

SANDY

The F. W. Canning home at Kelso. Miss Kelley was formerly from Portland.

Mrs. Scalos and Mrs. Esson are much in love with the beauties of Seattle, the lights along the lakes at night making a special impression.

Mr. Schminke, a former Sandvite, spent Saturday night and Sunday in these parts visiting old friends and going fishing on the north fork of the Sandy. Schminke is still employed at the Marshall-Weiss Co., Portland.

Several families of relatives were out from Springfield to spend the day with C. L. Fliske, and brought a picnic dinner along so Mr. Fliske was spared the trouble of preparing a bachelor dinner for the crowd. The picnic proved to be a happy affair near the Sandy river.

Miss Mary Scharnke was a helper at the Meigs store last Monday again. Commissioner Proctor is spending the week at Oregon City looking after business affairs in connection with his position.

George Krebs who is working on the fine modern residence of Mr. and Mrs. Ned Nelson says the frame is up and the work progressing nicely.

Mr. and Mrs. B. S. Smith and children and Mrs. Sarah Cross were Portland visitors recently. The Scalos-Esson party met Mr. Steelhammer, son-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Powers, while in Seattle.

Mrs. Clinton Gordy was in town several days during the week visiting her sister, Mrs. Miller. The Gordys, formerly of Beaver Creek are now located in Gresham, having purchased a home there recently.

Jack Greenwood took a load of sheep to the Portland stock yards Monday for August Bedenstein of Cherryville.

H. Widmer and son have their wool clip in the pool of the Wool Growers Association, having joined that organization some time ago.

C. Scharnke and Carl are now painting the W. A. Proctor residence. It "beats all" the way folks are printing up.

A 5-ft cut is being made in front of the W. Boshalm gate by the road workers which will put the Boshalm family "highup" in the world!

Kenneth Proctor is working in the Proctor store at Pleasant Home. Wencell and Koesicker finish their present contract of sawing this week, and will close down unless a new contract is signed up at once.

W. F. Strack pulled out with his mammoth thrasher last Saturday and was headed for the Slough country where the season opens earlier than here.

Chas. Krebs is beginning to get his thrasher in order for a big season's run, and says he hopes for better luck than last year, as he got so far behind after the big fire which destroyed his separator which also came near costing his life.

H. Widmer and son Will and Henry Herman went to Portland the first of the week to buy a team of horses for the Widmers to supplant the faithful old mules that are really Sandvridge fixtures, so long have they been "residents" there.

Grain cutting has been in full blast this week on Sandvridge. Chas. Krebs began on his own place, cutting a field of volunteer oats that is over 6 feet tall and promises a heavy yield.

Mrs. Walkie Proctor and Miss Vada Bittis left recently for a visit in Idaho at the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bettis. "Walkie" came home to get a good big "square" at "mother's" table Sunday because of his wife being away.

Royce Child who has been on the U. S. S. Now Mexico the past two years and is now located at Bremeren has been spending his vacation at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Childs of Boring.

Ray Naas and Clarence Dayton of Boring are in Eastern Oregon working fields. Loris Child and Roy Tanner of Boring who have been employed at Tillamook by the Warren Construction Co. were home for a Sunday visit recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Nick Affolter and son Victor of Neskovin came over to be with Mr. and Mrs. Affolter during their trouble and attended the funeral, Mr. and Mrs. August Schnell, cousins of the deceased Affolter boys also were here from Vancouver, as was Mr. Casper Jenny of Irish Prairie, Wash., the latter being an aged uncle of Mrs. John Affolter. With this party was Leo Barnd, another cousin of the boys from Hillsdale who has been in this country one year from Switzerland.

Mrs. Miller, wife of Herman Miller, served a big dinner to fourteen "grow-ups" and fifteen children at their pretty home on Sandvridge last Sunday, everyone present having a delightful time during the day. The guests were the "Fleasus", the "Wals Carows", the Porter children, three Duffy children and Herbert Mathes of Portland, Henry and Fred Weissenfuh of Orofino, Idaho, and the Wewer family. These families also planned a trip over the Columbia Highway this week.

Miss Pauline and Tillie Miller gave a party for about twelve of their young friends recently at the home of their parents, the Herman Millers, where they have been spending their summer vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. Otto Plateau and son Sheridan are visiting at the Carow home in Sandy and the Miller home on Sandvridge for a week. Miss Frances Menig, Hazel Beers, Pearl Proctor, Alfred Meinig, Ed Schmitz and Glenn Loundree went to Rhododendron to a dance one night recently. They drove two miles along lighted slushings which made an attractive night picture.

Mrs. J. C. Deke kindly arranged flowers in the Methodist church before the home of John Affolter was brought there to rest until the services next day, and then again prepared decorations for the double funeral of John and his brother Albert Affolter. These tributes were appreciated by the broken-hearted parents and all others who attended the beautiful service. Miss Fay Young also was of service in helping arrange the last sad rites of these young friends.

A beautiful home affair of the week was the informal dinner party given by Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Purcell on Wednesday evening, W. J. Wirtz, of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Proctor and Arletha, Dr. and Mrs. Julius Sture and baby boy, being the favored guests. The dinner is reported as one of Mrs. Purcell's "best," and everyone present were delighted with the "homey occasion."

Here's a verse written in honor of their recent visit at Sandy by a member of the Salem Writers' Club, Mrs. Dailley: O the day went so quickly on Sandy, There was so much to see and do! All nature is lavish on Sandy, And spreads out her beauties for you. Now here's to our picnic at Sandy, And here's to our friends old and new; Shall we all meet again up at Sandy, I'd like to see that day, wouldn't you? Mr. and Mrs. Purcell received a letter recently from Dr. Paul Doltz and their niece Henrietta Doltz which was written while the Doltz family were abroad the Empress of Asia on their way to the Philippines. The letters were written when three days from Yokohama, and another week from their destination. Weather was very cool, passengers keeping to their state-rooms most of the time. Mrs. Doltz and Henrietta were not seasick at all, and Dr. Doltz "not much." The vessel is described as a wonderful vessel, and all sea-lovers would revel in the journey described. Among the noted passengers abroad were Dr. Torrey the great evangelist and Harry Emerson Fosdick, the celebrated minister from New York. The great social hall on this water-palace was the center for delightful social and musical affairs. A concert program of 13 numbers, all classic and no jazz, consisted of orchestral, vocal, piano, cello etc. "Henrietta" played "Berceuse" (Jocelyn) the same selection "we all" requested her to play the second time for us when Mrs. Purcell entertained for her distinguished relatives in June, and not only did Henrietta receive positive compliments from the "sea-way-farers," but her father was congratulated over the talent shown in his daughter's playing. The Doltz family all remember Sandy and it's people very kindly, and Dr. Doltz said before leaving here and it was his dream to settle down right here in Sandy some day! Sandy hold out a welcome "fist!"

Road Opened From Here to Gladstone

The road had a large number of holes and bad spots, which have been re-surfaced. It is now in good condition.
