H. Lubke came out from the city Monday bag and baggage and is go ing to build a bungalow on his land near Haselwander's place. Thus improvements continue in this section. The following criticism of the far west was made recently by an east-erner who has been visiting all along the coast for several months; and was in Sandy also for several weeks "While the climate is lovely and attractions are great on the coast the 1 cople seem to reek only what amuses them, and spend every energy to find some "new" pleasure, and, naturally, the poise of the spiritual is so decidely lacking that one accustomed to seeking the real and lasting things of life cannot help feeling there is need of more of the intellectual and spiritual, rather than having only sports for a constant diet."

Ezekiel Beers and Fred Proctor went to Portland Sunday to see Rev. Alexander Beers who has just returned from California very little improved in health. Rev. Beers has been failing for about eight months.

A surprise party was given the Charley Bartlemay family on Sandy ridge a few days ago, as an expression of the esteem in which these perfectly good citizens were held in their neighborhood. A delightful time was had. The Bartelmays leave soon for their new home in Eastern Oregon.

Mr and Mrs Frank Kerr, their daughter and two maids of Portland are located on the George Strong place for the remainder of the summer season. The Kerrs have leased this place for two or three years and will, in a small way, at least, become acquainted with our own home town. R. Monroe Gilbert who spenk a week here as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. D. F. Eason left Monday for Salem where he has an exceptional arts and crafts establishment and studio combined. Mr. Gilbert carscenes around Sandy, any says he hopes to return next summer and camp "right down by the Sandy" for two weeks to paint the fascinating scenes along this turbulent little river. Two scenes were painted near the old Proctor mill, one at Cedar creek on the Strack place, and two of Mt Hood up the Firwood way. There were so many attractive places Gilbert said he "hardly knew what to paint first."

Mrs. George Perret and children spent a whole week in Portland visit ing at her mother's home, returning a day or two ago. Her mother, Mrs. Acheson, will leave for New York shortly with her daughter, Miss Edna Acheson for a few months' stay in the great metropolis. Tourist patronage at the mountain resorts and even the seaside hotels is said to be far below normal this summer. Just what the reason is, is problematical.

Erwin, the youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. W .E. Child of Poring had the misfortune to fall and break two bones in his elbow last week. Dr Hughes of Gresham was called to attend the case.

Mrs. J. C. Dake will probably be home in a day or two from a trip to Crater Lake.

The following guests enjoyed dancing party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Dahrens last Saturday night and they danced until the small hours everyone having a lot of fun: Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Elliott and Zene, Mr. and Mrs Will Carrow, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Wawer, Miss Mildred Bosholm, Miss Nettie Schmitz, Herman Krebs, Martha and Bertha Hoffman. Mr. and Mrs Walter Krebs and Harold, Mr. and Mrs. George Beers, Justice Strowbridge and Miss Helzer, of Portland, who was a week-end guest at the Dahrens home. Sandwiches, coffee, cake and salad were served.

Mrs. James B. Robinson was the victim of an automobile accident Thursday night while driving from her home in Portland to Oregon City. Her son, Don Robinson, was at the wheel of their touring car when they encountered Dr. Hamilton, of Portland, just south of Milwaukie, where the pavement is damaged, one side of the street being blocked with red warning lights hanging to the barricade

Hamilton did not observe the obstruction until he was within a few feet of it when he swerved sharply being spent at the home of his aunt, to the west side of the road, crashing into the Robinson machine, Both cars were damaged, but Hamilton was able to proceed to Portland. while the Robinson automobile was towed to a garage, with the fenders and hood crushed and a front wheel smashed.

Mrs. Robinson was slightly bruised.
