Home At Sandy Is Destroyed by Fire

SANDY, Dec. 11.—Sandy citizens were aroused this morning about 12:25 by the cry of "fire" and the fire department rushed as soon as possible to the home of Charley Suckow which was blazing before help could arrive, and the house and contents were destroyed with the exception of a trunk and some valuable papers, which Suckow rushed into the house to save after spreading the alarm. It is uncertain as to how the fire started, and there was not enough insurance to replace the furniture, so the house is a total loss.

Suckow had been staying at the Jonsrud-Gunderson mill for a few days and came home about 8 P. M. started a small fire, retired about nine, and was awakened a little after twelve, and the house was so full of smoke that he was almost suffocated. His best clothes were all burned, also the clothing of Mrs. Dodd and her children was burned. Mrs. Dodd who has been keeping house for Suckow had done a big ironing that day for the children and herself, but none of them slept there, and all they had next morning was what they had worn the day before.

Suckow has not decided yet whether he will try to build again. Almost everyone in town rushed out to the fire, and the rainy night evidently saved further destruction as pieces of burning wood blew up the hill and lighted on roofs while still blazing.

Ladies Aid Bazaar Held at Cottrell

SANDY, Dec. 12.—The bazaar and program given by the Ladies Aid of the community church at Cottrell was a fine success and everyone of the large audience enjoyed the evening greatly. The sum of $60.00 was raised through the efforts of these "willing workers." The Sandy quartet assisted in the program and were given a ringing vote of appreciation by the audience. Mrs. F. D. Eason was the accompanist of the evening, and beside the quartet numbers, Dr. Sture sang "At Dawning." Refreshments were served and the sale of articles proved an interesting part of the program, as well as the "fish" pond.

The program included a recitation in costume, "Little Woo Sam," by Dorothy Watkins; stringed music by Clarence Browning and Fred Radford, a speech by Mrs. S. F. Pitts, "A Bear Story," by Eula Martin; and a dialogue, "Which is Which," by Mrs. Steve Splawn and Alfred Myer of the Lusted community. Rev. S. F. Pitts auctioned off two quilts and a few other articles that were donated for the "auction" part of the bazaar. The fund will be used to repair the inside of the church.

The regular community song program will be given next Sunday night and a fine program is underway. Let the church "fillup" and it did at the last "sing"! There will be a varied program and as the old-time songs always touch the heart and are continually requested, there will be some of those interspersed.

is greatly relieved by constitutional treatment. HALL'S CATARRH MEDICINE is constitutional medicine. Catarrah Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result. Unless the inflammation can be reduced, your hearing may be destroyed forever. HALL'S CATARRH MEDICINE acts through the blood on the mucous surfaces of the system, thus reducing the inflammation and assisting Nature in restoring normal conditions.
