Incidents Recalled By Historic Column

SANDY, Nov. 8.—Paragraphs about incidents and people of forty and fifty years ago recalled by Paul Dunn of Sandy: "My brother Patrick and I built a hewed log house three miles west of Sandy in 1872, which was the first house on the old road between Sandy and Pleasant Home...

P.-T. Officers Named At Cottrell Meeting

SANDY, Nov. 4.—Cottrell had a record attendance of about 200 at their last Parent-Teacher meeting and the meeting was unusually enthusiastic. The officers of the year were re-elected with the exception of the vice-president. The officers are as follows: Mrs. A. J. Ault president; Mrs. Wm. H. Mancke, vice-president; Mrs. Joe C. Dodd, secretary; Mrs. H. H. Watkins, treasurer...

Club Women Feast Hubby Goes Hungry Poetry Wins Promise

SANDY, Nov. 5.—The following "pithful" plain sent to the Sandy Women's Club by the husband of one of the prominent members struck a sympathetic chord, and a motion was made at once to give a banquet for the "hubbies" of club members: "Third of November, 1921. Club—Oh! glorious day which father prays he come to stay! On this glad day of inimitable splendor which clusters dine on vindictive succulent and tender father stays at home and dines on hay, and while he licks the chaff from the platter in imagination he can hear the animated chatter and the culinary clatter as the clubsters feast on chicken, rolls and jelly while father gnaws a bone and rubs his empty (tummy) (Signed) Sincerely, R. E. Esson"

L. T. Hoffman is having a new porch built on his main street house and George Krebs and Herman Miller are the carpenters.

The city of Sandy budget meeting was held November 1 at the city hall and a good attendance was present. A new garage is being put on the Main street for the shelter of trucks working of the roads. Work is proceeding on Market Road No. 1 between Dover and Firwood. It along the Evans place being the immediate place of action last week. Jerry Duke went to his own home farm Monday to help his brother-in-law, Curtis Wheeler, set his potato crop out of the soil. Wheeler is not in very good health at the present time. Mario Boitano visited his sister, Mrs. Pastorio and family near Troutdale the first of the week and came home via the Portland route. Mrs. J. E. Pomeroy and little boy moved into their property near the Sandy creamery. Mr. Pomeroy, who is running a jitney in Portland, will drive out occasionally. The Sandy city council met again last Monday evening at the city hall. Miss Hazel Beers will have a long list of pleasant memories to recall of her friends when she returns from Corvallis, whether she went on Wednesday as the guest of Frances and Gertrude Meling for a few days at the Alpha Rho Sorority house. Mrs. Ed Littlepage and small son spent most of last week at Bull Run as guests of the A. C. Thomas family. Mrs. Littlepage and Mr. and Mrs. Thomas drove to Portland one day and Mrs. Littlepage had an all around pleasant time during her visit. Mrs. Lehnfeld has a very sore hand last week and was almost laid up. It was caused from a cut which developed into blood poisoning. Mrs. Lehnfeld reports their potato crop as very poor, hardly paying for digging. Glenn Lundree and Leroy Quick are keeping batch at the Lilly home and take the train from Linneman Junction to the Y. M. C. A. where these enterprising young men are taking up automobile mechanics. Mrs. H. S. Eddy and Miss Lulu Eddy were up for the first time since they moved to Pleasant Home last week and were hostesses at the Eastern Star session. There was a nice crowd, and refreshments were served, after which a program was given and everyone went home feeling the evening was worth while. While the gifts were being passed around for display at the Gray shower little Margaret Bell (seven) said, "I guess I'll have to get married." "Pa" Gray was almost overcome by so many females slipping in unawares the "tother" night, but managed to rally to the situation and viewed the surprise and pleasure of the occasion from the kitchen door. Gus Dahrens has been feeling considerably better the past week. Dahrens has worked at Dwyers for about three months. He had worked so steadily for years that the doctor prescribed rest. A fine program is already planned for the next community sing which was announced for Sunday night, Nov. 27. Congregational singing, short readings, a chorus by the high school girls, songs that everybody loves and a varied program that cannot fail to please. To desire of the community, and to be of one mind and one spirit at these meetings which have no conception whatever of an other organization in town. Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Hauglum took a four day automobile trip up the Willamette valley last week, and visited relatives at Woodburn, Albany and Lebanon. It rained all the time they were gone and the weather was cold. Though they had a nice visit, home looked good on their return. Mr. and Mrs. F. Lohrmann and Mr. and Mrs. W. Krebs were after church guests of Mr. and Mrs. Gus Dahrens last Sunday. A fine dinner was spread and a social visit enjoyed. Dr. and Mrs. Harry Ott were all day guests of Mr. and Mrs. George Perret Sunday, remaining for the evening program at the M. E. church. Dr. Ott says he hardly ever plays except at Sandy, and if we had we would keep him playing most of his time. O. P. Hoff, state treasurer and Dudley Antrim of Portland were all day guests at the home of J. M. C. Miller and Mrs. Miller Sunday, both guests being friends of the Millers since the days of old lang syne. Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Shipley were in town Sunday, Mrs. Shipley attending Sunday school. The Shipleys were sorry to miss the evening program but could not risk coming over the road at night. Fred Suckow got stuck near the old Failing place and had to leave his car and walk into Sandy last Sunday, Fred says he will not take his car out again soon. Ed Suckow was out to his former home, Sandyville, again Sunday, and also made his appearance in Sandy during the day looking fat and hearty. Mrs. Hennessey entertained two sisters, Mrs. Morgan of Portland and Miss Fah and Mr. Moody of Washougal for the day last Sunday. Mrs. E. Beers and Mrs. Ernest Harris spent several days in Portland and St. Johns visiting relatives and having a general good time. The R. S. Smith family were invited to the Scales home Sunday after the sudden passing of Mrs. Smith's Miss Mary Junker had been ill when her last letter was written, but was happy to be able to leave for San Francisco shortly where she expected to remain a short time before starting home. Attillio Coreisino is busy decorating the Max Woenche home. Alfred Woenche is having this work done as a present for his brother and family. C. D. Purcell made a two day's trip to Oregon City last week on legal business. R. T. Esson and C. O. Duke made a business trip to Portland a few days ago, combining a little pleasure with duty. They enjoy the country here greatly. Mrs. Strucken has been staying at the O'Neil home helping take care of "Grandma" O'Neil, whose condition is no better. W. P. Roberts walked down from Dover to do some errands in town a few days ago, as driving is not attractive over the roads up that way. Roberts has just finished digging potatoes and said he had a fair crop of fair sized potatoes. John Roberts is back on his ranch, but his family have not arrived. Work on the highway stopped at McKenzie for the season and he may decide to stay on the ranch this winter. R. A. Chown and daughter Caroline were in town a few days ago. Caroline will not go to school any more this winter unless the roads get in better shape. She returned from Auburn, Wash., recently. Mrs. Caron and Lloyd were down for a few days while institute was in progress. Lloyd is attending school at Greenwood. Mrs. George Perret entertained the Sandy Women's club at its regular meeting last week in her attractive home, and served delicious French pastry, coffee and "pineapple delight," all of which proved a delight to the happy ladies, and would have made "Father" Esson forget he ever had been compelled to "eat hay and gnaw bones" had he been there. Those present at the meeting were Mrs. Blanche Shelley, Mrs. Edna Esson, Mrs. Sadie Boshelm, Mrs. Alice Scales, Mrs. Annie Duke, Mrs. Maggie Bell, Mrs. Sturtevant, Mrs. Power, Mrs. Miller and the hostess, Mrs. Geo. Perret. Dr. and Mrs. Sture drove down to Orient to attend the Stephenson wedding anniversary Thursday night. Mr. and Mrs. Harry Reed drove to Portland Sunday for the afternoon. Cecil Duke could not be present at the armistice program, and these two prominent veterans were both missed.

Mrs. Sarah Cross Passes Suddenly

SANDY, Nov. 8.—The town of Sandy was shocked Sunday morning to hear of the sudden passing of Mrs. Sarah Cross, mother of Mrs. R. S. Smith, who had felt stronger than usual all day Saturday and had visited with her daughter, played with the children and showed no illness till near midnight when she had a sleep of coughing. Mrs. Smith rushed to her mother's room and saw at once she was ill and called Dr. Williams but in two or three minutes after the doctor arrived she entered another sphere. The immediate cause is given as heart trouble. The deceased was not ill over ten or fifteen minutes. The funeral will be held Wednesday at the Methodist church.

Marmot Pie Social Is Well Attended

SANDY, Nov. 8.—The pie social held at the Marmot school house last Saturday evening, November 5, was well attended, the proceeds from the sale of pies amounting to $12.00. Beside the program of the school Mrs. George Odell gave a solo and Mrs. Carmony a reading. A literary society was then organized with Mrs. Lillian B. Ten Tyck being chosen as president, Mrs. Carmony vice-president, and Miss Christine Ogden secretary-treasurer. The next meeting will be held Saturday night, Nov. 19 at the school house and the question to be discussed will be "Resolved, that the 1925 exposition will be of benefit to Oregon." Beside the drama a short program will be given. Everyone invited.

COYOTE HUNTING GOOD

SANDY, Nov. 8.—Coyote hunters are having good success in Sandy canyon since the animals have been feeding on a dead horse and two dead cows. Heacock and Loveland of Damasco brought up their hounds, and with neighbors to stand at the run-ways it has been practically easy to get the coyotes which bring a bounty of $3.00 a pelt.

CELEBRATE ANNIVERSARY

SANDY, Nov. 8.—A surprise was given Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Steffanson of Orient recently which was their thirty-fifth wedding anniversary. All of their children were home and a wedding cake, decorated with thirty-five candles, was served with other refreshments. Several pieces of cut glass were presented to the "bride and groom."

Proposed School Plan Is Defeated

SANDY, Nov. 8.—Superintendent Vedder and Supervisor Buckley both attended the tax-payer's school meeting at Sandyville last Saturday, and also conferred with the school board in matters pertaining to the school. The ballot stood 19 to 17 against the buying of a new site and erecting a school house in the center of the district. This is the second attempt of the district to vote for a new school building and for the standardizing of the school.

SHOWER GIVEN FOR PROSPECTIVE BRIDE

SANDY, Nov. 8.—A surprise shower was given for Miss Isabel Gray at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. B. Gray last night which was attended by 27 friends of the prospective bride. A beautiful array of gifts were contributed. Coffee and cake were served by Mrs. Gray, Mrs. Cyril Gray and Mrs. Frank Christianson. The following ladies were present: Mrs. F. A. Proctor, Mrs. Geo. Beers, Mrs. E. L. Power, Mrs. J. Scales, Mrs. J. C. Loundree, Mrs. W. Boshelm, Mrs. R. E. Esson, Mrs. Duke, Mrs. Kligel, Mrs. Geo. Perret, Mrs. Junker, Mrs. Scharnke, Mrs. Hoffman, Mrs. Gus Dahrens, Mrs. Maroney, Mrs. Adolph Dahrens, Mrs. A. W. Bell, Mrs. Melvin Smith, Mrs. Ed. Wolfe, Mrs. Frank Christianson, Mrs. J. M. C. Miller, Mrs. Frank Christianson, Mrs. P. B. and Mrs. Cyril Gray and Miss Isabel Gray, Miss Mary Scharnke and Miss Mildred Boshelm.

TRAPS BIG BEAR

SANDY, Nov. 8.—Henry Aschoff had fine luck trapping last week when he caught a big 200 pound bear in the hills back of his place. He skinned the fat fellow and sold the hide, etc. to some perfectly good bear steak, sold some, and gave part away.

SANDY LOCALS

SANDY, Nov. 8.—The Ladies Aid Societies of the Methodist and Baptist churches of Pleasant Home are sponsoring a character and costume program at the Orient hall tonight. The affair will also partake of the armistice day spirit. It has been given out that Graves, the Sandy hotel man is going to move away about the first of December; and that some one else will take over his route to Gresham. Mr. and Mrs. Henry Ten Eyck are getting settled in their fine new home. Their moving was greatly delayed by the arrival of a little son several weeks ago. Taxpayers, please remember to go to the city hall Saturday night, November 12 and vote on the school budget. Rev. Earl Cotton has announced his regular services will continue at the Methodist church on next Sunday night. The regular grange meeting will be tomorrow, November 12 and it is requested that all members having birthdays in November will bring a penny for each year to put in the "birthday" box. Next Wednesday the national grange will convene in Portland and a number from this vicinity are going to attend. The Sandy community Sunday school is growing in enthusiasm and numbers, and the same report comes from various sections where Sunday schools have opened recently. Mrs. George Koesicker and children were in town Monday on a shopping trip. Mrs. Billy Allen passed through town Monday on her way to Portland for a visit. Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Purcell spent a

STATE MAN TO SPEAK

SANDY, Nov. 8.—Arrangements have been made by Sandy's new commercial club for George Quayle, general secretary for the Oregon state chamber of commerce to speak in the Odd Fellows hall on Thursday evening, November 17. Outlines for a general activity of the Sandy club will no doubt be discussed and it is hoped there will be a large and enthusiastic crowd present on this occasion. Ladies are invited, and everybody from everywhere are welcome.

States Get Surplus U.S. Motor Vehicles

Virtually all the surplus motor vehicles turned over by the war department to the department of agriculture for distribution among the various states for road building purposes have been distributed through the Bureau of Public Roads. Up to July 1, last, a total of 22,577 motor vehicles had been distributed. These vehicles, consisting for the most part of trucks, are a part of the war materials originally intended for use in France and distributed under the Wadsworth-Kahn bill among the various states, the sole condition attached to the distribution being that they should be used only for road building purposes.

OTTO POLEHN, TIRED OF LIVING, JUMPS INTO WILLAMETTE FROM BRIDGE

PORTLAND, Nov. 9.—With ungrateful contempt for the services of several men who rescued him from the Willamette river Tuesday and resuscitated him after 45 minutes of strenuous first aid, Otto L. Polehn, 35, son of Frank Polehn, Route 2, Oregon City, requested the men who saved his life to throw him back into the river and let him die. Polehn said he was tired of living and wished to die. He said he had in "survance and jumped off the Hawthorne bridge. Several workmen from the Alaska Junk company saw him floundering in the water below the bridge. In a launch, with Fred Lamberson of Lamberson-Reid Boat company, they hurried to his assistance. Lamberson dove into the water and pulled Polehn out just before he disappeared below the surface of the water. The man was unconscious and scarcely alive when they rushed him to the harbor patrol boat house at the foot of Stark street. Joe Brady, city grapple, and the rescuers set to work and emptied his lungs of water. After a hard fight the men started circulation and finally discovered a few signs of life. Dr. George Parrish, city health officer, was called, and assisted in restoring consciousness. When Polehn was able to talk he was taken to the emergency hospital where he refused to give his name or say anything more than that he jumped from the bridge and wished to die. His name was ascertained when the harbor patrol discovered the coat he had abandoned just before he leaped from the bridge. Chief Engineer Carl Pehrn of the harbor patrol found the coat and tell-tale papers.

BORING NEWS

SANDY, Oct. 9.—Miss Edith Anderson, teacher of the third and fourth grades in the Boring school has been quarantined at her home here as her brother Clarence has the smallpox. The young Methodist minister is taking Miss Anderson's place in the school. Roy McClung who works at Yacont, Wash., is home for a visit with his parents. Loris Child who went to Eastern Oregon with the Bartelays writes that they are having their share of sport shooting wild geese which are very plentiful at this time of year. Work on the new dance hall here is being rushed so as to give a big Thanksgiving dance. The W. A. Morand are back from their trip to Uncle Sam's capital and report a splendid trip. Mr. Morand is proudly showing a picture of delegates taken on the White House grounds with President Harding in the center of the group.
