IDEAS OF A PLAIN COUNTRY WOMAN

DEAR Comrades the holiday season is over, we are commencing to get back again to our regular every day affairs after the exhilarating satisfying feeling that the holidays bring. We hope all have had a taste of joy, cheer and blessings that comes from some ones thought and service and gifts. We hope especially all childrens hearts were glad on the birthdays of their King.

Wouldn't it be a wonderful world if the spirit of self sacrifice and love and cheer that has abounded full and free thru the coming year? It's a joyous time for all because all give of themselves. Such could be the year if that spirit of service prevailed. Let the New Year truly ring out the old, anything that prevents over attaining the highest good, ring in the New Year, service high, ideals good will to all men. We may make resolutions and fast, but if our spirits are made beautiful with the thoughts of service born of love we will never fail. Every day of 1922 will be a "Birthdays of the King" for he will truly be born in our hearts made humble as a Bethlehem manger. We will become like the Star, radiant and beautiful lighting the way. That others may see where the Christ child lay.

COUNTRY CONTRIBUTOR.

The Business Man's NEW YEAR'S RESOLUTION

WHEREAS, Progressive business men throughout the country have found high class printed matter and carefully prepared advertising copy the most effective means of enlarging the scope of their business, and the best medium for obtaining quick results, now therefore

RESOLVED that from and after January 1, 1922, I will use more printer's ink in the promotion of my business.

That I will adopt a definite program for advertising; a systematic campaign of circulating the trade, and such other approved methods as will produce results.

That I will consult with men whose time and energy is devoted to a study of printing and advertising in all its branches, and are therefore qualified to advise,

That the Printing Establishment that gets my business this year will be the one fully equipped to do all branches of printing and render the most complete service.
