

ONE INVESTMENT THAT IS STILL WORTH ONE HUNDRED CENTS ON THE DOLLAR

In these days of falling values, there is one class of investments that are still worth one hundred cents on the dollar, are convertible into cash instantly, and are still paying their usual dividends.

4% Paid on Savings.

THE BANK OF OREGON CITY

OLDEST BANK IN CLACKAMAS COUNTY

LOCALS AND PERSONALS

Miss Jones Brought Home—Miss Ethel Jones, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Jones, of Canemah, who has been in the St. Vincent's hospital...

Guernsey Breeder in Oregon City—W. A. Carlson, of Estacada, Route 3, one of the prominent Guernsey breeders of Clackamas county...

Short Horn Breeder in City—W. W. Irvin, prominent resident of Aurora, was among those to come to Oregon City on business Thursday.

John Noblett Here—John Noblett, an old pioneer of Clackamas county who now resides in Molalla, was in Oregon City Thursday, accompanied by his wife.

Mrs. Broetje in Oregon City—Mrs. J. H. Broetje, of Courtney, was among the Oregon City visitors on Thursday, having come here on business.

Comes Here from Eagle Creek—Among the Oregon City visitors on Thursday was Mrs. J. W. Cahill. Her home is at Eagle Creek.

City Attorney Eby in Molalla—City Attorney O. D. Eby went to Molalla on legal business Thursday evening.

Rejoice Over Arrival of Son—Mr. and Mrs. H. Rosberg, of Mountain View Addition, are receiving congratulations over the arrival of a son, born December 24. His name is Elmer Lloyd.

Mrs. Loney in Oregon City—Among the Oregon City visitors on Saturday was Mrs. M. Loney. Her home is at Barton.

Canby Woman and Daughter Here—Mrs. Warrington and daughter, Miss Mary Warrington, of Canby, was among those to come to this city on Saturday.

Miss Sara Gibson in City—Miss Sara Gibson, of Redland, was among those to transact business in Oregon City Saturday.

Mrs. John Braker in City—Mrs. John Braker, whose home is at New Era, was an Oregon City visitor on Saturday.

John Baker in City—Among the Oregon City visitors on Saturday was John Baker. His home is at Clairmont.

Mulino Man in City—Among those to visit in Oregon City on Sunday and Monday was Allen Larkins. His home is at Mulino.

New Arrival at Welch Home—Born to Mr. and Mrs. Louis Welch, of Huff, a daughter on January 2.

Woodburn Man in City—W. L. Payment, of Woodburn, was in Oregon City Sunday and Monday.

Pacific Phone: Office 52 Residence 304-M

CHARLES T. SIEVERS, Lawyer

Oregon City, Ore.

Society

The historical old home of the Warner family, known as Locust farm, and located at Mt. Pleasant, was the scene of a most delightful family reunion on Christmas Day...

The rooms of the home were beautiful with their artist's decorations of Oregon grape, ferns, holly and Christmas bells. The parlor, living and dining rooms were correspondingly decorated.

Places were laid for Mr. and Mrs. D. P. Young and children, Forest, Marcie and Donald Young of Portland; Ralph Marshall and son, Lorene of Portland; Mrs. Anna Myers, of California; Mrs. Alice Marshall of Los Angeles, Calif. Mr. and Mrs. Walter Wentworth and son, Eugene, of Canemah.

Christmas was a happy day at the home of Mrs. A. L. Park on Sixth and Jefferson streets, when members of the family were charmingly entertained by Mrs. Park. A number of the children came from a distance to spend Christmas with their mother.

Entertained by Mrs. Park during the day were Mr. and Mrs. Mortimer J. Cockrell and daughter, Gertrude; Barbara and Mary, of Molalla; Mrs. G. V. Bolton and children, George Vernon, Jr., and Betty Jane, of Antelope, Oregon; Gerald Park, of Walla Walla, Wash.; Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Gilbert and son and daughter, of California; Mrs. Mae Gilbert, Mr. and Mrs. Rupert Park and children, Evelyn, Jeanette, Frances, Rupert E. Jr., of this city; Miss Geneva Park, Miss Shirley Park, Morton Park, of this city.

A Christmas tree was enjoyed Christmas Eve, when members of the family gathered. This, together with other artistically arranged decorations consisting of evergreens and holly, formed a most artistic decorative scheme.

During the Christmas season a large number of family reunions have been held in this city, as well as in various parts of Clackamas county. With students home from colleges and universities as well as high schools, they too have added pleasure to these events.

A number of church affairs have been enjoyed during the past week, the first of which were held by the Methodist and Baptist churches and the last by the Sunday school of St. Paul's Episcopal church at the parish house Wednesday evening, December 28.

Among the most enjoyable events of the past week was the ball given in West Linn annex at West Linn by students of the Oregon Agricultural College, when they entertained other students of universities and high schools. This was held on Thursday evening.

Among the events to close the holiday season festivities was the T. C. K. Club dance at the Busch hall on Friday evening, December 30, when college students were given a special invitation to attend the affair.

Beaver Creek Five Beats 'Red Crowns'

The "Red Crowns" of Parkplace lost their initial game of the season to the crack Beaver Creek quint Wednesday evening, the score ending 19 to 13. The Standard others led the fray 12 to 11 until ten minutes of the second half, and with a little more practice will have one of the strongest teams in the valley.

The Beaver Creek club have a well balanced five and these players display excellent teamwork. The game was replete with fine guarding on both sides, and was cleanly played and was one of the fastest games ever witnessed on the Beaver Creek court.

Walt Holt, ex-star of the Washington State University referred to entire satisfaction. Score: Red Crowns, E. Edwards, F. 4, B. Rivers, F., 5, J. Lacey, C., 4, W. Abel, G. A. Tabor G.; Beaver Creek 19: Benard Berg, F., 2, Herbert Kamrath, F., 2, W. Bolander, C., 10, W. Roberts, C., 1, Roy Seiner, G., 4.

Sherman Burford Dies In Victoria

Sherman Burford, who died in Victoria, B. C., was well known in Oregon City, where he resided for a number of years, when employed in the paper mills. For the past 13 years he has held the responsible position of United States immigration officer at Victoria.

The funeral services, which were conducted by the Elk's Lodge, of which he was a member for a number of years, were held at his former home city, Salem, where his mother, Mrs. Burford, and a brother resided. The services were largely attended by members of the Elk's Lodge and his many friends, Oregon City being well represented.

Besides his mother and brother, Mr. Burford is survived by a sister, Mrs. Gardner, of California. Mr. Burford's death was due to several days' illness of pneumonia.

DIVORCE IS DISMISSED

Judge J. U. Campbell has dismissed the action for divorce brought by Arva Lavina Hirsch against L. T. Hirsch.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Wentworth entertained in a charming manner at their home on Christmas day, when the first event of the morning was a Christmas tree, beautifully decorated and bearing packages, in which were concealed many pretty, and useful gifts that were distributed by "Santa Claus."

During the afternoon Mrs. Wentworth, who is capable of serving delicious dinners, as usual served a feast that will long be remembered by those attending.

The decorative scheme of the Wentworth home was in keeping with the Christmas season, when holly, carnations and Oregon grape were used. Holly sprays were scattered on the table, adding to its appearance.

Places were laid for Mr. and Mrs. D. P. Young and children, Forest, Marcie and Donald Young of Portland; Ralph Marshall and son, Lorene of Portland; Mrs. Anna Myers, of California; Mrs. Alice Marshall of Los Angeles, Calif. Mr. and Mrs. Walter Wentworth and son, Eugene, of Canemah.

Mrs. Annie Tufts, of Gladstone, prominent resident of that place, was a guest of honor at a family reunion held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Guy Dwiglins, the later her daughter, at the Dwiglins home at Gladstone Xmas day, when a family reunion was held. This is the first time that the family has gathered for a number of years, and the reunion will long be remembered.

Mr. Dwiglins, who is a cartoonist of note, added pleasure to the affair when each place was marked with a place card of his own design characteristic to each guest, that caused much merriment. Each guest found his or her place at the table from the cartoon that marked the same, and they were readily distinguished. A miniature Christmas tree centered the table. Each place was also marked with a gift.

The table decorations were artistically arranged, the color scheme being pink and green, when holly, carnations and Oregon grape were used throughout the room.

The color scheme of the living room was red and green, when red carnations and holly were used in a most effective manner.

Attending were Mrs. Annie Tufts, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hannaford, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Wyman, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Dwiglins, Ivan, Gordon, Gladys, Albert and Sidney Hannaford, Clinton and Winnifred Warren and Bobby Dwiglins.

The beautiful home of Mrs. S. A. Chase on High street between Sixth and Seventh streets, was the scene of an enjoyable family reunion on Christmas Eve, when a beautifully decorated Christmas tree, laden with gifts formed the evening's entertainment, and followed by refreshments.

On Christmas day there were two dinners served in the home, one in the apartment of Mr. and Mrs. S. O. Dillman, when Mr. and Mrs. Dillman had as their guests Mrs. S. A. Chase, mother of Mrs. Dillman, Mrs. Nancy Jane Dillman, mother of Mr. Dillman, Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Hedges and daughters, Judith and Barbara, of this city; Mrs. Ida Gabel and daughters, Misses Lucy, Helen and Margaret, of Portland. The rooms were artistically decorated for the occasion, the color scheme being red and green. The table was correspondingly decorated, adding to the beauty of the apartment.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Adams, in their artistically decorated apartment had as their guests for dinner Mr. and Mrs. Arthur C. Howland and children, Elizabeth and James Howland.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. W. McCord, of Twilight, entertained in their usual hospitable manner at a Christmas dinner at their country home on Christmas day.

Oregon grape and holly formed the scheme for the decorations of the McCord home. The table was also prettily decorated for the occasion.

On Christmas Eve a Christmas tree was enjoyed.

Enjoying the affair were Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Mautz, Mr. and Mrs. George Turner and son, Ray, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. W. McCord.

The family reunion held at the home of Mrs. C. T. Hickman, always an enjoyable event of Christmas season, took place on Sunday, when dinner and a Christmas tree were pleasing events.

The decorations of the Hickman room were artistically arranged. The living room was in holly, evergreens and bright colored poinsettias, while the dining room was in holly and evergreens.

The table was centered with a miniature Christmas tree reflecting from a mirror upon which it was arranged forming an artistic decorative scheme. Scattered on the table were sprigs of holly with their bright colored berries.

An artistically decorated tree was relieved of its pretty gifts following the dinner hour.

Enjoying this family reunion were Mr. and Mrs. Everette E. Hickman, Mr. and Mrs. Dr. and Mrs. Harvey of Hickman, of Gervais; Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Lageson, of this city, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Warner, of Mt. Pleasant; Mr. and Mrs. John R. Hickman and son, Marvin Hickman, of West Linn, and Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Burdon, of Ocean Falls, B. C., called and enjoyed the evening.

The students of colleges, universities, high schools spending their holidays at their homes, students of the Oregon Agricultural College here for the holidays, planned and carried out one of the most enjoyable events of the season. This was held at the West Linn Annex at West Linn on Thursday evening, when music was furnished by Champion's four-piece orchestra. Many of the poular and latest dance selections were enjoyed by the merry dancers.

The ball room was artistically decorated in college pennants and the color scheme was orange and black, colors of the O. A. C. Festoons of black and orange completed the artistic effect and attracted unusual attention. Arranging the decorations, for which much credit is due, were Gerald Park, W. W. Paddock, Ned Gardner, Thomas Everett students of the Oregon Agricultural College, who were assisted by Mrs. Eby, student of University of Oregon.

Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Rands, Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Jones and Mrs. Bertha Adams were patrons and patronesses of the evening.

There were about 80 people attending the affair, various colleges being represented.

Mr. and Mrs. John Kent entertained with a Christmas dinner at their home in West Gladstone.

The Kent resident was appropriately decorated with holly and Christmas bells. Covers were laid for Mr. and Mrs. Fred Steiner and sons, Harold and LaVern, of Forest Grove, and Mr. and Mrs. John Kent.

Mrs. Steiner and children arrived in Gladstone Friday and were joined by Mrs. Steiner on Saturday, when a Christmas tree was enjoyed. The tree, which was a family affair, held favors for each one, the little boys especially enjoying the affair.

Mr. and Mrs. Steiner and sons, Harold and LaVern, and Mr. and Mrs. John Kent of Gladstone, were entertained at dinner Tuesday evening by Mrs. Steiner's brother, Elmer Steiner, of Oregon City.

The rooms were prettily decorated with crepe paper streamers, the red and green color scheme being carried out.

One of the merriest watch parties was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Eldon M. Alldredge in West Gladstone Saturday night.

The Alldredge home was decorated in keeping with the holiday season. The hostess was assisted in serving refreshments and in entertaining by her sister, Miss Nellie Vanderwal.

The opening was devoted to games, music, contests and dancing. Enjoying the hospitality of Mr. and Mrs. Alldredge were: Mr. and Mrs. John Alldredge, Mr. and Mrs. Will Alldredge, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Alldredge, Mr. and Mrs. R. R. (Dube) Alldredge, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bollinger, Mr. and Mrs. Dallas Armstrong, of Oregon City; Mr. and Mrs. Dave Catto, Mr. and Mrs. Elvin A. Catto, Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Alldredge, of Gladstone; Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Zorn, of Salem; Misses Edith Alldredge, Grace Alldredge, Jean Alldredge, of Oregon City; Miss Nellie Vanderwal, C. M. Vanderwa, Everette Catto, of Galdstone; Jack Bollinger, Dan and Norman Alldredge of Oregon City.

Mrs. H. S. Sladen entertained at dinner, Christmas day at her home at Glen Echo. The event was in the form of a family reunion with a Christmas tree for the three small grandchildren. Covers were laid for Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Dallas and three children, Miss Mildred Sladen, of the Oregon State Normal School, at Monmouth, who is home for the holidays, Mrs. Nellie Sladen, Charles Sladen and Harry Sladen of Gen Echo.

One of the enjoyable family reunion dinners was held Christmas day at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Dallas, of Carver.

A decorated Christmas tree for the children was thoroughly enjoyed. The rooms were very prettily decorated with Oregon grape, holly and potted plants. The hostess was assisted in serving a delicious dinner by her sister-in-law, Mrs. Effie Dallas-Hatten.

Covers were laid for Mr. and Mrs. George Dallas, Miss Mary Dallas, of Portland; Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Dallas and children, Billie and Mildred Dallas, of Carver; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hatten and children, Chester, Dorris and Alda Hatten, of Redlands; Mr. and Mrs. Ray Dunmire and children, Arden, Dallas and Eva Maxine, of Gladstone; Mr. and Mrs. Carl Dallas and daughter, Greeta Maxy, of Boring.

The members of Mrs. Sarah Rankin-Dallas family were also present. These were Mrs. J. R. Dallas nee Anita Rankin, of Carver Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Rankin, of Gladstone, Miss Nora Wilson, of the University of Oregon; Jack Rankin, university of Oregon; Charles Rankin, O. A. C., who are spending the holidays with their mother, Mrs. G. C. Dallas, of Portland, and sister, Mrs. J. R. Dallas, of Carver.

The Junior boys and girls of the First Baptist Sunday School were entertained Wednesday afternoon by the Junior Superintendent, Mrs. H. W. Freeze, Mrs. William Andressen and Mrs. Bailey, officers of the department, and Mrs. Beagher, Mrs. Ella Shandy, Mrs. W. L. Warren, Mrs. Ira Warren, Miss Margaret Thompson, Mrs. William Cannon, Miss Eleanor Schieve, Miss Mary Pope, and Mrs. A. B. Buckles, teachers.

A large number of boys and girls were present, and also several mothers. The afternoon was spent in playing games, and refreshments were served.

Wednesday evening the "G. R. Girls," Sunday School class of the First Baptist church was entertained. In the auto race, now in progress, this class which owns the "Ford," was the first to reach Reno and was rewarded by the evening's entertainment.

The class numbers twenty-six, and the members are very faithful in attendance. On the recently stormy, snowy Sunday, when all the classes had small attendance, this class had twenty present and one new pupil. The members of the class are Freda Rosenthal, Marjorie Rittenhouse, Vivian Downer, Jeanette Freeze, Frances Taylor, Diana Mosher, Arlene Robins, Thelma Montgomery, Mildred Cannon, Leola Cannon, Esther Collins, Edith Short, Lois Thorpe, Geraldine Hadley, Lucile Terry, Bertha Parcel, Nettie Criswell, Barbara Hodges, Areta Clayton, Esther Wymore, Irya Day, Dorothy Strong, Byrl Kirk, Reva Kirk, Loretta Graves, Millie Smith.

Mrs. Carl Smith is the teacher of the class.

Helen Yoder was completely surprised at her home on Eighth and John Quincy Adams streets on Monday evening, when a number of friends planned and carried out the affair.

6 Per Cent State School Money to Loan on Farms SCHUEBEL & BEATTIE Bank of Oregon City Bldg. Oregon City, Ore.

Is Every Animal At Its Best?

Don't let your stock lose their Summer's gain through November neglect. Your animals are now going on dry feed—hay and grain.

It's a big change from the succulent, nutritious grasses of summer pastures which supply the needed laxatives and tonics.

Keep your animals' bowels open and regular—drive out the worms—keep their blood rich and keep their digestion good by feeding regularly.

Dr. Hess Stock Tonic

A Conditioner and Worm Expeller

Don't allow your stock to "get off feed" and in a run-down condition.

Condition your cows for calving by feeding Dr. Hess Stock Tonic before freshing. Then feed it regularly to increase the flow of milk. It lengthens the milking period.

Buy Stock Tonic according to the size of your herd. Get from your dealer two pounds for each average hog, five pounds for each horse, cow or steer, to start with, feed as directed and then watch results.

Why Pay the Peddler Twice My Price?

Buy Stock Tonic according to the size of your herd. Get from your dealer two pounds for each average hog, five pounds for each horse, cow or steer, to start with, feed as directed and then watch results.

Huntley-Draper Drug Co.

The Rexall Store

Tell us how much stock you have. We'll tell you how much Tonic to buy.

Dr. Hess Instant Louse Killer Kills Lice

the dining and living rooms, formed a most artistic decoration. Places were laid for J. C. Paddock, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Paddock, Miss Lura Paddock and Miss Jessie Paddock, Frank Buchanan.

One of the most delightful family reunions held during the holiday season was at the beautiful home of Dr. and Mrs. H. S. Mount on Ninth and Center streets, when members of the families from out of the city as well as of Oregon City enjoyed Christmas Day.

The decorations were attractive and effectively arranged throughout the rooms, when holly, red carnations and Oregon grape were used.

At the prettily decorated table places were laid for Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Ganong, Mrs. Annie Howard, Dr. and Mrs. Frank Mount and daughters, Caroline and Jane, Dr. Guy Mount, Beldor Ganong, Hugh Mount, Jr. Dr. and Mrs. H. S. Mount, of this city; Mrs. H. D. Mount, of Silverton, mother of Dr. Mount; Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Ganong and daughter, Miss Lorna Ganong, Miss Inez Fields, of Portland; Wallace Mount, of Vancouver, Wash.

A Christmas tree was an event also enjoyed during the day.

At the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Hickman, of West Linn on Christmas morning a prettily decorated Christmas tree was enjoyed, adding to the pleasure of the day for the family.

The rooms were artistically decorated for the season, and the tree added to the beauty of the rooms. Enjoying the tree were Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Burdon, of Ocean Falls; Miss Minta Hickman, sister of Mr. Hickman, whose home is in Portland; Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Hickman and sons, Marvin and Ellery.

Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Burdon, of Gladstone, entertained at dinner at their home on Christmas day in a charming manner. Among those coming home for the event was Hugh Burdon, their son, whose home is at Ocean Falls, B. C., having spent the holidays in Gladstone and at West Linn. Miss Fayne Burdon, their daughter, a student of the O. A. C., at Corvallis, also home for the holidays.

The rooms of the Burdon home were artistically decorated for this occasion, and to add to the pleasure of the day a Christmas tree was arranged in the living room, beautifully decorated.

Enjoying the affair were Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Hickman, Marvin and Ellery Hickman, of West Linn; Miss Minta Hickman, of Portland; Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Burdon, of Ocean Falls; Miss Fayne Burdon, Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Burdon.

The home of J. C. Paddock at Gladstone was the scene of a pretty Christmas party when a number of out-of-town friends were invited to the affair. This was an annual affair always looked forward to by the members of the Paddock and Dedman families.

The decorative scheme of the rooms of the Paddock home were novel and arranged by Misses Lura and Jessie Paddock, and were complete in every detail to correspond with the Christmas season. With festoons of the red and green crepe paper, while Oregon grape, holly, were arranged in baskets the decorative scheme was centered with a miniature Christmas tree, gaily decorated, and which had been arranged on a mirror forming a beautiful reflection, was surrounded by sprays of holly.

Each place was marked with a place card appropriate for Christmas. During the afternoon gifts were distributed from a handsomely decorated tree.

Enjoying the affair were Dr. and Mrs. H. A. Dedman, Miss Mildred Dedman, Craig Dedman, of Canby; Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Dedman and son, Harold Dedman, of Clackamas; Mr. and Mrs. J. W. McKenzie, of Portland; Frank Buchanan, of North Powder, Or.; J. A. Paddock, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur D. Paddock, Miss Lura Paddock and Miss Jessie Paddock.