COURT FINES FOR 1921
SHOW LARGE INCREASE

Sheriff's Office Arrests Are Double Number Made Here
During Year Just Ended.

Arrests by the sheriff's office during the year of 1921, more than doubled over the records for the past year, according to a report compiled by Sheriff W. J. Wilson.

INSANE CASES LISTED

Nineteen insanity cases required confinement in the jail during the year, and eight men were held for the state officers.

The total fines collected by the sheriff's office for the offenses listed in the report amounted to $8,405 during the year. An additional $750 in fines was served out in jail sentences at $2 a day.

NOVEMBER FINES BIG

The largest month which Judge Noble reports for the year was November, when fines ran more than $1700. May and December both totaled over $1,000.

Civil War Veteran
Has Hip Fractured

George Wendover, G. A. R. veteran, who fell at his home 412 Duane St., Friday and injured his hip, was taken to Portland Monday for x-ray to ascertain the nature of the fracture.

Man Is Arrested Here
On Bad Check Charge

J. B. Way, wanted in Marion county for passing of what is alleged to have been a worthless check, was arrested at Sunnyside Monday by Deputy Sheriff Long.

FACTS MAY BE APPROVED

WASHINGTON, Jan. 5.—A meeting of the five powers naval committee of the arms conference was called for this afternoon. It was considered possible that both the submarine regulation proposals and the draft of the naval treaty would be presented for approval to this meeting.

FORUM OF THE PEOPLE

THE BUDGET MEETING
Merry Vale Farm, Barlow, Oregon, January 4. To the Editor of the Enterprise:
Your editorial on and write up of the county taxpayers budget meeting read with interest and partial endorsement.

It is general yacknowledged that kings and judges know more about government and what is right and wrong than the common herd, yet it is the work of centuries and centuries that the people themselves are and should be supreme.

Every tax payer has a right and civic duty to be present. Without a public hearing it would easily be possible that a levying board thru various motives might bring in a budget wholly incompatible with the wishes of the people.

Remember your people of superior intellect and ability were not demagogues when they put over all of the big tax and bond issues thru referendums etc. Their knowledge of psychology should have told them, that after piling up the terrific tax burdens thru bonds, etc. that as natural reaction, the masses would turn to the other extreme.

The most significant feature of the meeting is that of its being a guide to who ever desires to represent Clackamas county in state legislature, or hold public office in the state may take steps to reduce taxes. Most of the big items in budget were fixed by statute, so the people could not touch them, so your statement that they were brushed aside easily was not entirely fair.

Justice of the Peace E. J. Noble's report to the treasurer for the year of 1921 shows fines and forfeitures for the year of 1921 to amount to $8,932.10. The greater portion of this is represented in fines coming from the sheriff's office arrests, but includes also traffic cases. The figures of the two offices do not check together for the reason that some of the justice's fines are not on the sheriff's books, and some of the receipts credited to the sheriff's office go through the circuit or other courts.

Reports from justices over the county have been received by the treasurers office, but have not yet been tabulated. The total fines collected over the entire county cannot be ascertained until these records are completed.

FIFTY-THREE YEARS AGO

New School—Monday next a new school of P. Cornelius will open in this city.

The steamer Lewiston will probably take to water today.

Oswego has now a daily mail service, but it is all on one side like a jug handle. Between Portland and the Pittsburg only.

A line has been located for a telegraph between Portland and Dallas City.

The services on Christmas at the St. Paul's Episcopal church, Rev. John W. Sellwood, rector, preached an instructive discourse. His subject was "The Birth of Our Savior." The chants were beautifully executed, and the church handsomely decorated.

One of the enjoyable events of the Christmas season was the party at the court house given by L. Diller, who absolutely excelled himself. The Good Templars also had a feast in their hall, to which many outsiders were invited.

Only two men were found drunk in Oregon City during the holidays—one of these had his head split almost from ear to ear, and the other ran away.

OPEN DOORS
IN BUSINESS

PROFESSIONAL SHOPPERS

A woman living in a city may work up a desirable business in time as a professional shopper. This is a work that requires no "plant" nor equipment and does not taken one out of her home except on shopping tours.

The Professional Shopper must know the styles, the markets, the prices which are right and where to get the best bargains. She must have tact in dealing with people and be able to judge well of what they want by their descriptions. She should prepare a detailed questionnaire which will give her definite knowledge of the articles desired, and must have a safe way of making collections, as well as rules stating when unsatisfactory articles may be returned or exchanged.

Woman Organizations

Mrs. Winter and Mrs. Park Write Joint Letter.

In order that women's efforts for good may not conflict, nor overlap the Presidents of the two largest women's organizations have addressed a joint letter to their organizations urging co-operation.

Ten thousand American mothers and fifteen thousand American babies will be here on New Year's day, 1923, who had died were it not for our recently enacted Maternity-Infancy bill.

The same old "eternal feminine" instincts which Eve brought out of the Garden of Eden will still be as keen and sweet as ever—the eternal wife, the eternal motherly.

The world will become re-stocked on manufactured products. Thousands of dwellings will be built. Invention will add to the efficiency and the pleasure of life.

HAPPY THOUGHT

We often confuse saving with thrift. It is not always that. It is often more economical to spend our good cash for equipment, or even for beautiful knick-knacks if they make us more "peppy" and efficient by brightening our lives.

It takes a wise head to distinguish saving from thrift. The thrifty housewife, for instance, will not waste time using an egg beater with single whippers when for thirtyfive cents she can get the double kind and shorten her labor many hours a year.

THE WOMAN CITIZEN

Every movement has its idealists, its fore-runners, who hitch their wagon to a star an draw us up a notch higher, at least, than we would be without them. They are the Women's International League for Peace and Freedom, demanding, not the beginnings of peace, achieved by the Disarmament Conference, but immediate millennial peace and brotherliness and internationalism.

Child Labor Day. It is infinitely better to prevent child labor and compel and support the education of our children today than to look after untrained, inefficient and unhealthy citizens tomorrow. Herbert Hoover.

SMILES

A Compound Fracture. Upon the ice I fell, On New Year's Day. And saw—I'm here to tell— The solar system and the Milky way!

What Will Happen in 1922?

Three-hundred-sixty-five opportunities will dawn before New Year's morn, 1923. What, oh what, will these lay at the feet of 1923? We can forecast a bit.

More than half a million babies will be born in the United States. How many in the world, who can estimate? Laws affecting children will be improved in all civilized countries.

Women will be given rights before the law more nearly equal to those enjoyed by men. We will all be one year older. Women will take such active part in the world affairs as can scarcely be imagined.

Women's Organizations will become more widespread, more international, and more co-operative, thus extending their power and hastening the realization to women's ideals.

The Dove of Peace will increase and its cooing to audible above the scream of the American eagle the roar of the British lion, the grunt of the Russian bear, or the call of the other birds and beasts.

Education will "march"; physical education will be emphasized, and play be more universal.

The world will become re-stocked on manufactured products. Thousands of dwellings will be built. Invention will add to the efficiency and the pleasure of life.

Visit the Green Grocer

In the winter the housewife is likely to feed her family too much on cooked foods, on meat and potatoes and deserts, and to neglect the fresh fruits and vegetables, the regulating foods, and food containing vitamins and mineral substances.

Vegetables and fruits are more difficult to obtain. They cannot be ordered over the phone as their condition so varies that they must be seen by the thrifty purchaser to be judged. Their purchase generally calls for a trip to market and that is sometimes a nuisance. Then, too, the purchaser must frequently carry them home herself for the green-grocer does not deliver.

The price of fresh fruits and vegetables makes these seem an extravagance, but they are not, considered in the light of doctor bills or failure of the body to grow and function aright. A dish of fruit or an attractive vegetable salad adds piquancy to the meal, and permits other very simple foods to be used regularly, when the eaters would revolt again these unless relieved by the pleasant fresh foods.

Have you ever noticed how children will beg for a slice of the raw turnip or carrot or potato you are peeling?

All of the vegetables, except potatoes, are best raw. Indulge the child. Raw starch is indigestible, especially for the delicate stomach of a child, so his potato had better be thoroughly cooked, baked, if possible. But give him celery, carrots, cabbage, lettuce, onions, tomatoes, and all the other raw vegetables he will eat.

The body suffers greatly from the lack of the vitamins and the mineral salts which fresh fruits and vegetables contain. The gums will become spongy; eczema and rickets, and degenerate teeth, bones and skin will result. Some thing it is a cause of prematurely gray hair.

Many people think too much acid in the system is because of eating fruit acids. By some mysterious process fruit acids neutralize body acids, which are a poison. It is the body acid, a result of indigestion or a slowing of bodily functions, which causes sour stomach and the more dangerous, though less noticeable, consuming of tissues. Fruits acids are the cure.

Many people get crates of oranges or grape fruit, and frequently neighbors combine to do this. They keep well in the winter and with lemons are our most valuable source of food acids and minerals and vitamins. Tomatoes, raw and canned come next, then the green leaf, the growing parts of plants, the humble carrot, raisins and prunes. Cooking or long storing tends to spoil the vital value. When you cook vegetables, be sure to save the water in which they are cooked, add butter and milk and serve as soup. Most of the mineral salts are dissolved in this water.

THIRTY YEARS AGO TODAY

Taken from the Oregon City Enterprise January 1, 1892.

The Oregon City Dramatic Club has disbanded and the members have re-organized the Falls City Dramatic Club. This club will open Shively's new opera house on Seventh street Wednesday and Thursday, January 13 and 14, in "A Western Hero."

Family Reunion—At the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. White twenty-three persons sat down to their Christmas dinner representing three generations of the family of E. P. Rands. There were Mr. and Mrs. Rands, sons and sons-in-law. The eldest person present was Mr. Rands, who was 70 years of age. The sum of the ages of all present made 573 years. After dinner the guests repaired to the home of the Rand family, where a Christmas tree was enjoyed.

City Attorney Cross Resigns—City Attorney Harvey E. Cross has resigned his office and from the defense of the Seventh Street injunction case. One of the causes that led his tendering his resignation was the course pursued by the committee appointed by the council to employ additional counsel of deemed necessary to make proper defense for the city. Without consulting him, the council voted to employ Mr. McBride to assist him. That action, says Mr. Cross, was agreeable to him, and the preparation of the defense was going on satisfactorily till the committee went out of town for still further counsel.

The most successful ball given in Oregon City was that under the auspices of the Knights of Pythias Lodge on Friday evening.

Several candidates were elected to membership.

Indictment Quashed In W. J. Stevens Case

The indictment against W. J. Stevens, charging him with driving a machine and falling to keep on the right hand side of the road, was quashed through an order of Judge J. U. Campbell Saturday. Stevens had been indicted by the grand jury on two counts, the other charging him with driving while not able to control his machine. He was convicted of the latter offense in a second trial, after the first jury disagreed. The action grew out of an accident on the highway in which Mrs. Will T. Wright, wife of a local banker, was badly injured when Stevens and Wright's machines collided.

EXPLOSION KILLS 50

ATHENS, Jan. 5.—Fifty bodies have been recovered from the Greek torpedo boat destroyer Leon, anchored in the harbor of Piraeus, which was wrecked yesterday by an explosion of a torpedo. The explosion damaged nearby warships and caused houses ashore to collapse, killing a number of the inhabitants.

FUNERAL SERVICE HELD FOR CHARLES MOEHNKE

Funeral services for Charles Moehnke, a former resident of Oregon City, who died in Portland January 1, were held from the conservatory chapel of the East Side Funeral Directors at 414 East Alder street, Wednesday afternoon, January 4, at 1 o'clock. Interment was in the Rose City cemetery.

Mr. Moehnke was one of the pioneer residents of this section and settled in what is now known as the Schubelel district. During Mr. Moehnke's activities in that district, it was generally known by his name.

Mr. Moehnke, as a county commissioner in the early 80's was one of the first exponents of permanent roads. His advocacy of lasting improvements met with considerable opposition. In order to demonstrate his theory he built what is believed to be one of the first experimental roads in the west. On a stretch a mile long from Mountain View to the crossing of the Highland road, he constructed a "pavement" by laying large rock and filling in with screening. The road is still in use.

Mr. Moehnke and his wife died less than 24 hours apart. She died in Portland December 31, and her husband died the following day.

Decased is survived by his daughters, Mrs. L. A. LaBeau and Mrs. A. V. Dickey, of Seattle, Wash.; his sons, John and August Moehnke, of Willamette, and another daughter, Mrs. E. A. France, of Portland, with whom he has been making his home.

INFANT DAUGHTER OF F. J. CAMPBELL DIES

Audrey May Campbell, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Campbell, died at the family home on Eighth and Broadway Avenue Thursday evening about 6:30 o'clock after a seven days' illness of pneumonia. The child born in Oregon City on April 11, 1921 was unusually attractive and bright for her age.

She is survived by her parents and two little brothers, Clinton and Melvin. She is the granddaughter of Mrs. Helen Vincent, of Missoula, Montana, and niece of Mrs. Paul Rotter, of this city.

MRS. L. P. CLARK DIES AT HOSPITAL IN PORTLAND

Mrs. Lucy Peters Clark, 63, a former resident of Oregon City, and recently of Portland, died at the Good Samaritan hospital, Saturday morning at 2:30 o'clock.

Mrs. Clark was born at Litchfield, Conn., October 26, 1858, and came to Oregon 31 years ago, residing in Oregon City for 28 years. While here she was an active member of St. Paul's Episcopal church.

Mrs. Clark is survived by a son, Thomas B. Lovelace, of Portland; a daughter, Mrs. Walter Bruce, of Gladstone, both with whom she had made her home; and by 14 grandchildren.

Legion, Auxiliary, Plan Joint Meeting

The members of the American Legion Auxiliary held their first meeting of the year at the Commercial club parlors Monday night. In the absence of President Caulfield, Vice-President Miss Evelyn Harding presided.

A joint social meeting held with the Legion is planned for January 23. On the committee appointed are Mrs. Minnie Donovan, chairman; Mrs. Grace M. Eby, Miss Evelyn Harding, Mrs. Ella Parker, Mrs. Gertrude Crisswell and Mrs. Nellie Cooper.

PROBATE IS ASKED FOR ESTATE OF E. E. DAVIS

O. A. Pace, coroner, has filed a petition asking for letters of administration for the estate of the late Everett E. Davis, who was murdered in the cabin on his homestead near Molalla in November. The estate consists of the homestead, an automobile and a deposit in a Portland bank. The father, living in Indianapolis, Ind., is given as the only known heir.

August C. B. Moehnke has filed a petition asking that he be granted letters of administration for the estate of the late Mrs. Justina Moehnke, who died in Portland New Year's day. She left an estate in Clackamas county consisting of a bank deposit and notes amounting to $2200.

A petition has been filed asking to have the will of the late Mrs. Sarah Elizabeth Miller admitted to probate. The estate consists of real property valued at $1500.

TEACHERS' PERMITS TO BE CAREFULLY SCANNED

Fewer temporary teachers certificates are to be issued in Clackamas county in the future, as the result of the decision of the state superintendents at their meeting last week, in Salem, according to Brenton Vedder, superintendent of the county schools here, who was in attendance.

The matter of temporary permits to teachers who have not taken state examinations was thoroughly discussed and it was decided that it was in the interests of betterment of the facilities over the state to increase the stringency of the requirements covering their issuance.

Clackamas county, according to Mr. Vedder, was well represented in the discussion of current achievements in consolidation of school districts and the formation of union high schools, by reason of the recent improvements in this line here. Transportation of children under the system involving centralized schools was also discussed.

Old Fire Volunteers To Give Final Dance; Association Is Plan

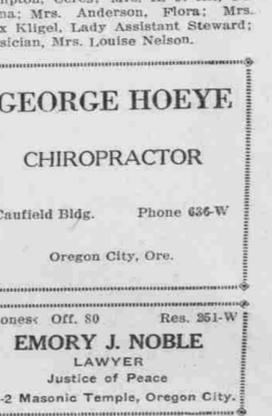

The old volunteer fire department of this city will give their last dance on the evening of Washington's birthday under the auspices of Cataract Hose company No. 2. The committee of arrangements consists of C. W. Pope, Al C. Cox, M. H. Long and D. E. Frost.

A movement is now on foot to organize a veteran firemen's association to meet in No. 2 Hose building, it being the only place left the old fire boys, which bears memories of the activities of the old department. At a preliminary meeting Monday night, it was decided to take the matter before the city council to have exempt firemen's certificates issued to the members of the mustered-out volunteer companies.
