

Announcing Victrola No. 80

In addition to all the exclusive Victor patented features that have given Victrolas their pre-eminence, the No. 80 Victrola combines new refinements of finish and proportion. Its beautiful simplicity will win the instant appreciation of all people of taste.

Come in and hear your favorite music played on the new Victrola No. 80.

PRICE $100, TERMS $7 A MONTH

HUNTLEY-DRAPER DRUG CO.

The Rexall Store

IN SOCIETY

The Shadle home, in West Linn, was the scene of a merry gathering, Friday evening, October 28, when Catherine Shadle entertained at a Halloween party.

The house was appropriately decorated with orange and black crepe paper, autumn leaves, cornstalks and jack o' lanterns. The evening was spent with games and music, much merriment being caused by pinning the tail on the "cat" in which game Florence Jones won the prize. Mildred Herwick won the prize in the peanut race.

Dainty refreshments were served. The invitation list included Helen Johnson, Carrie Johnson, Lydia Greaves, Alice Newman, Grace Baker, Gladys Dollar, Evan's Brown, Florence Jones, Dorothy Baty, Dorothy Yates, Dorothy DeBok, Mildred Herwick, Isabel McArthur, Mildred Ellisea, Brown, Malatski, Verna Mykel, Annie Lauris, Mary Myers, Mollie Mykel and also Leatha, Catherine, Virginia and Blair Shadle.

Mrs. A. F. Parker entertained a few friends at her home in West Gladstone in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Winks, of Illinois, the former who was the foster brother of the late A. F. Parker.

During the evening Mrs. Parker served refreshments. The evening was spent in a social manner.

Mr. and Mrs. Winks will go to California in the near future where they will spend the winter with their daughter, returning to their home later.

The guests were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Winks, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas E. Gault, Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Burdon, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Frost and Mrs. A. F. Parker.

One of the most enjoyable Halloween parties was given at Faddock's hall by Mr. and Mrs. Frank Peckover Saturday evening. The affair was in the form of a masquerade. The hall was prettily decorated with autumn leaves, cornstalks and dahlias. The color scheme was orange and black. The table was decorated with golden pumpkins and black cats. A cedar booth was cleverly built of corn stalks and pumpkins.

The evening was devoted to games, stunts and dancing. The grand march was led by Mrs. Arthur Landis and Frank Peckover, as school girl and angler.

Delicious refreshments, appropriate for the season, were served by the hostess, assisted by her sister-in-law, Mrs. W. E. Rauch.

Enjoying the evening were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hurl, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Harris, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Landis, Mr. and Mrs. Winnifred Knight and Miss Amy Peckover, of Portland; Mr. and Mrs. Edson Aldridge, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Rauch, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Eichmeyer and Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Eichmeyer, of Gladstone; Mr. and Mrs. Fred Peckover, of Oregon City; Misses Alice Freytag, Veatrice Rauch, Leona Fox, Dorris Smith, Vivian Rauch, Dorothy Fox, Nellie Vandewar; C. M. Vandervall, of Gladstone, Mr. and Mrs. Lester Bruner, Miss Iva Wittig and Harry Peckover of Edgewood.

A pretty dinner was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. Parker, of West Linn on Sunday afternoon, when their daughter, Mrs. Douglas Scott, of Portland, was an honored guest. The affair was to observe her 24th birthday anniversary, and the hostess, Mrs. Parker, was assisted in serving by her daughter, Miss Ella Parker.

The rooms were prettily decorated in fall flowers, and a handsome birthday cake with its lighted candles, made by Miss Ella Parker, added to the appearance of the table.

Places were laid for Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Scott and daughter, Eleanor, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Davis, of Portland; Mr. and Mrs. E. Parker and daughter, Miss Ella, of West Linn.

On Tuesday evening, November 1, Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Paddock, of Gladstone celebrated their crystal wedding anniversary by giving a dinner in honor of the occasion.

The rooms were prettily decorated in colors of orange and black, the color scheme being carried out with the table decorations of dahlias.

Places were laid for immediate relatives, who were Dr. and Mrs. H. A. Dedman, of Canby; Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Dedman, of Clackamas; Mr. and Mrs. J. W. McKenzie, of Portland; J. C. Paddock, Misses Laura and Jessie Paddock, Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Paddock, of Gladstone.

Mr. and Mrs. Paddock were the recipients of many beautiful and useful gifts.

In a charming manner Mr. and Mrs. Walter Wentworth entertained at dinner at their home in Canemah Friday evening Mrs. W. C. Green and Miss Nan Cochran.

The table was centered with a cut glass vase in which were artistically arranged daintily tinted yellow chrysanthemums. The color scheme of the dining room was yellow and green, while the living room was in autumn leaves and yellow chrysanthemums.

The silver tea at the home of Mrs. J. W. Moffatt at West Linn on Wednesday afternoon proved a delightful affair, and was largely attended.

The event was under the auspices of the Ladies' Aid Society of the Congregational church with Mrs. Moffatt, Mrs. H. P. Brightbill, Mrs. J. W. Thornberry and Mrs. John Ream, Jr., as hostesses.

A program was given during the afternoon, when Mrs. Duncan Shank, Mrs. John Lowry, Mrs. Scott, Mrs. J. W. Thornberry, Mrs. J. W. Moffatt, Mrs. J. A. Reams, Jr., Mrs. H. P. Brightbill.

The members of the Enterpriser Club were charmingly entertained by Mrs. W. E. Hempstead at her home in West Gladstone Thursday afternoon.

The Hempstead home was decorated with fall flowers. The color scheme was yellow.

At one o'clock a delicious luncheon was served by the hostess being assisted by Mrs. Frank Oswald.

Owing to the absence of the president, Mrs. F. L. Oswald presided.

The question of "National Disarmament" was discussed by all members. The opera, "Martha" was studied. Mrs. Thomas Gault told the story of the opera in a most interesting manner.

Mrs. Oswald told the story "Floto." Mrs. Frank Miranda played selections from the opera and Mrs. J. W. Leonhardt sang in a pleasing manner "The Last Rose of Summer."

The handsome new home of Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Pace on Fifth street appeared like a fairy scene on Saturday evening, when their daughter, Miss Pauline, was a charming hostess at a dancing party, given to some of her friends.

Arriving at the Pace home about 8 o'clock, and enjoying an hour in the spacious living room, which was prettily decorated in halloween colors, the guests were later invited to the second floor of the Pace home. Previous to this each guest was presented with a bright colored cap to don, and when Mrs. Victor Gault had charge of the party.

Enjoying Mrs. Hempstead's hospitality were Mrs. Victor Gault, of West Linn; Mrs. Thomas Gault, Mrs. William Hammond, Mrs. J. W. Leonhardt, Mrs. Frank Miranda, Mrs. Frank Nelson, Mrs. Frank Oswald, Mrs. M. E. Turner and Mrs. Eugene Noren Good.

The next meeting of the club will be held at the home of Mrs. M. E. Turner of West Clackamas Boulevard.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hammerly, at Bolton, where many enjoyable gatherings have been held, was the scene of another such event on Saturday evening, when a number of their friends were bidden to a halloween party.

The rooms were most attractively decorated. Chrysanthemums and decorations suitable for halloween were used.

Contests and games that were in keeping with this season were events of the evening, causing no end of mirth.

Vocal selections were also enjoyed, and followed by refreshments.

A table, beautifully decorated, attracted unusual attention, where places were laid for Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Russell, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Muck, Mr. and Mrs. John Long, Mrs. Malva Bolle, Mrs. Olive Breeding, Joseph Cluett, Harold Breeding, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hammerly and Gordon Hammerly.

Mr. and Mrs. F. D. Ellis entertained halloween evening at their home in Gladstone in honor of their son, Robert.

The home was prettily decorated with fall flowers, jack o' lanterns, witches and owls.

A delicious lunch was served, after which music and games were enjoyed.

The enjoying the affair were Blanche Yeager, Mable Taft, Hesper Leece, Lyda Lund, Dorothy Kyler, Dorothy Nelson, Theodore Langly, Wayne Vedder, Floyd Carruthers, Billie Gay, Melvin Carruthers and Charles Peterson.

Mrs. Martin Pearlman, of Gladstone, was badly bruised, and suffered severe shocks Saturday afternoon when she was thrown from an automobile in which she was riding.

The machine, driven by Mr. Pearlman, who is superintendent of the garment department of the Oregon City Woolen Mills, skidded on the highway near Oswego, striking another car.

Mrs. Pearlman was thrown out of the car to the pavement. She was given immediate medical attention, and her injuries were not found serious.

The accident happened at 5:30 o'clock. Neither of the autos were badly damaged.

James MacDole, who has resided in Oregon City for a number of years, died here Sunday night, after an illness of several months.

Little is known of Mr. MacDole, except his wife died about 60 years ago, and that he was a native of Ohio, and over 90 years of age. He cast his first vote for President Buchanan in 1856, and never failed to vote for president of the United States since that time.

For many years he made his home in the state of Minnesota, and coming to that state in 1877, where he remained for some time. It was while residing near the city of Benson, he became acquainted with L. J. Lagson, of this city, who was then attending school. Mr. Lagson finding a lost keepsake of MacDole returned to the man, and since that time, the Oregon City shoe merchant, has kept in touch with him, and during his last years had brightened the old gentleman's life by his kind acts, and is making the necessary arrangements for the funeral services.

Mr. MacDole made his home in Portland soon after arriving in Oregon City in 1900, and then came to Oregon City. He appeared to be a man of education, well versed upon the Bible and even to the time of his death had retained his mental faculties, although over 90 years.

Albert Henry Kruger died in the Emanuel Hospital at Portland Wednesday evening, November 2, at 6:30 o'clock, after an illness of five days. Mr. Kruger was operated upon for appendicitis.

Deceased was a native of Nebraska, born October 21, 1881, and came to Oregon some time ago. He was employed for a number of years in the paper mills in this city, and about four years ago moved with his family to Portland, where he has since resided.

Mr. Kruger is survived by his wife, Mrs. Lula Kruger, and two sons, Charles, aged 14 years; Horace, aged 6 years, and other relatives. He was a son-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Turner, of this city.

Deceased was a native of Nebraska, born October 21, 1881, and came to Oregon some time ago. He was employed for a number of years in the paper mills in this city, and about four years ago moved with his family to Portland, where he has since resided.

Mr. Kruger is survived by his wife, Mrs. Lula Kruger, and two sons, Charles, aged 14 years; Horace, aged 6 years, and other relatives. He was a son-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Turner, of this city.

Deceased was a native of Nebraska, born October 21, 1881, and came to Oregon some time ago. He was employed for a number of years in the paper mills in this city, and about four years ago moved with his family to Portland, where he has since resided.

Mr. Kruger is survived by his wife, Mrs. Lula Kruger, and two sons, Charles, aged 14 years; Horace, aged 6 years, and other relatives. He was a son-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Turner, of this city.

Deceased was a native of Nebraska, born October 21, 1881, and came to Oregon some time ago. He was employed for a number of years in the paper mills in this city, and about four years ago moved with his family to Portland, where he has since resided.

Mr. Kruger is survived by his wife, Mrs. Lula Kruger, and two sons, Charles, aged 14 years; Horace, aged 6 years, and other relatives. He was a son-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Turner, of this city.

Deceased was a native of Nebraska, born October 21, 1881, and came to Oregon some time ago. He was employed for a number of years in the paper mills in this city, and about four years ago moved with his family to Portland, where he has since resided.

Mr. Kruger is survived by his wife, Mrs. Lula Kruger, and two sons, Charles, aged 14 years; Horace, aged 6 years, and other relatives. He was a son-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Turner, of this city.

November 11th, 1918-1921

ON this third anniversary of Armistice Day, representatives of the nations are gathering in Washington to formulate plans to bring to the world assurance of future peace.

FITTING is it that this conference be preceded by the ceremonies at Arlington in memory of our boys who gave their lives in expectation of the fulfillment of this purpose.

FITTING also is it that the thought and prayers of all be centered on Washington, carrying inspiration for the successful working out of this great problem.

FOR this purpose our National Government has decreed November 11, 1921, a National Holiday and this institution will be closed all day.

THE BANK OF OREGON CITY

OLDEST BANK IN CLACKAMAS COUNTY.

Answer is Filed in Mount Libel Suit

Claiming that the autopsy performed over the body of Alexander DeFord by Dr. H. S. Mount resulted in an erroneous conclusion regarding the manner of the man's death, and stating in effect that the claim presented by Dr. Mount for testifying before the coroner's jury was exorbitant, seven local doctors, defendants in a $50,000 libel suit, Thursday filed their answer to the complaint of H. S. Mount.

The suit was filed last February, following the presentation of a communication to the county court by the defendant doctors, O. A. Welsh, M. C. Strickland, A. H. Huycke, C. H. Meissner, W. Ross Eaton, C. A. Stuart and George A. Stuart, asking the court to refuse payment of Mount's bill for $25. The communication charged "graft and profiteering," and alleged inefficiency "reflecting upon the medical profession."

In their answer the defendant physicians set forth their claim that the autopsy was performed privately for the relatives of the dead man, and that Mount was only entitled to $170 from the county, in payment as a witness, for his testimony.

They claim further that Mount's conclusion that DeFord died from blood poisoning was incorrect. They claim that DeFord died as the result of a gunshot wound inflicted November 21, 1920 by Jack Frost.

Illness is Fatal to James MacDole, 90

James MacDole, who has resided in Oregon City for a number of years, died here Sunday night, after an illness of several months.

Little is known of Mr. MacDole, except his wife died about 60 years ago, and that he was a native of Ohio, and over 90 years of age. He cast his first vote for President Buchanan in 1856, and never failed to vote for president of the United States since that time.

For many years he made his home in the state of Minnesota, and coming to that state in 1877, where he remained for some time. It was while residing near the city of Benson, he became acquainted with L. J. Lagson, of this city, who was then attending school. Mr. Lagson finding a lost keepsake of MacDole returned to the man, and since that time, the Oregon City shoe merchant, has kept in touch with him, and during his last years had brightened the old gentleman's life by his kind acts, and is making the necessary arrangements for the funeral services.

Mr. MacDole made his home in Portland soon after arriving in Oregon City in 1900, and then came to Oregon City. He appeared to be a man of education, well versed upon the Bible and even to the time of his death had retained his mental faculties, although over 90 years.

Albert Henry Kruger died in the Emanuel Hospital at Portland Wednesday evening, November 2, at 6:30 o'clock, after an illness of five days. Mr. Kruger was operated upon for appendicitis.

Deceased was a native of Nebraska, born October 21, 1881, and came to Oregon some time ago. He was employed for a number of years in the paper mills in this city, and about four years ago moved with his family to Portland, where he has since resided.

Mr. Kruger is survived by his wife, Mrs. Lula Kruger, and two sons, Charles, aged 14 years; Horace, aged 6 years, and other relatives. He was a son-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Turner, of this city.

Deceased was a native of Nebraska, born October 21, 1881, and came to Oregon some time ago. He was employed for a number of years in the paper mills in this city, and about four years ago moved with his family to Portland, where he has since resided.

Mr. Kruger is survived by his wife, Mrs. Lula Kruger, and two sons, Charles, aged 14 years; Horace, aged 6 years, and other relatives. He was a son-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Turner, of this city.

Deceased was a native of Nebraska, born October 21, 1881, and came to Oregon some time ago. He was employed for a number of years in the paper mills in this city, and about four years ago moved with his family to Portland, where he has since resided.

Mr. Kruger is survived by his wife, Mrs. Lula Kruger, and two sons, Charles, aged 14 years; Horace, aged 6 years, and other relatives. He was a son-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Turner, of this city.

Deceased was a native of Nebraska, born October 21, 1881, and came to Oregon some time ago. He was employed for a number of years in the paper mills in this city, and about four years ago moved with his family to Portland, where he has since resided.

GIRL IS ATTACKED BY THUG; THROWN INTO MUD; CLOTHES TORN

Young Woman Suffers Brutal Treatment at Hands of Unknown Man

Thrown into the mud, and her clothes torn, a young woman was attacked by an unidentified man at 7th and J. Q. Adams street Thursday night.

The girl, whose name is withheld, was walking towards town shortly before eight o'clock when she was accosted by a young man in a tan suit. He spoke to her, and passed, but she paid no attention. The man returned, and with some insulting remarks grabbed the girl's skirt in one hand and her neck with the other, throwing her to the ground. She fell at the side of the walk, her face being buried in the mud.

The thug attempted to hold her mouth to keep her from screaming, but she wrenched her head free, and her cries set the bandit to flight. The girl returned to her home almost hysterical but soon overcame this condition.

The affair was not reported to the authorities, altho, according to the girl's story, she would be able to recognize her assailant, whom she described as a good looking young man, about 19 years of age.

Old Tracy Building To be Remodeled

The building occupied by the Park-Shepherd Motor company on Fourth and Main street, owned by the Hawley Pulp & Paper company, known as the Tracy building, is to be thoroughly renovated. A new glass front will be installed, new office established and will be one of the modern garage buildings in the city.

The concrete building is 75x105 feet of two stories.

This company recently took possession of the building, and is handling Ford cars, making two agencies in this city.

The second story will soon be occupied as a rooming house, this having been leased by Oregon City parties, who are soon to take possession.

Former Resident of Oregon City Passes

Mrs. Elizabeth A. Paine, wife of the late Dr. D. L. Paine, former resident of Oregon City, and who has resided in Portland for some time, died at the family residence at 553 Bidwell Avenue, Portland, Saturday, November 5.

Mrs. Paine was the mother of Mrs. Ida L. Hoffman, of Baker, Oregon, and Mrs. Katherine E. Pusey, of Portland, who has been making her home with her mother. Dr. Paine, a former physician of this city, died before the family left for Portland.

The funeral services, which will be private, will be held Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock from the family residence, and the remains brought to Oregon City to be interred in the family lot in Mountain View cemetery. They will be laid to rest beside her late husband. Funeral arrangements are in charge of Walter C. Kenworthy.

Mrs. Paine is well and favorably known in Oregon City. While a resident of this city she and her daughters were active members of the Methodist church.

Joseph A. Roman, Old War Veteran, Dies at Rose Farm

Joseph A. Roman died at 5:30 o'clock Tuesday evening at his home, Rose Farm, on the East end of Oregon City, following an illness of five weeks.

Mr. Roman was 84 years old, and a veteran of the Civil War, having served three and one-half years, beginning in 1861 when he enlisted as a private in Company "H", 1st Pennsylvania Rifles, more popularly known as the "Bucktail Regiment," where he served until wounded at the battle of South Mountain. After recovering, he was commissioned a first lieutenant and assigned to Company "K", 203rd Pennsylvania Volunteers, where he served until the end of the war.

Deceased is survived by his widow, Alice Milner Roman, seven children, twenty-one grand-children and twelve great grand-children. A son, Samuel T. Roman, died in 1906 and a grandson, George Milner Snidow, was killed at St. Mihiel, France. The surviving children are as follows: Mrs. G. L. Snidow, Willamette, Oregon; Mrs. John W. Gerber, Portland, Oregon; Mrs. William E. Boone, and William H. Roman, both of Weaubleau, Missouri; Mrs. D. F. Adcock, Willamette, Oregon and Miss Harriet M. Roman and Miss Emma A. Roman, of Oregon City.

Horn near Rowlandville, Cecil county, Maryland, on August 26th, 1857. Mr. Roman moved to Hickory county, Missouri in 1883 and to Oregon in 1900. He was a member of Meade Post No. 2, G. A. R.

Budget for Aurora Outlined; is $2325

AURORA, Ore., Nov. 3.—A city budget totaling $2325 has been prepared for 1922 by the local budget committee, of which George W. Fry is secretary.

Street improvements, water and light expenses and the new fire station cost are the principal items.

The budget will be considered at a meeting November 14.

The sting of a bee is only about one thirty-second of an inch in length.

COMFORT and SATISFACTION

Glasses to give satisfactory service must be comfortable in every way. If you bring your eye troubles to me I will strive to give you good results. Headaches, eyeaches and other eye troubles caused by EYESTRAIN soon disappear when cared for by the SYSTEM I employ.

18 years practical experience. Over 11,000 cases treated.

Dr. Freeze, Eye Specialist
505 1/2 Main St. Oregon City
Opposite Postoffice
LENSES GROUND WHILE YOU WAIT

LOCALS AND PERSONALS

Will Return to Massachusetts

Mr. and Mrs. George A. Brown, well known residents of Oregon City, returned Monday morning from Highland, where they have been for the past six weeks. They have been at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank T. Shute, the former brother of Mrs. Brown. Mr. Brown has engaged in improving the Shute residence by putting on a new roof and doing other work that has greatly improved the farm home. He also built a cold storage house on the place, which is 12x16 feet. Mr. and Mrs. Brown, who came from Massachusetts in 1903, and for some time resided on a farm at Maple Lane, where Mr. Brown served as master of the grange for a number of years, and where they disposed of their property before coming to this city. It is their intention of returning to their old home in Massachusetts in the early spring, when disposing of their home in Oregon City. They have two daughters in Massachusetts, one of whom resides at Newton and the other at Hudson.

Oregon Booster Impressed With Road

Frank Branch Riley, prominent resident of Portland, who is one of the greatest boosters of Oregon, was in Oregon City Saturday afternoon. No man is better posted on the beauties of the state than Mr. Riley, and in making the trip to this city, came by way of the new West side road. He says that this is one of the most beautiful roads he has traveled over, especially at this time of the year when the leaves are taking on their brilliant colorings. He expects to make many more trips to this city before these trees have shed their richly tinted leaves. Mr. Riley was accompanied on the trip by his father, E. F. Riley. While here they visited among some of their old time friends.

Joehnkens Build New Home

Mrs. Carl Joehnkne and children, Kathryn and Frederick, who arrived in Canby Wednesday, are guests at Locust Farm at Mt. Pleasant. They are spending the week with Mr. and Mrs. Ward B. Lawton, and also visiting at the adjoining farm as guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. King. A handsome 6-room bungalow is being built on the Joehnkne farm near Canby, and will be occupied by Carl Joehnkne and family in the near future. This will be modern throughout and is being built by Mr. Joehnkne and his brother-in-law, Ernest Riggs.

Judge Dimick Exhibits Barred Rocks

Judge Grant B. Dimick, who is one interested in the International Livestock Show in Portland, also in the poultry show, held in connection, has been among the visitors at the big show. Judge Dimick is showing some of his famous Barred Rocks, which are attracting unusual attention by the many visitors. He was among those winning prizes on this class of birds in the poultry department at the recent Clackamas County fair.

Miss Jones Critically Ill

Miss Ethel Jones, of Canemah, and student of the Oregon City high school is critically ill in the St. Vincent's hospital in Portland, suffering from an operation for acute appendicitis. Miss Jones is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Jones. The operation was performed Friday evening.

Glovers Here from Eagle Creek

Mr. and Mrs. Matt Glover and little daughter, Jeanette, of Eagle Creek, were in Oregon City on Monday. While here they visited Mrs. Glover's mother, Mrs. Moehnkne, and also her sister, Mrs. William Moehnkne, of Fifteenth and Jackson streets.

Back from Trip

Mr. and Mrs. Zilka, Mr. and Mrs. B. D. Walker, of Jennings Lodge, who spent the week-end visiting the Tillamook beaches, have returned. They made the trip by automobile and had a most enjoyable time.

S. A. D. Hungate Here

S. A. D. Hungate, formerly of this city, now of Molalla, was in Oregon City on business Monday. While here he also visited among some of his old time friends.

Phillip Streib in Oregon City

Among those to transact business in Oregon City on Monday was Phillip Streib. His home is at Milwaukie, and he is one of the prominent residents of the county.

Here from Aurora

I. D. Rutter, prominent resident of Aurora, returned to his home on Monday, after transacting business in Oregon City.

Zacker in City

Fred Zacker, of Hubbard, was among those to transact business in Oregon City on Monday.

Transacts Business in Oregon City

H. T. Kietzer, of Aurora, was among those to transact business in this city on Monday.

William Vaughan in City

William Vaughan, of Molalla, prominent resident of that section of the county, was among those to transact business in Oregon City Monday.

Colton Man Here

J. J. Jones, of Colton, was in this city on business Sunday and Monday.

A. M. Kirchem Was in Town

A. M. Kirchem, prominent resident of Logan, was among those to transact business in Oregon City on Wednesday and Thursday.

Charles Hart Visits Here

Coming to Oregon City on business, Charles Hart, of Milwaukie, spent a part of the day here Thursday.

Return to Molalla