

JENNINGS LODGE

MRS. HUGH ROBERTS, Correspondent

Mystery Social At Lodge Is Success

JENNINGS LODGE, Mar. 15.—A genuine community spirit prevailed at the Community church on Wednesday evening when about 200 neighbors enjoyed the monthly social, given by the Jennings Lodge Community Club.

Much credit is due to Mrs. R. L. Newcomb, Mrs. Edward Pearson, Miss Hart and Messrs. Hendry, Clemens and Quillette for the delightful frolic which both young and old entered into with a spirit and zest.

At the social hour the community folks attending received a buttonhole of the O. A. C. and U. of C. college colors, which designated whether you were on the Corvallis or Eugene university side. Each side choosing their contestants for the various stunts. This brought forth much merriment and as the winner of the different sides had gained points in the contests they were greeted by the college yells from their chosen sides.

The Theron orchestra gave a number of delightful selections and which were enthusiastically received. Many beautiful baskets more representing St. Patrick's hat and snuff box, and others suggestive of Ireland saluted the guests together with many others laden with beautiful flowers were auctioned of the contents of which were enjoyed at the tables with coffee.

One comfort was finished for the W. C. T. U. Childrens Farm Home at Corvallis. Mrs. G. I. Truitt led the devotion meeting.

The Guild women are to prepare the banquet for the coming Sunday school convention of Clackamas county, which convenes here on March 31st and April 1st and 2nd. Mrs. Deter is chairman of the banquet committee.

Each member has been asked to contribute two articles for the annual bazaar and to solicit one.

At the next regular meeting on March 22nd the funds from tea are to be used for the missionary cause.

Mrs. Babler is to be the hostess on March 22. Enjoying the delicious lunch were thirty women of the Community among them were Mesdames Warren Swart, R. L. Newcomb, Wm. Moritz, Geo. Gardner, Henry Babler, R. F. Deter, Harry Williams, Wilford Ross, Leonard Madden, Harry Williams, G. I. Truitt, H. J. Hooker, Ben Losey, Irvine Tagley, George Williams, Arthur Smith, A. B. Snider, J. W. Smith, Fred Brecher, Caroline Waterhouse, Ella McHargue, Meade Kennedy, Hugh Roberts, C. L. Smith, S. H. Griffith, Dan Jones, J. W. Dain, W. W. Woodbeck and Edith Blinestone.

The youngsters are much interested in baseball and have entered into the spirit of the playing with a zest as the baseball season opens games are scheduled for next month by both the first and second teams of the Jennings Lodge school.

The teachers have purchased new balls and bats with proceeds of entertainments given in Oregon City.

Mr. and Mrs. Dick Emmons who are registered at the Multnomah since their arrival from Alaska were dinner guests of H. H. and Mrs. Emmons at Stone Gables on Sunday.

The Junior Endeavors are progressing with their work under Mrs. Snider's leadership. Mary Rush led the devotional and they were favored with a visit from Mrs. Brown, the state superintendent, at their Sunday evening meeting.

Mrs. George Berry and Mrs. J. Burchard and little folks were luncheon guests of Mrs. Roucher or Concord on Wednesday last.

Mr. Green has made a number of improvements on his place east of Corvallis and the house has been newly painted which adds much to its attractiveness.

Mrs. M. S. Cain who just recently celebrated her 84th birthday anniversary has been ill during the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Holloway are guests of the Ward family, who they entertained a few friends at whilst at their Portland home on Tuesday evening.

A number of our people are taking advantage of the popular lectures and musicals which are being given by well known talent in Portland. Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Jennings attended the Lawson lectures recently and some of our well known lodge plans will hear Gowdsky's master pianist on Wednesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Maple will return to Jennings Lodge on April 1st after spending the winter in Los Angeles.

Mrs. Ross and Mrs. Jerry Madden spent Friday with Mrs. Booth, where the latter is recuperating at the home of her aunt.

Mrs. Adeline Ingalls who was injured in a fall some time ago has fully recovered. Miss Ingalls a grand

Lodge Votes Strong For Water District

JENNINGS LODGE, Mar. 15.—The water election here carried by a large vote, 182 votes being cast with 136 for and 46 against if the reports from other districts are in proportion to the election here the result is the formation of a water district known as Oak Lodge and including the territory from Glen Echo to Evergreen, and the Oatfield road and Willamette River. The territory has a valuation of more than a million dollars and with a ten mill will have a $100,000 bonding power.

P-T. Association of Lodge Holds Meeting

JENNINGS LODGE, Mar. 15.—The Parent Teachers Association, had a splendid attendance at its regular meeting on Friday last. H. G. Starn weather spoke interestingly on the proposed new water district which is known as the Oak Lodge water district. A straw vote was taken 43 favoring the forming of prosed district and one against.

The hot lunchea are to be discontinued and the election of officers is to be held in April. Mrs. Brecher and Mrs. Randall are to be the nominating committee.

A number of new members have been added to the membership roll. Mrs. MacDonalds pupils were the successful contestants and were awarded the prize.

It was voted to give up the Whitney Boys Chorus and organize a boys and girls chorus and to take up the rudiments of music.

Refreshments were served which consisted of delicious cake and coffee. Mesdames John Roberts, Oran Randall, Minnie Altman and R. G. Thompson were the hostess for the affair.

Neat Sum Realized At Grace Guild Tea

JENNINGS LODGE, Mar. 15.—The members of the Grace Guild were delightedly pleased with the proceeds which convenes here on March 31st Wednesday of last week. Mesdames Woodbeck and Blinestone were the hostesses for the occasion.

One comfort was finished for the W. C. T. U. Childrens Farm Home at Corvallis. Mrs. G. I. Truitt led the devotion meeting.

The Guild women are to prepare the banquet for the coming Sunday school convention of Clackamas county, which convenes here on March 31st and April 1st and 2nd. Mrs. Deter is chairman of the banquet committee.

Each member has been asked to contribute two articles for the annual bazaar and to solicit one.

At the next regular meeting on March 22nd the funds from tea are to be used for the missionary cause.

Mrs. Babler is to be the hostess on March 22. Enjoying the delicious lunch were thirty women of the Community among them were Mesdames Warren Swart, R. L. Newcomb, Wm. Moritz, Geo. Gardner, Henry Babler, R. F. Deter, Harry Williams, Wilford Ross, Leonard Madden, Harry Williams, G. I. Truitt, H. J. Hooker, Ben Losey, Irvine Tagley, George Williams, Arthur Smith, A. B. Snider, J. W. Smith, Fred Brecher, Caroline Waterhouse, Ella McHargue, Meade Kennedy, Hugh Roberts, C. L. Smith, S. H. Griffith, Dan Jones, J. W. Dain, W. W. Woodbeck and Edith Blinestone.

The youngsters are much interested in baseball and have entered into the spirit of the playing with a zest as the baseball season opens games are scheduled for next month by both the first and second teams of the Jennings Lodge school.

The teachers have purchased new balls and bats with proceeds of entertainments given in Oregon City.

Mr. and Mrs. Dick Emmons who are registered at the Multnomah since their arrival from Alaska were dinner guests of H. H. and Mrs. Emmons at Stone Gables on Sunday.

The Junior Endeavors are progressing with their work under Mrs. Snider's leadership. Mary Rush led the devotional and they were favored with a visit from Mrs. Brown, the state superintendent, at their Sunday evening meeting.

Mrs. George Berry and Mrs. J. Burchard and little folks were luncheon guests of Mrs. Roucher or Concord on Wednesday last.

Mr. Green has made a number of improvements on his place east of Corvallis and the house has been newly painted which adds much to its attractiveness.

Mrs. M. S. Cain who just recently celebrated her 84th birthday anniversary has been ill during the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Holloway are guests of the Ward family, who they entertained a few friends at whilst at their Portland home on Tuesday evening.

A number of our people are taking advantage of the popular lectures and musicals which are being given by well known talent in Portland. Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Jennings attended the Lawson lectures recently and some of our well known lodge plans will hear Gowdsky's master pianist on Wednesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Maple will return to Jennings Lodge on April 1st after spending the winter in Los Angeles.

Mrs. Ross and Mrs. Jerry Madden spent Friday with Mrs. Booth, where the latter is recuperating at the home of her aunt.

Mrs. Adeline Ingalls who was injured in a fall some time ago has fully recovered. Miss Ingalls a grand daughter of Hood River is making her home with her. Mrs. Allen is planning a visit to her daughter Mrs. Edith Blinestone, Mrs. Allen has been assisting in the Alpha Rho at Corvallis the past month. Her friends will be glad to see her. She will return again at the beginning of the spring semester.

Portland Seed Co. Tract Is Platted

JENNINGS LODGE, Mar. 15.—Pgytag-Meeds Co. of Gladstone has just closed a deal for the purchase of the five acre here known as the Portland Seed Co. tract. This suburban property is on the west side of the P. R. L. & P. Co. electric line and is admirably located for home sites. The surveyors were here during the week and its to be platted by this real estate company and offered for sale as home sites of half acre tracts.

State Nurse Visits At Jennings Lodge

JENNINGS LODGE, Mar. 15.—Among the visitors recently at the Wm. Cook home was Miss D. L. Mulen a nurse at the state hospital. She has been a house guest for a week before returning to her home in Indianapolis after spending three years in Oregon.

Frank Rogers of Salem spent Sunday with the Cook family.

TRAFFIC COP NAMED
JENNINGS LODGE, Mar. 15.—T. A. Rafferty of Salem, chief inspector of the state motor vehicle department, has announced the appointment of Flore Brown of this place as special traffic officer for Clackamas and Northern Marion counties.

Mr. Brown and family came here a few months ago and are pleasantly located in a cottage on the river and was formerly connected with the Pacific Highway garage in Oregon City.

JENNINGS LODGE LOCALS
JENNINGS LODGE, Mar. 15.—The Tagley family have decided to go to Minnesota on a visit. They will leave their property here and on returning to the west will take up their residence in Portland. The summer months will be spent in Bernedji, Minnesota, the former home of the Tagley family.

Mrs. W. L. Blinestone is the hostess this week for the Wednesday luncheon club at her home in one of the Hull Ave. apartments.

Mrs. Burton of Chicago accompanied her daughter Mrs. Olive Robbins when she returned from the Middle West on Saturday. Mrs. Burton expects to spend the summer in Oregon.

Mrs. R. L. Newcomb entertained Miss Mildred Farrington and Miss Ruby Archambeau of Portland and Miss Leah Buckingham of Milford, Connecticut, at luncheon on Saturday March 4th. Miss Leah Buckingham is the house guest of Miss Archambeau.

Leo Cook and Ernest Roeth, who belong to the Milwaukee unit of the Whitney Boys' Chorus, sang at the White Temple on Sunday.

Mrs. M. D. Porch and Mrs. M. J. Brown and two children of Portland were Sunday visitors of Mrs. M. L. Bunn. The Bunn family are recent arrivals from Oregon City and are located in their new home on Meldrum Ave.

Mr. Scofield of Sellwood has purchased acreage and taken up his residence here.

Irene Show of Montavilla is making her home with Mrs. Freda Nordstrom and is attending school here being a member of the 8th grade.

Mrs. G. I. Truitt and nephew Martin Cain were business shoppers at the county seat on Saturday.

The orchestra, under the direction of Mr. Thereaux is progressing nicely. Several new members have joined and good interest is shown.

The program which will be given at the school house on Friday evening March 17th, is being looked forward to with much pleasure. A small admission of 10 cents will be charged which will be used for library and play grounds.

Mrs. Freda Nordstrom and son Harry and Miss Irene Snow spent Sunday with the Herman Nordstrom family at Montavilla.

Mrs. Henry Davis spent Sunday with her daughter Miss Laura Davis in Portland.

Mr. Cook of this place and Mr. Buckles of Oregon City have built twelve brooders for the R. E. Butler poultry man.

Mr. and Mrs. Dick Emmons who are registered at the Multnomah since their arrival from Alaska were dinner guests of H. H. and Mrs. Emmons at Stone Gables on Sunday.

The Junior Endeavors are progressing with their work under Mrs. Snider's leadership. Mary Rush led the devotional and they were favored with a visit from Mrs. Brown, the state superintendent, at their Sunday evening meeting.

Mrs. George Berry and Mrs. J. Burchard and little folks were luncheon guests of Mrs. Roucher or Concord on Wednesday last.

Mr. Green has made a number of improvements on his place east of Corvallis and the house has been newly painted which adds much to its attractiveness.

Mrs. M. S. Cain who just recently celebrated her 84th birthday anniversary has been ill during the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Holloway are guests of the Ward family, who they entertained a few friends at whilst at their Portland home on Tuesday evening.

A number of our people are taking advantage of the popular lectures and musicals which are being given by well known talent in Portland. Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Jennings attended the Lawson lectures recently and some of our well known lodge plans will hear Gowdsky's master pianist on Wednesday evening.

daughter of Hood River is making her home with her. Mrs. Allen is planning a visit to her daughter Mrs. Edith Blinestone, Mrs. Allen has been assisting in the Alpha Rho at Corvallis the past month. Her friends will be glad to see her. She will return again at the beginning of the spring semester.

Strikes Opposed In Grange Resolution

OSWEGO, March 14.—On receipt of a letter from the Master of the National Grange urging action of authorizing granges protesting the proposed coal and railroad strikes Oswego grange passed the following resolution:

Since it seems possible that a coal strike will take place in near future and if it does the prosperity and well being of millions will cease and since it seems probable a railroad strike will come which will mean farmers' products remaining unsold and spoiling in their barns.

That Oswego Grange at its regular meeting March 11, 1922 firmly protests these strikes, and also oppose any strikes that may be in future perpetrate since such are barbarous ways of adjusting matters and cause innocent ones to suffer and.

Be it further resolved: That Oswego Grange strongly favors arbitration in these matters in the future.

And be it further resolved: That a copy of these resolutions be published in the papers of county and state and official grange papers.

Oswego Rebekahs Win Lodge Prizes

OSWEGO, March 13.—The members of Dena Rebekah Lodge No. 71 attended the fifteenth annual meeting of district convention Number 1, held in Portland on Friday February 24. The members took part in exemplifying some of the work for which they received special mention from the president and secretary of the Rebekah assembly of Oregon. Prizes were awarded to noble grands and vice-grands, giving the unwritten word letter perfect and Sister Effie Whitten, competing with fifteen other lodges, carried home the prize, being the only one of the vice grands giving the word perfect. Dena Lodge will be host to the convention next year with Sister Kathryn Boyd as chairman; Sister Effie Whitten will be warden and Sister Lizzie Davis on the executive committee. The other officers will be from Portland.

Former Oswego Man Dies In Portland

OSWEGO, March 13.—Louis Kiser, one of the Southern Pacific's railroad men and a former resident of Oswego, passed away at his home Saturday evening. Funeral services were held at McTeel & Heirs parlors 16th and Everett, later taken to St. Philips Nervis church, where requiem mass was offered. Interment was in Mount Calvary cemetery. Mr. Kiser was well known to all of the Oswego people, and had many friends. Besides a wife and one son, Walter Kiser, and daughter, Mrs. Walter J. O'Donald he leaves a mother, Mrs. Zeale Kiser and one sister, Mamie White, to mourn him. The deceased was 53 years old and made his home in Portland. Friends extend their sympathy to the mother and family.

Popular Oswego Couple Married

OSWEGO, March 13.—Miss Mary Pymbroocke, Oswego's former postmistress, and Lester L. Savage both popular Oswego people, were united in marriage at Vancouver, Wash. Miss Pymbroocke is the daughter of a prominent retired farmer of this district. Mr. Savage is the local representative of the Peace and a world war veteran. He came here shortly after the war and made many friends, later managing the Oswego baseball team, which had a very successful season under his management; in 1920. Recently Mr. Savage built three cottages in old town. The young couple will make their home in one of these.

COUNCIL HAS SESSION

OSWEGO, March 13.—Last Thursday's session of the Oswego city council was a fairly busy one. An ordinance was passed to change and establish a permanent grade on D avenue between First and Second streets. The February report of Dr. Warren L. Cameron, city health officer, was read and placed on file. A permit was granted the Oregon Iron & Steel company to clear all trees and brush on North street from A to G avenue. The company is planning several new buildings this summer.

CLUB HONORS MEMBER

OSWEGO, March 13.—The Wednesday Afternoon 500 club met at the I. O. O. F. hall, in addition to the usual card playing and good time the club honored Mrs. Albert Rosentrotter as the day was her birthday. Many gifts and a large birthday cake decorated with candles were received by the honoree. At the luncheon table decorated with spring colors, places were laid for Mrs. Rosentrotter, Mrs. J. W. Bickner, Mrs. Henry Borghorst, Mrs. Fred Steffens, Mrs. John Davis, Mrs. Walter Wessling, Mrs. Fred Normand, Mrs. Paul Harbaugh, Mrs. George Thomas, Mrs. Robert Fulton, Mrs. William Weightman, Mrs. Carl Bethke, Mrs. George Griffey, Mrs. George Purdy, Mrs. I. A. Lord, Mrs. Sumption and Mrs. Curtis Merrick and daughter, Nija. The first prize was won by Mrs. Lord. Mrs. Fulton won second, Mrs. Borghorst and Mrs. Griffey took consolation and Mrs. Bickner took the booby prize.

CARD CLUB MEETS

OSWEGO, March 13.—The evening 500 club met at the home of Mrs. Sumptions in Portland Saturday evening with Mr. and Mrs. I. A. Lord as hosts. Those attending the Jolly affair were Mr. and Mrs. H. Borghorst, Mr. and Mrs. F. Steffens, Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Fulton, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Bethke, Mr. and Mrs. V. Centers, Mr. and

STRIKE ACTION SCOUTED

WASHINGTON, March 13.—Any conference between miners and operators to avert the threatened mine strike April 1 must be voluntary, Secretary of Labor Davis made plain today.

The federal government cannot and will not resort to court action to avert the strike, Davis told the United Press.

If the strike comes, the government can ask injunctions only when the public begins to suffer through a coal shortage, he said.

OSWEGO ITEMS

Mrs. Cora Bullock

Strikes Opposed In Grange Resolution

OSWEGO, March 14.—On receipt of a letter from the Master of the National Grange urging action of authorizing granges protesting the proposed coal and railroad strikes Oswego grange passed the following resolution:

Since it seems possible that a coal strike will take place in near future and if it does the prosperity and well being of millions will cease and since it seems probable a railroad strike will come which will mean farmers' products remaining unsold and spoiling in their barns.

That Oswego Grange at its regular meeting March 11, 1922 firmly protests these strikes, and also oppose any strikes that may be in future perpetrate since such are barbarous ways of adjusting matters and cause innocent ones to suffer and.

Be it further resolved: That Oswego Grange strongly favors arbitration in these matters in the future.

And be it further resolved: That a copy of these resolutions be published in the papers of county and state and official grange papers.

Oswego Rebekahs Win Lodge Prizes

OSWEGO, March 13.—The members of Dena Rebekah Lodge No. 71 attended the fifteenth annual meeting of district convention Number 1, held in Portland on Friday February 24. The members took part in exemplifying some of the work for which they received special mention from the president and secretary of the Rebekah assembly of Oregon. Prizes were awarded to noble grands and vice-grands, giving the unwritten word letter perfect and Sister Effie Whitten, competing with fifteen other lodges, carried home the prize, being the only one of the vice grands giving the word perfect. Dena Lodge will be host to the convention next year with Sister Kathryn Boyd as chairman; Sister Effie Whitten will be warden and Sister Lizzie Davis on the executive committee. The other officers will be from Portland.

Former Oswego Man Dies In Portland

OSWEGO, March 13.—Louis Kiser, one of the Southern Pacific's railroad men and a former resident of Oswego, passed away at his home Saturday evening. Funeral services were held at McTeel & Heirs parlors 16th and Everett, later taken to St. Philips Nervis church, where requiem mass was offered. Interment was in Mount Calvary cemetery. Mr. Kiser was well known to all of the Oswego people, and had many friends. Besides a wife and one son, Walter Kiser, and daughter, Mrs. Walter J. O'Donald he leaves a mother, Mrs. Zeale Kiser and one sister, Mamie White, to mourn him. The deceased was 53 years old and made his home in Portland. Friends extend their sympathy to the mother and family.

Popular Oswego Couple Married

OSWEGO, March 13.—Miss Mary Pymbroocke, Oswego's former postmistress, and Lester L. Savage both popular Oswego people, were united in marriage at Vancouver, Wash. Miss Pymbroocke is the daughter of a prominent retired farmer of this district. Mr. Savage is the local representative of the Peace and a world war veteran. He came here shortly after the war and made many friends, later managing the Oswego baseball team, which had a very successful season under his management; in 1920. Recently Mr. Savage built three cottages in old town. The young couple will make their home in one of these.

COUNCIL HAS SESSION

OSWEGO, March 13.—Last Thursday's session of the Oswego city council was a fairly busy one. An ordinance was passed to change and establish a permanent grade on D avenue between First and Second streets. The February report of Dr. Warren L. Cameron, city health officer, was read and placed on file. A permit was granted the Oregon Iron & Steel company to clear all trees and brush on North street from A to G avenue. The company is planning several new buildings this summer.

CLUB HONORS MEMBER

OSWEGO, March 13.—The Wednesday Afternoon 500 club met at the I. O. O. F. hall, in addition to the usual card playing and good time the club honored Mrs. Albert Rosentrotter as the day was her birthday. Many gifts and a large birthday cake decorated with candles were received by the honoree. At the luncheon table decorated with spring colors, places were laid for Mrs. Rosentrotter, Mrs. J. W. Bickner, Mrs. Henry Borghorst, Mrs. Fred Steffens, Mrs. John Davis, Mrs. Walter Wessling, Mrs. Fred Normand, Mrs. Paul Harbaugh, Mrs. George Thomas, Mrs. Robert Fulton, Mrs. William Weightman, Mrs. Carl Bethke, Mrs. George Griffey, Mrs. George Purdy, Mrs. I. A. Lord, Mrs. Sumption and Mrs. Curtis Merrick and daughter, Nija. The first prize was won by Mrs. Lord. Mrs. Fulton won second, Mrs. Borghorst and Mrs. Griffey took consolation and Mrs. Bickner took the booby prize.

CARD CLUB MEETS

OSWEGO, March 13.—The evening 500 club met at the home of Mrs. Sumptions in Portland Saturday evening with Mr. and Mrs. I. A. Lord as hosts. Those attending the Jolly affair were Mr. and Mrs. H. Borghorst, Mr. and Mrs. F. Steffens, Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Fulton, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Bethke, Mr. and Mrs. V. Centers, Mr. and

OSWEGO ITEMS

Mrs. G. Emrich, Mr. and Mrs. G. S. Bullock, Mr. and Mrs. J. Savage, Mr. and Mrs. Lester Savage, Mrs. Centers carried away first prize, Mrs. Sumption second, Mrs. Bethke, the booby prize, Mrs. Steffens first gentleman's prize, George Emrich second prize, and Mr. Borghorst the booby prize. A delicious luncheon was enjoyed.

Oswego Brevities

OSWEGO, March 13.—Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Worthington and Mr. and Mrs. Glen Zimmerman spent Saturday in Portland.

Edwin Erickson was home to visit his parents here Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Pete Emmott spent Saturday in Portland visiting Mr. and Mrs. Rose, Mr. Emmott's mother.

Lemonts Bullock of Salem is the guest of his uncle G. S. Bullock this week.

Mr. J. K. Worthington visited here on Tuesday at Willamette Thursday and Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. George Thomas were the guests of the Yates family Sunday evening.

Mrs. J. W. Bickner was the guest of Mrs. William Weightman for luncheon on Tuesday afternoon.

Lew Smoke is sporting a new sedan. Raymond McKean has purchased a new car.

Mr. Zellar entertained the R. D. Fulton family at dinner Friday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. James Duncan and children have moved to Portland.

On Sunday evening a number of friends dropped in to surprise Mr. and Mrs. Joe Bickner. The table was set for Mr. and Mrs. Louis Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Rosentrotter, Mr. and Mrs. Merrick, Mrs. W. G. Weightman, Mr. and Mrs. Bickner, Ernest Zellar and John Merrick.

Mrs. Jessie Haines is better after a few weeks with a bad spell of the grip.

Miss Iva Brandt was surprised by her many friends on her birthday which was Thursday. A good time was had.

Mr. and Mrs. Glen Zimmerman and Mr. and Mrs. Riemers greatly surprised Mrs. Al Brandt last Monday evening when they looked a grand birthday dinner and carried it in to the Brandt home.

On Saturday evening the Oswego Community Club will give a dance and card party in the grange hall. Tickets are on sale at several of the stores.

OAK GROVE County Federation Work Is Endorsed

OAK GROVE, March 16.—The Social Service Club met last Thursday with Mrs. E. Fyroman in Milwaukie. After the regular business a paper on the Southern home and home life was enjoyed being presented by Mrs. Daisy Davenport. The club voted to urge further promotion of the work of the Clackamas County Federation of Woman's Clubs.

An old-fashioned spelling bee was a feature of the entertainment recently given by the Parent Teachers association for a get-together meeting.

Mrs. Irene H. Stevens is reported as being ill in Los Angeles where she and Mr. Stevens have been spending the winter.

Mrs. F. Lennard is able to be about after her recent illness with grip which she contracted while caring for Mr. Lennard who was quite ill with the disease.

Another dance was given last Saturday night by community club and one of the best of the season. Door receipts were large. All had a good time.

The helpers club met Tuesday for regular business and a social hour.

Mrs. E. K. Matthews was a guest and speaker at a luncheon of the Oswego women's club in Oswego last Wednesday.

Mrs. B. E. Phillips was delayed in starting to her old home in Florida because of illness with the grip.

Mrs. Hazel Merriman of Chicago, Ill., returned last week to her home after several weeks with relatives here and at other points in Oregon.

SANDY

(Continued from Page 6.)

up the longest in the spelling contest. The Bull Run school has some splendid spellers! And the singing of this bunch of youngsters was something to be proud of.

Miss Elsie Lippold was a welcome member of the Miller household over last Friday night. Miss Lippold was a Sunday visitor at the Baumbach home, and enjoyed the Sunday dinner at this home.

Miss Margaret Miller went to her Portland home to spend the week end and was entertained by friends while in the city.

Ruth DeShazer was evidently a little too ambitious for she took down sick the second time and had to miss more school to her regret.

Miss Miller enjoyed an evening at the Rebekah lodge social hour and was the guest of Mrs. J. C. Duke.

Ruth Esson was feeling fine Sunday morning when she got up but a little later a bilious attack came on and she was quite a sick "grille" and could not attend school the first of the week.

Miss Elizabeth Canning was home for two weeks because of illness and a supply teacher was employed at her school in Portland.

Bertha Hoffman, a high school senior writes very practical themes in her English work. She chose for the last theme "A Free Campground," and among other things said: "Many tourists while passing through Sandy next summer will ask 'Where is your camping ground? What shall we say? Won't we be ashamed to say 'we haven't' any' after we have succeeded in getting the Loop highway located here?"

This is an important question