Canby High School

CANBY, Feb. 21.—Friday evening the state debate between Canby and Woodburn was held in the high school assembly room.

Our negative team, Dorothy Vaughan and Corwin Hein, debated at Woodburn against Homer Settlemeier and Violeta Jacobs.

We are very proud of the showing made by our school and believe much was gained by these contest even if we didn't win.

GLEE CLUB NOTES

Miss Eyre and Margaret Brown attended grand opera February 18 hearing "Madame Butterfly" and "Il Trovatore."

Mr. Lauer has changed our practice night from Wednesday to Monday.

The Glee Club made its second public appearance, Thursday evening, at the high school debate.

The Glee Club members are now learning "Kentucky Babe." We all hope to be able to sing it at the next appearance before the public.

SENIOR NOTES

Those attending the Valentine party at the M. E. church Tuesday evening were: Eleanor Lent, Pauline Raddatz, Mildred Henriksen, Eva Kraus, Violeta Ledford, Louis Lorenz, Noel Oathes and Charles Bates.

In English IV class one day Mrs. Cartledge read a detailed description of Sir Walter Scott and Lord Byron from a beautifully illustrated volume.

Myles Noble has been absent the last few days with a sore foot.

Louis and Cora reported on "The Prisoner of Chillon" Wednesday while the other members of the English class chose shorter poems of Lord Byron and reported on them.

Miss Eyre received several books from the state library to be used in American History. Some are good source books and others interesting stories connected with the period that we are studying.

JUNIOR LOCALS

Thelma Dodge, Katherine Hein, Ione Fletcher, Margaret Brown, Olga Hollenbach, Irene Smith, Hedwig Kraxhewer, Lorena Hornig and Wallace Dalen were present at the St. Valentine party at the M. E. church Tuesday night.

Joyce Sutherland was absent last week on account of illness.

The cold wave must have swept over the Juniors this week because of so many absences.

The Junior Civic class had a spasm of coughing Friday afternoon so that it was necessary to pass around the cough drops.

Margaret Brown attended the grand opera in Portland Saturday afternoon.

Ona Wheeler took in a show at the Hippodrome during the week end.

SOPHOMORE NOTES

MOVE TO RECALL PUBLIC SERVICE BODY IS STARTED

Definite announcement that an attempt will be made at the forthcoming election to recall the Public Service Commission and the appointment of a representative to carry on the organization work of the Tax Reduction League in Clackamas county.

Henry Theissen of Milwaukie, was appointed representative of the Tax Reduction League for Clackamas county. J. C. Cooper, head of the league, spoke of the universal feeling which exists throughout the state against the present high taxes.

Higher education he classified as a luxury and gave the taxpayers the right to vote too much tax for school affairs. The remedy for this state of affairs was the formation of a club here from which a delegate would be selected to attend the convention to be held at Portland on March 20, he said.

R. G. Duncan, of Portland who is heading a petition to recall the Public Service commissioners stated that he had at present sufficient signatures to place on the ballot the name of Fred A. Williams and that in the case of Fred G. Butcher a further 9000 names are needed, which he hopes to secure in the near future. The other commissioner, Hylen H. Corey, would be taken care of in Eastern Oregon.

Judge Cross pointed out the benefits to be received from a taxpayer's tax conditions and would be a source of intelligent help to the county court in dealing with tax problems. He asked that the voters decide on some immediate action with reference to the recall of road bonds. Under present circumstances the county court was in a difficult situation in the matter of road work.

J. B. Brown, vice-president of the farmer's union endorsed the motion for a club as he foresaw that taxes would increase in the future as they had done in the past unless some combined move were made towards effecting a reduction.

C. E. Spence, who was delegate to the Agricultural conference at Chicago related briefly the work accomplished in dealing with the present and future problems of the farmer. The conference also its delegates were drawn from many other scenes of industry than farming had in his opinion helped, since it had placed the farmers viewpoint prominently before the public. Whilst supporting the tax league he showed at the same time that whereas only 25 to 40 per cent of the voters exercised the present right to 100 per cent considered it their right to register criticism.

Membership cards were issued to those desiring to join the tax reduction league at a cost of 25 cents each. A blank ballot was also handed out with a view to obtaining the opinion of the meetings as to what reductions they considered most desirable.

The meeting was sponsored by a weekly newspaper with its headquarters in Oregon City. H. H. Stalard, chairman of the Non-Partisan league for Oregon presided.

BRAKEMAN HURT WHEN FREIGHT CARS DERAIL

An open derail on a side track just north of the Southern Pacific depot, caused the derailment of two freight cars at 10:40 o'clock Wednesday morning.

W. Donaldson, a brakeman on southbound freight 227, was slightly injured.

The freight was backing some cars onto the siding when they were derailed. Two cars fell sideways off the track striking the steel stairway which leads up to the bluff from 8th street.

The steelwork was the only thing which prevented the cars from rolling over across Railroad avenue into the pressroom of the Enterprise building.

Donaldson was riding on top of one of the cars, was badly cut about the head when he was thrown to the ground. His injuries are not serious.
