Molalla High Five Scores Victory In All Season's Games

CANBY, Feb. 4 .- (Special.) - One of the most enthusiastic and exciting basketball games played in Clackamas county was that of Friday evening, when Molalla high school team came over to meet the Canby high school team, the game being played in the Canby high school gymnasium. As there has been considerable rivalry between the two teams, when playing baseball during the baseball season, both teams had their share of rooters on this occasion. Molalla was repre sented by 150 people, when they made the trip by automobiles.

There was a double header, for after the high school teams played, with a score of 18 to 10 in favor of Molalla, the grammar school teams of Molalla
