Logan Community Social Is Successful

LOGAN, Nov. 30.—Thanksgiving was very quietly observed here, and in most cases chicken was a substitute for the time honored turkey.

Wednesday evening a community social and dance was given at the Grange hall. There was a large crowd in attendance, big, little, old and young who enjoyed themselves as only those who go to that purpose. Coffee, cake and sandwiches were served. A. Funk, who was demonstrating a large phonograph with an amplifier attached furnished the music.

Lower Logan school observed Thanksgiving by appropriate exercises Wednesday afternoon at which time the P. T. A. met in the afternoon.

A new family has moved into our neighborhood, having rented the Otto Smith place. We have not learned their name—but here's welcome.

The Clackamas river that was recently a wild raging torrent, is once more a peaceful law abiding stream. Very little real damage however was done.

Mrs. A. T. Sloper is entertaining relatives from Wisconsin, who arrived here just before the storm, having made the trip the entire distance by auto. They said the best roads they had were in Oregon. They came expecting to locate.

Your Neighbor Calls His Wife The "General Manager of His Home."

But that does not mean that she is the Boss or that he is Hen-pecked—far from it. It is simply a part of an attractive plan they have adopted.

Every week he gives her a certain sum of money to be used for home expenses. She keeps this money in a checking account and pays it out as she thinks best for the things needed in the home.

That mother enjoys planning the home expenses—and she also enjoys the extra pleasures for herself and the whole family that are made possible by her good management.

Do you have a general manager in your home?
