JENNINGS LODGE, Jan. 11.-At the annual meeting of the Jennings Lodge Community church held Tuesday evening the congregation voted to extend a call to Rev. A. B. Snyder who has served as pastor for the past year to accept the call indefinitely. Mr. Snyder has closed a successful year's work during which time the new building has been nearly completed. The following officers were elected for the coming year: Mrs. Olin Ford, clerk; N. R. Humphry, deacon; Arthur B Smith, treasurer; Mrs. Bertha Hart trustee; Dan Jones, superintendent of Sunday school; Mrs. Arthur B. Smith, educational secretary; W. I. Blinestone leader of the choir; Mrs. Hugh Rob erts, corresponding secretary. The treasurer's report showed the current with a balance of $18.60 remaining in the treasury

The clerk report showed an enrollment of 38 resident members and active work being done in every department. The work of completing the church will be carried forward as rapidly as finances will permit. The church now being able to conduct services and hold Sunday school in the most complete church buildings in this
