

JENNINGS LODGE

S. S. Officers At Lodge Are Chosen

JENNINGS LODGE, Jan. 25.—The following officers for the Sunday school were chosen at the recent election. Daniel Jones superintendent. Mrs. A. B. Smith, assistant superintendent. Naomi Wilcox, secretary. Mrs. Ella Kennedy, treasurer. The total enrollment of teachers and pupils is 141, with 14 on the cradle roll. The school has closed a successful year. A goodly sum has been given for missionary work and the Near East Relief.

Entertainment For S. S. Class Friday

JENNINGS LODGE, Jan. 25.—W. I. Blinestone entertained the members of his Sunday school class at the church banquet room last Friday. There are fifteen members enrolled in this promising class and a jolly time was enjoyed by those present.

JENNINGS LODGE LOCALS

JENNINGS LODGE, Jan. 25.—Mr. and Mrs. W. I. Blinestone and children drove to Corvallis, being accompanied by Mrs. Blinestone's mother. Mrs. Lucy Allen who will spend several weeks at one of the sorority houses. On their return trip they stopped in Albany for a few days visit with Mrs. Blinestone's brother, who resides at that place.

Mrs. A. B. Snider was called to Cherrville by the serious illness of her father, Mr. Patten, Thursday morning. Mr. Snider left a message announcing Mr. Patten's death and left for Cherrville at once.

OSWEGO ITEMS

Mrs. Cora Bullock

OSWEGO RED MEN PLAY HOSTS TO LOCAL LODGE

OSWEGO, Jan. 25.—More than 50 Redmen from the Oregon City and Portland lodges, were guests last night at Oswego. The Oregon City delegation was headed by Great Senior Sagamore, Charles W. Kelly, and the Portland lodge was headed by B. P. Fisher, great sachem, head of the state organization. The visit was merely of a social nature, a banquet being served by the host chapter.

Initial Hop Held By Eighth Graders

OSWEGO, Jan. 23.—The eighth graders of the Oswego school held their initial hop at the home of Janette Duncan on Friday evening. A few of the seventh grade pupils dropped in making 24 in attendance. Latern slides were shown of members of the eighth grade in their infancy and many jovial games were played and the time passed merrily. The girls served a four course lunch and Miss Bickner, the principal, held class organization the first of the month with Gladys McDonald as president; Kathryn Wessling, vice president; Lynn Smith, treasurer and Mason Worthington, secretary. The class plans to hold a party once each month.

Robberies Reported In Oswego Section

OSWEGO, Jan. 23.—Several robberies have occurred about Oswego and vicinity during the past few weeks. While none of them seem to be a great loss, a number of people have missed articles and small sums of money. The latest reported was a wrist watch taken from the home of the Phillips at Briarwood and a purse containing $5.00 of Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Fulton who lives in the grove at the foot of the lake. Suspected parties are being watched.

Oswego Boys Ask Play Shed Floor

OSWEGO, Jan. 23.—The 8th grade boys of the school are circulating a petition among the people in an effort to get the school play shed floor. It is argued that the present dirt floor is very unsatisfactory for basketball games and other sports, when there are any entertainments held there the dirt gets so dusty and is both unsanitary and harmful to health.

S. S. Officers At Lodge Are Chosen

Mrs. Hugh Roberts who has been on the sick list for the past ten days is improving. Mrs. George Williams has been confined to her home several days. The experiment of providing warm lunches for the children of the public school is proving successful. The undertaking promises to be self supporting.

Entertainment For S. S. Class Friday

Mrs. Sylvia Wilcox is making preparations to build a modern cottage on the River road near Jennings avenue. Warren Swart is the contractor.

JENNINGS LODGE LOCALS

Mrs. Elizabeth Bruechert and Miss Nettie Geyster of Portland were recent guests at the G. M. Caldwell home.

The Gidson Nunn family have moved to Gladstone. Mrs. Nunn who has been at the Oregon City hospital several weeks is improving and will soon be able to join her family.

OSWEGO ITEMS

Mrs. Cora Bullock

OSWEGO RED MEN PLAY HOSTS TO LOCAL LODGE

OSWEGO, Jan. 23.—Dena Rebekah Lodge of Oswego installed the following officers last Friday night; noble grand, Florence Brunbaugh; vice-grand, Effie Whitten; recording secretary, Mary Bickner; finance secretary, Elizabeth Davis; treasurer; Jessie Dyer; chaplain, Sarah Ranger; warden, Margaret Cox; conductor, Agnes Lehman. The installing officer was Mary Bruce, after installation lunch and a general good time was had.

Installation Held By Dena Rebekahs

OSWEGO, Jan. 23.—The first dance given by the "Ye Village Club" at Oswego grange hall last Saturday evening was a decided success. There was a good attendance. A number of couples from out of town and Portland as well as many local people being present.

Artisans Entertain

OSWEGO, Jan. 23.—The United Artisans entertained their members and a large number of friends last Wednesday evening with a dancing and card party. An interesting program was arranged by Miss Alta Wurtz. The committee in charge of refreshments was Mrs. Robert Fulton, and Mrs. Vernon Centers, all had a jolly good time.

Oswego Locals

OSWEGO, Jan. 23.—A number of Oswego people enjoyed skating on the duck pond and lake a few days this week. Miss Nellie Brown of Portland was a week end guest of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Terry.

North Pacific Dental College, was in Oswego Tuesday looking over the ground with a view of locating here.

Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Worthington and son Claude, of Lake Grove spent Wednesday evening with Mr. and Mrs. George Bullock. Mr. Worthington is a brother to Mrs. Bullock and formerly resided at Oswego.

Mr. and Mrs. George Emrich motored to Portland Saturday evening to visit friends.

Mrs. Pete Emmott spent Friday in Oregon City.

Mrs. E. B. Worthington has been sick for the past week.

Mrs. Joseph Bickner left Oswego Friday evening for an extended trip through California and Southern Oregon.

Mrs. Leonard Hallman of Redlands spent the week end with relatives in Oswego.

Wednesday evening Mr. and Mrs. Gaze of Shamrock Lodge, were hosts at dinner, entertaining Mr. and Mrs. Walter Philip, Mrs. D. E. Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Merrick, and H. T. Adams.

Mrs. George Pettinger was luncheon hostess Thursday to a party of friends.

Master Scott and Jack Raven, the young sons of Mr. and Mrs. Guy Raven who have had bad cases of whooping cough, are much better.

Mrs. Kate Hallman has been quite ill at her home in South Oswego.

Charlie DeLasham has been quite sick with asthma the past week.

The Ladies Aid met at the home of Mrs. George Bullock on Thursday with a good attendance.

A. J. Howell of Newport has been at the home of his daughters, Mrs. T. Clinefelter, the past week.

Mr. Howell expects to go to McMinnville for a visit before returning to Newport.

The Dorcus Society met at the home of Mrs. T. Schauer Wednesday.

Edwin Erickson was home over Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Erickson who live in South Oswego.

Mrs. H. H. Eccles of Canby visited at the home of her brothers G. S. Bullock Sunday.

Mrs. Grant White was in Oswego Sunday visiting her mother Mrs. Mary Haines and other relatives.

Mrs. Rudolph Erickson who recently gave birth to a son in St. Vincent hospital returned home Wednesday. Mother and son, are doing nicely.

OAK GROVE ITEMS

Joint Installation Sandy Lodges Held

OAK GROVE, Jan. 24.—Mrs. V. G. Benvie, deputy grand secretary of the Rebecca Assembly for Milwaukie Rebecca Lodge was one of the installing officers last Thursday night at a joint installation of Milwaukie Rebecca Lodge and River View Lodge I. O. O. F. Others who attended from here were Mrs. E. R. Ostrom, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Hann, D. W. Olds, J. J. Allyn, Mrs. J. Garringer, Mr. and Mrs. E. Verhage, Mr. and Mrs. A. Myers, Mrs. Verhage was installed as noble grand of Rebecca lodge and Mrs. J. Garringer as vice-grand. Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Meldrum from Meldrum Station and Mr. and Mrs. J. Elsert of Evergreen also attended.

Club Members Meet At Lakewood Home

OAK GROVE, Jan. 24.—The Oak Grove-Milwaukie Social Service club met with Mrs. Lou Roberts at Lakewood Thursday, at which time a social hour was enjoyed after which Mrs. V. G. Benvie gave an interesting paper on "taxes" which was followed by general discussion.

Club Members Meet At Lakewood Home

The Child Welfare department of the club also met on that day from eleven until two and lunch was served at noon.

MRS. SPAULDING IMPROVES

OAK GROVE, Jan. 24.—Friends of Mrs. H. Spaulding are pleased to learn that she is doing nicely since her operation last week at the Good Samaritan hospital. Mr. Spaulding is still in poor health also and their daughter, Mrs. M. Ellis of San Diego, Calif., is here and will remain until the parents are able to go home with her.

OSWEGO LOCALS

OSWEGO, Jan. 24.—The play shed is still spoken of and public are waiting for a meeting to be called by the school board on request of a petition presented them for such meeting.

The home of Julius Broteleje barely escaped being destroyed by fire recently and for prompt action of a neighbor, P. Skoog, who broke through a window it would have been destroyed while the family slept. A defective flue was the cause.

The process of moving the church to its new site is underway this week and undoubtedly will be completed before Sunday.

J. H. Yearseley left Saturday morning on business trip to New York City. He will be absent a month returning by way of Kansas City, Mo., where he will meet Mrs. Yearseley who has been visiting relatives there for several weeks. They will return home together late in February.

The Oak Grove Community club granted the use of their hall to the older boys of the community that they may have a warm place to meet.

Mrs. L. M. Allen was Portland visitor Sunday.

Mrs. V. J. McArthur of Hubbard is visiting Mrs. R. Marrs.

Meeting of Womens Club Held at Sandy

SANDY, Jan. 26.—The Women's club was delightfully entertained at the home of Mrs. J. C. Duke at his last meeting, the president, Mrs. Shelley, presiding. Mrs. Carrie Sture read a paper on the discovery of Oregon. Mrs. Duke sang a song in jargon, each member answered the roll call with an Indian word, and the spelling of Oregon historical names were among the interesting numbers of the afternoon's program. Delicious refreshments were served. Those present besides the hostess were Mrs. Blanche Shelley, Mrs. R. E. Esson, Mrs. A. W. Bell, Mrs. Vera Smith, Mrs. Sadie Bosholm, Mrs. F. D. Eason and her guest, Mrs. F. Monroe Gilbert of Salem, Mrs. W. H. Thompson, Mrs. Sture, Mrs. Miller, Miss Elsie Lippold and Mrs. Florence Connors.

Mrs. J. M. C. Miller invited the club to meet at the Miller home on Feb. 2.

BAKE SALE TONIGHT

SANDY, Jan. 27.—A bake-sale is announced by the Parent Teacher's association here to night in the Odd Fellow's hall, upstairs. A short program will precede the sale and every one who is interested in the Sandy schools is urged to be present and help add to the fund already in the treasury. Sandy must wake up to both the grade and high school needs, is the opinion of all who understand the needs of both schools. Come.

BORING BUREAU TO MEET

SANDY, Jan. 27.—Bring a basket lunch and stay all day at the Boring Farm Bureau meeting" is the announcement for next Tuesday, Jan. 31 that is being sent to the various farmers around here. There will be music and movies, and speeches by Geo. A. Mansfield and Col. Wm. Ald of the state bureau. This section should be well represented at this important meeting.

SANDY GIRLS WIN

SANDY, Jan. 22.—The Sandy girl's basketball team played the Orient women's team Friday night and the score was 6 to 5 in favor of Sandy. The girls played boy's rules without ever having practiced that way. There were eight auto loads from Sandy drove over to see the game. The Orient boys got "walloped" by an independent team from the Y. M. C. A.

SANDY LOCALS

SANDY, Jan. 25.—Rev. Earl Cotton was an overnight guest at the Miller home after preaching service last Sunday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Hogard, blind musicians, played two selections at the church service Sunday night on the piccolo, flute and organ.

The DeMoss family which will appear in the Methodist church next week under the auspices of the Sunday school for the benefit of the church, were here about seven or eight years ago.

Elsie May Gordon, a lyceum singer will appear at the Pleasant Home Methodist church the latter part of the month.

A valentine box will be a part of the program at the next grange meeting.

Road reviewers were out from Oregon City the latter part of last week and stopped at the Sandy hotel while here.

Henry DeMoss who was in town as advance agent for the DeMoss troupe that will give a concert here next week at the M. E. church under auspices of Mrs. J. C. Duke, superintendent of the community Sunday school has been on the road since 72 with this company.

Mrs. Mary Carson went to Wild Cat the first of the week to look after her things at Rathbun Rest cabin.

Hugh Delvin of Dover was down to Sandy last Monday laying in a supply of household necessities. When the weather permits road work Delvin has a job on the market road.

Albert Bell has been staying over on Sandryidge with Mr. and Mrs. Will Bell for a few days.

On Monday J. G. DeShazer took Ed Chapman over to Eagle creek after the latter visited at the DeShazer home for a week or so.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Updegrave and baby spent Sunday at the home of the J. G. DeShazer family.

Farmers complain they cannot do "much of anything" these days but eat, sleep and "do the chores."

A good many people up in the Firwood were afflicted with colds and the various oils and greases that constitute home remedies are being diligently applied.

Mrs. Scales made a "fashionable" call on Mrs. R. E. Esson a few days ago which is the first time. Mrs. Scales says that she has done the like "since the year one."

Mrs. Emma Newman and children have been out from Linton making a visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Haselwinder.

Mrs. C. L. Clinefelter has been all the past week and was unable to accept several social invitations.

Mrs. Myra Hoernicke has been ill again with a severe cold on her lungs and was unable to attend the various affairs in town during the week.

Chris Meinsinger was a transient visitor in Sandy while on his way to spend a day or two at his country home.

Joe Wall of Brightwood was an overnight visitor in Sandy recently while down on a business trip.

W. Alcorn of Brightwood spent an afternoon visiting at the Scales home a few days ago.

Mrs. Maggie Freed of Cherrville was called to Portland a few days ago on business and made the trip down over the snowy roads.

W. W. Smith, manager of the Sandy creamery, had a visit from his brother last week who came to Portland from Idaho with two car loads of beef cattle.

Mrs. Carl Wendland walked in from the country to spend the day with Mrs. Gus Dahrens recently.

Miss Lulu Eddy of Pleasant Home made an all day visit with Mrs. J. C. Duke a few days ago. Miss Eddy says her mother is recovering from a severe cold which has kept her indoors for some time.

Victor Poeburg, former harness maker in Sandy, has returned from Idaho and located on his Deep Creek farm again. Mr. Forsburg works in Portland.

Carl Wendland lost one of his horses the past week. The animal had been ill with the botts, and when an autopsy was made it was discovered the intestines had been half eaten with the disease.

A. L. Mattingly was laboring with a sick horse the past week, which horse is the pride of the family.

Wm. Fisher of Firwood lost his best Jersey cow recently with milk fever.

Edwin Nelson of Cherrville, lost a cow on a business trip a few days ago.

Henry Erl, of the Erl Sonsrud Kelson general merchandise store was in town recently on business.

Mr. and Mrs. Lex Schmitz came out from Linton Wednesday of last week and remained until Sunday evening. They enjoyed the big New Year's dance.

The Wenzel & Koelscher mill at Linton had to shut down because of the water pipes freezing.

Mr. Smith, the Sandy creamery manager, had some trouble the past week with water pipes freezing.

R. C. Frace finished remodeling the house of Al Longnecker of Dover last week. This is known as the Coennemann place.

Ernest Harris and E. Beers came home from the Garfield country on Friday and remained over Sunday. There couldn't have been a New Year's dance without these "steadys."

Willie Fischer has about completed his fine new house which is a credit to him and Mrs. Fischer and the neighborhood.

Chas. Krebs and Mrs. Krebs had a fine Saturday night visit at the Pizola and Boitano and the hours sped so swiftly it was midnight before they returned home.

Theresa Heivelander came home from Linton last week and may remain for some time.

Frank Thiess of the Burn spent Sunday afternoon at the Pizola home. Frank is delighted with the prospect of the new market road.

Arthur Heacock was out in the Burn last week. He is making improvements on his place there, but the snow was disagreeable, so went back to Damascus until the weather gets better.

Almost six weeks of cold weather in one stretch is making a rather unusual weather calendar for this part of Oregon.

Farmers complain of their stock eating so much and the town folks of the amount of fuel used this winter.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Kubitzka and Victoria came up to the Community club and to hear Brenton Vedder talk on the high school needs.

The Shelleys, Essons and several others have been having annoyances caused by the freezing of their private systems.

P. T. Shelley "clerked" for the Escon drug store while the rush was on last week end.

Joe Jar and Vernie were Sandy visitors one evening during the week.

Mrs. A. L. Mattingly has been quite ill the past week with an attack of pleurisy, which was the culmination of a hanging-on cold.

Carl Power went to Portland Saturday and brought out a friend, Miss Stockett, who attended the dance with Mrs. Power and "Carl."

Mr. and Mrs. Will Bell attended the Eagle Creek grange last Saturday and were delighted with the enjoyable time they had at this prosperous affair.

Gust Alert of the Burn has three incubators started with over 500 eggs and expects to raise 2,000 chicks the coming season. Alert is also building a new brooder house.

E. Schumann who purchased the Mark Senses place a few months ago is finishing the house inside with plaster board and paint and is expecting to move out next fall. The Schumanns live on Sandy boulevard in the city.

The Bruns mill has been closed down since before Christmas on account of the weather.

The grade of the Dwyer railroad will not be over five per cent to the Three Six timber belt.

Harry Dodson is planning to have a car load of real eastern corn shipped out here.

Frank Thiess says that laborers in his home city of Hamburg are getting the highest wages ever paid them, but are spending it mostly for amusements, according to his brother's letters.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Koch have just finished having their house kalsomined and varnished in the interior and added a bath room to the house. Sam Cox did most of the work.

Theodore Koenicke of Firwood has rented the Reed place which John's his own.

The Three Six road is impassible from the Mt. Hood road up the Wild Cat way because of so many wash-outs in Cedar creek bottom.

Adolph Dahrens was home the past week as the snow was too deep at the Cameron and Hogue mill to work, so the entire plant had to shut down. Dahrens, who recently began work with this company as head-rigger man worked for them about twelve years ago.

George Elinn has been up the mountains working on the bridges, but the crew had to shut down on account of the snow.

Frank Phelps was in town one night during the week on business errands. C. D. Purcell had a butchering bee the past week which furnished plenty of exercise and entertainment for both him and Mrs. Purcell, but they kept in mind the "ham, and" and tried to forget the drudgery part of it.

Charley Sackow is able to walk around again and his leg is evidently mending quite fast. In fact he was able to swing both limbs on the hall floor at the big dance, and also acted as one of the judges.

Bob Paschal of Snag Camp was down and said he had trapped a fine lynx and says he would not take fifty dollars for the skin. Paschal also caught two bobcats.

George Krebs went to Tillamook the last of the week to begin work on a tile and brick factory that his brother, E. G. Krebs, is to rebuild and make into a modern, up-to-date plant. George Krebs will probably be at work there the next three months and his family will stay on the place.

Mrs. Marie Krebs, will probably remain at Tillamook until it is time to begin work on her flowers again.

The Sandy girl's basketball team may play Gresham before long if all goes well.

J. H. L. Maybee is very much better and is able to sit up most of the time according to Mrs. Maroney who came home from Ford last week end after staying several weeks with her father and mother at Lents.

The Shipleys, Thomases, Jadinws, Joe Vaeretti and Miss Caroline Vaeretti were among those attending the masquerade from the Bull Run section.

A fine midnight chicken supper was enjoyed at the home of Mrs. Mary Caron by Mr. and Mrs. John Mitchell, Mrs. Lehnfield, Sam Cox, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Koch and Mrs. E. Coleman last Saturday night, after which this masquerading party went back to the hall, and danced on the wings of the morning."

Carl Loundree went to Oregon City a few days ago to do repair work on "caterpillars" and learn all he can about their construction.

Not many folks were "stirring" around town Sunday as both mind and body were weary for those who danced till three o'clock in the morning.

Mrs. J. G. DeShazer has been troubled this week with a cold in her throat during this week.

The following are the refreshment committee of the Sandy Parent Teacher association: Mrs. A. W. Bell, Mrs. F. L. Proctor, Walter Krebs and Mrs. R. Ditter.

Mrs. Gilbert of Salem who spent a week as a guest of Mr. and Mrs. F. D. Eason says that the following meeting of the Women's club here very much indeed. Mrs. Gilbert was the founder of the Salem Arts' Club and is a prominent member of the writer's section of the same.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Bonett were still in Gresham the first of the week. Mrs. Bonett was feeling better and expected to return to Portland in a few days.

C. W. Newman of Dover was in town a few days ago. Newman is school clerk at Dover.

Jerry Duke got the visiting fever and went to Gresham for a day last week.

Sleds got to be quite the fashion on the streets last week, and one pair of bob-sleds caught up with the school ma'ms and delighted them with a ride.

Charley Krebs and sons are cutting cordwood near the Dwyer logging camp on Deep Creek. The wood industry is getting to be quite a business.

Mr. and Mrs. Gray and wife of Brightwood went to the city for a visit during the story weather.

Mrs. J. M. C. Miller entertained Mrs. F. D. Eason and her guest Mrs. F. Monroe Gilbert of Salem and Mrs. Blanche Shelley one evening during Mrs. Gilbert's stay last week. The evening was spent in reading and discussion of short story work. Ice cream, coffee and wafers were served.

Mrs. J. C. Duke entertained last Friday evening with a delightful little dinner party at the home of Miss Mary Connor's birthday. A delicious cake with pretty pink candles was served by Miss Collier as the last course of the splendid dinner. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Esson, Miss Margaret Miller, Will Fritz, of Gresham, C. O. Duke, Miss Collier, Mr. and Mrs. Duke, and Mrs. Miller who helped the hostess serve.

Mr. and Mrs. James Wolfe (Isabel Gray) came home a few days ago for the first time since their marriage about three months ago, and are being welcomed by many friends and relatives. The Wolfes' have been at The Dalles.

Walter Krebs and Mrs. Krebs and Lewis and Ruth Krebs were dinner and supper guests of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Perret on Sunday. In the afternoon Mr. and Mrs. R. Ditter, Heinie and Mr. and Mrs. Will Carow, Mr. and Mrs. Scharke and Carl joined the other visitors at the Perret home and all played pinochle, the entire party remaining for supper.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Bell gave an oyster supper during the midnight supper hour Sunday night, after which the crowd returned to the dance hall. Those present beside Mr. and Mrs. Bell, Margaret and Pauline, were Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Thomas and Ellsworth Bell, Mr. and Mrs. Anton Malar. A delightful "feed" was enjoyed.

Miss Ruth Krebs and brother Harold were all day visitors at the Haselwinder home last Sunday after church.

R. Netzel was a Sandy visitor last Monday, driving his team from Kelso.

Mrs. F. L. Proctor was the "happiest little lady" when the following friends slipped in and surprised her on the evening of her birthday: Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Duke, Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Clinefelter and C. O. Duke were "there" and the popping of corn and serving of candy were enjoyed by the guests as well as by Mr. and Mrs. Proctor and Aloha.

Miss Margaret Miller and Mrs. Miller had a perfectly fine macaroni dinner at the Pizola and Boitano fire-side on Sunday. Wayne was not the best, so Mr. Boitano kindly met those "hikers" on the way over and also brought them home.

The Hozaards' played a number of selections at the Sandy hotel Sunday afternoon for the benefit of the guests and the "dron' ins." This couple will give an entertainment at Pleasant Home Methodist church, also.

Rev. Cotton spent Monday A. M. making calls in Sandy. He is enjoying his work very much at the Kimball school of theology at Salem.

Paul Koch almost lost his best horse, recently in an attempt to cross Cedar creek bottom on the Cherrville way. Mrs. Koch and Mrs. Caron were starting to Wild Cat and "Dewey" sensed the danger and refused to go into the deep water for Mrs. Koch, so her husband got on the horse and forced him into the water, and both Koch and rider went into a hole, but Koch managed to get the saddle loose as he got out. The horse fell loose on his back and after an intense struggle finally got up and was saved.

The corduroy planking is washed out and piled "every which way," and there being no other road open now, Mrs. Caron had to come down to Sandry.

(Continued on Page Seven.)

East Side Mill & Lumber Company
Manufacturers and Dealers in Lumber, Lath