Funds Will Greatly Aid Forest Service

SANDY, Feb. 14.—C. L. Hensen, head of the forest service at Zig Zag submits the following to the Enterprise in the hope of awaking a greater interest among the public in forest protection for the coming season.

"Of the $15,000,000 apportioned by the Secretary of Agriculture among 27 states, Alaska and Porto Rico in which national forests are located for the construction of roads and trails Oregon will receive $1,875,844. In the totals allowed for all National Forest states Oregon ranks third, Washington fifth, and Alaska, seventh.

"Of this sum, nine and a half millions known as the National Forest Highway fund" is set aside for the roads of primary importance to states, counties and national forest communities. Five and a half millions will be used to construct roads and trails that are needed for administration and use of the forests themselves.

"These appropriations will mean the development of roads and trails which will aid materially in fire protection. At present there are large areas of trackless wilderness within the national forests that cannot be reached even by trails. When electrical storms sweep over these inaccessible areas there are heavy losses of public timber.

"Foresters think speed is just as important in reaching a forest fire to save the country's timber as is speed in city fire protection.

"But, 'high speed' in the forest means four or five miles an hour over a mountain trail, and if there is no trail it is often impossible for fire-fighters to average over one fourth of a mile per hour.

"These new appropriations are also expected to give a new impetus to the work of opening up areas of scenic beauty for the use and enjoyment of the American people, as well as open up tracts of valuable timber.

"Much of the long delayed construction in Oregon, Washington and Alaska can now go forward, though the forest service estimates that eventually over a hundred million will be required to supply a thoroughly adequate system of transportation through the 156,000,000 acres within the national forests."

Old Timer Recalls Joke of Early Day

SANDY, Feb. 14.—Mrs. Alma Maroney reports her father, J. H. L. Maybee as still improving at his home in Lents. Maybee is an old Sandy pioneer and tells the following joke that happened at the home of "Joan" Cline in the early days, when amusement had to be "manufactured" mostly at home.

"Eighteen were seated at the bountiful spread table at which all did justice but when 'pie time' came one of the pies was missing! Mrs. Cline accused her husband of eating it and he steadfastly denied doing so, till they were about to have warm words when Maybee offered to settle the controversy by saying: 'Joan Cline, will you swear you did not eat the pie?' 'I will,' said Cline. 'Then stand up your right hand.' Cline obeyed. 'Now do ## you swear you will tell the whole truth and nothing but the truth and that you did eat the pie?' 'I will,' said Cline, 'who swore' he did eat the pie, and then everyone screamed with laughter. Mr. Cline is now past seventy-five and lives at Orient.

Sandy Ridge School Site Is Selected

SANDY, Feb. 13.—There was a big school meeting at the Sandy Ridge school house last Saturday which was also attended by County Superintendent Vedder who walked up from Eagle Creek in order to attend this meeting. The committee on selection of a site for a new school building reported as having decided upon one and a half acres belonging to Henry Herman, which is directly opposite the old Duncan place. The price is reported as $300 per acre. The district voted a short time ago to construct a two-room building that would cost $4000. The report of the committee was accepted, and people seem to be satisfied with the site. Chas. Krebs, acting as school clerk and Louis Gherke was elected clerk for the rest of the year.

Free Circulating Library Started

SANDY, Feb. 15.—The first installment of fifty books from the state library were received here Saturday and will be given out from the Scales store. This splendid movement to secure a free circulating library here is under the direction of the Women's club, and the club is also financing the project. Shelves will be put in the rear of the Scales store, and books may be secured by an responsible person in Sandy. The selection is far better than it was thought possible to secure, and the club deserves much encouragement, for a library has been one of the most vital needs of the town. Books may be secured at any time on Tuesdays.

Fine Program Given At Community Sing

SANDY, Feb. 14.—Another fine audience assembled at the church Sunday night to enjoy the Community Sing, and the congregation did more and better singing than at any time before. The following was the special part of program: Voluntary, "The Rosary," Miss Lippold. Responsive reading, recitations by Margaret Bell and Virginia Wolfe; song, Ronnie Esson; Violin, George Beers and Henry Quam, accompanied by Miss Gertrude Meinig. Song, James Kesterson. Miss Margaret Miller sang two solos and was encored. A song and drill was given by six of Mrs. Connor's pupils, and Mrs. Connor's deserving special mention for their splendid training. The children were recited in a Cupid costume. Mrs. F. D. Esson played an organ solo, "The Priests' March." Mrs. Blanche Shelley read a short tribute to Abraham Lincoln, and the pulpit was draped with "Old Glory" in honor of February 12. The reading was followed by "The audience sang with great enthusiasm

REV. ESSON TO PREACH
SANDY, Feb. 15.—R. E. Esson has received word that his brother, Rev. Albyn Esson of Dallas, Oregon, will preach at the Methodist church here on Sunday evening, Feb. 26, at 7:45 o'clock. Rev. Esson is a minister in the Christian church and is a graduate of the Kentucky and Chicago universities, and is a "jolly, live-wire fellow," who does not believe in long faced Christianity.

Sandy and vicinity will receive a big treat in having Rev. Esson here, and the church will no doubt have a capacity audience. There will be special music provided for the occasion.

MAZAMAS HIKE
SANDY, Feb. 13.—About twenty Mazamas took the early train yesterday morning and walked to Sandy from Boring, arriving here about ten o'clock. They had refreshments at Junkers and then walked on over to Bull Run for the day, returning to Portland in the evening by train.

Grangers Discuss Important Topics

SANDY, Feb. 13.—The Grange meeting on Saturday was a live one despite the stormy day, and a good attendance was "there." There were interesting discussions, also articles read to show how little the producer received for his product compared to the retailer. As a definite example, the price received by a Hood River apple grower for two car lots of the '21 crop showed he got $1.00 for raising, the broker $1.05 for selling; the wholesaler $1.60 (out of which he paid the cartage and freight), leaving about 40 cents net profit, and the retailer, after advertising "Apples at Special Prices" sold them at $2.75 in the Portland market, clearing "only" $1.15 per box.

The Farm Bureau was discussed from various angles and was recommended as worthy of a trial, regardless of some deficiencies.

A splendid dinner was served after which a short program was given, which included a reading by Caroline Chown, then every one present was called upon to do "something for the good of the order, and the response was most gratifying.

The most important work of the day, however, was the action taken in regard to erection of a high school at Sandy. Hanneburg of Bull Run and others made most enthusiastic speeches in favor of uniting with the union district, and said his biggest mistake was in sending his boy to Portland to high school, and that he wanted to send the rest of his children to the home high school. Hanneburg made a strong talk on the value of a high school education.

Sandy Men Attend Dairy League Meet

SANDY, Feb. 14.—Walter Krebs, W. Bosholm, Carl Wendland and P. Lohrmann went to Gresham Monday to attend a meeting of the trustees of the Dairy League and to help discuss which was the best way to liquidate, and get the most money possible out of the back pool.

After the affairs of the league are settled these Sandy stockholders are in favor of re-organizing, and bringing the "corpse" to life again and going ahead under local management. This has been done in several places successfully.

High School Site Favored by Grange

SANDY, Feb. 14.—The Sandy Grange went on record, unanimously, in favor of the erection of a high school building on the new site recently donated by Ed. F. Brutsa, favoring the issue of warrants, rather than the issue of the districts. A. C. Thomas and J. E. Hanneburg of Bull Run, F. M. Canning of Kelso, A. J. Morrison of Dover, J. G. DeShazer of Firwood and others made strong talks in favor of getting busy at once, that a building may be completed some time in the fall. Canning was very enthusiastic and thought we should build, even though it should be necessary to call a bond issue.

SOCIAL ENJOYED
SANDY, Feb. 14.—The Sandy Rebekah Lodge had a delightful social hour after the regular session last Thursday night. Games were played and old fashioned square dances were most enjoyed. A delicious supper was spread for the members and several guests. There was also a "grab bag" arranged which made both fun and finances events of the evening. This lodge is prospering.

VALENTINE LUNCHEON
SANDY, Feb. 13.—Mrs. C. L. Cline-felter entertained Saturday afternoon with an informal valentine luncheon for the Miss Margaret Miller, Miss Elsie Lippold, Mrs. Florence Connors and Mrs. Miller. The table decorations were red hearts, candles with red shades, and red place cards. A dainty and delicious menu was served, and a very pleasant time was had.

SANDY LOCALS
FOR SALE—Team of bay mares well mated. Weight about 2500. Harness if wanted. One colt coming two years priced reasonable. W. M. O'Neill, Box 3, Sandy.

Mrs. Alma Suckow was in bed a part of the past week suffering from a miserable cold, and "Fred" had to take a turn at the housework.

Harry Dodson and his "Missus" drove up to Wild Cat last Sunday to look after things at the claim.

Mr. and Mrs. P. E. Rutledge (Myrtle Dodd) went out from Portland for the week end with Mrs. E. Dodd and fam## ily and attended the dance Saturday night.

F. M. Canning, Max Kligel and Joe Albel from Kelso dropped in at the Grange Saturday Canning remaining for the afternoon session.

Mrs. A. L. Mattings is still ailing and the weather has not been very conducive to a convalescent's quick recovery.

Miss Bernice Dixon, James Ogden and Miss Josephine Dixon were down Saturday evening to attend the dance.

Mrs. L. E. Hoffman, Rueben, Martha, and Mrs. Matz all drove to Newberg on Sunday to spend the day with their daughter, Mrs. M. A. Deaton and family.

Walter Krebs and family and Chas. Krebs and family made their mother, Miss Marie Krebs happy last Sunday by all coming "home" to dinner after church services.

Mrs. Dave Douglass, daughter Alice and son Floyd were Sandy visitors Saturday and Sunday, returning to Cherryville Sunday evening with "Dave" who drove down for his family.

Mrs. Cyril Gray is home again and her husband has a smile that won't come off. Mrs. Gray's friends are also glad she is back.

Mrs. Billy Odell of Marmot was in town Saturday and remained over for the dance, taking time to bring in her father's "sub" for the Enterprise.

Mr. and Mrs. Emis Townsends and the Jadvins were over to attend the dance Saturday night.

Mrs. Georget Perrot called up from Gresham Sunday evening and "we" had a nice chat. Mr. and Mrs. Perrot and little Albert drove to Camas, Wash., for the day and returned via Gresham, and would have run out here had the roads been better.

Zeke Beers, Carl Ault and Ernest Harris returned to Garfield to go to work on the government job there the first of the week.

Will Bosholm has a "sure cure for lumbago" that he can recommend to any and all. "Will" was "grunting" around all day Saturday with lumbago and his back was "terribly on the bum," but he had to bring the folks down to the dance, so thought he would "try" to limber up a little! He never missed a dance, and went home about three in the morning without a touch of lumbago.

James Ogden has been visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Ault at Firwood a portion of the past week.

Mayor Junker made a trip to Portland one day during the week, via the mail stage route.

A. C. Baumbach has been doing carpenter work at the John Mitchell ranch home. He has been repairing the damage done to the fine chicken house the storm broke down some time ago.

Fred Proctor took a trip up Zig Zag last week. Proctor visited the Welch school district and found everyone heartily in favor of coming into the union high school district. Brightwood was also visited and with the exception of a small minority, the people there were looking on the proposition with favor.

Jas. G. DeShazer has been having a siege of la grip the past week, and had to stop work and go to bed! He is up and getting around as usual again.

Mrs. R. C. Shipley and mother, "Auntie" McGugin spent a pleasant afternoon recently visiting at the home of Mrs. J. C. Loundree. "Auntie" has not been out much this stormy winter.

Hughie Fitzgerald went to Portland to spend a week and was dressed up in a stylish new suit and overcoat and was stepping around like a man of fifty! Friends in the city want Fitzgerald to stay there, but he likes Sandy better, except he dislikes living alone.

Mrs. John Jonsrud and daughter Lena were down from Cherryville a few days ago, and had some dental work done and did other errands.

Carl Powers has been listed among sick ones the past week. In fact Carl took a few days off and stayed in bed to nurse the grip that had a sure enough grip on him.

Mrs. R. S. Smith was also troubled with colds the past week.

The regular meeting of the Sandy Parent Teacher will be held Friday night February 24, at 8 p. m. in the Odd Fellow's hall. A program and a business session will take up the evening.

Next Sunday night Rev. Earl Cotton will hold services at the Methodist church, and it is hoped there will be a good attendance.

Two dollars were recently handed in toward the carpet fund for the church. The old carpet is getting "dangerous." It is so full of holes it would be easy to trip and fall down. This is a neat little church and needs only new carpeting in the aisles and platform to make it look fine.

Easter time is coming on apace, and it is time to begin thinking of Easter music and a new bonnet.

By the way, does any one want to offer her (or his) services in training children for a part in an Easter program?

Superintendent Vedder is still taking and active interest in our high school affairs on this way, and surely we ought to work as hard for our own interests as he is working for us. The committee from the Community Club is hard at work for the enlargement of the high school district. Let's all help them more.

A. C. Thomas and J. G. DeShazer were appointed by the Lecturer of the Sandy Grange to speak on the high school question at the next session.

The water question for the city of Sandy is being quietly thought over and talked about, and, the ball being started, it's momentum will surely not be expended until Sandy can turn a faucet in every home in town.

It is a fact that Sandy people are getting more interested in home affairs and are coming closer together in the interests of the town and country round about. Let the spirit grow.

John Revenue and son Homer Revenue were in town last Monday. Revenue Sr. said he had been hibernating for the past month, not having been off the place, but was in fine health. Mrs. Revenue is still in Portland and is not gaining very fast.

Lewis Johnstone of Barton bought two fresh milk cows from J. G. DeShazer, and two from Anton Wallar a few days ago, also one from Will Douglas DeShazer and Geo. Algire helped Johnstone drive the cows as far as Deep Creek.

"Blondie" Clinefelter went up the mountains with Fred Beechell Sunday evening where Clinefelter expects to work for a while.

Roy Pitts, son of Rev. S. P. Pitts of Cottrell, has been very ill in Portland but is on the road to recovery now.

Mrs. Thomas Hagan has been away in the Hollowitch home in the Lusted district the past two weeks. An infant passed away at this home recently.

Charley Suckow is walking around about as well as ever, and says his leg-trouble is about well.

Mrs. W. A. Proctor has been on the sick list and has been very miserable since the last week of the week.

Fred Koenicke was in town Monday and said there were about five inches of snow at Firwood.

Mrs. W. H. Thompson, wife of Dr. Thompson, was ill in bed the first of the week. Colds are quite popular for everyone at present.

Mrs. A. F. Curtis of Portland came out Saturday to spend the week end with Mr. and Mrs. J. M. C. Miller. This was Mrs. Curtis' first visit to the town of Sandy, but she wants to come again.

Mayor Junker was a Portland visitor one day during the week, but the Mayor says he does not enjoy riding to the city over the roads as they are now.

Mrs. C. L. Clinefelter spent a few days of the week visiting in Portland while her "hubby" is at work at Marmot.

Adolph Dahrens came home for the week end and attended the dance, but had to keep home fire burning for his family have not returned from their visit.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Perret, Miss Hazel Beers, Miss Mildred Bosholm, Henry Quam and Miss Margaret Miller were guests at the social hour of the Rebekah lodge after the business session was over. They all enjoyed the "squares." Harry Reed did the calling in the characteristic manner which makes "Harry" so popular.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Perret were Portland visitors one day recently.

A negro play, and "Jiggs and Maggie" (Andy Anderson and Lena Jonsrud) will be on the program at the next Cherryville literary society.

And now a good debater wants some one to start a debating society in Sandy. He insists that the community needs the same, and will need any good speaker in debate.

Dr. Julius Sturke was sick with a cold last Sunday and "laid up." He was missed at the community musical program.

The new male quartet consisting of Dr. Sture, R. S. Smith, D. F. Esson and C. L. Clinefelter could not keep their engagement to sing Sunday evening because of Sture being sick, Esson having a "cold in his voice" and "Blondie" having to leave for Brightwood Sunday night.

Miss Josephine and Miss Bernice Dixon remained in town over Sunday night and attended the musical at the church.

The Boring Auto Truck Co. has two trucks gathering up cream in the Boring-Powell Valley section, which they haul to Portland for twenty-five cents per can, (large size). Some milk is also hauled.

The Junker family boarded Miss Myrtle Muir when she taught school here about ten years ago, and were much interested in her wedding last week to Leigh Barber, whom they also know.

Frank Christiansen, Jr., and Arthur Frace were both out of school Monday because of colds.

Mrs. Mattings was feeling worse again Sunday evening and Mr. Mattings came up town at night to get medicine for her.

Mrs. J. M. C. Miller went to Portland to attend the Muir-Barber wedding last week, which was a simple home wedding, but very beautiful ceremony. The bride wore her mother's wedding gown ## of white satin and the groom used his mother's wedding ring in the ceremony.

The happy couple left for San Francisco the next day where Mr. Barber has a government position.

J. E. Hanneburg was in Portland last week and stopped at Sandy to attend Grange on his way home. Like others, he was afflicted with a cold.

William Mueller, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Mueller of Sandy was recently poisoned very badly from eating canned beans. Mueller took sudden ill and then his wife and children got sick from the same cause. They have all recovered.

Miss Hazel Beers was attended at the Fireman's dance by Raymond Ray of Salem, or "Red" as his friends call him. As soon as "Red" arrived Saturday evening he received a message to return as he was ordered out into the Cascades for some engineering work. He left at four o'clock in the morning and caught his train.

Charley Krebs and family were very much pleased last week when they moved in their new home at Deep Creek and their new neighbors walked in to give them a welcome surprise party. Two parties in so short a time by neighbors both "going and coming" speaks well for a family.

The literary society at Cherryville is progressing nicely and is proving both profitable and entertaining to the neighborhood. Mrs. Doll Bedenstein is president and Miss Olive Terrel secretary. The program leader is changed at each meeting. Mrs. Funk, Miss Lena Jonsrud and Miss Bernice Dixon have so far furnished the programs.

The next debate will be, "Resolved the state get more benefit out of the 1925 state fair at Portland."

Mrs. Buckley and Mrs. Church came out from Oregon City last Monday to look after the problems of the Albert Ridderbusch family.

Mrs. F. D. Eason and Mrs. J. C. Duke are the library committee of the Women's club and they made quick work of their duties connected with getting a circulating library started here by the state library. This should be a nucleus around which would gather a sentiment strong enough to finally develop into the building of a library for the town and surrounding section.

B. O. Boswell read seventy-five new meters for the first time last Monday which makes quite an addition to his collecting route. These new lights have been put in from the edge of Gresham along the Powell Valley road to Elliott's store, then out to the Lusted district. These new patrons are jubilant over having electric lights, and now the Pleasant Home residents are hoping their arrangements can be completed for a continuation of the wires to that vicinity.

SANDY SCHOOL NOTES

SANDY, Feb. 15.—Richard Maroney was out of school three days last week because of being sick with a severe cold.

Little Ruth Barnett has been quite sick the past week and was in bed several days.

The following little tots that were in the drill Sunday night surely did please the audience, and it would be fine to hear them often: Virginia Wolfe, Roberta Smith, Ellen Wolfe, Amanda Perret, Margaret Bell, and Albene Willis.

Dorothy Wolfe was sick in bed so could not be on the program Sunday night but will take part next time.

Miss Anna Jackson, teacher of the Brightwood school stopped in town Friday evening on her way to Portland to spend the week end. Miss Jackson is much interested in her school as is Miss Burke of the Welches' school and these teachers are making records equal to other sections of the county. They are also working for these districts to come into the Sandy Union high school.

J. Fred Connors, husband of Mrs. Florence Connors came out Saturday and remained until Monday morning. Mr. and Mrs. Connors attended the Fireman's dance.

Miss Elsie Lippold was a guest of the Duke family last Saturday and Sunday nights.

Dorothy Eason went home with her "pal" Hazel Dixon last Friday evening and enjoyed the Dixon home until Monday morning.

The Duncan boys have been sick with colds the past week and had to miss both school and Sunday school.

Little Arletha Proctor was not able to take her part in the Sunday night program as she had been sick several days.

The Sandy school district should take an invoice of the young folks that ought to be in high school and try to persuade them to go.

F. A. Proctor and Chas. Scharnke attended the Sandy Ridge school meeting last Saturday and were gratified that practically all those present were in favor of uniting with the union high school district.

There was a meeting of the Sandy grade board at the home of the clerk Monday evening.

Walter Krebs visited the grade school one day last week, and the chairman of the board, P. B. Gray was at the school grounds again Tuesday to look after a plan to handle the drainage from the pump.

Mrs. Buckley visited the Cherryville school from Friday till Monday of last week and stayed at the Cherryville hotel.

Clem Shaw has been out of school a good deal of late.

The Freshmen had a "Day" this week, some called it a "boob" day, and some called it "crazy" day anyway, it was an eventful day for every "Freshy" in the high school, and, who forgets the crazy dressing and stunts of the initiation? The "youngsters" were really quite modest this year in their requirements, however, and there were no scares nor shocks that brought terror to the hearts of the "tender" ones, but what a glorious time they had! Ice cream and cake "wound up" the stunts and the joy of Youth reigned supreme till the afternoon was done.

Six children from the Firwood and Bull Run schools will be selected from the fourth grade to hold a spelling match at the next Sandy Grange meeting.

Going to school is very popular in these days, even our druggist, R. E. Esson, who is also the newly elected Sandy postmaster is planning on going to a "Post Office" school in Portland soon for a week or so, which is a new requirement for a third class postmaster. This will be the first school of its kind ever held in Portland.

Little Phyllis Wolfe will remain at San Diego until May, as her aunt, Mary Christiansen of Gresham, will remain there till that time. Miss Christiansen is going to take a short term in college there.

Tiny Floyd Douglass said a piece almost as long as himself at the Grange the other day. He is a wonder at "learning." Margaret Bell also said a piece nicely, and baby Pauline also said a small piece.

Bernice Duncan had to go to bed Monday morning with a kind of gripply-flu cold like so many folks seem to be having.

James DeShazer, Firwood school clerk, had a letter from Miss Ruth Johnson saying she was getting much better—now she hoped she would soon be able to come out and take charge of her school work again.

Amanda Perret and Margaret Bell passed valentines around to all the Grange members at last meeting. The valentine box was a special feature enjoyed by the children and grown up, too.

Pearl Proctor was out of school the first of the week on account of the illness of her mother.

Alta Beers was out of school again last Monday. She went home to spend the week end.

Walter Dodson had his "troubles" on Monday and had to miss a day of school which hurts his feelings considerably.

Mildred Serber, niece of Mrs. F. P. Proctor went to her home at Troutdale to spend the week end but did not get back in time for H. S. Monday.

The high school devoted more than an hour Monday with exercises to honor the memory of Abraham Lincoln. Miss Miller told incidents of Lincoln's life that are out of the ordinary, and presented them in "a personal sort of way," that was spent some time singing, with Miss O. Myl. The student body also spent some time justly in the chorus work which proved inspirational.

And the thrills on St. Valentine's day! With a valentine box in which every student could drop his ideal sentiment verse, O My! O My! The student body gave prizes for the most artistic and the funniest valentine. "Thrills is thrills," whether expressed in the old-time language of "The roses are red, The violet's blue," or the modern "pome."

The Warren Wilkins' children of Firwood were out of school the past week because of being sick with colds.
