o'clock. The lightning flashed and the thunder crashed The windows rattled like an earthquake was getting busy.

Al Emily, his sister and some friends, drove up the mountains on a huckleberry trip a few days ago. Emily has been working at Springdale this summer and considers himself lucky to have a job at the rock crusher there.

Warren Wilkins was home from the head works over the week end, since Monday was Labor day.

Mrs - Jack Scales, Mrs. J. C. Duke, Cecil Duke and Miss Mary Collier 'suppered" at the J. M. C. Miller home Sunday evening.

Miss Caroline Vaeretti attended the big ocmmunity council all day affair at Orient Monday. J. D. Tobin, contract bridge builder on the highway, is here again this The seventh bridge is under contruction. Tobin is at the Sandy hotel.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Duke and Mrs Miller attended the Labor Day progra of the community council at Orient Monday, then drove to Morris Wheelers home and make a "raid" on the Wheeler Himalayas.

Mr Johnson, Sr. of Orient, is not in his usual health, in fact has been quite ill and is on a diet.

John Bryen, father of Mrs. A. J. Ault is quite ill and was taken to Portland Tuesday to have an X-ray taken.

Mr. and Mrs. Victor Lundeen are re ceiving congratulations over the arrival of a second child, which was born August 27. The stork was of a generous mind, bringing a fine eleven pound boy. Mrs. Lundeen went to her home at Sandyridge on Santrday.

R. A. Chown was in town the other day and said he was "just stalling around" while his daughter took het music lesson

"Beattie" Harris was behind the counter at the Sacles store several days last week.

Dr. and Mrs. Julius Sture and baby Stanley drove to Colton on Sunday to attend the annual meeting of the State Luther League which was in convention there.

Mrs. Purcell called on Miss Esmer Mixter who is in Portland for a week or more at the Wheeldon Annex. Miss Mixter had her tonsils removed. Miss Vera Mixter is with her sister.

Rev. Runyon Methodist minister who lives at Cherryville and formerly preached at Sandy was in town a few days ago as he returned from a Portland hospital where he had cataracts removed from both of his eyes.

Billy Walker's little girl cut her hand badly by falling on a piece of glass and druggist Esson acted as surgeon. The Walkers' live on the Netzel place and plan building a fine home out this way when the highway is all completed so he can drive back and forth to work in the city.

Miss Pauline Zogg and brother Louis Zogg were in town Sunday. Miss Zogg jooks fine but is still under the doctor's care.

Miss Mary Junker drove to Gresham a few days ago to meet Miss Mildred Aiken of Whittier, Cal. and Mrs. Berhaut, who came out for a few hours' visit with 'Kate and Mary." Miss Aiken will be remembered as the assistant in the high school here when Prof Berhaut was principal in '17 and '18 Miss Aiken left Los Angeles the day after school closed for a trip east and after arriving at Minneapolis toured 4,000 miles with a party of friends. going to Virginia and back va automobile, and vsited many resorts in Canada as she returned. Miss Aiken was sorry not to stay long enough to see all of her old friends here and asked to be remembered to all of them.

The following was the itinerary of Mrs. Bertha A. Purcell while in Portland last week; "Heard Rev. Landsbore, preach, who is a Princeton class-American college of surgery at the Couch school auditorium; attended a dinner given for a former pupil, Virginia Irwin, who will enter the Hollyword school for girls at Los Angeles September 13; took a river trip to Astoria: attended a lecture on music; had a nice visit with Vera and Esmer Mixter and Miss Opal Selby; enjoyed a nice tea with Mrs Gilbert, wife of Judge Gilbert."

Mrs. Anna E. Grinelli-Karr of Portland was an overnight guest of the Millers Monday Mr. and Mrs. Karr are building a summer home at Rhododendren which they have named Karr-Ka-Kee-Kottage. Mrs. Karr has made seven trips up the mountains this season, and will go back and forth in the winter for week ends. Many cottages are being built there, but certain requirements are made by the government, according to Mrs. Kaar. Jack Scales has installed a new feed chopper in his warehouse during the past week. A poor potato crop is reported around here as well as elsewhere in the state They are selling for two cents around here at the present time. There is some hope that the late crop will turn out better.

The painting "bug" which is still inoculating in the minds of Sandy property owners is a most desirable germ to get started. The post office is the latest building to dress up. The Junkers and Schmitz roofs are improved titled court, in the above entitled with a new coat of preservative.
