SANDY SCHOOL NOTES

SANDY, Jan. 25.—The Sandy Peppy club has been organized in the upper grades of the Sandy school. The purpose of the club is to teach the pupils the proper way to conduct business meetings and to give them drill and practice in addressing the public. The following officers were elected: President, George Dodd; vice-president, Tony Scales; secretary, Harold Krebs; treasurer, Kenneth Scales. A number of standing committees were appointed. A meeting was held today, the fifty, and eighth grades giving the program. Parents are cordially invited to attend these meetings. Although the Sandy grade pupils are having a hard tussle with arithmetic, the following will show that many are doing exceptionally well in their monthly tests in other subjects: Albert Hoffman and Milton Meinig (T.
