Growers Planning Crops Uniformity

Standardization of potato varieties in Clackamas county, with the view to the ultimate establishment of a co-operative marketing system is to be undertaken by the growers, who at Potato Day of Farmer's week, now in session here, appointed a committee to make full investigation of marketing methods and possibilities, and selected three varieties in which the local men will specialize.

The growers voted for the establishment of the "American Wonder," "Burbank" and "Garnet Chile" as standards for this county. These are the three varieties recognized by the Washington Growers packing corporation as the standards which they endorse as quality stock.

COMMITTEE CHOSEN. C. B. Sprague, of Logan, D. O. Day, Rosemont, and H. J. Koch, Redland, were appointed a committee to cooperate with the county agent, and confer with H. C. Belton, county crops project leader, and O. R. Daugherty, market project leader, in a thorough investigation which will ultimately, it is expected, result in the establishment here of cooperative organization.

Local farmers and growers characterize the action taken Wednesday as the most significant in the solution of the marketing problems of the county. J. E. Larson representing the packers spoke upon the organization

THIRTY YEARS AGO TODAY

Taken from the Oregon City Enterprise December 11, 1891. T. M. Long, of Canemah is seriously ill with pneumonia. Mr. Shaner is also down with pneumonia, and County Assessor Noble is just recovering from an attack. D. J. Slover is out again this week after having been confined to the house for six weeks suffering from hemorrhages of the lungs and stomach trouble resulting from army service. Steamer Strikes the Rocks—Last Friday the steamer Latona was going to her wood station above the wharf when a floating log caught in the wheel, making her unmanageable so that her bow ran upon the rocks with considerable force. Not much damage was done. Going down the river Sunday morning the fog was dense and the boat ran onto the rocks at Elk Rock. Her engines had been stopped so the shock was not great. Wind and Rain—The worst storm for a period of years prevailed here last Monday. The wind was strong from the southwest and some damage was done to telegraph and telephone lines. The rain fell in torrents during the day. The steamer Altona lost a trip in the afternoon on account of inability of operating the Madison street draw-bridge. Mrs. E. S. Watterous, of Salem, has been in this city visiting her sister, Mrs. E. D. Kelly. November Water—According to Captain W. E. Pratt's daily record of the state of the river for November the highest water was on the 24th when it was 4.2 feet above the falls and 10.4 below the falls above the mean low water mark. On the first and last days of the month water was at the same stage 2.6 above and 5.5 below the falls above mean low water. The river has been at a good navigable stage since the first rains in October, an unusual circumstance. NATIONAL REPORT SHOWS AUTO BUSINESS BETTER WASHINGTON, D. C., Dec. 7.—Publication of production figures for the automobile industry, covering both passenger cars and trucks, has been begun by the department of commerce. The National Automobile Chamber of Commerce supplies the figures for its members and the department of commerce obtains the statistics from manufacturers who are not members of the N. A. C. C. The report for the quarter ended September 30 shows a production of 474,188 passenger cars and 37,322 trucks, or a total of 511,510.

among the growers in the northern state, and M. B. McKay of the O. A. C. delivered an illustrated lecture upon the control of potato disease. A number of other speakers, including several local authorities upon potato culture, addressed the meeting at which more than 200 were present.

BANQUET PLANNED. Plans have been completed for the big banquet and program Saturday, designated as "Farm Bureau Day." At the morning session which opens at 10:30, reports of county project leaders will be heard. At noon a banquet is to be served at the Commercial Club rooms. In the afternoon, County Agent W. A. Holt will speak upon the work of the Farm Bureau, and Mrs. L. Purcell, county club leader, will talk upon the work of the boys and girls clubs in farm bureau communities. E. E. Flaville, editor of the Western Farmer will speak upon "Cooperation."

Today, designated as Animal Husbandry day, will include the following program: 10:30 a. m., "Utilization of Farm Wastes in Swine Feeding," J. W. Oliver. 12:00, Lunch. 1:15 p. m., "Sheep Management in the Willamette Valley," H. A. Lindgren. 2:30 p. m., "Marketing Oregon Wool," R. A. Ward, Manager Oregon Wool and Mohair Growers' Cooperative Association. 3:30 p. m., Open Discussion.

Militia Is Called to Quell Women's Riots

PITTSBURG, Kan., Dec. 14.—Three companies of Kansas national guardsmen have been ordered mobilized for immediate entrenchment for Pittsburg to curb the rioting women marchers in the Kansas coal mine field, it was announced here today. A general issued the order, it was stated, after Sheriff Milt Gould had asked Governor Allen for troops to handle the situation.

POSTAL ROBBER SHOT. FOWLER, Cal., Dec. 14.—One man was shot and wounded by officers at 3 a. m. today when he, with two companions, was surprised while attempting to rob the postoffice at Bowling, near here.

WEST LINN HIGH NOTES. The Union High school put out its first school paper last week called the "Outlook." Jack Hempstead the editor and Flora Kanack, cartoonist. Jack is also editor of the Green and Gold annual and Marvin Hickman, manager, both from the Sophomore class. Miss Mildred Charles, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Charles, of West Linn was taken to the St. Vincent hospital in Portland for an operation for appendicitis. The students and faculty were greatly surprised last Thursday when they went to general assembly for announcements, by Prof. J. L. Gary, they were entertained by a "Trio" composed of Miss Dorris Ellis, pianist, Woodson Smith playing the saxophone and Dempsey Powell the violin. They rendered five or six of the latest popular pieces and after this Dempsey and Woodson played many old time pieces. Also Dempsey played the "traps" with a few of the popular pieces. All three of these musicians attend the high school and are in the orchestra which is directed by Miss Helen Leathers. Woodson Smith from Gladstone is taking a post-graduate course at West Linn. He attended the Franklin high in his Senior year. The second year cooking class under the instructor Miss Minerva E. Gleason, made a very delicious desert last Friday. It being stuffed baked apples with dates, marshmallows and walnuts. Also they made chocolate eclairs. The girls of the class are: Zelma McDonald, Dorothy Barlow, Elsie Junken, Erna Fisher, Ruby Hogan, Evangeline Christensen and Dorothy Fox. The girls cook four days and have one day for book lesson. Many of the students of the high are busy practicing the play called "The Private Secretary" under the direction of Miss Margaret DuBois. Those in the play are: George Patterson, Mary Louise Mervick, Roy Buckles, Dorris Smith, Marvin Hickman, James Sutton, Raymond Montgomery, Elmer Simpson, Garney Cranor, Walter Bray and Archie Reed. The first year sewing class called the "Arts and Craft Club" had a surprise party on Miss Helen Clark, a member of the class, who is to move to Los Angeles Saturday morning. The afternoon was taken up by games, original stunts and funny jokes. Refreshments were served, which consisted of sandwiches, cake, cookies, pickles and ice cream and orangeade. The room was very prettily decorated with flowers. Those in the class are: Helen Clark, Agnes Bratz, Lena Lyman, Christina Dilger, Eleanor Hall Dorris Smith, Lola Vedder, Louise Hagen, Eunice Ammer, Fredda Volpe, Matilda Hayward, Vivian Rauch, Nellie Hanvinton, Marcella Rinkus, Laura Kannev and one second year sewing student, Linnie Shipley. The afternoon was enjoyed by all. A great number of the high school boys are beginning to take a great interest in basketball. After turning in their suits, completing the football schedule without tasting the pangs of defeat. All football athletes are turning their attention to the basketball court in the gym. Many aspirants for basketball honors are trying hard for places on the team while the coaches are getting a line on the material by watching the interclass contests. Those who are tossing baskets well in the interclass games are: Mootry, Wallace Brown, Simpson, Read, Hammerl, Nassbaum and Thompson. Sidney Brown, basketball manager is now ready to begin lining up basketball games and will start negotiations with other schools immediately. The H-Y club held a business meeting, Tuesday afternoon and elected Garney Cranor, social chairman. A good share of the members attended.

Word has been received from Dennis Kiddy, a Junior, who has just recently recovered from a severe attack of scarlet fever. He says he is not coming back to school this term. All members of the football squad had their picture taken individually Thursday morning by Mr. Calvert, the photographer. Plans are now being made by the members of the Sigma Pi Phi Girls literary society, for a party in the school auditorium, December sixteenth, at the eighth period. Helen Wallace was appointed chairman of the state committee, which consists of the following members: Vivian Rauch, Doris Smith and Laura Britain. The high school orchestra is progressing rapidly. The orchestra, under Miss Leathers the director, compares favorably with any orchestra of any school of this size in the state. Several times this term they have appeared before assembly and all students enjoy their snappy music. There are now about fifteen pieces in the orchestra. The members of the debate team are faithfully practicing their parts. The members of the team are: Arleigh Read, Genevieve Fromong, Beulah Snidow and James Sutton. Arleigh Read was also on the football squad.
