Card of Thanks

We wish to thank our many friends and neighbors for the help and many acts of kindness shown us during the illness and death of our beloved wife and mother; also for beautiful floral offerings. ANTON BATALGIA AND FAMILY.

Elks Prairie Items

ELK PRAIRIE, Nov. 12.—John Grossen, who is clerk for school district No. 313, has just completed his census report. The task is quite extended as the district covers thirty sections of land and there is much extra clerical in a district which is new, while the pay for it is very meagre. Mr. Grossen is a native of Switzerland and explained how the school master used to teach eighty pupils with ease. The room was large, the seats were benches, two for each class and arranged according to the size of the pupils, girls who had first grade lessons, then boys in the same class had the second row. Next were the girls who had been promoted, then the boys, alternating until the boys who were in the highest branches of learning were at the back of the room. The teacher's platform was raised so that he might have a good view of the whole room. Each class was assigned its lesson and the master was strict that it should be properly studied. Miss Roberson, who teaches the Elk Prairie school, and Miss Henderson, who teaches in the Coal Creek portion of this district, are teaching their respective schools again. Both young women attended the institute last week. D. B. Gray and family went to Woodburn recently to visit a relative who is ill. Laurence Joplin, who began his school year in Portland has returned to attend school, feeling that there is better chance in the small school. Last year a pupil returned to Elk Prairie school for the same reason. Basil Leitze is a Portland lad who has been drawn here because he wished to benefit by the small school. He will had to return to Portland however to visit a dentist. Wm. Kruger is visiting Roy Thomas, the latter having bought the Kruger homestead. It is reported. Richard Joplin, who is one of the directors of this school district, hauled a load of lumber recently, which is to be used to build a much needed wood shed for the school. Chas. Tidd visited his family on the homestead recently. Mr. Tidd works in the Oregon City paper mills. Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Sailer have returned to their homestead from Portland. Chas. Gresham was a recent visitor in this neighborhood as was also Lawrence Sloate. The young men had understood they were to be a party at the home of D. B. Gray, which proved to be a mistake. D. W. Badger was a business visitor in Scott's Mills, recently. The Elk Prairie Community club held its regular meeting recently in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Glen Gault. The early part of the evening was spent in dancing, a number of the members having worn masks and costumes which deceived their friends for some time. A very interesting business meeting was held and the necessity of building a community hall next year was discussed. Allan Battles, who left Elk Prairie for the Middle West, has returned, vowing that he will never go east of the mountains again.

Catarrial Deafness

is greatly relieved by constitutional treatment. HALL'S CATARRH MEDICINE is a constitutional remedy. Catarrhal Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result. Unless the inflammation can be reduced, your hearing may be destroyed forever. HALL'S CATARRH MEDICINE acts through the blood on the mucous surfaces of the system, thus reducing the inflammation and assisting Nature in restoring normal conditions. Circulars free. All Druggists. Captured Again

PHOENIX, Ariz., Nov. 16.—Roy Gardner, fugitive mail bandit from McNeil Island penitentiary, Washington, was captured here last night following his unsuccessful attempt to hold up the mail car on a train of the Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe in the local station. Herman Interfield of Phoenix, clerk in charge of the car, overpowered Gardner, who was later identified at the police station by means of finger prints. False Name Given Gardner first gave the name of R. P. Nelson, but later admitted his identity. Police this morning said that while there was nothing of unusual value in the mail on board the car attacked last night, a local bank planned to ship $15,000 from here today, and they believe the would be robber had been "tipped off" to the shipment, but got the wrong train. The mail car attacked last night was on Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe train No. 170. The robber boarded the car ten minutes before the train was to leave for Los Angeles. Hold-Up Is Surprise Herman Interfield of Phoenix, clerk in charge of the car, said he was not looking when the would-be robber got into the car and that he first knew of the other's presence when he felt a gun pressed against his body and turned around to find a masked man holding a revolver against him. Interfield, who is 6 feet 2 inches tall and weighs about 215 pounds, struck his assailant, who was 6 feet and 185 pounds, took his gun away from him, and then sat on him while he waited for officers to respond to his calls. Then the bandit was taken to the county jail, where he said he was "R. P. Nelson of Chicago."

Farm Bureau Meet Has Big Attendance

COLTON, Ore., Nov. 15.—(Special by Mail).—The entertainment of the local branch of the Farm Bureau, with headquarters here, had an unusually large attendance last Friday in the Colton High school building. Professor Hyslop, crop expert of the Oregon Agricultural College, was the drawing card of the evening with his extremely clear-cut and interesting talk on the proper selection of seed and the growing of potatoes. Community center interests were taken care of by the community club organization which provided a program: satisfactory to man's mental and physical needs through the presentation of vocal music, a luncheon of sandwiches, cookies, cake and coffee, and a free motion picture in six reels depicting the manner in which our war needs were handled. Officers for the community club were elected, pro tem, by acclamation, as follows: Herman Chindgren, president; Bert Palmer, of Fernwood, vice-president; Professor Means, of Colton High school, secretary; Judge W. A. Beck, of Orcaud Falls, treasurer; and Leslie Moore, of Colton, lecturer. The membership of the club was greatly increased at this meeting by the subscribing of the names of people prominent in Colton affairs, to the articles and by-laws of the constitution, this membership being open to all—members, or non-members of the Farm Bureau. Leslie Moore, project leader on the purchase and distribution of stumping powder, and W. A. Holt, county agent, held a conference in the school library with those interested in powder, and feasible plans for future purchases of this explosive were thoroughly canvassed. The Women's lecture was to give a talk on home science but was unable to be present. The next meeting of the Farm Bureau will be held at the Colton High school the second Friday in December. Girl Arrives at Klezok Home—Mr. and Mrs. Edward Klezok, residing on the South End Road, are rejoicing over the arrival of a daughter, born at their home Tuesday, November 15.

"Guilty" is Verdict Against Paul Stahl

Paul Stahl, of Oswego, was found guilty by the circuit court jury Wednesday of assault and battery, for an offense committed at Oswego June 15. He was fined $150 and costs by Judge J. U. Campbell. Stahl on the night of June 15 got into an argument with a neighbor, L. Steurnagel, and becoming enraged hit the aged man over the head with an iron bar. He was arrested and subsequently indicted for assault with intent to kill. Steurnagel was taken to the hospital in a precarious condition but recovered. In instructing the jury, they were given their choice of four charges on which a verdict could be returned. J. E. Hedges, and Henry Labbi, French and Belgian counsel at Portland, were attorneys for the defendant. The jury which was out five hours, consisted of R. G. Chubb, Henry Klinker, Thos. E. Anderson, A. J. Marrs, C. W. Swallow, C. H. Skop, Henry T. Kistler, J. F. Adams, Robt. Jonsrud, Aaron McConnell, Henry Perrett, A. J. Beattie.
