

tering huckleberry bush where the god of sleep had closed his eyes peacefully after his "tummy" was filled with berries!

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Dixon and four charming daughters, three young gentlemen and Mr. and Mrs. F. D. Esson and children had a big picnic trip huckleberry outing last Sunday up the mountains, returning with a goodly quantity.

Will Bosholm is busy making his thrasher hum in the Firwood district this week.

The Gunderson boys threshed last Tuesday and Krebs went from them to the Zoggs. The grain is a fair crop, according to reports.

Jack Scales took another lot of huckleberries to Portland for Harry Dodson. There were 56 gallons in this lot.

C. Scharnk and son put the finishing coat on the Will Updegrave house this week.

H. Dahl, (below Cottrell) is raising seed corn for Rontlage's Seed Store. Dahl says ten car lots of potatoes have already been engaged in the Yakima valley to ship east. The potato crop seems a failure in places.

Someone broke into the cabin belonging to Gus Locust down near the Sandy river last week and carried off clothing and nearly everything in the cabin. A window was broken open by the thief, who is supposed to have known Locust had gone away for a day or two. The Locusts had been out for two weeks.

"Bill" Severin, who has started a garage at Klamath, expects to come out and run the business himself later on, and the Severin family will likely move out.

Max Woenche lost a horse valued at two dollars a few days ago which is hard luck again. The animal was not sick long and was supposed to have died from colic but when an autopsy was performed the lining of the stomach was burst "rolled up" in a bunch. The cause was thought to have been from a hurt from running down hill or falling over logs in the timber.

Woenche is still able to get around on crutches, and keep about the same.

Levi Hoaglan is going to have his ranch house painted, and F. H. Lake has also been doing some inside painting in the Scales residence.

George Koeseher lost a valuable cow a few days ago from milk fever. They did not know the trouble till the animal was too far gone.

R. E. Esson and Cecil Duke returned from a wonderful roust-about camping, fishing, hunting etc. trip of about two weeks' duration. They seem to have saved themselves over most of the Coast Range country and finally landed in Astoria so as to drive home over the perfectly fine highway.

They caught more fish than they could eat, so tried to cure some but didn't get the right "wrinkle on it".

The chief engineer for the Dryer R. has a new credit rating well outlined as far as the Three Six country. The road will pass directly through the Pizzola-Poitano farm. This road will, from all indications, be one of importance later on.

Mario Poitano took six fat hogs down to the stock yards last week and visited his relatives, the Pastorinos' on his return. Pastorino says the gardeners are making good near Troutdale, as they sell direct to the consumer. Otherwise they could not pay $25.00 per acre rent. Poitano says the farmer cannot do that—yet.

Will Updegrave is now making the "paint fly" all over his buildings and his place is going to look very attractive.

Dr. Sture is putting in all his spare moments with the brush, also, and the Meinig property will soon have its coat finished. Truly paint has covered many dingy looking houses this fall and the transformation is marvelous.

Mrs. Bertha A. Purcell, graduate of the Royal Conservatory of Leipzig, Germany and a pupil of Scambati of Rome announces her winter season to begin Monday, Sept. 12. In addition to piano and voice, Mrs. Purcell will also form a class in harmony and also announce a series of monthly musicals to be given at her studio the coming season. These evening affairs of music will be in the nature of lectures and recitals and will prove both helpful and instructive to the ambitious young student. The first six months will be devoted to the study of the old classics the second half will be taken up with operatic music, old and new. Mrs. Kate Schmitz and Miss Eloise Hall will be the assistants this year, both of whom are favorably known as instructors and concert musicians.

SANDY SCHOOL NEWS

SANDY, Aug. 31.—The Sandy Parent Teacher meeting at Junker's confectionery was not as well attended as should have been. Steps were taken to get sidewalks in shape for the winter, so the children would not need to roll in the mud as was necessary last year. An entertainment will probably be announced before long to raise funds toward the sidewalk project Mrs. Scales presided and refreshments were served.

The Cottrell Parent Teacher will give a big entertainment Friday evening, September 2, (today) to raise a fund toward paying for a new piano this enterprising P. T. has purchased. There will be a fine program of local talent and the Sandy quartet will sing. Refreshments will be sold after the program is concluded.

A 10-pound baby boy was born to Mr. and Mrs. Bert Hite at the home of Hite's parents at Orient this week. Dr. Williams officiated.

The Dr. was called at George Finn's home Tuesday night to attend Cecil Finn who was quite sick.

Miss Pauline Zogg is at home again and is feeling fine most of the time, especially when she eats and sleeps regularly.

Mr. and Mrs. Truman Ritchey of Boring have named their first born Sophie Jean, and both baby and the mother are getting on fine.

Part of the Bartelmy family left on Wednesday for the new home in Eastern Oregon, the rest will follow soon.

Miss Barbara Zogg is staying at the Woodcock ranch near Bull Run at present.

Threshing at Matz Zogg's Tuesday and Wednesday did not prove so exciting and disastrous as last year. They threshed in the field this time so as to take no chances. The grain was very good.

The regular preaching services at the Sandy Methodist church will be held next Sunday by Rev. Earl Cotton, the pastor.

Deep Creek News

SANDY, Aug. 31.—The following live news was sent in from our neighboring community Deep Creek this week: Mr. and Mrs. Mowrey of Deep Creek are the proud parents of a ten pound boy born Wednesday, Aug. 24, "Grandma" Mowrey wears a smile while "Grandpa" Mowrey requires a cane.....this being their first grandchild.

Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Erdman, daughter Esther, and Mildred and Esther Anderson spent Sunday in Portland visiting Mr. and Mrs. B. V. Anderson.
