

NEWS FROM ALL OVER THE COUNTY

Correspondence From All Over the County Telling of Improvements and Local Happenings During The Past Week—Your Subscription Will Receive Prompt Attention.

Growers Organize New Packing Co.

ESTACADA, Aug. 24.—Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Bass and family returned Monday evening from their outing at the beach. They report a fine time.

Mrs. Clark Posson and daughter Leta, who were visiting in Oregon City, returned home Tuesday.

Miss Ruth Dillon, cashier in the Estacada State Bank, left Wednesday for a two weeks vacation. She first goes to Portland, after which she will visit at Bull Run and some coast points.

Miss Marian Dunlop returned home Tuesday evening from Moomouth, where she has been attending summer school.

Miss Helen Wooster is home again after a visit with relatives in Portland.

Earl Shibley has rented the Jubb property and will move the first of next month from the Reed residence on Main street. Mrs. Jubb is going to move onto her farm.

A new incorporation known as the Estacada Packing Co. was organized at a meeting of the fruit growers of this section last Friday night. W. R. Woodworth, John Osborn and Earl Day are the incorporators. Stock subscription was opened and twenty-seven growers present subscribed for 71 shares of the stock, according to their acreage for each acre or fraction thereof. The capital stock is $5000.

The fruit growers were highly enthusiastic in the new incorporation, because of the flattering results of the unorganized growers in taking care of their berry crop and the excellent prices. The canner is now in charge of R. C. Deming, who will take care of the evergreen berry crop.

Rev. Upton Gibbs of this place filled the pulpit for the Episcopal congregation at Milwaukee last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Bartlett returned from their trip to Eastern Oregon Sunday night.

Miss Alice Wells of Portland, was here this week visiting with her sister, Mrs. L. A. Wells.

Albert Lichthorn has gone to Eastern Oregon.

Mrs. Gladys Stamp and little brother, are visiting their sister at Tacoma. J. O. Roberts, a brother-in-law of V. W. Hauser, with his wife and children, have been Estacada visitors.

They drove an Auburn car from Tampa, Florida, a distance of 4,000 miles. Mr. Roberts is an old hotel man and has decided to locate here. The party accompanied by James Hauser, father of V. W. Hauser, left Monday in their car for a trip to Los Angeles, California.

Three car loads of lumber, two of which contain merchantable Japanese, which are timbers in size 2x4x24 and 2x4 to 40 feet in length, from the Kaake & Jubb mill at Springfield, were shipped from this place recently.

R. M. Standish drove over from Portland Wednesday to spend his vacation in this vicinity fishing. "Rob" is a noted fisher, but no doubt will miss his former comrade in piscatorial sport, John Page, who is at present laid up with a broken leg.

Rev. T. Abbott of Portland, will occupy the M. E. pulpit next Sunday morning at 11 o'clock and will preach at Zion church at 3 p. m. at Garfield at 7.30 in the evening.

Dr. and Mrs. Harry Morgan, after a month's visit here with the doctor's parents and other relatives, have returned to their home at Roseburg. They spent ten days of their vacation at Longbeach, Wash.

Mrs. S. A. Roberts, of Boring, spent the week-end with her sister, Mrs. R. E. Davis, of Garfield.

Miss Mary Oakley, who is visiting her sister, Miss Reed, spent a few days with her brother at Newberg.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Glover, of Upton, Calif., were in Estacada last week, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Gatz.

Miss Edith Harkenrider visited at Bull Run Saturday.

Mrs. C. F. Howe and Miss Lelia Howe, spent the day in Portland Saturday.

Rev. C. Burchett has sold his Re-Nu-Em tailor shop to I. W. Varley, who comes here from Donald, Oregon. Mr. Burchett left for Seattle Tuesday evening to join his wife and baby who preceded him one day last week. Mr. Burchett said on leaving that he would return in about thirty days and open up a music store.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Simmons, of Forest Grove, formerly of this place, were here last Sunday to visit their cousin, Mrs. Margaret Shock.

C. E. Kilgore motored to Portland and returned with his wife and little daughter who had been visiting in the city for a few days.

The Schoen family motored to Forest Grove a few days ago.

Miss Connors, who signed up to teach the primary grade in the Estacada schools and who taught last year in the primary grade, has sent in her resignation.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Bartlett, of Coquille, Oregon, visited his brother Ed, and wife Tuesday.

Pioneer Is Laid to Final Resting Place

MOLALLA, Aug. 24.—Frank Oglesby and family left Sunday for the huckleberry patch, expecting to be gone a week.

Donald Baute, has been visiting the past week at Aurora.

The funeral services of Mrs. Mattie Williams of Molalla were held Sunday at two o'clock from the family residence, Rev. Love officiating. Interment was made in the Adams cemetery. Mrs. Williams was born in the state of Missouri, her maiden name being Mattie Bryan. In 1894 she with her parents crossed the plains with an ox team and settled in the Salinas valley in California, where Miss Mattie was reared. She married Jacob Noble at the age of seventeen years with whom she lived until his death, about twelve years ago. She remained a widow for eleven years when she then married her present husband.

She was a devout member of the Church of Christ and was well known for her sweet and loving disposition. The funeral was attended by a large number of friends and relatives. She has been a resident of Molalla for the past five years and is survived by her husband, two stepsons, John and Will, and a step daughter, Mrs. M. Allen of Fresno, California.

Bessie Hanson of Portland spent a few days visiting at the A. T. Shoemaker home. She returned home Thursday.

Harry Hibbard and Mr. Corbia left Thursday for the mountains on a hunting trip.

Ruby Clark of Portland spent the week-end with her cousin, Alberta Shoemaker.

Lewis' Daughtery and Raleigh Echerd left Monday for a trip through Eastern Oregon. They expect to cover most of Central and Southern Oregon and also intend to take in the Penitentiary Round-Up.

Miss Dorothy Terrill of Oregon City visited the past week with Alberta Shoemaker.

Several from here spent the week-end hunting in the mountains. Among them were Dr. Dillard, Solon Echerd, A. Miller and Jesse Mitts.

A. T. Shoemaker left this week for Oregon City where he intends building a residence for Neil Terrill.

Fred Burns and wife and Dave Pendleton and wife are among those who left Sunday for Bagby Springs.

Mrs. Anna Clifford is having a modern house erected on her lots east of the postoffice.

Quite a lot of blackberries are being brought to Molalla.

Mr. and Mrs. George Durant of Portland are visiting at the home of Mrs. Durant's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Will Standing.

Thelma Vernon who has been visiting with Mrs. Yoran of Eugene returned home Saturday.

Mrs. Annie Dahl died Friday at the home of her son, H. H. Dahl. She was 88 years of age. The funeral was held Sunday at Canby. Rev. Moore officiating.

Mrs. J. Huso and daughter, Elaine, of Crosby, North Dakota, who has been visiting Mrs. Fred Park for several days left this week for Silverton to visit relatives.

Mr. Knapp and son, Elwin, are at their ranch at Hood River and report the pear crop very good there this year.

Mrs. John Bowman is visiting at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Clay Hungate.

Clyde Engles new home on Molalla Avenue is nearing completion.

Mrs. Amelia Ramsay and daughter, Alta, spent Sunday with Mrs. Fred Shaffer.

Mrs. Inez Hunt of Mt. Solo, Wash., is visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. T. Kay.

Mrs. J. Dyle spent the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Doc Sailer.

Mrs. Sailer visited friends in Portland the past week.

Will Poiran and family returned from California where they have been spending the past year. They came through in their car, making the trip in about six days.

Mrs. Eliza Hamilton of Rockaway, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. M. Pelkey returned to her home Monday.

Earl Wells left Monday on a hunting trip to the mountains.

Elmer Sawtell and wife returned Saturday from High Camp where they have been for several days picking huckleberries.

Harry Hibbard has purchased a Buick Grand Chevrolet.

Chavivari Given to Eagle Creek Couple

EAGLE CREEK, Aug. 24.—Mr. and Mrs. Douglas motored to Logan last Wednesday and spent the day at the home of Geo. Preister. Mr. Preister was threshing and Mr. Douglas went over to help.

Did you hear "dem" bells? Last Wednesday Perry Murphy and Miss Lillian Evans, accompanied by the parents of the groom, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Murphy, and Mr. and Mrs. Ray Woodie, motored to Oregon City and were married. That evening some of the neighbors gathered with their sheep-bells, cow-bells, horns and shot-guns and charivariated them. The crowd was invited in and treated to watermelon. We wish them a long and happy life together.

Most of the farmers in this neighborhood are through with the threshing.

People keep going to and coming from the huckleberry patch up near Wild Cat mountain, making quite a bit of travel through this burg.

Eagle Creek Grange met Saturday night about seventeen present, including the children. After partaking of a fine dinner a short business session was held. We hope there will be a larger attendance at our September meeting for we are to discuss the raising of poultry and will have a chicken dinner and also expect the County Agent and Mr. Shearer, of Springfield to be present and talk on poultry raising.

Carus News Items

CARUS, Aug. 22.—Richard McCarthy returned home Monday from a cruise in the navy up through British Columbia, Astoria and Bremerton and a few other places of interest. He says he enjoyed the trip very much.

William Miller of Seattle is spending a few days with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Miller, Sr.

Chas. Willbanks has purchased a team and wagon and is hauling wood for Mr. Baggaw.

Charles Kilgore motored to Oregon City one day last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Eli Russell has traded their farm in Carus for property near Portland.

Mr. Ed Brown made a trip to Oregon City Thursday.

George Miller, son of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Miller, had a rather hard fall one day last week. He fell fifteen feet from a tree and was unconscious for several hours.

Mrs. Augusta Schoenborn spent the past week with her son Albert Schoenborn.

Miss Emma Casaday and Miss Maude O'Leary spent Thursday afternoon with Miss Minnie Edwards.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Schoenborn and family of Molalla spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Al Schoenborn.

Miss Anna and Emma Jost spent Saturday afternoon with the Fisher girls.

Mrs. A. P. Jones and children spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Even Lewis.

Mrs. Herman Fisher and daughters, Pauline and Ruth made a trip to Portland last Friday.

Meadowbrook Items

MEADOWBROOK, Aug. 24.—School will begin September 26 with Ruth Chindgren as teacher for the upper grades and Alma Libberg of Oregon City as the primary teacher.

Several from here have gone to the mountains and several returned already with huckleberries.

Allen Larkins left Thursday for Kings Valley where he is driving a truck.

M. D. Chindgren and family, Ruth and Ruben Chindgren spent Sunday at Whitot.

Edgar Horner of the Horner and Millard Mill formerly a resident of this place but now of Long Beach, California, was one of the survivors of the wrecked steamer Alaska. He drifted on a door for five hours then later got on a piece of the ship deck for about an hour, later getting in a boat that drifted by when they rowed for several miles and later were picked up by the Anxox.

Myrtle and Hazel Larkins, Petra and Ingauld Dunrud attended the play at Marquam given by Scotts Mills talent.

Rufus Holman and family spent Sunday with the Reverend Renhard and family of Colton.

Mrs. Ralph Holman and children of Molalla spent Sunday with the Chas. Holman family.

Petra Dunrud and Myrtle Larkins left for the hopyard near Monitor Wednesday.

Logan News Items

LOGAN, Aug. 24.—With three threshing crews operating here it will not be long until the grain will be in the granary.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Etheridge entertained friends Sunday at their home here.

Rev. O. W. Taylor and family are sojourning at their ranch here for a few days.

Mrs. F. S. Hutchins has returned from a visit to her sons family in Eastern Oregon, coming as far as her brothers at The Dalles, where she was met by Mr. Hutchins and Miss Margaret who motored up Sunday to meet her. They report a most enjoyable trip, except the wind blew too hard for "Webfooters" to feel real "comfy."

Lad Hill Items

LAD HILL, Aug. 24.—Born to Mr. and Mrs. Roy Hacker Saturday, Aug. 13, a daughter. She has been named Azalia Rose.

Everyone is happy as threshing is over without a rain.

Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Parrott, Miss Martha Struve and Bruno Struve while returning from the dance on the highway had a break down. They halted a passing car and succeeded in getting home without further difficulty.

Mrs. George Smith and son Howard spent the week-end in Fernwood with her mother Mrs. H. N. Baker.

Mrs. Nellie McCully returned from Oregon City last Sunday and is improving slowly after her sudden illness.

Ec. Martin and family of Newberg visited Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. L. Martin.

Mr. and Mrs. John Sovey came from Portland Saturday to visit friends returning Sunday.

Mrs. L. D. Kayzer of Portland was the week-end guest of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Loucks.

There will be a bazaar and ice cream social Saturday evening, August 27, at the school house. Everyone welcome. Proceeds to go for new hall.

Swedish Journalist Visitor at Dodge

KELSO, Aug. 24.—Miss Magnhid Anderson, a journalist of Minneapolis, Minnesota, was the guest of Mrs. Robert Jonarud for a few days last week. Miss Anderson, whose pen-name is "Viola," publishes a magazine for Swedish women of America called "Nya Idun," and has the distinction of being the only woman in the world who is owner and manager of such a publication. She is a versatile writer and well known throughout the United States among Swedish-American readers. Her style of writing is wonderfully fascinating and rich in expression. Her outstanding characteristic is her utter fearlessness in presenting the truth as she believes it. She has a profound knowledge of the political history of the world, possesses keen powers of perception, and a swift and deep insight into human nature and conditions. She is touring the West and lecturing in various parts.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Jonarud and sons Russel, Roland and Kenneth of Grants Pass were visitors at the homes of Gilbert and Robert Jonarud last week.

Meadowbrook Items

MEADOWBROOK, Aug. 24.—School will begin September 26 with Ruth Chindgren as teacher for the upper grades and Alma Libberg of Oregon City as the primary teacher.

Several from here have gone to the mountains and several returned already with huckleberries.

Allen Larkins left Thursday for Kings Valley where he is driving a truck.

M. D. Chindgren and family, Ruth and Ruben Chindgren spent Sunday at Whitot.

Edgar Horner of the Horner and Millard Mill formerly a resident of this place but now of Long Beach, California, was one of the survivors of the wrecked steamer Alaska. He drifted on a door for five hours then later got on a piece of the ship deck for about an hour, later getting in a boat that drifted by when they rowed for several miles and later were picked up by the Anxox.

Myrtle and Hazel Larkins, Petra and Ingauld Dunrud attended the play at Marquam given by Scotts Mills talent.

Rufus Holman and family spent Sunday with the Reverend Renhard and family of Colton.

Mrs. Ralph Holman and children of Molalla spent Sunday with the Chas. Holman family.

Petra Dunrud and Myrtle Larkins left for the hopyard near Monitor Wednesday.

Logan News Items

LOGAN, Aug. 24.—With three threshing crews operating here it will not be long until the grain will be in the granary.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Etheridge entertained friends Sunday at their home here.

Rev. O. W. Taylor and family are sojourning at their ranch here for a few days.

Mrs. F. S. Hutchins has returned from a visit to her sons family in Eastern Oregon, coming as far as her brothers at The Dalles, where she was met by Mr. Hutchins and Miss Margaret who motored up Sunday to meet her. They report a most enjoyable trip, except the wind blew too hard for "Webfooters" to feel real "comfy."

Work on the Mt. Hood Loop road is now running in this vicinity.

The new part of the road has been cut from the corner of Kelso through Mrs. Sandall's land. A new cut has also been made in front of Gilbert Jonarud's place.

The Henry Eri family spent the week-end camping and picking huckleberries in the vicinity of Government camp.

Ned Nelson's fine new residence is nearing completion. The house has been wired for electricity and the plastering is also finished.

An eleven-pound son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Victor Lundeen (nee Mabel Jonrud) Sunday night at her parent's home where her mother Mrs. Gilbert Jonrud is caring for her. Mother and child are doing well.

A daughter weighing eleven pounds was born to Mr. and Mrs. Dock Hito on Friday. Mrs. Hite is being cared for at Mrs. Tunnermanns Sanitarium at Gresham.

Mrs. Max Kligel will entertain the Woman's Club on Thursday this week. School will open September 6th with Miss Vaeretti and Mrs. Baumback, teachers.

Mrs. Isaac Scott entertained Miss Magnhid Anderson and Mrs. Robert Jonrud at dinner on Thursday.

Beaver Creek News Items of Interest

BEAVER CREEK, Aug. 24.—Four of the local boys, Arvin Parry, Willard Bohlander, Wm. Roberts and George Watts, are somewhere in the mountains of the Molalla river hunting for "big game."

Mr. and Mrs. E. Holmes, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Cota, and Dan Fellows of Highland came through Beaver Creek last Saturday on their way home from Mt. Hood where they had been picking huckleberries. They had with them 50 gallons of berries.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Mosier were out from Portland to spend Thursday night at their home here, and enjoyed a big supper with a few relatives and friends. Those taking part in the feast were Mr. and Mrs. Ben Fisher, Mr. and Mrs. Ab. Thomas, the Misses Laura and Elsie Meibs and Erna Blumh, Messrs. Coxey and William Thomas, Mr. and Mrs. Mosier.

Mrs. Oscar Orr and baby were visiting relatives in Portland a few days last week.

Mr. Makinster returned Sunday from Eastern Oregon where he has been working for several weeks.

Mrs. J. Schram, Eva and Lloyd Schram spent Sunday afternoon with the J. J. Hanhart family at Highland.

Miss Annie Roberts was out visiting her home folks one day last week.

Macksburg Items

MACKSBURG, Aug. 24.—A little child from the Portland Baby Home has found a home with Mr. and Mrs. Roberts who have lately bought and moved on the ranch formerly owned by Theodore Schier.

The little one, though only three months old, seems already to have taken contentedly to its new abode.

Rev. Fr. Lucas of Chehalis, Wash., and his wife are visiting at the home of Mrs. Lucas's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Heinz. Mr. Lucas is well remembered as former pastor of the Macksburg Lutheran church.

Eli, the little son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Walsh, has had the misfortune to break his arm in falling from a plum tree.

Mrs. Ed Burgess, with her little daughter Florence, who, for some, has been helping her brother Joe Gibson in his store, has gone to her home in the East. Louis Gibson is, for the present, taking his sisters place in the store.

Miss Tweedy who, last year, had charge of the Macksburg school, visited friends in Macksburg last week. The Mullino school has secured Miss Tweedy's services for the coming year. All of the adjacent schools have provided themselves with teachers for the coming year and are ready to open for work in the early Fall.

DODGE, Aug. 24.—M. Pederson made a business trip to Portland last week.

J. W. Marrs has been hauling lumber for his new house and intends to begin building operations immediately after harvest.

Mrs. Finster returned home on Wednesday from Sydney where she has spent nearly two weeks visiting her sister.

J. Reichle and Mrs. Reichle spent Sunday visiting at the Jochimsen home.

W. E. Myers and his son Ralph are doing some work for W. Cary at his place in the mountains.

A surprise party was given Mr. Fred Horner on Saturday evening. It being her birthday a number of her relatives and friends took this method of celebrating the event. A very enjoyable evening was spent.

Mrs. Hohnst-in and Mrs. Heffendin and families have gone to the hop fields.

George Rowe, who was a resident of Dodge in her earlier years spent most of her school days at Dodge school both Sundays and week days, came again on Monday to visit the home of her childhood and spent a few days with her sister, Mrs. Jockinson, bringing with her a friend, Miss Wilson, of Roseburg. Monday being Ed. Jockinson's birthday quite a large number of the neighbors celebrated the double event by dropping in on them at a time when decent law abiding citizens should be preparing to go to bed. Each company carried a large bundle, said bundles being opened and disposed of later. A very pleasant time was spent by all, who departed in the early hours.

Meldrum Notes

Asael Tabor and wife returned Saturday night from a trip to Seaside.

Miss Edith Styles has returned to her home in Portland after a pleasant visit with her aunt, Mrs. J. L. McCulloch.

Mr. and Mrs. Blake Rowland entertained Wm. Gardner and family and Mrs. Mary Ireland at a dinner Tuesday evening.

Mrs. Hilda Turner and children left for Puyallup Tuesday after visiting her parents Mr. and Mrs. Victor Erickson.

Mrs. Roland Richards visited Portland friends Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Walker have returned from a trip to White Salmon, Washington.

Rex Hibbard and family accompanied by Mrs. Ida R. Hutchinson and son Colby of Oregon City and Mr. and Mrs. Russ Johnston of Portland formed a party to visit Columbia Highway as far as Eagle Creek on Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas White returned Monday from a visit to Seaside.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Gardner entertained at cards Friday evening Mr. and Mrs. Lester French, David French, Jack Evans, Miss Thelma Olson, "Bob" Hanson, of Portland, Mrs. Mary Ireland, Miss planche Gardner, Emil Larson. Refreshments were served.

I've tried them all but give me a Camel

I'm through experimenting. No more switching. No more trying this and that. It's Camels for me—every time.

They're so refreshing! So smooth! So mellow mild!

Why? The answer is Camels exclusive expert blend of choice Turkish and Domestic tobaccos. There's nothing like it.

No other cigarette you can buy gives you the real sure-enough, all-day satisfaction that comes from the Camel blend. Camel is the quality cigarette.

Give Camels a tryout. Buy a pack today. Get your information first hand. You'll tie to Camels, too.

R. J. REYNOLDS Tobacco Co. Winston-Salem, N. C.

Capital Garage

WE SPECIALIZE ON

REPAIR WORK

Personal Attention Given to all Work. Every Job Guaranteed.

Fords Overhauled $20.00

MORRIS & CRAWFORD

TUALATIN MEADOWS NEWS
(Too late for last week)

TUALATIN MEADOWS, Aug. 17.—Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Schroeder were visiting in Portland last Sunday.

Mrs. John Wanker and son Elva were in Oregon City Tuesday.

C. D. Ackerson has sold his place to Robert Payne.

Joe Raicy celebrated his fourth birthday Wednesday August 17.

Lulu Schroeder was visiting her sisters in Willamette several days last week.

Frank Raicy Sr. was out from Portland to visit his son John and family Tuesday.

Will person near Sandy who found roll of blankets east of Pleasant Home on August first, please address R. A. G. care of Oregon City Enterprise. Blankets are valued as keepsakes. Reward offered.—Adv.

George News Items

GEORGE, Aug. 22.—Mrs. Whiling of Sellwood is visiting her daughter Anna Chaney at George this week.

Mrs. E. Star and son Marvin of Redmond are visiting the former's sister Gladys Weisenfluh of George for a few days this week.

Ed Harders and Peter Ruhl and wife motored to Gresham last Sunday.

Chas Rendleman who has been working at Pendleton, returned to his home at George last week.

Ted Harder and wife visited Mr. and Mrs. Chaney last Sunday.

Mrs. Marie Klimker and children visited Mr. and Mrs. L. Rath last Sunday.