

SANDY NEWS DEPARTMENT

MRS. J. M. C. MILLER Correspondent

Military Funeral Given Fallen Hero

SANDY, March 6.—A military funeral was held here yesterday at 2 p. m. for Edward Hoffman. The sermon was preached in the Lutheran church by Rev. F. Dohberful who had confirmed the young man at the same altar where his casket was placed. Friends filled the church and as many stood outside. Soldiers stood at attention as the casket was carried from the church by the following pall bearers: Rudolph Langer, Albert Schwartz, Henry Weeber, Wm. Carow, Walter Krebs and Mr. Matz, all of whom were close friends of the deceased.

The burial took place at the Sandy cemetery, and a squad of soldiers in charge of a corporal from Vancouver barracks fired three volleys over the grave as the American flag was removed and the casket was lowered into the grave. Rev. Dohberful read a prayer and a hymn was sung by the assembly.

Edward Hoffman was born in Minnesota and was 23 years, 8 months and 9 days old when he was killed. He was the eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. I. E. Hoffman, and leaves five sisters and four brothers.

He entered the service Oct. 5, 1917, spent one month at Camp Lewis after which he was transferred to Camp Mills, N. Y., and after another month's training was sent to France with the 161st infantry, and later was transferred to the 28th infantry, Company A, which was the famous first division that went into Chateau Thierry. He fell in action, July 19, 1918, the second time that his company attacked on the front and every officer in his company was either killed or wounded that day. Hoffman was the only veteran from this section that was killed during the war.

J. E. Metzger, of Gresham was the undertaker in charge and there were a number of handsome floral pieces which spoke of the esteem of friends for the departed.

Greenwood, Sandyridge and Deep Creek, all of which belong to the county high school district are paying 3.3 mills while our union high district pays 2.3 mills.

The county high school tuition fund is given in the 1921 tax rate sheet as $58,369.39, and the greater portion of this large sum goes into other counties to build up their schools.

Women Are Against Elaborate "Feeds"

SANDY, March 6.—The last meeting of the Sandy Women's club was held at the home of Mrs. A. W. Bell which was attended by 12 ladies. A resolution was passed to restrict serving of elaborate "feeds" at the club, and only one eatable and one drink is now allowed.

Those present were Mrs. Bell, Mrs. Paul Dunn, Mrs. Shelley, Mrs. Esson, Mrs. Duke, Mrs. W. Bosholm, Mrs. Sture, Mrs. Geo. Beers, Mrs. Marguerite Gray, Mrs. R. S. Smith, Mrs. A. Malari, and Mrs. Ed. F. Bruns.

Portlanders Visit At Rhododendron

SANDY, March 6.—Mr. and Mrs. Edward I. Kerr and family passed through Sandy last Sunday on their way to Karr-Ka-Kee Cottage at Rhododendron for a few days sojourn in the mountains. Mrs. Kerr's son, Carl F. Rochet, who was with them, has just returned from a trip to Rotterdam, Holland, and Dublin, Ireland.

The Kerrs made the trip out from Portland in a car and got stuck in the snow twice above the Ranger station where the snow is three feet deep. Otherwise the party had no trouble.

Dance Planned to Help Needy Family

SANDY, March 8.—There will be a benefit dance given under the direction of the Sandy Women's club on Saturday night, March 18 at the Odd Fellow's hall for a family in this vicinity. There are five children in the family, and the father has been ill and helpless for about a year and a half. A special meeting of the club will be held this week to arrange details.

Dover Man Is Hurt By Fall From Tree

SANDY, March 7.—A. J. Morrison of Dover is recovering slowly from a fall in which his knee cap was severely injured. Morrison was in Portland when he went to inspect the business boom there which has good promises, they say, but is not on in full blast.

The Reeds stopped at Corvallis over night to visit Frances and Alfred Meinig, and Ned and Harry Mitchell, all of whom will soon have their home coming, for Easter vacation time is drawing near.

REEDS VISIT TOLEDO

SANDY, March 6.—Mr. and Mrs. Harry Reed have returned from a short trip to Toledo, Benton county, where they went to inspect the business boom there which has good promises, they say, but is not on in full blast.

The Reeds stopped at Corvallis over night to visit Frances and Alfred Meinig, and Ned and Harry Mitchell, all of whom will soon have their home coming, for Easter vacation time is drawing near.

STEVE SOME WALKER

SANDY, March 7.—"Steve" Mitchell recently walked down from the mountains to visit his son John and family, a distance of 20 miles from 9 a. m. to 4 p. m. He also recently walked 15 miles on another trip. Everybody around here knows "Steve" and will be glad to hear he is in fine health, though his 84th birthday will arrive soon.

MRS. MEINIG ILL

SANDY, March 5.—Mrs. Frederick Meinig has been quite ill recently and has been suffering considerably with a dropsical condition. Dr. De Muralt of Portland was called out again and her condition was improved the first of the week.

DIRECTORS MEET

SANDY, March 5.—A meeting of the board of directors of the Federal Loan association was held here Saturday night to consider loan applications. F. Lohrmann presided, Chas. Krebs and L. Bartelmay of Deep Creek were among those present.

SANDY TAKES GAME

SANDY, March 6.—The basketball game at Orient was won by the Sandy boys, 19 to 11, which made the boys "holier" with joy. But Orient has good sports, one of the team was knocked out three times by being hurt in the neck, but would not stay out of the game.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to thank our friends for the beautiful floral offering at the burial of our son and brother, Max, those that donated the use of their cars, and the soldiers of Vancouver.

L. E. HOFFMAN AND FAMILY.

PHONE LINEMEN ACTIVE

SANDY, March 6.—Ten Pacific States linemen have been at the Sandy Office during the week bringing lines across from Eagle Creek to Sandy, and from here to taking them on to Zig Zag. This will be a great improvement for the mountain telephone service.

SANDY LOCALS

R. C. France is busy getting the frame up to the new Jonard house on the bluff road. The basement is completed. The Jonard family will be a big addition to these parts, and their new home will be a big improvement on the bluff road.

The Pleasant Home church is having an addition put on to the rear of the building.

Mr. Newman, of Dover, was down again Saturday with eggs to market.

Mrs. C. D. Purcell is feeling very much better again. She took suddenly ill last week before Mr. Purcell recovered. Mrs. Kate Schmitz came to the rescue and helped out in the post office.

Mrs. Fay Shank of Cherryville came down with the same sort of sickness "everybody" is having.

Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Duke, C. O. Duke and Mrs. J. M. G. Miller went to Portland on a shopping and business trip a few days ago.

Members of the Kreiger family at Dover were down sick with the flu at one time but are all about well again, and the children have started back to school.

F. L. Proctor took his turn at getting laid up last week and was not able to be out a portion of the time.

Harry Dodson is out again looking much better again. She took suddenly ill last week before Mr. Purcell recovered. Mrs. Kate Schmitz came to the rescue and helped out in the post office.

Mrs. C. A. Bower has been ailing this week. Mrs. Bowers is out again and thankful for it.

Mr. and Mrs. Charley Krebs and children were at the home of their mother, Mrs. Marie Krebs Sunday afternoon, after which they attended the funeral.

Mrs. Thomas Kubitzka went home with the Scharnke family from St. Michael's church Sunday to dinner.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Gesch were recent callers at the Miller home.

Mr. Kopper of Welches was still in bed at last report. He was having a siege of "grippish-flu."

Mrs. A. L. Deaton and Merle came over from Newberg last week to stay with the Hoffman home folks several days. Mr. Deaton came for the week end.

Mrs. Alice Scales took a trip to the city last week and attended to some business affairs.

Heinie Junker and Ego. Scharnke took a trip to Hood River recently where they attended a dance. Heinie said there are 25 to 30 feet of ice along parts of the highway, and the frozen falls were like diamonds in the sunlight, and "it is worth the drive up there just to see the flected colors on the ice."

However, business conditions in Hood River are about as dead as in Sandy.

A. C. Baumbach got down last week with a cold, grip or something of that nature and was not able to be out to the dance.

The John Mitchell family have all been down sick at once, and were just able to be up the first of the week. The neighbor boys have been exceptionally kind in coming in to do the chores, as many as six in a day come sometimes.

Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Dahrens and children moved over to Cameron and Housenick mill last week where Dahrens is employed. Mrs. Dahrens got tired of keeping the fires burning alone. Cyril Gray did the moving for them.

Mrs. C. L. Henson, Mrs. Johnson and

Brns pasture to the cemetery for the funeral Sunday because the main road was impassible.

Frank Schmitz is going to go to Newberg soon to buy a bunch of fancy young chick of the Rhode Island Red persuasion. Chickens are Frank's hobby.

Mr. and Mrs. August Bedenstein of Cherryville have both been ill and were both down at the same time with the flu. Mrs. Bedenstein took down one night and he the next evening, and neighbors had to be summoned to do the farm chores. Dr. Potkins was called and Mrs. Crael also helped out with kindly ministrations.

Dr. Botkins and Mrs. Botkins are spending the winter on their ranch. The doctor says he gets sick as soon as he goes to the city, and thinks there is no place like this country, and he is right.

Ernest Harris and his good natured father-in-law came home from the Garfield country to spend the week end and reported about the same amount of snow at Estacada as fell here.

Alf Bell has been driving the Scales truck for the past three or four weeks while King has been up in the mountains.

John Nagelle, a Swiss, who is staying at the hotel here has been trimming the Junker fruit trees the past week, which is Nagelle's professional work.

Joel Jaw who was in town from his Kelso ranch the other day says the last spell of cold, freezing weather killed a lot of the wheat. It had been very well up to two or three weeks ago.

R. C. France is busy getting the frame up to the new Jonard house on the bluff road. The basement is completed. The Jonard family will be a big addition to these parts, and their new home will be a big improvement on the bluff road.

The Pleasant Home church is having an addition put on to the rear of the building.

Mr. Newman, of Dover, was down again Saturday with eggs to market.

Mrs. C. D. Purcell is feeling very much better again. She took suddenly ill last week before Mr. Purcell recovered. Mrs. Kate Schmitz came to the rescue and helped out in the post office.

Mrs. Fay Shank of Cherryville came down with the same sort of sickness "everybody" is having.

Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Duke, C. O. Duke and Mrs. J. M. G. Miller went to Portland on a shopping and business trip a few days ago.

Members of the Kreiger family at Dover were down sick with the flu at one time but are all about well again, and the children have started back to school.

F. L. Proctor took his turn at getting laid up last week and was not able to be out a portion of the time.

Harry Dodson is out again looking much better again. She took suddenly ill last week before Mr. Purcell recovered. Mrs. Kate Schmitz came to the rescue and helped out in the post office.

Mrs. C. A. Bower has been ailing this week. Mrs. Bowers is out again and thankful for it.

Mr. and Mrs. Charley Krebs and children were at the home of their mother, Mrs. Marie Krebs Sunday afternoon, after which they attended the funeral.

Mrs. Thomas Kubitzka went home with the Scharnke family from St. Michael's church Sunday to dinner.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Gesch were recent callers at the Miller home.

Mr. Kopper of Welches was still in bed at last report. He was having a siege of "grippish-flu."

Mrs. A. L. Deaton and Merle came over from Newberg last week to stay with the Hoffman home folks several days. Mr. Deaton came for the week end.

Mrs. Alice Scales took a trip to the city last week and attended to some business affairs.

Heinie Junker and Ego. Scharnke took a trip to Hood River recently where they attended a dance. Heinie said there are 25 to 30 feet of ice along parts of the highway, and the frozen falls were like diamonds in the sunlight, and "it is worth the drive up there just to see the flected colors on the ice."

However, business conditions in Hood River are about as dead as in Sandy.

A. C. Baumbach got down last week with a cold, grip or something of that nature and was not able to be out to the dance.

The John Mitchell family have all been down sick at once, and were just able to be up the first of the week. The neighbor boys have been exceptionally kind in coming in to do the chores, as many as six in a day come sometimes.

Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Dahrens and children moved over to Cameron and Housenick mill last week where Dahrens is employed. Mrs. Dahrens got tired of keeping the fires burning alone. Cyril Gray did the moving for them.

Mrs. C. L. Henson, Mrs. Johnson and

Mrs. Stibard of Welches met with Mrs. Peterson at Rhododendron last week one day for a social time and will continue their meetings as a fancy work club.

Two daughters of D. L. Erdman of Deep Creek are still working in Portland.

J. S. Smith, Raymond Gray and Geo. Beers all went to Portland to enjoy themselves at a show one night recently.

Geo. Ten Eyck, a rancher of the Marmot country, was in town recently.

August Hoernicke is a good scout, he rode on horseback to Cherryville, both Saturday and Sunday mornings to see his sister-in-law, Mrs. Douglas, as Mrs. Hoernicke was not able to take such a strenuous trip.

Mrs. F. D. Eason was surprised by meeting her father and mother on the street while in town last week. They had just arrived from San Francisco, so came on home with Mr. and Mrs. Eason for a few days visit. They expect to locate in Portland.

Mrs. Ed Sitz of Sandyridge dropped in at the Miller home after church and remained for Sunday dinner, attending the funeral in the afternoon.

A. Aschoff of Marmot was in Sandy last Sunday and attended the funeral.

Mrs. E. Podda has surely been a Good Samaritan the past week in looking after her sick neighbors.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Shipley were out from Gresham visiting at the home of R. C. Shipley and wife for a few days during the week.

Charley Bartelmay was over from Eastern Oregon last week to finish up some business affairs at Deep Creek and called on his old neighbors.

Miss Clara Meinig has been having a very bad cold, and with the care of her mother and being up at night she almost got down herself, but her cold is better again.

Carl Alt was home for the week end from his rock work at Garfield.

The bobbed hair style has hit Sandy with a "bang," and the hair is not only bobbed but banged! Some look "real cute," but O my! the trouble in store when the sty's goes out.

Mrs. Thomas Hagas was called out on a nursing case near Troutdale about a week ago, and got up in the middle of the night to go.

Mrs. John Maroney got up for the first time the first of the week. Mrs. Maroney still has a bad cough and will have to stay in awhile yet.

Monroe Weist is going to entertain his neighbors with a dancing party Saturday night. Weist has been making some changes in his house and has a new floor and this party will be a "regular" housewarming.

J. H. Weeber walked to Sandy the other day regardless of snow and bad walking and, pioneer that he is, says he has seen Oregon winters as bad and even worse than this.

Miss Mary Scharnke and brother, Carl Scharnke went to Portland last Saturday, returning the same day.

Father Bonaventure was a guest of the Scharnke family over Saturday night, coming out on the Reliance stage.

A friend of the Powers family recently came from Portland to visit a few days and a certain young lady made a mistake and asked her if she were "Mrs. Carl Powers"—rather embarrassing, but Carl can take a joke.

Three surprise parties in one month is not "slow" for the Charley Krebs family. The last party was a "surprise" given on Otto Krebs in honor of his twenty-first birthday by some of the young people of Deep Creek and some of the Sandyridge boys. They played games all night, when a lunch was served. Those present besides the Krebs family were: The Erdman, Ritchey, Anderson and Hensen young people, also the "new school" "mum" of Deep Creek, and the Finger boys and Tom Macho of Sandyridge.

Last Friday evening the wind and rain storm ceased and in less than twenty minutes an inch of snow had fallen. About six inches more fell during the night. The snow melted considerably this Sunday night when it froze again. Eight inches fell at Zig Zag. This was a surprise snow, as everyone thought the day before that spring "had came," it had turned so much warmer. Slashings were burning in all directions and the air was smoky like the good old summer time.

There was a big fire in the logged off lands at Almes, but the fire was put out by the fire department.

A rousing program will be given at the community song service next Sunday night at 7:45 o'clock. The Sandy quartet will sing "Away Down South" and "I Cannot Sing the Old Songs."

Dr. Sture and P. T. Shelley are scheduled for solos, Hazel Beers will give a reading; a detet by Mrs. Miller and Dr. Sture; some children's numbers, and a few readings. Selections will be given and the congregational singing will be made a feature.

Dr. Alfred Williams and Ed. F. Bruns were Portland visitors the first of the week.

Rudolph Reddick went to Portland a few days ago to visit a friend from Montana.

Mr. Griffith of Cottrell district was in town a few days ago and Mr. Griffith says "ahead" with your high school plans, we are in the district and will stay with you.

The soldier squad from Vancouver were treated to a splendid dinner by Mr. Hoffman at Junker's Sunday p. m. after the funeral. The boys enjoyed their "spread" so much they said very nice things about the dinner and the courtesy shown them.

The entire Duncan family were in bed the first of the week with a species of the flu, or grip. They have surely had a large amount of sickness this winter.

Miss Lucile McCarter was out from Gresham to visit her friend Miss Hazel Beers of Sandy the last week end.

W. A. Proctor has been feeling under the weather for a week or so and was not equal to getting down to Oregon City as planned. Mrs. Proctor has not been getting her strength back very rapidly.

Bill Alt was down from Brightwood a few days ago.

Long distance and a number of local lines were out as a result of the wind storm last week.

Mrs. J. C. Duke, before getting well herself, has been caring for the neighbors who have been down sick.

Charley Krebs has not finished moving his farming apparatus from his old place, but keeps at it when the weather is not too bad.

P. T. Shelley received a business call to Hood River the first of the ## week but expects to return shortly. So many ask why the Lutheran church bell rings on Saturday evening. A member says it is to remind the members there will be service the next day. When it rings at noon, that tells the story there is to be a funeral the next day, and it tells the years of the departed also.

This section has been exceeding fortunate in having no fatal cases of illness so far, although every family has taken its turn with grip or flu. A great many deaths are occurring in the Portland hospitals from flu according to a Sandvite who came back from the city last week.

Mrs. Wm. Becker has returned from Portland where she spent a week nursing five Concordia College boys who were down sick with the flu. Mrs. Becker also stayed over a couple of days to visit friends before returning home.

Mrs. Wm. Becker and Mr. Hartwig were Sunday dinner guests at the home of Rev. and Mrs. F. Dohberful.

J. C. Duke had a birthday this week and he got a pair of suspenders for a present, and the following limerick went along with the package:

You're such a strong moral defender, I'm 'fraid you might burst a suspender, So, Jerry, be merry, And don't act contrary— Hitch 'em on to your best Sunday pants.

The Gilbert Jonard family have all been quite sick with an attack of what has called everybody else, but are all better.

The funeral of David B. Thomas of Bull Run was held at Portland Tuesday afternoon. Mr. Thomas was a resident in the Bull Run section for many years.

Peter Hia had a narrow escape from being gored by his bull recently when the animal took after him. He managed to get to the barn and got the door barely closed, the one foot was still outside, when "bang" went it's head against the door! Being defeated there the bull started for the house and "Happy" thought it was not best to argue with such an unreasonable creature and made his get-away up stairs. This bull is considered dangerous by the neighbors.

A. J. Ault of the Bluff road is clearing four acres of ground which he hopes to get in shape to plant in potatoes this spring.

SANDY SCHOOL NOTES

SANDY, March 6.—Although the Charley Krebs family moved to Deep Creek it was thought best not to change school for the children so they are finishing the year at Sandyridge.

Harold Krebs was out of school several days because of a severe illness of the flu type. He had to be out of school all last week. Harold is starting out fine in his high school work.

Harold Krebs was out of school several days the past two weeks because of sickness.

Wayne and Walter Duncan had dinner at the Miller home one evening while their mother was ill.

Walter Krebs put up the three new swing ropes in the play shed, which were purchased by the Parent Teacher, and these swings are delighting the hearts of the youngsters.

Tommy Scales is the only pupil in the Sandy school that wrote an essay in the prize contest offered by the Gresham State bank, and Tommy naturally would not feel badly if he won a prize. It was fine of him to try.

Glenn Loundree has just completed his course at the Y. M. C. A. in the automobile school and now wants to take up the electrical part of the work, and will do so as soon as he can. He is in love with his work there and has been doing splendidly.

Milton Meinig was suffering from a very bad cold the first of the week.

Mrs. A. Malar, grade principal took suddenly ill last Sunday and was not able to teach the first of the week so the board thought it best to dismiss school for a few days.

Bernice Duncan, after being out of school two weeks, started in again and in a few days was taken down with pneumonia and has been quite sick.

Miss Lippold was the happiest of mortals when she made her Salem stage on schedule Friday evening. She had a happy time with her loved home folks.

And Tommy Scales had to take his turn of getting sick too. He was lucky that school was not in progress. Kenneth is himself again.

There was no tardiness among the high school pupils during the past six weeks period.

The Dixon girls were welcomed back to high school again last Monday.

IN A LITTLE GIRL'S HAND BAG

There may be a kerchief—a powder puff—and all sorts of stuff too; but among the articles she will prize most highly and for which she will thank her mother most heartily in future years, is a

NEST EGG SAVING BANK

It is the foundation of habits of Thrift. From it she will acquire the habit of saving and of taking care of that saving in a systematic manner by depositing it in a safe bank on a Savings Account.

Little children's accounts are most welcome here, and are conducted with utmost courtesy and care. Children may with safety bring their Nest Egg Bank to this Bank to have its contents credited on a Savings Account.

A Nest Egg Bank is furnished free after a deposit of One Dollar has been made.

Call for a Nest Egg Bank at FIRST STATE BANK GRESHAM, OREGON.

week but expects to return shortly. So many ask why the Lutheran church bell rings on Saturday evening. A member says it is to remind the members there will be service the next day. When it rings at noon, that tells the story there is to be a funeral the next day, and it tells the years of the departed also.

This section has been exceeding fortunate in having no fatal cases of illness so far, although every family has taken its turn with grip or flu. A great many deaths are occurring in the Portland hospitals from flu according to a Sandvite who came back from the city last week.

Mrs. Wm. Becker has returned from Portland where she spent a week nursing five Concordia College boys who were down sick with the flu. Mrs. Becker also stayed over a couple of days to visit friends before returning home.

Mrs. Wm. Becker and Mr. Hartwig were Sunday dinner guests at the home of Rev. and Mrs. F. Dohberful.

J. C. Duke had a birthday this week and he got a pair of suspenders for a present, and the following limerick went along with the package:

You're such a strong moral defender, I'm 'fraid you might burst a suspender, So, Jerry, be merry, And don't act contrary— Hitch 'em on to your best Sunday pants.

The Gilbert Jonard family have all been quite sick with an attack of what has called everybody else, but are all better.

The funeral of David B. Thomas of Bull Run was held at Portland Tuesday afternoon. Mr. Thomas was a resident in the Bull Run section for many years.

Peter Hia had a narrow escape from being gored by his bull recently when the animal took after him. He managed to get to the barn and got the door barely closed, the one foot was still outside, when "bang" went it's head against the door! Being defeated there the bull started for the house and "Happy" thought it was not best to argue with such an unreasonable creature and made his get-away up stairs. This bull is considered dangerous by the neighbors.

A. J. Ault of the Bluff road is clearing four acres of ground which he hopes to get in shape to plant in potatoes this spring.

SANDY SCHOOL NOTES

SANDY, March 6.—Although the Charley Krebs family moved to Deep Creek it was thought best not to change school for the children so they are finishing the year at Sandyridge.

Harold Krebs was out of school several days because of a severe illness of the flu type. He had to be out of school all last week. Harold is starting out fine in his high school work.

Harold Krebs was out of school several days the past two weeks because of sickness.

Wayne and Walter Duncan had dinner at the Miller home one evening while their mother was ill.

Walter Krebs put up the three new swing ropes in the play shed, which were purchased by the Parent Teacher, and these swings are delighting the hearts of the youngsters.

Tommy Scales is the only pupil in the Sandy school that wrote an essay in the prize contest offered by the Gresham State bank, and Tommy naturally would not feel badly if he won a prize. It was fine of him to try.

Glenn Loundree has just completed his course at the Y. M. C. A. in the automobile school and now wants to take up the electrical part of the work, and will do so as soon as he can. He is in love with his work there and has been doing splendidly.

Milton Meinig was suffering from a very bad cold the first of the week.

Mrs. A. Malar, grade principal took suddenly ill last Sunday and was not able to teach the first of the week so the board thought it best to dismiss school for a few days.

Bernice Duncan, after being out of school two weeks, started in again and in a few days was taken down with pneumonia and has been quite sick.

Miss Lippold was the happiest of mortals when she made her Salem stage on schedule Friday evening. She had a happy time with her loved home folks.