

JENNINGS LODGE

MRS. HUGH ROBERTS, Correspondent.

Business Discussed By Community Club Of Jennings Lodge

JENNINGS LODGE, Nov. 3.—The regular meeting of the Jennings Lodge Community Club was quite well attended at its business meeting on Wednesday evening, which was held in the school house.

Chas. Meldrum, president of the club, presided.

A report was given by Mr. Meldrum upon the boundaries of the new water district. A movement is being launched for a Community house and their will be a committee of five to look for a site, three of which were named at the meeting last evening and are Mr. Clemmens and Warren Swart and Mrs. Hole.

Slips were drawn for the entertainment committee, eight to serve at each month. A social affair being given on the third Wednesday evening of each month, a social affair being given on Newcomb, chairman; Messrs. Kruschke, Theraux, Stark, Hammond, Swart, Mrs. Oulette and Miss Stanifer.

Many Lodge People Visit Stock Show

JENNINGS LODGE, Nov. 9.—Many of our folks attended the Pacific International Livestock show on Sunday, perhaps the largest number going this year from this place than has ever attended before. The Whitney Boys Chorus seem to be the drawing feature on Sunday, many of the parents of the boys singing in this unit going down. Those of the parents who could not attend Mesdames Hendry and Chapman chaperoning them.

Two hours preceding the concert was spent in looking at the poultry and rabbit exhibits, animal husbandry, dairy products and marketing and big livestock exhibits.

Lodge Teacher Is Association Sec'y.

JENNINGS LODGE, Nov. 9.—The pupils of this school enjoyed a three-day vacation, while the teachers were attending the Institute in Oregon City. Our principal, Mrs. Minnie B. Altman has been honored by being elected as secretary of the Clackamas county division of the Oregon State Teachers' Association.

This institute will be held next year in preference to the summer school by an unanimous vote of the teachers attending.

William Kessi On Prize Winning Team

JENNINGS LODGE, Nov. 9.—William Kessi, a student at Oregon Agricultural College is paying a visit to his mother Mrs. Z. Kessi and attending the Pacific International Livestock Exposition in Portland.

Mr. Kessi scored highest in judging at the federal board stock show at Spokane, at which O. A. C. won first place. First prize of $100 was divided among the three members of the team, Kessi, Harold Harbrough and Grant Nelson.

Mass Meeting Held For Organization

JENNINGS LODGE, Nov. 9.—A mass meeting of the citizens of Evergreen, Oak Grove, Concord and Jennings Lodge was held Wednesday evening, Nov. 9, at 7:30 P. M. at the Green's hall in Oak Grove to organize a water district. H. G. Starkweather, J. Dean Butler, J. R. Outfield, Chas. E. Meldrum, Howard Truscott, W. W. Woodbeck, F. B. Madison, C. G. Norris, J. J. Price, Dr. Arch Stewart, O. W. Barnett, F. H. Harris are the committee.

Holman & Pace

FUNERAL DIRECTORS

Home-like—Efficient—Courteous

Telephone 86

7th and Water Sts., Oregon City

Phone: Sellwood 597, Automatic 21363 John P. Miller, Mgr.

East Side Mill & Lumber Company

Manufacturers and Dealers in

Lumber, Lath, Shingles and Mouldings

Mill Foot of Spokane Avenue PORTLAND, OREGON

J. P. FINLEY & SON

Perfect Funeral Service

Telephone Main 9 Montgomery and Fifth A-1599 Portland

Mrs. Unruh Speaks At Jennings Lodge

JENNINGS LODGE, Nov. 9.—Mrs. Ada Wallace Unruh spoke on Tuesday afternoon, at the home of Mrs. Olin Ford, on the Children's farm home. The Oregon W. C. T. U. has decided to buy land and build a series of homey cottages. In each cottage there will be a motherly matron and a number of orphan children.

Lying in the great outdoors, seeing nature at its best, expanding and growing under surroundings that will tend to make them good men and women, these children from being liabilities to the state, will become worthwhile citizens. And so the Oregon Woman's Christian Temperance Union has taken the lead in the corporation of the Oregon W. C. T. U. Children's farm home. The land will cost $125,000 and it is to be raised by subscription and the first pledge paid from Clackamas County came from Mrs. Arthur Smith from Jennings Lodge.

Several attending pledged $10 and others contributed smaller amounts.

After Mrs. Unruh's splendid talk, tea and wafers were served.

Howard Truscott Is Installing Pumps

JENNINGS LODGE, Nov. 9.—Howard Truscott is busy installing pumps which he received a patent for some time ago and are known as the Truscott pump.

Last week Mr. Underwood had one installed on his recently acquired 24 acres tract near Beaverton. Mr. Truscott also installed one at Bertha Station during the week.

Special Meeting Is Held By Grace Guild

JENNINGS LODGE, Nov. 9.—At a special meeting of the Grace Guild at Mrs. R. F. Deters on Friday 24 women were present and plans for the bazaar held on December 2 have been arranged in detail.

The supper committee is working on plans for a "Made in Oregon" dinner to be served in connection with the bazaar.

Grace Guild Gives Fine Entertainment

JENNINGS LODGE, Nov. 9.—The Grace Guild were charmingly entertained at the home of Mrs. Snider on Wednesday, Nov. 9. Mrs. Pooler being a joint hostess to the pretty affair. Mrs. Hugh Roberts presided. The house in which we live was the subject for the devotion.

A social hour was enjoyed the ladies bringing their own work. Delicious refreshments were served to twenty-six adults and ten children which was the largest attendance of the year. Those attending were Mesdames Jones, Geo. Williams, Lucy Allen, W. I. Blinestone, H. Williams, J. Madden, A. B. Smith, Pearl Briggs, Wm. Booth, Wilfred Ross, C. Waterhouse, Frank Covert, Ella MacHargue, Davis, H. Babler, A. Nelson, W. Woodbeck, Susan Losey, Hugh Roberts, Hooker, Wm. Moritz, J. W. Smith, Kennedy, O. Randall.

Over 350 million is the estimated cost of running the city of New York next year. The Board of Estimate the other day adopted the proposed budget of $357,967,997.99 for 1922.

We are prepared to take your orders for

Thanksgiving Turkeys

Corn feed, fresh from the farm at market price.

Home-made Mince Meat and other delicacies we are making a specialty of.

We aim to please.

Blue Front Grocery

Jennings Lodge, Or.

R. H. HENDRY

Successor to W. I. Blinestone

Phone Oak Grove 158-J

Oregon City 8F2

Personal attention given to all orders. Phone us—We deliver.

Wonderful Exhibit at Show—

Mr. and Mrs. Byron Moore, of this city, were among those to visit the International Livestock Show and Horse Show in Portland Tuesday evening. Both Mr. and Mrs. Moore are loud in their praises over the wonderful exhibit of livestock and poultry and of the horse show given in the evening. Every bit of space of the 32-acre tract of land in North Portland is taken. Cattle from many of the Eastern states as well as northern states are being exhibited with the Central and Western states.

P.-T. Meeting Held At Jennings Lodge

JENNINGS LODGE, Nov. 9.—The regular Parent-Teacher Association meeting was held on Thursday evening at the school house among the features of the program was a talk on Disarmament by Vyvyan Dent, a well known resident. Mrs. Altman spoke and there was music by men's quartette and the Whitney boys chorus. Coffee and wafers were served.

DECLINES POSITION

JENNINGS LODGE, Nov. 9.—Miss Lulu Woodbeck of Rochester, Minn., who has visited her parents W. Woodbeck, twice since living here, has been offered a flattering position in a large hospital at Tacoma. But for all her parents and friends are anxious for her to come to the coast, she has decided to remain with the Mayo institution, where she is in charge of the laboratory department.

JENNINGS LODGE LOCALS

JENNINGS LODGE, Nov. 9.—The Jacksons have disposed of their home and gone to Portland to be near the high school which their son attends. Mrs. Richards of Portland has purchased the property which is generally known as the Zimmerman home.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Reed of Sellwood visited with the J. W. Dain family at Shafly Nook on Sunday.

Mr. Magdon of Bolton visited a day with Mrs. B. Jennings and as they were chums in their boyhood days an exceptionally good time was had as they talked about old times.

Mr. and Mrs. Oliver, who camped on the Willamette during the summer, have decided to remain during the winter months and have leased the Graham place. Mrs. Oliver is spending two weeks in Seattle.

Carl Smith who has been confined at his home with illness for over a week is improving.

Paul Williams of Oregon City has purchased a lot on Hill Ave. in the F. B. Madison tract.

Mrs. Langdon Spooner has returned from the hospital and is looking after the Wilson Miller home, as Mrs. Miller is very ill at the home of her mother in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Emmons entertained the Symposium club on Sunday. Additional members are to be added to the club membership roll and pleasant times are being anticipated for this winter.

Mrs. Belle Robbins and son Howard, were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Clare Maple on Monday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Zilka and Mr. and Mrs. V. B. Walker motored to Tillamook for over Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gilmore have leased the Pierce cottage. The Gilmores are Mrs. Dent's parents and will be quite a welcomed addition to Jennings Lodge.

Mrs. Eileen Eades, was a joint hostess of the Saturday Club which met at the home of Mrs. Walker in Oregon City on Monday evening.

S. H. Beethel is a business visitor in Idaho where, he has large farm holdings.

Mrs. Andrews, estate organizer for the W. C. T. U. and who resides in Oregon City, was a guest at Mrs. Ford's on Tuesday.

Mrs. Henderson and two children from Bremerton will visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Kiggins until the holiday time.

Mr. and Mrs. O'Brien are spending a few days in Bremerton and were accompanied there by Willis Kiggins.

Mrs. Mollie Childers is a house guest at Stone Gables this week.

While shopping in a Portland store on Thursday of last week Mrs. Arthur Roberts was relieved of her purse—a gold wrist watch by pick-pockets.

George Ross is able to be up in his wheel chair after being laid up for two weeks with a fractured leg.

Pem Patton of Cherry Grove, Oregon spent Sunday with his sister Mrs. A. B. Snider.

W. C. Mass of Oregon City was a business caller on Wednesday.

Mrs. Oscar Lyles of Bend, was an overnight visitor at the Newcomb home on Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Blinestone were Portland shoppers on Tuesday buying furnishings for their new apartments.

Mr. Theraux has 23 pupils under his leadership and about the Christmas time will give a recital.

Will Rush is home from Pendleton for over Armistice Day.

The Blue Front store under the new management of R. H. Hendry & Co. have made some improvements and changes since taking over the store. They are offering a number of specials and are aiming to please their customers.

A. W. Meyers has completed a garage on his new property, where the family will be domiciled awaiting the completion of their new modern home which is being built.

Miss Elva Eades came home from Forest Grove to spend Sunday with her mother.

Mrs. Emma Hopson spent two days calling on old friends here, previous to her departure for Los Angeles, where she goes to spend the winter. Mrs. Hopson will be joined by Omaha friends who will journey to California for the winter.

Rev. A. B. Snider took a motor trip to Tillamook to look after business interests.

Mrs. Mary Tillman has moved to Milwaukie for the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Kendall and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Dyer of Portland were entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Hopkins on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Otto Larson attended a dance Saturday evening at Mulino where they had an enjoyable time.

A. J. Howell of Portland was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. F. R. Cinesfelter over Sunday. Mr. Howell and Mr. Cinesfelter expects to go to Newport the first of December to spend some time.

Ethel Emmott the infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Pete Emmott has been very sick with bronchial pneumonia. At the present she is getting along nicely under a doctor's care.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Wadoff visited their son, Walter Waldorf, of Mulino Sunday.

The youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Davidson is very sick.

OAK GROVE ITEMS

Prof. Enna to Give Oak Grove Concert

OAK GROVE, Nov. 8.—The concert by Prof. Emil Enna will be given Saturday evening, November 12 at Oak Grove school. Prof. Enna and his assistants are fine musicians and it is to be hoped a good number will be in attendance.

P.T. TO ENTERTAIN

OAK GROVE, Nov. 8.—The Parent-Teachers Association will give a patriotic entertainment Friday evening (Armistice Day) of this week.

OAK GROVE LOCALS

OAK GROVE, Nov. 8.—Dellen Olds returned from Goldson, Oregon, last week and his mother Mrs. Alice Olds left Saturday for that place to remain with her husband several weeks. Mrs. Olds has a large bridge contract there. Joe Colasky has returned again from Dakota to spend his winter here with his daughter, Mrs. J. Fahey. For several years he has spent the summers in Dakota looking after his interests there and his winters here.

Miss Mary Colburn has recovered sufficiently from her broken collarbone to be about looking after the duties of her home.

Mrs. M. L. Knum of Portland spent the week end with her son H. C. Knum and family.

Miss E. K. Mathews entertained friends from Portland Sunday last.

A number of Oak Grove residents are attending the Stock Show in Portland.

James Vetzian from Roseburg is visiting a daughter Mrs. James Shupe on Courtney road.

Mrs. V. G. Benvie, who last year accepted the appointment of organizer for National Patriotic Association and worker on Americanization but was relieved from the state work as she thought best to remain in the postal service as after the fire that destroyed her office, she has decided to take up the work over the state of Oregon and the northwest and will leave as soon as she is relieved from office duties.

OSWEGO ITEMS

Social Is Given By Singing Club

The Community Singing Club of Oswego gave a good time social Tuesday evening at the Congregational church. A good time and plenty of good singing and games were enjoyed. The Club has been invited by the Portland Committee of Music week to assist in directing songs in Portland during that week. Oswego also will have an evening of music under their director and many new members are expected this season.

Community Singing Club Gives Social

OSWEGO, Nov. 8.—The Community Singing Society gave its first social this season on the evening of November 1 which was a success in every respect. Games, songs and refreshments rounded out the evening's entertainment. They expect to have a social meeting once a month.

Masquerade Party Given at Oswego

OSWEGO, Nov. 8.—The Dorcas Society of the Congregational church gave a very pleasant masquerade party Monday night. Some of the costumes were unique and some were very pleasing in an artistic sense. The smallest children especially had some fine costumes. Morris Ranger and little Miss Duncan taking the honors for the best childrens costumes. Later refreshments were served.

Bore Is Through Elk Tunnel Rock

OSWEGO, Nov. 8.—The bore is now through on the Elk Rock tunnel. The last layer of rock separating the two ends was pushed out last week. The concrete approach and entrance at the north end is finished. The Southern Pacific company expects to have trains operating through the tunnel about December 1.

Surprise Party Is Given Misses Smoke

OSWEGO, Nov. 8.—A surprise party was given on the Misses Violet and Martha Smoke Thursday evening. A number of their friends came in and spent the evening with music, dancing and games. Refreshments were served to those present who were Misses Edith and Lula Wanker, Mr. and Mrs. Smoke, Harold Baker, Carl Horn and Lewis Smoke.

Good Times Club Party Is Enjoyed

OSWEGO, Nov. 8.—The fancy costume party given by the Good Times club Saturday evening was well attended and all present had a fine time. Two prizes were given for the best costumes, besides the regular door prize which the club gives at each of the popular dances.

FRIENDS SURPRISE ZELLAR

OSWEGO, Nov. 8.—A number of friends and fellow Artisans surprised E. G. Zellar on his birthday Thursday by walking in on him unexpectedly. The evening was spent playing "500" and later refreshments were served.

OSWEGO LOCALS

OSWEGO, Nov. 8.—The Dorcas Society gave a flower sale on Wednesday with a good success, when flowers and bulbs of all kinds were sold.

Mr. and Mrs. Otto Larson attended a dance Saturday evening at Mulino where they had an enjoyable time.

A. J. Howell of Portland was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. F. R. Cinesfelter over Sunday. Mr. Howell and Mr. Cinesfelter expects to go to Newport the first of December to spend some time.

Ethel Emmott the infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Pete Emmott has been very sick with bronchial pneumonia. At the present she is getting along nicely under a doctor's care.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Wadoff visited their son, Walter Waldorf, of Mulino Sunday.

The youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Davidson is very sick.

OSWEGO LOCALS

OSWEGO, Nov. 8.—The Dorcas Society of the Congregational church gave a very pleasant masquerade party Monday night. Some of the costumes were unique and some were very pleasing in an artistic sense. The smallest children especially had some fine costumes. Morris Ranger and little Miss Duncan taking the honors for the best childrens costumes. Later refreshments were served.

Mr. and Mrs. O'Brien are spending a few days in Bremerton and were accompanied there by Willis Kiggins.

Mrs. Mollie Childers is a house guest at Stone Gables this week.

While shopping in a Portland store on Thursday of last week Mrs. Arthur Roberts was relieved of her purse—a gold wrist watch by pick-pockets.

George Ross is able to be up in his wheel chair after being laid up for two weeks with a fractured leg.

Pem Patton of Cherry Grove, Oregon spent Sunday with his sister Mrs. A. B. Snider.

W. C. Mass of Oregon City was a business caller on Wednesday.

Mrs. Oscar Lyles of Bend, was an overnight visitor at the Newcomb home on Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Blinestone were Portland shoppers on Tuesday buying furnishings for their new apartments.

Mr. Theraux has 23 pupils under his leadership and about the Christmas time will give a recital.

Will Rush is home from Pendleton for over Armistice Day.

The Blue Front store under the new management of R. H. Hendry & Co. have made some improvements and changes since taking over the store. They are offering a number of specials and are aiming to please their customers.

A. W. Meyers has completed a garage on his new property, where the family will be domiciled awaiting the completion of their new modern home which is being built.

Miss Elva Eades came home from Forest Grove to spend Sunday with her mother.

Mrs. Emma Hopson spent two days calling on old friends here, previous to her departure for Los Angeles, where she goes to spend the winter. Mrs. Hopson will be joined by Omaha friends who will journey to California for the winter.

Rev. A. B. Snider took a motor trip to Tillamook to look after business interests.

Mrs. Mary Tillman has moved to Milwaukie for the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Kendall and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Dyer of Portland were entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Hopkins on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Otto Larson attended a dance Saturday evening at Mulino where they had an enjoyable time.

A. J. Howell of Portland was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. F. R. Cinesfelter over Sunday. Mr. Howell and Mr. Cinesfelter expects to go to Newport the first of December to spend some time.

Ethel Emmott the infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Pete Emmott has been very sick with bronchial pneumonia. At the present she is getting along nicely under a doctor's care.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Wadoff visited their son, Walter Waldorf, of Mulino Sunday.

The youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Davidson is very sick.

OSWEGO LOCALS

OSWEGO, Nov. 8.—The Dorcas Society of the Congregational church gave a very pleasant masquerade party Monday night. Some of the costumes were unique and some were very pleasing in an artistic sense. The smallest children especially had some fine costumes. Morris Ranger and little Miss Duncan taking the honors for the best childrens costumes. Later refreshments were served.

Mr. and Mrs. O'Brien are spending a few days in Bremerton and were accompanied there by Willis Kiggins.

Mrs. Mollie Childers is a house guest at Stone Gables this week.

While shopping in a Portland store on Thursday of last week Mrs. Arthur Roberts was relieved of her purse—a gold wrist watch by pick-pockets.

George Ross is able to be up in his wheel chair after being laid up for two weeks with a fractured leg.

Pem Patton of Cherry Grove, Oregon spent Sunday with his sister Mrs. A. B. Snider.

W. C. Mass of Oregon City was a business caller on Wednesday.

Mrs. Oscar Lyles of Bend, was an overnight visitor at the Newcomb home on Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Blinestone were Portland shoppers on Tuesday buying furnishings for their new apartments.

Mr. Theraux has 23 pupils under his leadership and about the Christmas time will give a recital.

Will Rush is home from Pendleton for over Armistice Day.

The Blue Front store under the new management of R. H. Hendry & Co. have made some improvements and changes since taking over the store. They are offering a number of specials and are aiming to please their customers.

A. W. Meyers has completed a garage on his new property, where the family will be domiciled awaiting the completion of their new modern home which is being built.

Miss Elva Eades came home from Forest Grove to spend Sunday with her mother.

Mrs. Emma Hopson spent two days calling on old friends here, previous to her departure for Los Angeles, where she goes to spend the winter. Mrs. Hopson will be joined by Omaha friends who will journey to California for the winter.

Rev. A. B. Snider took a motor trip to Tillamook to look after business interests.

Mrs. Mary Tillman has moved to Milwaukie for the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Kendall and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Dyer of Portland were entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Hopkins on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Otto Larson attended a dance Saturday evening at Mulino where they had an enjoyable time.

A. J. Howell of Portland was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. F. R. Cinesfelter over Sunday. Mr. Howell and Mr. Cinesfelter expects to go to Newport the first of December to spend some time.

Ethel Emmott the infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Pete Emmott has been very sick with bronchial pneumonia. At the present she is getting along nicely under a doctor's care.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Wadoff visited their son, Walter Waldorf, of Mulino Sunday.

The youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Davidson is very sick.

OSWEGO LOCALS

OSWEGO, Nov. 8.—The Dorcas Society of the Congregational church gave a very pleasant masquerade party Monday night. Some of the costumes were unique and some were very pleasing in an artistic sense. The smallest children especially had some fine costumes. Morris Ranger and little Miss Duncan taking the honors for the best childrens costumes. Later refreshments were served.

Mr. and Mrs. O'Brien are spending a few days in Bremerton and were accompanied there by Willis Kiggins.

Mrs. Mollie Childers is a house guest at Stone Gables this week.

While shopping in a Portland store on Thursday of last week Mrs. Arthur Roberts was relieved of her purse—a gold wrist watch by pick-pockets.

George Ross is able to be up in his wheel chair after being laid up for two weeks with a fractured leg.

Pem Patton of Cherry Grove, Oregon spent Sunday with his sister Mrs. A. B. Snider.

W. C. Mass of Oregon City was a business caller on Wednesday.

Mrs. Oscar Lyles of Bend, was an overnight visitor at the Newcomb home on Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Blinestone were Portland shoppers on Tuesday buying furnishings for their new apartments.

Mr. Theraux has 23 pupils under his leadership and about the Christmas time will give a recital.

Will Rush is home from Pendleton for over Armistice Day.

The Blue Front store under the new management of R. H. Hendry & Co. have made some improvements and changes since taking over the store. They are offering a number of specials and are aiming to please their customers.

A. W. Meyers has completed a garage on his new property, where the family will be domiciled awaiting the completion of their new modern home which is being built.

Miss Elva Eades came home from Forest Grove to spend Sunday with her mother.

Mrs. Emma Hopson spent two days calling on old friends here, previous to her departure for Los Angeles, where she goes to spend the winter. Mrs. Hopson will be joined by Omaha friends who will journey to California for the winter.

Rev. A. B. Snider took a motor trip to Tillamook to look after business interests.

Mrs. Mary Tillman has moved to Milwaukie for the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Kendall and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Dyer of Portland were entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Hopkins on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Otto Larson attended a dance Saturday evening at Mulino where they had an enjoyable time.

A. J. Howell of Portland was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. F. R. Cinesfelter over Sunday. Mr. Howell and Mr. Cinesfelter expects to go to Newport the first of December to spend some time.

Ethel Emmott the infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Pete Emmott has been very sick with bronchial pneumonia. At the present she is getting along nicely under a doctor's care.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Wadoff visited their son, Walter Waldorf, of Mulino Sunday.

The youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Davidson is very sick.

OSWEGO LOCALS

OSWEGO, Nov. 8.—The Dorcas Society of the Congregational church gave a very pleasant masquerade party Monday night. Some of the costumes were unique and some were very pleasing in an artistic sense. The smallest children especially had some fine costumes. Morris Ranger and little Miss Duncan taking the honors for the best childrens costumes. Later refreshments were served.

Mr. and Mrs. O'Brien are spending a few days in Bremerton and were accompanied there by Willis Kiggins.

Mrs. Mollie Childers is a house guest at Stone Gables this week.

While shopping in a Portland store on Thursday of last week Mrs. Arthur Roberts was relieved of her purse—a gold wrist watch by pick-pockets.

George Ross is able to be up in his wheel chair after being laid up for two weeks with a fractured leg.

Pem Patton of Cherry Grove, Oregon spent Sunday with his sister Mrs. A. B. Snider.

W. C. Mass of Oregon City was a business caller on Wednesday.

Mrs. Oscar Lyles of Bend, was an overnight visitor at the Newcomb home on Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Blinestone were Portland shoppers on Tuesday buying furnishings for their new apartments.

Mr. Theraux has 23 pupils under his leadership and about the Christmas time will give a recital.

Will Rush is home from Pendleton for over Armistice Day.

The Blue Front store under the new management of R. H. Hendry & Co. have made some improvements and changes since taking over the store. They are offering a number of specials and are aiming to please their customers.

A. W. Meyers has completed a garage on his new property, where the family will be domiciled awaiting the completion of their new modern home which is being built.

Miss Elva Eades came home from Forest Grove to spend Sunday with her mother.

Mrs. Emma Hopson spent two days calling on old friends here, previous to her departure for Los Angeles, where she goes to spend the winter. Mrs. Hopson will be joined by Omaha friends who will journey to California for the winter.

Rev. A. B. Snider took a motor trip to Tillamook to look after business interests.

Mrs. Mary Tillman has moved to Milwaukie for the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Kendall and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Dyer of Portland were entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Hopkins on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Otto Larson attended a dance Saturday evening at Mulino where they had an enjoyable time.

A. J. Howell of Portland was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. F. R. Cinesfelter over Sunday. Mr. Howell and Mr. Cinesfelter expects to go to Newport the first of December to spend some time.

Ethel Emmott the infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Pete Emmott has been very sick with bronchial pneumonia. At the present she is getting along nicely under a doctor's care.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Wadoff visited their son, Walter Waldorf, of Mulino Sunday.

The youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Davidson is very sick.

OSWEGO LOCALS

OSWEGO, Nov. 8.—The Dorcas Society of the Congregational church gave a very pleasant masquerade party Monday night. Some of the costumes were unique and some were very pleasing in an artistic sense. The smallest children especially had some fine costumes. Morris Ranger and little Miss Duncan taking the honors for the best childrens costumes. Later refreshments were served.

Mr. and Mrs. O'Brien are spending a few days in Bremerton and were accompanied there by Willis Kiggins.

Mrs. Mollie Childers is a house guest at Stone Gables this week.

While shopping in a Portland store on Thursday of last week Mrs. Arthur Roberts was relieved of her purse—a gold wrist watch by pick-pockets.

George Ross is able to be up in his wheel chair after being laid up for two weeks with a fractured leg.

Pem Patton of Cherry Grove, Oregon spent Sunday with his sister Mrs. A. B. Snider.

W. C. Mass of Oregon City was a business caller on Wednesday.

Mrs. Oscar Lyles of Bend, was an overnight visitor at the Newcomb home on Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Blinestone were Portland shoppers on Tuesday buying furnishings for their new apartments.

Mr. Theraux has 23 pupils under his leadership and about the Christmas time will give a recital.

Will Rush is home from Pendleton for over Armistice Day.

The Blue Front store under the new management of R. H. Hendry & Co. have made some improvements and changes since taking over the store. They are offering a number of specials and are aiming to please their customers.

A. W. Meyers has completed a garage on his new property, where the family will be domiciled awaiting the completion of their new modern home which is being built.

Miss Elva Eades came home from Forest Grove to spend Sunday with her mother.

Mrs. Emma Hopson spent two days calling on old friends here, previous to her departure for Los Angeles, where she goes to spend the winter. Mrs. Hopson will be joined by Omaha friends who will journey to California for the winter.

Rev. A. B. Snider took a motor trip to Tillamook to look after business interests.

Mrs. Mary Tillman has moved to Milwaukie for the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Kendall and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Dyer of Portland were entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Hopkins on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Otto Larson attended a dance Saturday evening at Mulino where they had an enjoyable time.

A. J. Howell of Portland was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. F. R. Cinesfelter over Sunday. Mr. Howell and Mr. Cinesfelter expects to go to Newport the first of December to spend some time.

Ethel Emmott the infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Pete Emmott has been very sick with bronchial pneumonia. At the present she is getting along nicely under a doctor's care.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Wadoff visited their son, Walter Waldorf, of Mulino Sunday.

The youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Davidson is very sick.

OSWEGO LOCALS

OSWEGO, Nov. 8.—The Dorcas Society of the Congregational church gave a very pleasant masquerade party Monday night. Some of the costumes were unique and some were very pleasing in an artistic sense. The smallest children especially had some fine costumes. Morris Ranger and little Miss Duncan taking the honors for the best childrens costumes. Later refreshments were served.

Mr. and Mrs. O'Brien are spending a few days in Bremerton and were accompanied there by Willis Kiggins.

Mrs. Mollie Childers is a house guest at Stone Gables this week.

While shopping in a Portland store on Thursday of last week Mrs. Arthur Roberts was relieved of her purse—a gold wrist watch by pick-pockets.

George Ross is able to be up in his wheel chair after being laid up for two weeks with a fractured leg.

Pem Patton of Cherry Grove, Oregon spent Sunday with his sister Mrs. A. B. Snider.

W. C. Mass of Oregon City was a business caller on Wednesday.

Mrs. Oscar Lyles of Bend, was an overnight visitor at the Newcomb home on Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Blinestone were Portland shoppers on Tuesday buying furnishings for their new apartments.

Mr. Theraux has 23 pupils under his leadership and about the Christmas time will give a recital.

Will Rush is home from Pendleton for over Armistice Day.

The Blue Front store under the new management of R. H. Hendry & Co. have made some improvements and changes since taking over the store. They are offering a number of specials and are aiming to please their customers.

A. W. Meyers has completed a garage on his new property, where the family will be domiciled awaiting the completion of their new modern home which is being built.

Miss Elva Eades came home from Forest Grove to spend Sunday with her mother.

Mrs. Emma Hopson spent two days calling on old friends here, previous to her departure for Los Angeles, where she goes to spend the winter. Mrs. Hopson will be joined by Omaha friends who will journey to California for the winter.

Rev. A. B. Snider took a motor trip to Tillamook to look after business interests.

Mrs. Mary Tillman has moved to Milwaukie for the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Kendall and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Dyer of Portland were entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Hopkins on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Otto Larson attended a dance Saturday evening at Mulino where they had an enjoyable time.

A. J. Howell of Portland was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. F. R. Cinesfelter over Sunday. Mr. Howell and Mr. Cinesfelter expects to go to Newport the first of December to spend some time.

Ethel Emmott the infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Pete Emmott has been very sick with bronchial pneumonia. At the present she is getting along nicely under a doctor's care.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Wadoff visited their son, Walter Waldorf, of Mulino Sunday.

The youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Davidson is very sick.

OSWEGO LOCALS

OSWEGO, Nov. 8.—The Dorcas Society of the Congregational church gave a very pleasant masquerade party Monday night. Some of the costumes were unique and some were very pleasing in an artistic sense. The smallest children especially had some fine costumes. Morris Ranger and little Miss Duncan taking the honors for the best childrens costumes. Later refreshments were served.

Mr. and Mrs. O'Brien are spending a few days in Bremerton and were accompanied there by Willis Kiggins.

Mrs. Mollie Childers is a house guest at Stone Gables this week.

While shopping in a Portland store on Thursday of last week Mrs. Arthur Roberts was relieved of her purse—a gold wrist watch by pick-pockets.

George Ross is able to be up in his wheel chair after being laid up for two weeks with a fractured leg.

Pem Patton of Cherry Grove, Oregon spent Sunday with his sister Mrs. A. B. Snider.

W. C. Mass of Oregon City was a business caller on Wednesday.

Mrs. Oscar Lyles of Bend, was an overnight visitor at the Newcomb home on Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Blinestone were Portland shoppers on Tuesday buying furnishings for their new apartments.

Mr. Theraux has 23 pupils under his leadership and about the Christmas time will give a recital.

Will Rush is home from Pendleton for over Armistice Day.

The Blue Front store under the new management of R. H. Hendry & Co. have made some improvements and changes since taking over the store. They are offering a number of specials and are aiming to please their customers.

A. W. Meyers has completed a garage on his new property, where the family will be domiciled awaiting the completion of their new modern home which is being built.

Miss Elva Eades came home from Forest Grove to spend Sunday with her mother.

Mrs. Emma Hopson spent two days calling on old friends here, previous to her departure for Los Angeles, where she goes to spend the winter. Mrs. Hopson will be joined by Omaha friends who will journey to California for the winter.

Rev. A. B. Snider took a motor trip to Tillamook to look after business interests.

Mrs. Mary Tillman has moved to Milwaukie for the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Kendall and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Dyer of Portland were entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Hopkins on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Otto Larson attended a dance Saturday evening at Mulino where they had an enjoyable time.

A. J. Howell of Portland was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. F. R. Cinesfelter over Sunday. Mr. Howell and Mr. Cinesfelter expects to go to Newport the first of December to spend some time.

Ethel Emmott the infant daughter of Mr. and