be done.

Mrs. Caldo was 59 years of age and had lived at Cottrell for 9 years. She left beside her husband, J. A. Caldo and Mrs. A. Radford.

SANDY PLAYS SPRINGDALE

SANDY, June 27.—Sandy baseball boys have arranged to play Springdale on the afternoon of July 4 and the game will no doubt be an exciting one. The big baseball game Sunday at Carus (near Oregon City) was won by aCruis 11 to 6 against Sandy. There were ten cars driven from Sandy to see the game but with all the yelling of the Sandy fans the game was lost.

TRAVEL IS LIGHT

SANDY, June 28.—There was not as much travel up the mountains over the week end as usual as the mere announcement that work was beginning on the Loop gave the people the impression that there would be detouring necessary at once. At present the clearing and construction work is along new lines that were surveyed. The public will be notified before detours are necessary.

SANDY LOCALS

SANDY, June 27.—Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Eddy and daughter entertained Rev. Earl Cotton and his sister, Miss Irene Cotton of Salem at dinner Sunday evening. Miss Cotton spent a week with her brother at Pleasant Home and the twin of them were much entertained during her stay.

Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Purcell had the pleasure of their relatives, the Shoemakers, spending the week-end again with them.

Mr. and Mrs. Winkler, John Meyer, Mrs. R. Kaiser and Mrs. Imholz were recent callers at the Pizzola-Bottano home. This party also called on Mr. and Mrs. Max Woenche.

Mrs. Harry Nichols recently returned from a week's visit at Portland and Newberg. Mrs. Nichols visited a sister, Mrs. U. S. Bryant at Newberg.

Mr. and Mrs. Dave Douglas were down from the Cherryville way on Saturday and report things "stirring" up there.

Mr. and Mrs. Eddy entertained the newcomers the F. H. Lake family for luncheon while they were getting settled.

Chas. F. Barber was out for several days during the week working at his acreage. He is getting lots of delphiniums started and will soon devote his time exclusively to their culture.

The Strong family of Portland are at their summer home for the season. Elijah Coleman and family will move to the Meinsinger place July 1 where Mr. Coleman expects to take charge of the Meinsinger farm for a year. The Colemans had already started to build a summer house on their acreage here but suddenly changed their plans.

Rev. Cotton and his sister, Miss Irene Cotton sang a duet, "Glory and Praise" Sunday night at the church service. Rev. Cotton will hereafter preach on the second and fourth Sunday evenings last Sunday evening being the first service on the changed schedule. Mrs. George Perret was organist and Miss Lulu Eddy decorated the church.

The Girls reserve of Pleasant Home gave a weinie roast for the Girls' Res the Baptist church last Sunday.

The Pleasant Home "Comrades" gave a weinie roast to the Girls' Reserves at a picnic recently and the boys did well as hosts.

The Methodist Ladies' Aid of Pleasant

ant with a picnic at the home of Mrs. Gentry last week.

At the Orient Grange meeting Saturday, Mrs. Ball, the lecturer, called on all present to take part in some way, presuming that each one had a talent! No doubt all had, but a number preferred to pay a fine rather than take a chance at it." Rev. A. J. Ware of Oregon City gave a fine address on "The Use of Talents," urging the farmer to stand up for himself and use his own talents.

Mr. and Mrs. Bowers spent Sunday evening at the Elliott home.

Mrs. Wm. Miller (Olga Gunderson) has been home a few weeks from the hospital but has not yet found a name nice enough for her new baby daughter.

Mrs. Emma Thomas of Astoria's has gone to Portland where she will remain a couple of weeks.

Aschoffs are having a very good run of tourists considering it is the early part of the season.

Mrs. Katie Koch has been ill in bed for about a week and is still feeling miserably. Miss Mary Junker has been ministering to her aunt much of the time.

Clark Corey, up the Cherryville way, is in poor health though not entirely confined to his bed. Mr. Corey is the father of Glenn and Lloyd Corey.

Henry Koch is out home from the open air sanitarium and is looking fine.

Mr. and Mrs. John Revenue and son Homer Revenue and baby boy were Sandy callers last Sunday P. M. The Revenue's had been visiting at Damascus and drove home via Sandy ridge and Sandy.

C. Meinsinger was in town a few days ago, and said his daughter Edna and baby will soon be out to the ranch. The Bacheiders had many nice things to say about Sandy when here Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Marlo Bottano and little ones went to Portland for a visit of a few days duration.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Koenicke and Miss Marie Koenicke took a drive down to Sandy to attend church Sunday night.

Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Parcel are entertaining their father, Mr. W. Toltz for a week.

Rev. F. Dobberful preached at Twilight last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Beckler, who have been in Portland several years are going to move back to their place on the Bluff road, near Baumbacks. Mr. Dockey has been steward at Concordia College, an institution of the Lutheran church, since he left his ranch.

Miss Bertha Hoffman, L. E. Hoffman, George Perret and Mrs. Miller made flying trips to Portland during the week.

The Lilly family are still away. Mrs. Lilly and Mabel are having a vacation with relatives.

Carl Krebs writes the home folks that he is helping farm his father-in-law's place in Arkansas, but is homesick to see old Oregon again.

Naturally, folks around here cannot help being proud that Clackamas County won the Accomplishment Cup offered by the Jersey Bulletin for "the most meritorious work done by any club in 1920," and also that Sandy's new principal of the grade school, Mrs. Anton Malar, Jr., is the county secretary of the C. C. J. C. C. and will hold the Cup for the county till it goes to another winner. Mrs. Malar takes no credit to herself, whatever, but all who know her knows she works hard at anything she undertakes and there is no doubt she makes a good secretary.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Aschoff, Dorothy and Mrs. R. Dittert and Heinle were all Gresham visitors recently.

Miss Mary Scharnik went visiting one day during the week to the home of the Hein family.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Coleman and little daughter had a trip to Portland a few days ago.

Mrs. Frank Morrison and daughter who live near Estacada were visiting Mr. and Mrs. John Dockey, parents of Mrs. Morrison for a week.

The F. H. Lake family have moved into the Hoffman house recently vacated by the Scott family. Mr. Lake is a painter by trade.

(Continued on page 7)

MYERS BROS. PLUMBERS
 Repair Work A Specialty
 Prices Right
 Res. Phone 574 Front St.
 Office Phone 293 Oswego, Ore.

Phones: Sellwood 597, Automatic 21368 John P. Miller, Mgr.
East Side Mill & Lumber Company
 Manufacturers and Dealers in
 Lumber, Lath, Shingles and Mouldings
 Mill Foot of Spokane Avenue PORTLAND, OREGON

J. P. FINLEY & SON
 Perfect Funeral Service
 Telephone Main 9 Montgomery and Fifth
 A-1599 Portland

BIG FREE PICNIC
 July 2-3-4
NEW OAK GROVE BEACH
 77 acres free picnic grove and 3/4 mile of finest bathing beach on the river.
Big New Dance Pavilion and Nye's Melody Orchestra
 LUNCHES FIREWORKS CAMP SUPPLIES
 Take Oregon City Car