

Have you any patriotic music in your home?

The Battle Hymn of the Republic
sung by Reinald Werrenrath

Columbia, the Gem of the Ocean
sung by Lambert Murphy and Orpheus Quartet

We promise you a great big old-fashioned thrill (the kind that makes you feel like a youngster again) if you will stop in our store today and hear Reinald Werrenrath sing the fervent verses of the wonderful old "Battle Hymn," and hear Lambert Murphy's stirring performance of "Columbia, the Gem of the Ocean."

Victor Double-faced Record No. 45121. Ten-inch, $1.00

This record is only one of the

New Victor Patriotic Records

Each of them is a patriotic inspiration and a musical joy.

Huntley-Draper Drug Co.
The Rexall Store

LOCALS AND PERSONALS

Snow Drifts 5 Feet Deep at Clarkes—
Mr. and Mrs. John Leichtweis and their little grandson, John, who makes his home with his grandparents, and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Marshall, of Clarkes, were in Oregon City on business Thursday. This is the first opportunity the family has had to make the trip to this city, during the week, owing to heavy drifts of snow, caused by the severe wind early in the week. In places the snow has drifted to four and five feet deep. Mrs. Leichtweis was formerly Miss Minnie Myers, of this city, and sister of Mrs. Eva Williams, of Oregon City.

Return to Homes in California—
Mrs. Anna Myers, of Los Angeles, Calif., who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Walter Wentworth, and family, of Canemah, left for her home on Monday morning. Mrs. Myers accompanied her aunt, Mrs. Alice Marshall, of Fullerton, Calif., to The Dalles, arriving here on December 18th, when they brought the body of Mrs. Marshall's husband, the late E. T. Marshall, who died in Fullerton, to The Dalles, Oregon, for burial in the family lot. Mrs. Marshall also visited her niece and her family at Canemah, accompanying Mrs. Myers back to California.

Natalin Member of Football Squad—
Andrew Natalin, student of the University of Idaho at Moscow, has arrived in Oregon City to spend the holidays with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Anton Natalin, of Fourteenth and Madison streets. Natalin, who is taking a course in law at the institution, is favorably impressed with Idaho and the university he is attending. He is a member of the University football squad, having been selected shortly after arriving in Idaho. Natalin will remain until after New Year's.

Miss Porter Returns to City—
Miss Fannie Porter, who has been in the St. Vincent's hospital in Portland for several weeks, where she has been receiving medical treatment, and also performing her duties as principal of the Palling school, has improved so that she has been able to return to her home in Oregon City Saturday to spend Christmas with her sister, Miss Kate Porter, also a teacher of the Portland schools.

Miss White Arrives Home—
Miss Florence White, of Salem, arrived in Oregon City Saturday evening and is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. White. Miss White is an instructor of basketry and pottery for the State board of vocational training. Miss White was an artist for the Hicks-Chatten Engraving company before taking up her duties in Salem, and is an accomplished artist.

Pacific Phone:
Office 52 Residence 304-M

CHARLES T. SIEVERS,
Lawyer
Oregon City, Ore.

Mr. and Mrs. Eby Attend Funeral—
Mr. and Mrs. O. D. Eby went to Molalla Thursday morning, where they attended the funeral services of the late Levi Robbins, which was held at 1 o'clock Thursday afternoon. Mr. Robbins was an uncle of Mr. Eby, and one of the most prominent residents and pioneers of Molalla.

Spend Week-end at Albany—
Mrs. M. D. Phillips and daughter, Miss Alice, left on Saturday afternoon for a week-end visit with Mr. and Mrs. Harry Schlosser, of Albany, spending Christmas at the Schlosser home. Mr. Schlosser is a brother of Mrs. Phillips.

Spends Holidays With Parents—
Miss Roma Stafford, teacher in the Portland schools, is spending the holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Stafford, of Mt. Pleasant.

Enjoy Christmas in Milwaukie—
Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Warnock and son, Lyman, of Mt. Pleasant, spent Christmas in Milwaukie as guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Reddaway. Mrs. Reddaway is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Warnock.

Harry W., Junior, Arrives—
Born, December 18th, to Mr. and Mrs. Harry Dunmire, of Clackamas Station, a son, whose name is Harry W. Dunmire, Jr.

Enjoys Christmas at Homestead—
Miss Alice Stone, first aid nurse at the Crown-Willamette Paper company left Saturday to enjoy the Christmas holidays at her homestead near Molalla.

Eastern Star to Have Special Meet—
The Order of Eastern Star will hold a special meeting on Wednesday evening, December 28th Sellwood Chapter will confer the degree.

Earl Linkins in Oregon City—
Earl Linkins, formerly of this city, now of Viola, was among the Oregon City visitors on Saturday, and while here transacted business, also visiting friends for a brief time.

Mrs. Ada Burch Enjoys Holiday—
Mrs. Ada Burch, a teacher of the Bull Run school, was in Oregon City on Saturday. Mrs. Burch is spending the holidays in Portland.

Coleman Mark and Daughter Here—
Coleman Mark and daughter, Miss Mark, of Mark's Prairie, were in Oregon City on business Thursday. While here they visited at the home of Judge and Mrs. Grant B. Dimick. Mrs. Dimick is a sister-in-law of Mr. Mark.

Miss Hess in Oregon City—
Miss Elda V. Hess, of Canby, was among those to come to this city on business Thursday afternoon.

Whiskey Hill Resident in City—
Among the Oregon City visitors on Thursday was Roy Troyer. His home is at Whiskey Hill, Clackamas county.

Mrs. Frazer Transacts Business—
Mrs. W. E. Frazer, of Garfield, was an Oregon City visitor on Thursday afternoon. Mrs. Frazer transacted business in this city.

Aurora Resident in City—
K. E. Seward, of Aurora, was an Oregon City visitor Thursday.

Mrs. George Brown in City—
Mrs. George H. Brown, of New Era, was among the Oregon City visitors on Thursday.

Mrs. Hinkle Visits Oregon City—
Mrs. Joel Hinkle, whose home is at Redland, was among the Oregon City visitors on Thursday.

Mrs. Clara Fields Entertains—
Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Fields and Mrs. Maggie Elliott, of Portland, spent Christmas at Canemah as guests of Mrs. Clara Fields, mother of Clarence Fields.

Mrs. Hurst in Oregon City—
Mrs. Bertha Hurst, of Canby, was in Oregon City on business Tuesday, on her way home from Portland, where she had been on business.

Will Make Home in Albany—
Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Frost who have been making their home in Canemah, left Tuesday for Albany to make their home.

COUPLE CELEBRATES GOLDEN WEDDING

The 50th anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. J. Doremus was observed at their home on Third and Monroe streets recently.

Refreshments were served during the afternoon when a huge wedding cake was a feature.

In the evening relatives and neighbors were delightfully entertained at the Doremus home, when cards and music were enjoyed.

Many gifts were received by the host and hostess, and the best wishes extended them.

Mr. and Mrs. Doremus have been residents of Oregon City for 32 years, and have had the pleasure of seeing Oregon City advance from a small town to the present city.

Mr. Doremus is a past commander, having been a member of Meade Post for 30 years. His wife is past-president of the Woman's Relief Corps and has been a member for this order the same number of years.

Mr. Doremus was presented with a handsome gold brooch as a gift from Mrs. A. J. Hobbie and Mrs. Carrie Paitz. She has been active in all patriotic affairs of the Post and Corps and like her husband, ready to lend the helping hand to all.

Society

Gladstone Thursday afternoon in a most delightful manner.

The Leonard home was prettily decorated with cedar and Christmas bells, the color scheme being red and green.

A delicious one o'clock luncheon was served by the hostess who was assisted in serving by Mrs. F. P. Nelson. Appropriate place cards marked the places for each guest, and a tiny decorated Christmas tree was used as a centerpiece, with favors for each guest.

The members studied the opera "Phais." Mrs. Eugene Noon Good, sang a selection and Mrs. Leonard, two from the opera. Mrs. M. E. Turner told the story of the opera in a very interesting manner.

The art study was in charge of Mrs. Victor Gault, taking as a review of the three artists Michel Angelo, Leonardo da Vinci and Raphael, taking up the life and most important works of each artist.

The "Armanent Conference" was discussed as a current event topic, taking up the question from each nation's point of view.

Those enjoying the afternoon were Mrs. William Hammond, Mrs. W. E. Hempstead, Mrs. M. E. McGetchie, Mrs. M. E. Turner, Mrs. Eugene Noon Good, Mrs. Frank Nelson, Mrs. Victor Gault, Mrs. Thomas E. Gault and Mrs. J. W. Leonard.

Albert Mow Dies After Operation

Albert Mow, aged 74 years, died at a hospital in Salem on Christmas day, undergoing a surgical operation, from which he failed to rally.

Mr. Mow was a native of Michigan, and was born in 1847. He came to Oregon about 18 years ago, where he has since resided, and for about two years has been in Salem.

Mr. Mow was unmarried. Among the relatives he leaves are his niece, Mrs. O. A. Pace, and his nephew, H. A. Heater, both of Oregon City.

Redland Man Dies Of Heart Disease

William Smith of Redland, died suddenly at the family home Monday evening at 7 o'clock from heart disease, and the body brought to Oregon City and taken to the Holman and Pace undertaking parlors, where funeral arrangements are being made.

Mr. Smith, who was 70 years of age, arrived in Oregon City about four months ago, to engage in farming at Redland.

Deceased is survived by his wife and several grown children. He was a native of New York.

NEWSPAPERMAN DIES

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., Dec. 22.—Colonel Henry Watterson, known to the American people as one of the last surviving members of the old school, of journalism and to his friends as "Marse Henry," died early today at a hotel here.

PRESS BACKS STAND

TOKYO, Dec. 22.—The press today urged that Japan stand firm in her present attitude in the controversy with China over a settlement of the Shantung issue.

6 Per Cent State School Money to Loan on Farms

SCHUBEL & BEATTIE
Bank of Oregon City Bldg.
Oregon City, Ore.

DEPOSIT ALL YOUR INCOME, BOTH CHECKS AND CASH WITH THIS BANK DURING 1922 AND DRAW CHECKS FOR ALL YOUR EXPENSES.

And you will have a complete record of both your income and expenses.

Start 1922 with an account with this bank. Any amount from a dollar up will open one.

THE BANK OF OREGON CITY
OLDEST BANK IN CLACKAMAS COUNTY

MEMBER FEDERAL RESERVE SYSTEM

SAFE DEPOSIT BOXES FOR RENT $2.50 PER YEAR AND UP

GLADSTONE NEWS

Gladstone Pastor Suffers Accident

Rev. Hardie Connor, pastor of the Gladstone Baptist church, is confined to his bed at the Good Samaritan hospital in Portland, as a result of a fall while boarding a street car at Arlington street, a week ago. Rev. Connor was taken to his home and given medical attention by Dr. Ross Eaton, two x-ray pictures were taken, revealing a fractured hip and torn ligaments. Rev. Connor was removed to the hospital the latter part of the week and put in a cast, which, according to Dr. Akin will probably be left on for six months. The nature of the fracture is very serious but Dr. Akin hopes to be able to avoid Rev. Connor being a cripple after the ligaments have healed. Mrs. Connor is in Portland with her husband. Rev. and Mrs. Connor came to Gladstone from Arizona last year and have made a host of friends in both church circles here and outsiders as well.

Reunion Held by McGetchie Family

Among the many family reunions held in Gladstone Christmas are the McGetchie family who were entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Freytag. The home was very prettily decorated with holly and poinsettias, a decorated Christmas tree, especially for little Mildred Legler, who is staying at the Freytag home while her mother Mrs. Chas. Legler is in the hospital, added much to the pleasure of the elders. The hostess, was assisted in serving a delicious dinner by her daughter, Miss Alice Freytag. Covers were laid for Mr. and Mrs. John McGetchie, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Freytag, Mrs. Hilda Parker, Miss Alice Freytag, Ernest Freytag, Mildred Legler, and Mr. and Mrs. C. E. McGetchie of Portland.

Girls Glee Club Proving Popular

The Girls Glee Club gave several well received songs, including the "Comb Chorus," which has become quite popular in the school, having accepted invitations to sing for the other grades. The personnel of the Glee Club are, Dorothy Dickey, Dorothy Caldwell, Dorothy Stroupe, Grace Beard and Margaret Hulbert. The boys of the room proved themselves very entertaining with witty jokes. The musical program was especially good.

Music Teacher of Gladstone Leaves

Miss Louise C. Bruce, who has been with the Gladstone school for three terms, leaves this week to take up special work in the Oregon State Normal at Monmouth. Miss Bruce's resignation leaves the school without a special music teacher, this work having been done by her during the past several terms. As a token of regard the faculty presented Miss Bruce with a beautiful gold pencil. Miss James, who takes the third grade now, was a visitor Wednesday afternoon.

Gladstone Hoopers Defeat Parkplace

Last Thursday the basketball team played Parkplace at the Parkplace school. The Gladstone players were: Grasier and Davis, forwards; Ellis, center; Carlson and Peterson, guards. After a hard game the score stood, Parkplace 10, Gladstone 14. The next practice game with Parkplace will be played on the Union High school floor, West Linn.

Newlyweds Serve Dinner to Friends

Mr. and Mrs. Elvin Catto entertained at dinner Monday in their new home on Arlington St. Mr. and Mrs. Catto recently returned from a brief honeymoon with friends in Salem.

The living room was decorated with holly and white chrysanthemums and the dining room in yellow and green. A delicious dinner was served by the hostess. Covers were laid for Mr. and Mrs. Dave Catto, Mr. and Mrs. W. I. Rowan, Mr. and Mrs. Elvin Catto, Alfred Rowan, William Davis and Everett Catto.

Mr. and Mrs. Elvin Catto returned to their home after a brief honeymoon with friends in Salem. Mr. Catto has resumed his position with the firm of Freytag and Catto.

Mrs. Mary R. Caulfield of Oregon City, spent Wednesday with Mrs. Grace M. Eby and her sister Mrs. Laura Carter.

Mrs. Charles Legler, who underwent a surgical operation at the Oregon City hospital Wednesday is getting along nicely.

F. P. Nelson is quite ill with pneumonia, this is the third attack of pneumonia Mr. Nelson has suffered.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Dunmire are rejoicing over the arrival of a son. Mrs. Dunmire was formerly Miss Dorothy Green of this place, and was bookkeeper for the Oregon City Laundry for some time.

Miss Fayne Burdon of Corvallis, O. A. C., is spending the holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Burdon of West Gladstone.

Miss Marjory Read of the University of Oregon is spending a two weeks vacation with her parents Prof. and Mrs. L. A. Read and brother Arlie Read, who is taking a post graduate course at West Linn this year.

Prof. and Mrs. J. W. Leonard and little son, John Jr., are spending the Christmas holidays in Woodburn, as the house guests of Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Morrison.

The new home which is being built for Prof. and Mrs. Leonard near the Baptist church, is not progressing very rapidly due to illness of the contractor, F. P. Nelson.

Miss Mildred Sladen is spending the holidays at the home of her mother Mrs. Nellie Sladen of Glen Echo. Miss Sladen is attending the state normal school at Monmouth, previously she taught in the Molalla schools.

The sixth grade, under the supervision of their teacher, Miss Evon gave a very interesting program Friday afternoon.

The Williams Plumbing company sent favors for each child in the school. Christmas trees which had been decorated by the children of each room, held favors from their teachers. School will open again on Tuesday, January 3.

Vacation week does not mean that the teachers have nothing to do during that time. Gladstone's teachers will be busy at the annual meeting of the Oregon State Teachers' association meeting, which is to be held in Portland, December 27 to 30.

W. W. Leste, janitor of the school deserves much credit for keeping the furnace going day and night to protect the pipes and keep the school warm enough to be inhabited.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Rauch and daughters, Misses Ventrice and Vivian spent Christmas day with the former's sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Parrot of Sellwood, who entertained members of the Rauch family with a family reunion dinner. Mr. and Mrs. Rauch Sr., now of Sellwood, formerly resided in Gladstone and are very favorably known here, they recently visited with their son, W. E. Rauch and family, also their daughter, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Holland who reside on East Clackamas boulevard.

Edward W. Eby spent Christmas with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Eby, who held open house for their children and friends at their home in Vancouver, Wash.

Mrs. Julia Williams and son Kenford, left Vancouver, B. C., Saturday, where they will spend the holidays with friends, returning in time for Kenford to continue his studies here the first of the year.

Mr. and Mrs. Percy Cross and children, Harvey and Marion, of Sellwood, attended the family reunion held at the home of Judge and Mrs. H. E. Cross on Christmas day.

Dr. W. E. Hempstead returned Saturday evening from a brief business trip to Olympic, Wash.