Across the Pacific

From Oregon City to the Mysterious East
By E. E. B.

MANILA, P. I., Jan. 15.—(Special Correspondence Delayed) We leave tomorrow morning for Singapore on the Creolo Steamer, which arrived yesterday from San Francisco. This steamer was originally scheduled to sail from the States December 15, and the leaving date was retarded twice until December 22, otherwise we should not have had twelve days in Manila. However, it has been a very happy time, as Manila is similar, in some respects, to Bangkok, being in nearly the same latitude, with comparable topography and not especially different climatically.

Friday night we were dinner guests at the home of Justice Charles A. Johns came out to the islands last court. It was a family affair. Mr. Johns came out to the islands last September with his bride, who was Elizabeth Bush, once a teacher in the Oregon City high school, and with his son and daughter. The latter is a singer of note, while the son, a University of Oregon man, is connected with a mercantile firm here. Justice Johns, who resigned from the Oregon Supreme bench to take his present position, likes Manila.

Captain Charles Barclay appeared at the hotel Saturday morning and gave us a wonderful day, driving to Los Banos, a watering place on the coast, and then to Baguio, a beautiful city. Miles of bananas and sugar cane villages, naked children and good roads. We had tiffin overlooking the lake and then drove back to Manila, stopping to see a 300-year-old church at Los Pinas. In this edifice there is a famous organ, with bamboo pipes, the labor of many years by a Spanish padre, whose father was an organ builder in Spain. There are 954 pipes and duty bellows. The parish priest played for us. The instrument is somewhat battered, having suffered two earthquakes since its construction 103 years ago, but it is still mellow. We returned to the city in time to dress for dinner, being entertained at the Army and Navy club by Judge and Mrs. Crossfield. There were 40 guests, including Captain Barclay, Justice Johns and his family. After dinner the captain took us to Lerma park for a late supper. The place is popular, not so large as Santa Ana, but more attractive.

Sunday was a quiet day. We packed, Howard Strickler spent a part of the morning, we motored to Santa Mesa for dinner with the Kerbys, who start tomorrow for an outing in Northern Luzon, and in the evening Governor Ventura brought us the next books for the steamer. The next morning we are off. Mrs. Crossfield is a passenger, the Judge is at the pier with flowers for Mrs. Brodie, Howard and Ventura are down with candy for the kiddies and at nine o'clock we cast off and head down the coast for Singapore, a run of four days.

Manila has been kind. The changes since American occupation are remarkable. Around the walled city the mow has been filled in and a section of the ground is used as a municipal golf course. The Luneta has been extended and parks and boulevards mark the spots that were once mosquito breeding places.

Drive of Local Organization For Members and Financial Support to Cover Period of Six Days; Plans Are Laid.

COMMITTEES NAMED TO SUPERVISE WORK

Revamping of Entire System of Association Is Projected; Scope of Activity Enlarged.

The membership campaign and finance drive of the Oregon City Commercial Club will be officially launched for a six-day period on Monday, March 27. Committees to handle the work were appointed Wednesday and preliminary machinery was put in motion by Sam H. Clay, who has been selected as campaign manager.

The committee appointments are: Prospect—S. Stevens, M. D. La-tourrette and J. R. Humphrys. Organization—O. D. Eby, Dr. L. A. Morris and C. G. Miller. Arrangement—T. W. Sullivan, Clarence Parr and F. C. Burke. Publicity—Hal W. Hoss, F. J. Toose and W. W. Woodbeck.

The campaign here is to raise a fund of $7,000 for the years activities and is to include an entire reorganization of the commercial club. The system of organization, embodying the basis on which the American City Bureau is founded, will differ radically from the present plan. Eleven departments to handle all of the civic work which comes under the commercial club field of activity, are to be established. On some of these departments, each member of the organization will serve. Members of each individual department elect their own chairmen. These officers constitute the board of directors who in turn elect a president who is not included in the directorate.

The departments which will be established are not yet definitely outlined, although they will probably include wholesale trade extension, retail trade extension, education, publicity, conventions, industries, transportation, agriculture, city beautiful, good roads, and location of industries.

The prospect list for the coming campaign is to include all of the taxpayers in the city. Membership fees are to be according to ratings established by the prospect committee, the minimum to be $1 a month.

LODGE BACKS TREATY

WASHINGTON, March 8.—Senator Lodge today declared the senate must choose today the four-power Pacific pact, with navy limitations, and peace, or a renewal of the Anglo-Japanese alliance, unlimited naval competition and war.

In a speech urging ratification of the four-power Pacific pact, Lodge said its acceptance is the only means of ending the Anglo-Japanese alliance and of making possible the naval holiday provided for in the 5-5-3 treaty. Defeat of the treaty, Lodge said, would mean failure of the arms conference.

He left the inference that the United States could not ratify the naval limitation treaty if the four-power pact were not approved, because the Anglo-Japanese alliance then would confront a reduced American navy.
