MRS. HUGH ROBERTS, Correspondent.

82nd Birthday Is Fittingly Observed

JENNINGS LODGE, July 28—A birthday party of paramount interest was celebrated on Monday evening, July 25, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Guy when they were hosts to a delightful affair, which was given in honor of her father, C. L. Woodring, the occasion being the 82nd anniversary.

Mr. Woodring was born in Kentucky and came to Oregon from Colorado Springs in 1917.

It was a happy gathering of his children and friends who came to extend congratulations to the honored one, who has seen forty score years and two and is very active.

A long table attractive with pink sweet peas and baby breath were spread under the first and lighted with incandescent lamps and laden with many good things which the large company of guests enjoyed. In a nook which Mr. Woodring had prepared for his grandchild, was hidden a surprise which awaited him after the dinner approved to be a large hammock the gift of his daughter, Mrs. Henry Blood presenting it. A number of pretty and useful gifts from friends were received.

A daughter, Mrs. Harry Richmond made the large birthday cake.

Seated at the long table were Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Woodring and Miss Woodring; Mr. and Mrs. Harry Richmond and son, Robert; Mr. and Mrs. Henry Blood and sons, Henry and David; Mr. and Mrs. B. A. Campbell, and Norma, Dorothy, Eleanor and Muriel Campbell; Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Allen and Maxine Allen; Mrs. Catherine Blood; Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Richmond, and Miss L. Deane Richmond; Mr. and Mrs. Orvel Hood; Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Richmond; Mark Frakes; Clifford Woodem all of Portland and Mrs. Ingram and daughter of Aberdeen, Wash., and Mrs. and Mrs. W. D. Guy and children.

Portland enjoyed a few days with their aunt, Mrs. Bess Breuchert. A happy time calling on old school mates, boating and swimming on the Willamette made their three days stay pass very rapidly. Both these little misses have attended the vacation Bible school during the summer in the Irvington district.

Miss Helen Fortz was a business caller at Oregon City on Tuesday.

Portland visitors who have enjoyed Sunday dinners recently at the Orman Kiggins home were Mr. and Mrs. Reel and baby and Mr. and Mrs. Deen.

Mrs. C. A. Edwell is being entertained over the week end at the Carl Starker home.

George and Lola Ross are enjoying their vacation with relatives at Woodland, Wash.

Cecil Rosebury of Portland were among them to take a dip in the "ole swimming hole" on Sunday. Cecil was a former resident and old friends were glad to renew acquaintances again.

Mrs. Theron Finch and daughter, Miss Dorothy of Woodburn will spend the remainder of the week with Mrs. Hugh Roberts.

Among the callers recently at the hospitable home of Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Hitchcock and Mrs. Mildred Farington, Mr. Wilbur Ried and son, William and Arthur, and Mrs. M. W. Millhollen and daughters, Lois and Virginia of Portland.

Miss Ruby Archambault and Dr. Ravena Spurrier were callers at the R. L. Newcomb home on Sunday, July 24th.

Mr. Frank Knolls' machine went over the bank, coming up the river hill. He was accompanied by D. P. Wood but, luckily no one was injured or no serious damage to the car.

Among the many visitors at the Russell Butler Poultry ranch during the week were Mrs. H. C. Klein-schmidt who took her poultry class to visit this commercial poultry plant.

Mrs. Barker chaperoned 15 young people to a "weiner roast" on Cedar Island on Saturday evening. A swim was much enjoyed at this beach which is becoming more popular with home folks each year.

Lodge Woman Makes Beautiful Spreads

JENNINGS LODGE, July 28—Mrs. Newton DeForrest has completed her tenth crocheted bedspread which is of an unusual handsome pattern of the star design; made in the popcorn stitch with a lovely border to match.

Mrs. DeForrest commenced the spread last winter while a visitor at Washington D. C., where a number were sold for $250.00. Mrs. DeForrest finds crocheting a very pleasant pastime as members of four generations are gathering about Mrs. Mable Pierce is a daughter, Mrs. Mary a granddaughter and Hugh Fleming a great grandson.

Midget Is Wanted By Picture People

JENNINGS LODGE, July 28—Motion picture producers are seeking to interest little Clarence Howartson in a contract which calls for his appearance on the screen. At present the little lad, who is 9 years old and weighs 19 pounds is visiting with his mother at the home of Mrs. E. C. Briggs who is an aunt.

Clarence was born in Sellwood at the time of his birth weighed pounds gaining but 10 pounds in 9 years. His feet are so tiny, shoes are made to order. His parents are residents of Elma, Wash.

Friday evening the Kinkeads spent at the Swart and Newcomb home and enjoyed a feast of cherries, the likes of which they say they never saw at the Lamberts and Bings at this place are so large and delicious this year.

Saturday afternoon Mr. and Mrs. Newcomb took the visitors to Council Creek, and other places of interest about Portland, ending up at Mrs. A. A. Albright's home in Alameda for dinner.

Early Sunday morning the Newcomb family and Mr. and Mrs. Kinkead left for a trip over the Columbia River Highway stopping at all the points of interest and enjoying a picnic lunch at Eagle Creek.

The California visitors formerly lived in Los Angeles but are so favorably impressed with Portland and surrounding country that they are willing to make another move and come to Portland.

Social Meet Held By Community Club

JENNINGS LODGE, July 28—The regular social meeting of the Jennings Lodge Community Club was held at Stone Gables, the H. H. Emmons home on the river. It proved to be a very enjoyable affair but owing to Chautauqua the attendance was not quite as large as on previous occasions. On the veranda five tables were arranged for those who enjoy cards. Mrs. Swart and Fred Martin holding high honors were awarded pretty prizes. While the consolation honor fell to Miss Kamanski Music was much enjoyed. Gladys Deter, being the pianist for the evening. Delicious refreshments were served to thirty. The social committee of the club who assisted Mrs. Emmons in arranging the delightful evening were Mesdames Hole, Robbins, Hendry, and Messrs. G. M. Caldwell and D. Clemens.

Former Lodge Man To Wed In Montana

JENNINGS LODGE, July 28—A wedding of much interest to local people will take place in Montana on July 31, when Viola Violet Jennings becomes the wife of R. Wendell Smith a well known young man of this county. Wendell is the youngest son of Rev. and Mrs. Howard N. Smith who formerly resided here. He is a graduate of the Oregon City high school, later taking a course at the Oregon Agricultural College at Corvallis in agriculture, which he is putting to use on his ranch at Potomac, Montana, where the young couple will make their home.

The wedding is to be an out door affair taking place in the grove at the Jennison home.

Farmers Are Busy In Oswego Section

(Too late for last week)

OSWEGO, July 23—The farmers are all working over time trying to get their hay hauled and baled. They have had ideal weather for it.

Zwiny Bros. have been doing most of the baling with their new machine. The Zwiny farms furnish an example in modern scientific methods of farming, they have two of the best equipped farms in the state.

The folks of Hazella who could take a day off enjoyed the Gladstone Chautauqua. They considered it a great inspiration and wished all our farmer folks could have had the opportunity, which lies at our very door to get something from the outside to keep us out of the rut, and cultivate a taste for the best which we always find at the Gladstone Chautauqua.

D. E. Christiansen represented the Congregational Sunday school of Oswego Sunday school day at Chautauqua and gave a report of work there. It was considered the best average of regular attendance of any Sunday school present. The Highland Sunday school carried off the banner for the largest number represented.

Miss Jean Wilson returned home Wednesday from her vacation trip. She reported having a wonderful time at Mt. Ranier. She will resume her duties at the Hartman Thompson bank Monday.

Dr. Laidlaw is making vast improvements in his "Logan View" farm. A new well is being drilled at present. His bungalow is completed and the whole place has taken on an air of prosperity.

Another of Hazella's progressive young men, Paul Rigmelen, is putting up a large green house with modern equipment and we expect soon to see Hazella have all that could be desired in an up to date green house under the splendid management of Mr. Rigmelen.

A great many of our young people are enjoying the lure of Oswego

Lake Let's not forget to give our boys and girls so faithful to us on the farm, a day off to enjoy the rest and recreation they deserve, they will stay with us longer if we do.

Meadowbrook Items

MEADOWBROOK, July 27—Lillie Schiewe returned home Monday after spending the week in Oregon City with her sister Elenora.

P. O. Dunrud has been quite sick for several days.

Myrtle Larkin of Portland is spending the week with Elenora and Lillie Matson.

About twenty-five of the young people enjoyed a weenie roast on the banks of Milk Creek Tuesday evening.

They have moved the rock crusher upon the Molalla river and started hauling crushed rock again Wednesday. They expect to have the road finished soon from Union Mills to the Hot Springs near the Coast Forks. Myrtle Larkin spent the week in Oregon City attending the Gladstone Chautauqua visiting with Elenora Schiewe and at the Fred Creason's home.

John Wall of Colton got the contract to build the new room on the school house which they have started already and expect to have it finished in time for the fall term.

Elenora Holman and Virginia Whiting entertained several of their friends at Oak Knoll, where a enjoyable evening was spent in dancing.

Barlow News

BARLOW, July 28—The Smith and Chinick families spent last week at Seaside. They made the trip by auto and all report a good time.

Edward Dregme spent last week in Portland.

E. T. Tuel visited his parents in Barlow Sunday.

A rock crusher has been built on the Putka place. The gravel to be used for the paving of the Canby-Aurora stretch is to be taken from here.
