Property Is Moving At Jennings Lodge

JENNINGS LODGE, Sept. 29.—Many changes in property have taken place within the past week.

K. H. Hendry has sold his tract which contained one and a half acres, on the river front, near Roethe. The consideration is said to have been $7500 and was purchased through the Henry Wemmer Foundation fund for the Christian Science society. This society will erect a home and several modern cottages at a cost of $6,000. This society purchased over a year ago, adjoining property, which was known as the Daggett place.

Mr. Henry has purchased the stock of goods at the Blue Front store owned by W. L. Blinestone and takes possession October 1. We understood Mr. Blinestone expects to remain here and will build on his acreage at this place.

He is also making arrangements to have the hall made over into living apartments which will help fill the wants, houses for rent being in great demand here.

H. L. Clarke disposed of stock of groceries on Saturday to Mr. and Mrs. Dane, who recently arrived from Milwaukee, Wisconsin. The Danes taking possession at once.

Mr. Coy sold his property on Morris Avenue to new owners from Illinois. We understand the consideration was $1000 cash. This property consists of a three room house and two lots. Mr. Coy is to return to Pennsylvania to visit.

Experience Party Is Held at Lodge

JENNINGS LODGE, Sept. 29.—The annual Experience party given by the Grace Guild proved quite an interesting affair, although the attendance did not come quite up to the expectations of those who were interested in the success of the affair.

The Guild song preceded the introducing of the Guild members which was a poem composed by the president and read by Mrs. Blinestone. The experience of the thirty were all good, many novel new ways to raise a dollar were given. A prize for the best poem was awarded to Mrs. W. Booth while Mrs. W. Moritz, simply wrote out a check for her dollar and as it was considered the easiest way, she was also awarded a pretty little prize.

Mrs. H. C. Panton gave "Brother Brown on Apples" which was well received. Mrs. Hendry sang charmingly and responded with an encore. Mrs. A. B. Smith being her accompanist.

Chicken sandwiches, pie and coffee were served. The proceeds will be about $45.00.

The social committee, composed of Mesdames Blinestone, Gardner and Booth planned the details of the affair.

The members of the Guild will lunch with Mrs. Wm. Jacobs on Wednesday September 28, at her home in Portland.

Birthday Party Is Given Little Folks

JENNINGS LODGE, Sept. 29.—The birthday anniversaries of Dickey and Billie Booth were very prettily observed when Mrs. Wm. Booth asked in 18 little folks to share in the frolic on Monday after school. Long yellow streamers of crepe paper were fastened to the electric lights reaching to each place and in the nut shell was each one's fortune. The place cards were pen sketches of men a button forming the face. Billie's birthday cake was yellow with yellow and yellow candles and Dickey's cake was red with red candles. Ghost stories were told by Mrs. Booth and Black man and all sorts of boys games were much enjoyed. Those attending were mostly members of the 4th grade and were Wilmer Gardner, Lorraine and Newell Ford, Hugh Allen, Wilcox, Theo. and Omar Bechtel, John Holloway, Willie Tillman, Arthur Boetger, Arthur Smith, Charles Wilson, Raphael Ouellette, Bobbie Thompson, Robert Chapman, Wesley Jobling and Eric Schonhausen.

About 18 of our boys met at the First Congregational church in Portland on Sunday for their first rehearsal. On Sunday next they are to go to Salem to sing at the State fair.

There will be 700 voices in this chorus on Sunday.

Mrs. Hendry will have charge of the rehearsals at the hall on Friday evening of this week.

Among the boys attending are Lewellen Jones, Dickey and Billie Booth, Halmon Roberts, Newell Ford, Jack Humphreys, Jurior Hole, Tom Robbins, Edward and Richard Pearson, Keith and Kenneth Wilcox, Arthur Smith, Wilmer Gardner, Raymond Boetger.

Six Week Trip to Middle West Ends

JENNINGS LODGE, Sept. 29.—Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Florence returned from a six weeks pleasure trip which they have spent in the Middle West. At Wichita, Kansas he visited his father and spent some time in Minneapolis and St. Paul, South Dakota was also visited. The corn crop is a very large one in the Middle West. They do not have as many paved roads as we have in the West. In one place they noticed a sign which read "speed limit: not to exceed 60 miles." But the road was so poor, could not drive that fast if you wished to.

The Florences are very glad to get back to Oregon and will reside at this place for a time.

Stone Gables Scene Of Birthday Party

JENNINGS LODGE, Sept. 29.—Sunday being the birthday anniversary of Mrs. Halmon Emmons a number of her Portland friends motored out to Stone Gables bringing well filled baskets to remind her of the occasion.

Those extending many happy returns of the day were Mr. and Mrs. Balou, Mesdames Mowery, Coolis, Tats, Giesey and Childress and Miss Black, Messrs Mayo, George Mayes, Lloyd Olsen and Fred Martin.

Lending charms to the rooms were bowls of snap dragon of a variety of shades of this fall flower.

Lodge S. S. Folks Are Entertained

JENNINGS LODGE, Sept. 29.—The teachers and officers of the Sunday school were delightfully entertained at the home of the superintendent, Dan Jones, on Wednesday evening.

Plans for the promotion exercises in the Sunday School were made and will be held the first Sunday in October. Refreshments were served by the host and hostess. About 20 were present.

OSWEGO NEWS

Mrs. Cora Bullock

OSWEGO, Sept. 28.—Concrete work on the dam at Oswego Lake has commenced. A headgate for the water outlet is being constructed and it will be about 60 days yet before the dam is finished. In the meantime, with the lake at low level, the Oswego Lake Water, Light & Power company is supplying Oswego from the Portland Railway, Light & Power company's lines and extensive repairs are being carried on at the local plant.

The Crandall Drug store in Oswego was sold this week to Harry B. Mayes, former Lewiston, Idaho, druggist. Mr. Crandall purchased the business from Claud C Perry 18 months ago, and has made many friends here. Mr. and Mrs. Crandall have not announced their plans for the future. Mr. Mayes is locating here with his sister and niece who will be interested in the business. He comes here highly recommended and will no doubt soon make many friends in Oswego.

Owing to the inability of the material men to get sand and gravel on the job paving operations were held up Monday and Tuesday on the Pacific highway. The pouring of the concrete will, very likely be connected the last of the week. The roadway across the Tryon and Sucker Creek bridges has been paved, according to Engineer F. Young, eliminating the detour at Oswego. This makes the road complete to where the actual construction work is being carried on. Before the road can be opened to traffic, the concrete will have to set for nearly a month.

The schools of Spring Brook and Lake Grove will commence Monday September 26 by order of the school board issued at a meeting last Friday.

Mr. Stewart has invested in two and one half acres of land east of the Gan's place on the hill.

Sandy Party Makes Central Ore. Trip

SANDY, Sept. 23.—Matt Zogg, Gunn and Roy Wilcox made a trip recently as follows: Took the highway through The Dalles, Mosier, Maupin, the main part of Maupin has just been burned and its citizens were counting up their losses. Then on to Tygh Valley. Zogg says that hill at Tygh is one of the greatest pieces of engineering work in the state. "There is a six mile grade down the canyon, and the road winds and threads like a sheep trail as one looks backwards, and we could look straight down to the bottom, the distance of a mile."

"From Tygh Valley on to Bake Oven, then to Shaniko. We left Eagle Creek in the morning at 6 o'clock and we reached Shaniko at 2 P. M. the same day, where we remained over night, then drove 25 miles to Antelope for breakfast, then headed for Fossil. We passed through much fine timber in the foot hills of the Blue mountains." Zogg made a short visit at Bake Oven where he saw his brother Fred Zogg, who is working on a big ranch there. The Wilcox boys remained for a longer stay, but Zogg was home again in three days.

The immediate relatives of the departed are Mrs. Sarah E. Dixon, James W. Dixon, Jess H. Dixon, Arthur W. Dixon, Frank Dixon, Mrs. Ina Hall, Mrs. Staff, Metcher and Claud Dixon, all residents of Portland but James W. Dixon, Corporal Dixon's fiancée was Miss Hazel Tomlinson.

The funeral of this popular young soldier was largely attended there being seventy-five machines in the procession. There were many beautiful flowers as he had a host of friends in Portland, having worked at the Mutual creamery up to the time he joined the service. He was also a local semi-pro star in Portland baseball circles, was an outfielder playing a number of years in the city league and later in the intercity league. Dixon was also well known in the Sandy section.

Dixon was also well known in the Sandy section.

The funeral of this popular young soldier was largely attended there being seventy-five machines in the procession. There were many beautiful flowers as he had a host of friends in Portland, having worked at the Mutual creamery up to the time he joined the service. He was also a local semi-pro star in Portland baseball circles, was an outfielder playing a number of years in the city league and later in the intercity league. Dixon was also well known in the Sandy section.
