

JENNINGS LODGE

MRS. HUGH ROBERTS, Correspondent

John Glass Passes At Advanced Age

JENNINGS LODGE, Feb. 8.—John Glass who passed away on Jan. 14 at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Arthur Smith, of this place, in his 81 year, was born at New Philadelphia, Ohio, in July, 1841, and moved to Iowa when 8 years of age. He came west in 1899 settling at Dayton, Oregon, and four years ago came to Jennings Lodge to make his home with his daughter, Mrs. Smith, and has resided alternately here and with his youngest daughter Mrs. Sam Stewart of Sellwood. He is survived also by another daughter Mrs. Eva Carter of Silverton and a son John B. Glass of Cannon City Colo.

Deceased had been a member of the Free Methodist church for over 54 years. At his request the funeral service was conducted by Rev. Blackman of Sellwood and the concluding services were held at the crematorium on Tuesday Jan. 17th.

Those who were privileged to know the departed was an inspiration as his lofty high ideals and his clean devoted Christian manhood, his services to his church made his many friends love and value him highly.

Card Party Held At Thompson Home

JENNINGS LODGE, Feb. 8.—Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Thompson and Mrs. Edith Truscott were joint hostess for a card party held at the Truscott home recently.

Guests to make up six tables of "500" were asked in. After a tilt at the game for two hours favors were awarded to Mrs. Stewart and David Clemens and Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Hole received the consolation prizes.

Delicious refreshments were served. Seated about the tables were Messrs. and Mesdames H. H. Emmons, Warren Swart, David Clemens, Carl Hole, Jerry Madden, R. H. Hendry, C. Koplanski, Edwin Pearson, Mesdames Olin, Laura Newell, Miss Kaminski, Ruth Truscott, Glen Newell, Fred Martin, Howard Truscott and Mr. and Mrs. Thompson.

Semi-Monthly Club Meeting Is Enjoyed

JENNINGS LODGE, Feb. 8.—The Semi-Monthly Luncheon Club met with Mrs. C. C. Hole on Wednesday of last week. Simplicity is the keynote of this club and many enjoyable gatherings have been held during the season. Those attending on Wednesday and bringing their needlework were Mesdames Norman Chapman, R. H. Hendry, R. G. Thompson, Wm. Moritz, Geo. Gardner, W. I. Blinestone, A. J. Robbins, Fred Bretcher, Carl Starker and Carl Hole.

Laura Black Passes At Island Station

JENNINGS LODGE, Feb. 8.—Laura Black passed away on Monday at her home at Island Station with heart trouble after a short illness. Miss Black usually spent her summers on the river at his place and had many friends here who regret her demise.

Just recently she built a new home at Island.

She is survived by one relative, a nephew, William Black of Emporia, Kansas, who came to attend the funeral which was conducted from Finleys with final services at the crematorium on Friday afternoon of last week.

Fifth Anniversary Party Given Jan. 30

JENNINGS LODGE, Feb. 8.—Mrs. Langdon Spooner entertained on Jan. 30 in honor of her little daughter's birthday, it being her fifth anniversary.

The table decorations were suggestive of St. Valentine with heart favors for the five little guests and their mothers. The birthday cake was also one of the features of the pretty table. The little folks danced and played games and was a very happy event for those attending who were Mrs. Harry Burco and daughters Betty and Nancy, Mrs. Wilson Miller, Miss Betty and Francis and Ben Miller and Mrs. Spomer and daughters Dorothy and Betty Jane.

To Visit In South

JENNINGS LODGE, Feb. 8.—John Jennings has leased his property here and is planning an extended trip south to California to visit his brother Chas. Jennings. Mr. Jennings has not been well and his friends here are hoping the sunny south will prove beneficial to him.

Jasper D. McFall Passes at Lodge

JENNINGS LODGE, Feb. 8.—Jasper Dean McFall, a well known vocal teacher, passed away at his home at 2:30 on Saturday morning after a lingering illness with cancer. The deceased was born in Ohio and was 52 years of age. He came west from Washington D. C. 12 years ago and for some time directed the music in the Sunnyside M. E. Church and the Arleta Baptist church. He came to the Lodge about a year ago and his time has been devoted exclusively to studio work.

He is survived by a wife and one daughter. The services were held at Finleys mortuary at 2:30 on Monday afternoon, being conducted by Rev. T. H. Gallagher, pastor of the Sunnyside M. E. church. The body was taken to the crematorium.

Sixth Grade Has Excellent Record

JENNINGS LODGE, Feb. 8.—The Sixth grade of Mrs. MacDonald's room has made a very excellent record. During the first five months of the term there has been no absence or tardiness in this class of 14, and the average for the entire class in the terms work was 90%.

In the recent county tests in arithmetic and spelling the following pupils have earned 100%: In spelling those receiving 100% Florence Wilson, Winifred Humphrys, Fredericks Courts, Loua Ross, Marie Moore, Sarah Elizabeth Holloway, Mary Grace Rush, Elsie Kuhnhausen, Janette Roberts, Charles Holloway, Halmer Roberts, Norman Chapman, Grace Wilson, Evelyn Shepherd, Wesley Jobling. Those receiving 100% in arithmetic Douglas Asquith, Wesley Jobling, Arthur Smith.

Birthday Party Is Given S. L. Shepered

JENNINGS LODGE, Feb. 8.—A very delightful surprise party was tendered S. L. Shepered on Saturday evening, honoring him on his birthday anniversary. Friends to make up five tables of cards came in. Jerry Madden and Mrs. Reed holding high scores were awarded handsome prizes and pretty consolation favors were given Mrs. Fred Wilson and Wm. Cook.

Delicious refreshments were served and dancing followed. Extending congratulations to Mr. Shepered were Messrs. and Mesdames John Roberts, Fred Wilson, Geo. Carl, Wm. Cook, Reed, Schaer, Jerry Madden, Ben Losey, Mr. Schaer and Miss Schaer.

JENNINGS LODGE LOCALS

JENNINGS LODGE, Feb. 8.—Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Woodbeck entertained Rev. and Mrs. Edgar of Oregon City on Friday evening with a dinner. Sprigs of bitter-sweet from Minnesota centered the prettily appointed dinner table.

F. W. Parker, Oregon City poet, was greeted by a good sized audience at the Community church on Tuesday evening.

A welcome visitor from Spokane is Mrs. Chris Finnsand, who after spending a fortnight with her mother, Mrs. Bertha M. Hart will depart on Monday for her home.

Miss Francis Woods returned on Saturday to the Good Samaritan hospital; her condition was not improving satisfactory and was deemed advisable to be closer to the family physician. Her mother Mrs. D. P. Woods making daily trips to the hospital.

Mrs. M. J. Clohesy spent several days in Portland when she is giving her time to the Red Cross work and for the benefits planned for the disabled war veterans.

Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Albright and family of Portland and Mr. and Mrs. Warren Swart took dinner with Mrs. R. L. Newcomb on Sunday.

Mrs. Robacher who has been having a siege of tonsillitis, has recovered. Meade Kennedy was removed to Oregon City hospital on Thursday afternoon from a poison from gases received from the paper mill where he is employed. At this writing his condition is said to be improving.

The Wilcox boys are very much elated over their maple syrup making, and justly should they be, for they have made half a gallon of syrup of a delicious quality. The freezing and thawing made their success possible. Mrs. Wilcox, who is a New Yorker thinks it almost equal to that made in York state.

Perhaps the making of maple syrup has never been attempted at this place before.

Mrs. Jennie Lacey Dugger of Portland was the guest of Mrs. A. L. Roberts on Friday.

While C. P. Morse and wife were visiting at the Lodge on Thursday evening, thieves, entered their dry goods store in Portland, helping themselves to men's and women's wearifn apparel. About $250 worth of goods was taken.

Mr. Morse was a former resident and this is the second time he has met with a loss in this way.

Messrs Longcoy and Cook of the Blackman district spent Monday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Williams.

Mrs. Mann and daughter who recently arrived from California have taken a cottage on the river near her daughter Mrs. Jobling. Miss Mann is with the Owl Drug Co. in Portland.

Otto Naef, a well known resident of Naef is suffering from a stroke of paralysis. Mr. Naef was doing work about the farm and was missed by his daughter-in-law and on going to look for him found him under a wagon in a semi-conscious state. A trained nurse is now in attendance.

A number of our people are suffering from an attack of the la grippe, among those who are confined to their beds are Mrs. Jack Hampton, Mrs. W. S. Booth, Mrs. Marie Roberts, Mrs. Barker and son Wesley, Mrs. Kennedy, Mrs. Holloway, Mr. Tillman, Mrs. Cummings of Errol Heights spent Tuesday at Stone Gables.

Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Holloway attended the After Dinner Whist Club at the home of Mrs. Bissell in the Rose City Park district on Saturday evening and reported a splendid time.

The Shuman family have decided to locate in Gladstone and will move to their new home the first of the week.

Buster the little two year son of Mr. and Mrs. Brown who was burned two weeks ago, is able to play about again.

Mr. and Mrs. Al Hennis of Portland were week end visitors at the J. C. Maple home.

Mrs. Sam Stewart has returned from Eugene, and is visiting her sister Mrs. A. B. Smith.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Jacobs of Portland were entertained at dinner at the home of Mrs. Bertha Hart on Friday last. The Jacobs and Hart families were among the first to settle here after the Lodge was platted and with the presence of Mrs. Fern Hart Finnsand from Spokane made it a pleasant gathering.

On Wednesday of last week Mrs. R. L. Newcomb and Gail lunched and spent her day with Miss Ruby Archambaud in Portland.

Mesdames Hooker and Waterhouse are to be joint hostesses of the Grace Guild on Wednesday. The meeting will be held in the Guild room at church and members are to bring thimbles and needles. The Guild is having splendid attendance.

Mrs. E. S. Ford of Olympia, Washington visited with her nephew and family Olin Ford, while enroute home from Kansas City, Mo., where she has visited for a year.

Warren Swart was a visitor at Estacada on Saturday and on Tuesday made a business trip to Cape Horn, Wash.

A. L. Roberts and family visited at the Junken home in Willamette on Sunday.

W. W. Woodbeck and wife spent Sunday in Vancouver and owing to the illness of their little granddaughter, Barbara, Mrs. Woodbeck remained over.

Mrs. Della Houston who visits the Howland family at this place, is one of the appointed bailiffs in the women's jury service in Portland.

Mr. Nordstrom, the proprietor of the Jennings Lodge grocery store, is much improved from his illness of several months.

Those wishing to vote on the water question should register at the home of Mrs. Julia Ulabrand, who resides south of the Shady Nook grocery on the River road. The registration books will be open until Feb. 11.

Oak Grove Club Has Good Program

OAK GROVE, Feb. 7.—The church club spent a very pleasant evening last night. A good program was enjoyed at the Community Club's get-together meeting last week. Seavy's orchestra furnished several selections. Mrs. G. K. Hall gave a piano solo and also accompanied Miss Eva Burton who played selections on the violin. Robert Dinnene gave a reading as did Kathryn Olson which were both rendered in pleasing manner. A little play entitled, "Mrs. Holigan Buys A Hat," by Kathryn Olson and Nadene Mayfield and cartoon drawings by W. Seavy and then the eats and a social hour completed the evening's entertainment.

The Social Service Club at a recent meeting decided to have a "club chest" in connection with "nurses supply closet" and a committee of five was appointed in charge of the work.

The club does a great deal of philanthropic work and the object of the club chest is to have in readiness at all times clothing and such other articles as may be needed for such work.

The Child Welfare Department of the Social Service Club met Thursday morning at eleven o'clock with Mrs. E. Fenwick at which time sewing proceeds will go toward buying music and for general expenses of the club in addition to a portion given to the church fund.

The Social Service Club at a recent meeting decided to have a "club chest" in connection with "nurses supply closet" and a committee of five was appointed in charge of the work.

The club does a great deal of philanthropic work and the object of the club chest is to have in readiness at all times clothing and such other articles as may be needed for such work.

The Child Welfare Department of the Social Service Club met Thursday morning at eleven o'clock with Mrs. E. Fenwick at which time sewing proceeds will go toward buying music and for general expenses of the club in addition to a portion given to the church fund.

The Social Service Club at a recent meeting decided to have a "club chest" in connection with "nurses supply closet" and a committee of five was appointed in charge of the work.

The club does a great deal of philanthropic work and the object of the club chest is to have in readiness at all times clothing and such other articles as may be needed for such work.

The Child Welfare Department of the Social Service Club met Thursday morning at eleven o'clock with Mrs. E. Fenwick at which time sewing proceeds will go toward buying music and for general expenses of the club in addition to a portion given to the church fund.

The Social Service Club at a recent meeting decided to have a "club chest" in connection with "nurses supply closet" and a committee of five was appointed in charge of the work.

The club does a great deal of philanthropic work and the object of the club chest is to have in readiness at all times clothing and such other articles as may be needed for such work.

The Child Welfare Department of the Social Service Club met Thursday morning at eleven o'clock with Mrs. E. Fenwick at which time sewing proceeds will go toward buying music and for general expenses of the club in addition to a portion given to the church fund.

The Social Service Club at a recent meeting decided to have a "club chest" in connection with "nurses supply closet" and a committee of five was appointed in charge of the work.

The club does a great deal of philanthropic work and the object of the club chest is to have in readiness at all times clothing and such other articles as may be needed for such work.

The Child Welfare Department of the Social Service Club met Thursday morning at eleven o'clock with Mrs. E. Fenwick at which time sewing proceeds will go toward buying music and for general expenses of the club in addition to a portion given to the church fund.

OSWEGO ITEMS

Mrs. Cora Bullock

NEW BUSINESS BUILDING AT OSWEGO CONSIDERED

OSWEGO, Feb. 7.—There is a strong possibility that a two or three story fire proof business block may be erected in Oswego in the near future, if a location can be obtained in the business district at a reasonable price. Parties have been looking over the situation here and are very favorably impressed with Oswego.

Club Organized by Oswego Residents

OSWEGO, Feb. 7.—On Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. Robert Fulton a "500" club was organized to meet once a week at the home of the different members. Those who belong are Mr. and Mrs. Robert Fulton, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Borghorst, Mr. and Mrs. I. A. Lord, Mr. and Mrs. George Emrich, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Bethke, Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Centers, Mr. and Mrs. George Bullock. A delicious lunch was served and Mrs. Henry Borghorst won ladies first prize while Geo. Bullock won gentlemen first prize. Mrs. Geo. Emrich won second prize and Mr. Borghorst won the consolation prize. The next meeting will be held at Mrs. George Emrich in South Oswego.

Camp Fire Girls of Oswego Entertained

OSWEGO, Feb. 7.—Mrs. Walter Westing entertained the Camp Fire girls at dinner at her home Friday evening. After a short business meeting. Later in the evening Leslie Savage and Fred Norman took the girls and their chaperones in autos to Portland, where they were taken to the Pathe exchange in Portland and shown an Aesop fable, "The Flea and the Dog," Mr. and Mrs. Carter DeHaven, in "Marry the Girl," and a Harold Lloyd comedy. Besides Mr. and Mrs. Fred Norman, Mrs. Westing, Miss Mary Prymbrock and Leslie Savage. The Camp Fire girls were Kathryn Westing, Alice Norman, Patricia Newland, Marie Johnson, Hazel Dean Fulton, Marjani Waldman, Nija Merrick, Gladys McDonald, and Janette Duncan.

Oswego Ladies to Give Silver Tea

OSWEGO, Feb. 7.—The Ladies Aid met at the home of Mrs. Oren Davidson on Thursday with a good attendance. The usual business was the feature of the afternoon while Mrs. Davidson served a dainty lunch. The silver tea will be held at the home of Mrs. A. Waldorf on the 16 or Feb. 8.

CLUB GIVES DINNER

OSWEGO, Feb. 7.—Thursday evening Feb. 9, the Community Sing club gave a chicken dinner at the church. The proceeds will go toward buying music and for general expenses of the club in addition to a portion given to the church fund.

Mountain Road Items

MOUNTAIN ROAD, Feb. 6.—The Canby ferry is quite busy now carrying vehicle traffic while the Oregon City suspension bridge is closed.

Mr. and Mrs. L. S. Koellmeier and Mr. and Mrs. John Robinson attended a party on Mr. and Mrs. John Wilken Jr. Saturday evening. They report a good time.

Fred Baker of Willamette visited relatives here Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wright of Woodburn and Miss Sylvia Hodge of Portland visited their relatives here Sunday.

Mrs. Cloe Kelenofer was home visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. Ryzinski of this district last week.

Frank Kelenofer and Leo Rypynski spent last Tuesday evening with DeWard Hodge playing cards.

Christian Christensen formerly of this community was out buying hay and straw last week hauling it to town with his new truck.

The Belding family entertained friends at their new home on Petes Mountain Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Farguason of Peach Cove were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Lawson.

LAWTON HEIGHTS, Feb. 3.—The funeral of Mrs. Rasmussen, who died at her home at this place Friday night was held at Newberg at 2:30 last Sunday. Rev. Lee of the Presbyterian church had charge. The choir of that church sang and the pall bearers were old time friends of the family and were as follows: Gilbert Grimes, Harry Fessler, Oscar and Emil Nelson, Hans Peterson and Aubrey Taugen. The burial was in the Newberg cemetery. Many friends attended the funeral both from Oregon City and Newberg. Mrs. Rasmussen died on her 33rd wedding anniversary.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Nilas who have been visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Barnard have returned to Eugene.

All the sick folks are reported as improved.

Prominent Woman of Estacada Passes On

ESTACADA, Feb. 8.—The death of Mrs. R. G. Marchbank last Saturday evening, was very sudden and caused sorrow to the entire population of Estacada and vicinity. On Jan. 16 a little girl was born to Mr. and Mrs. Marchbank and there was much rejoicing because their other three children were boys. In about nine after Mrs. Marchbank was taken with pneumonia and

Work Is Resumed By Cement Plant

OSWEGO, Feb. 7.—The Oregon-Portland Cement plant resumed operation Wednesday, after being shut down for several weeks for repairs. Oswego people are all glad to see the plant start again as it employs a number of men. The plant has been running continuously for several years.

MRS. DUNCAN CHOSEN

OSWEGO, Feb. 7.—Mrs. Leslie L. Duncan of Oswego, has been selected as one to teach Americanization work among the Portland foreign settlements. Mrs. Duncan recently received a neatly bound copy of the social service council at Ottawa, compliments of the social service council of Saskatchewan, Canada, for her interest shown while in that work while a resident, during the war, of that province.

WOMEN'S CLUB MEETS

OSWEGO, Feb. 7.—The Oswego Women's Club met at the school house Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. Geo. Smith and Mrs. F. Schaeper as hostesses. A dainty lunch was served to the ladies present and regular business was transacted. Next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Westings.

OSWEGO LOCALS

OSWEGO, Feb. 7.—Courtney M. Davidson and who was a resident of Oswego prior to 1877, has returned here and is staying with his brother L. M. Davidson who has been very ill the past two weeks.

C. B. Hall is moving his real estate office from the Davidson building to the Aarml block on Front street. It is reported that the Davidson building has been leased for business purposes.

Mrs. Etta Davidson has been appointed county registration officer for the Oswego district. The books are expected within a few days and persons wishing to register, can do so any time after that.

Flag raising exercises are to be held at the Oswego school on Feb. 22, Washington's birthday. The local boy scouts will officiate.

Little Miss Lillian Stevens celebrated her seventh birthday at her home in the Grove Saturday afternoon with several of her young schoolmates. The kiddies enjoyed games and dancing and a delicious lunch.

Mrs. Tom Fox has been quite ill at her home.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Yazalina were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Rosentreter for dinner Friday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Bush have moved to the home on Third street of their son, who leaves shortly for California.

Oscar Schaubel and family are moving from Sixth street to the Koehler house on Seventh street.

Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Newlands have returned from a trip to California.

Some of the Oswego boys went to Tigard Friday to play basket ball with the boys at Tigard.

Mrs. Leonard Anderson who has been quite ill is much better now.

Albert Thompson who has been sick is progressing favorably.

Rudolph Rosentreter of Altoona, Wash., formerly of Oswego, is in a Portland hospital having just gone through a serious operation. At the present time he is getting along nicely.

Those coming from a distance to attend the funeral of the late Mrs. R. G. Marchbank, were James Marchbank and wife of Hood River, Steve Washburn and wife, the latter a sister of Mr. Marchbank's, of North Yakima, Wash., Mrs. Gilbert Powers, another sister, and her husband, of Camas, Wash., Mrs. Louis Tucker, sister, her husband, son and daughter, Mrs. Foster of Silverton, Oregon, Mr. Marchbank's mother who has been making her home with him for a number of years, came over from Silverton where she had been visiting her daughter since the beginning of Mrs. Marchbank's illness, was also here to attend the funeral and later left with her daughter Mrs. Washburn for a short visit at Yakima.

Mrs. Harry Snyder has been on the sick list this week.

Dr. C. H. Naef, who went to Seattle last week, has decided to remain at that place and his office and practice here has been taken over by Dr. C. E. Owens of Portland.

G. W. Ross, who came here from Portland a few weeks ago to join the large force of men working at North Fork, concluded to return to his old home in Portland and with Mrs. Ross left last Saturday. Mrs. Ross had been staying with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Hughes.

The American Legion had a social meeting last Monday night in Odd Fellow's hall, with a few invited guests. The program consisted in music, readings and speeches by H. C. Stephens and Rev. U. H. Gibbs. Lunch was served and a general social time enjoyed.

An interesting event among the members of the Priscilla club was the meeting held last Thursday at the home of Mrs. Henry Githens at Curranville. Members from town were taken out to the meeting by W. A. Wilcox in his splendid large Hudson, but the trip out and back was not the only delightful part of the day's pleasure. There were thirteen members hours passed only too quickly to the ladies who were so charmingly entertained. The first thing on the program was dinner, and the reputation the hostesses base of being an adept in the culinary art, has not been exaggerated. After the delightful repast the business part of the program was taken up and the following officers elected: President, Mrs. Agnes Wilcox; vice-president, Mrs. G. A. Lovell; secretary-treasurer, Mrs. Minnie Carrin. Mrs. Marie Heiple amused the club ladies for a short time, by reading the minutes of some of the meetings held several years ago, when she was secretary. Old memories were revived and reminiscences of former days was the order until time for the departure. The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Clara Boyer.

Another real estate deal was made this week when Perry Anderson bought the tenth house on Upper Broadway from W. E. Linn who was the owner of the property at this time. In the deal Mr. Linn gets the little house formerly owned by Mr. Anderson in the north-west part of the city.

J. K. Ely and family have moved into rooms over his store on Broadway. Mrs. B. O. Sarver returned Monday from a visit with her sister at Gladstone.

Miss Olga Escheleman came over from Salem Monday, returning Tuesday after a short visit with Estacada relatives.

Mrs. G. H. Lichthorn was taken to Portland Tuesday where she will stay with her sister. She is not getting along as well as friends would like to see her.

A party consisting of Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Deming, Mrs. Amerson, Mrs. Mae Reed, and the Misses Goetze and Ruth Dillon went to Portland last Thursday night to hear Alma Gluck sing and her husband, Ernest Zimbalist play the piano. The concert was held at the auditorium and it is said it was by far the largest audience attracted to any event in Portland since the present musical season opened.

Miss Doris Curran returned the latter part of last week from a visit with friends at Corvallis and Salem.

Mrs. W. C. Bacon went to Portland last Friday and visited friends until Sunday night.

Mrs. W. J. Moore visited friends last Thursday.

Mrs. Harry Snyder was a visitor at the metropolis last Thursday.

Mrs. A. Demoy of Estacada, has the sympathy of friends here because of the loss of her mother, Mrs. Amanda Tanner, who passed away at the home of her daughter Mrs. Olive Miller, at Viola last Thursday, after an illness of about six weeks. It was just before Christmas that she fell and broke her hip, and never recovered from the accident. Funeral services were held at the Viola church Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock, with Rev. A. Demoy, son-in-law, officiating, and interment was in the Redland cemetery.

G. E. Lawrence has bought the Bartlett property, through the Cary Real Estate Co., and with his family moved to their new home this week.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Moore moved Monday to the big house in Terrace Addition which they recently bought of Dr. McCall. Dr. McCall and wife moved to Portland the latter part of last week.

J. V. Barr visited relatives in Portland this last week-end.

L. V. Clewort was a Portland visitor last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Allen were here this week-end from Astoria.

B. E. Davis left last Tuesday to take a position with the Milton Creek Pole Co., near St. Helens, Oregon, and expects to remain there all summer.

Miss Hazel Morehead of Portland is the guest of Mrs. J. E. Gates this week.

J. E. Gates was a business visitor in Portland Tuesday.

C. A. Dykeman, who bought a half interest in the Estacada Feed Terraces, has taken up his duties at that establishment and already is making friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Hall, who have charge of the dining room at the Estacada hotel, commenced to serve meals Monday and are enjoying a good patronage.

DR. H. W. BEAL

Chiropractic Physician
Wishes to announce to the people of Oregon City and vicinity that he has opened his offices in the Oregon City Bank building upstairs.
Hours 9:30 A. M. to 4:00 P. M.

HOW'S THIS?

HALL'S CATARRH MEDICINE will do what we claim for it—rid your system of Catarrh or any disease caused by Catarrh. We do not recommend it for any other disease.
HALL'S CATARRH MEDICINE is a liquid, taken internally, and acts through the blood upon the mucous surfaces of the system, thus reducing the inflammation and assisting Nature in restoring normal conditions.
All Druggists. Circulars free.
F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio.

Holman & Pace

FUNERAL DIRECTORS
Homelike—Efficient—Courteous
Telephone 86
7th and Water Sts., Oregon City

MONEY TO LOAN

Farm Loans Preferred
PAUL C. FISCHER
Beaver Bldg., Oregon City

Phones: Sellwood 597, Automatic 21363 John P. Miller, Mgr.

East Side Mill & Lumber Company

Manufacturers and Dealers in

Lumber, Lath, Shingles and Mouldings

Mill Foot of Spokane Avenue PORTLAND, OREGON

J. P. FINLEY & SON

Perfect Funeral Service

Telephone Main 9 A-1599 Montgomery and Fifth Portland