Community Meeting Held at Elk Prairie

ELK PRAIRIE, Aug. 10.—About forty people met at the Fraely house for the last Community meeting. Among the guests from elsewhere were Messrs. Ray Dougherty and Walter A. Holt. Mr. Dougherty, who is president of Clackamas County Farm Bureau and who has helped to organize the Farm Bureau both in Clackamas County and in several other Counties of the state, spoke before the Elk Prairie Community Club. He told of the Farm Bureau work, which was greatly appreciated by his audience.

Mr. Holt who is county agricultural agent also spoke. He soon proved that he understood many of the problems in a new neighborhood, which fact was greatly appreciated.

This was Mr. Holt's first visit to Elk Prairie and Mr. Dougherty had not been in this vicinity for ten years. Both gentlemen made many friends while here.

The business of the Club, music and lunch completed the program. A number of neighbors promised to assist Vane Henness to raise his new log house.

All who attended the meeting were invited to a house warming at the home of Jack Young. This young homesteader arrived in Elk Prairie a short time ago and seemingly has proved himself to be quite a popular bachelor.

A number of neighbors have promised to attend a barn raising on the Richard Joplin property.

Mr. Ruiz of Portland, who has filed on a homestead in the Marie Grove district, attended the meeting. He was the guest of Frank Yacubec.

Mrs. Palmer, and sons of Portland, who were guests of Mrs. Richard Joplin also attended the meeting.

Frank Yacubec spent the week end at his homestead with his family. Mr. Yacubec works in Portland and had to leave very early Monday morning to be in time for the first train from Molalla to Portland.

Chas. Tidd, who has been working at the Hawley paper mill in Oregon City, returned to visit with his family. Mr. Tidd is preparing to prove up on his claim soon.

The directors of District No. 213, met at the home of Frank Hilton Sunday in regard to school business.

Mrs. Richard Joplin has been enjoying a visit from her niece and baby Mrs. Spence, of Alberta, Canada, visited her sister, Mrs. Elmer Snider at this place.

Church has been held at the Cool Creek school house, at the other end of this district, for the past few weeks. A dance was held at the home of Wilburt Snider, in the Cool Creek neighborhood. Messrs. Jones furnished the music.

A son arrived at the home of D. W. Badger August eighth. The young homesteader received the name of Joyce.

Services Are Held At Tualatin Church

TUALATIN, Aug. 8.—"He would not for awhile" was the text of Dr. Youngson's sermon on Sunday morning at Tualatin and it was certainly a great discourse. In spite of the fact that so many are away on vacation just now, there was a good congregation. A pleasing feature of the service was the pianoforte solo by Miss Florence Hill, and the following the sermon the pastor sang "God will answer your prayer." A fine lunch was served at noon by the Ladies Aid of which Mrs. Nettie Cimino is president and the pastor announced that the Tualatin church will be painted next month and this will be a great asset to the community. Following this business session we had a service with Dr. J. A. Abbott from Portland who offered suggestions by which we might close up the conference year in good shape and as a result the Tualatin church decided to adopt the budget system now so successfully worked in most churches.

Sunday next the church services will be held as usual. At the Tualatin church the men's trio will sing a special number "Thy' our sins be as scarlet" and Mrs. R. H. Helmback will be the pianoforte accompanist.

A. C. Duley and daughter Gertrude are visiting Mr. Duley's daughter, Mrs. Olive Gilroy at Woodland, Wash., for a few days.

Mrs. Minnie Bates the wife of the Tualatin and Wilsonville pastor went to Tualatin on Saturday afternoon, visited several friends there and was present at the Sunday services and luncheon. She is now visiting her parents in Sellwood for a few days.

Sherman Seely from Wilsonville attended the Quarterly Conference and extra business session at the Tualatin church on Sunday afternoon.

Dodge Community Club Holds Meet

DODGE, Aug. 8.—The Community Club held its monthly meeting last Saturday evening. There was a goodly number present and a very enjoyable time was spent. A prize was given for the best essay on "How can the community club best serve the district." There were three essays read, the prize going to Fred Horner, who offered the same to be again competed for next month and given to the one writing the best essay on "The Community Spirit." The reading of the community newspaper was a source of great enjoyment to all present and kept the audience bubbling with merriment. There was some business under consideration which it was hoped will eventually benefit the district quite a good deal. One feature of the entertainment deserving of

Special Mention

Edgar Allen Poe's poem "The Raven" by M. Pederson. It was very ably done and was a pleasing surprise to all present and much appreciated. A small show of flowers grown in the district was held, which was a source of much satisfaction to the promoters because of the beautiful and abundant supply of flowers presented, after which a fine supper was partaken of and enjoyed by all present.

Harvesters Busy In Macksburg Section

MACKSBURG, Aug. 10.—Through-out the length of these August days from earliest dawn till the sun has withdrawn his rays at night may be heard the ceaseless whir of the threshing machine, with intermission only for the three daily meals.

From everywhere comes the story of abundant yield. The weather—though too dry for pleasure on the highways—is ideal for handling grain, not only in the constant, cooling breeze which makes the most strenuous work endurable, even throughout the heated hours of mid-day. Meantime the refreshing nights undisturbed by either the heat or mosquitoes prevalent in so many regions makes everything new by the approach of dawn.

Small leisure is there for social duties, yet the Frauen Verein of the Lutheran church and the Mothers' Club of Macksburg hold their own, both trying to accomplish some good while enjoying brief surcease from the daily routine.

The Mother's Club is to meet in the present week at the home of Mrs. David Murphy on Thursday afternoon. Goc Walsh Sr., who was alarmingly ill through most of the past week, is reported as being decidedly better today.

Mrs. Lathrop who with her family has lately moved on to the ranch owned by Mike Walsh is seriously ill.

Little Mabel Keil, who for an accident sustained in the school yard at Macksburg, has been unable to walk throughout the summer, is getting well, now.

Mrs. Vogel of Portland is the guest of her mother, Mrs. Gibson.

Meadowbrook Items

MEADOWBROOK, Aug. 10.—Mrs. Amelia Chidgester and Ruth Chidgester returned home Saturday evening, after spending the past month in the East visiting relatives and friends they were glad to get back to Oregon as it was so hot and dry back there.

Several from here attended the funeral services of Elmer Demours at Molalla Sunday afternoon. The body arrived from France on Thursday. Myrtle Durrud went back to her work in Portland Sunday after spending a three weeks' vacation with her parents. The Chidgester brothers started their threshing machine up this week.

Myrtle Larkins returned home Tuesday after spending the last week at Marquam.

Mrs. Carl Beaver left Saturday for Condon to join her husband who is hauling grain to that place. Several from around here attended the poultry demonstration at the Kaula and Salo Poultry farm at Meadowbrook Wednesday afternoon.

Picnic Is Held At Beaver Creek Hall

BEAVER CREEK, Aug. 10.—A number of the young people attended a party given in the Grange hall Saturday evening July 30. Games and music were enjoyed until a late hour, and a light lunch was served.
