Gladstone Council To Fill Vacancies

Tre city council of Gladstone will several terms as member of this gave a very interesting talk. the main office of the Pacific Cooper- the principles of the campfire girls. ative Poultry Producers in Portland and has accepted the position of man-Mr. Chambers expects to leave for Caldwell the latter part of the week Mrs Chambers and children will remain in Gladstone until the close of school, when they will dispose of their attractive home on East Arlington street and join Mr. Chambers in Idaho. Councilmen H. W. Strebig and Meetings Held By wife are planning an extended trip which will include a tour of practically all Europe. They plan to start early in June and will be away for about a year. Mr. Strebig cwns and operates a meat market in Oregon City which he expects to lease for one year to Karl Kollermeier and George Millke who have had charge of the selling and cutting departments. Mr Strebig has been a very efficient member of the city council for nearly a year. Councilman Chambers deserves much credit for the improve ment of Gladstone during his terms of office, especially for the improvement made in the Gladstone River park, where two immense garbage burners have been installed and a Christian Church comfort station located.
