

SANDY NEWS DEPARTMENT

MRS. J. M. C. MILLER Correspondent

Sandy Mills Are Busy For Present

SANDY, March 29.—The Bruns mill began running full blast this week and will have tie contracts to last until April 1, but have small hope of other contracts coming soon. The ties are hauled to Cottrell.

Bartsch Bros. have installed a lath mill at the Bruns plant and will use up slabs into a finished lath product. They began running last week and will soon be turning out 10,000 lath daily. This is the second lath mill ever started in Sandy vicinity.

DANCE APRIL 8

SANDY, March 29.—The benefit dance under the direction of the Sandy Women's club will be given Saturday night April 8 instead of April 18 at the Odd Fellow's hall and a fine time is anticipated.

ARM BROKEN BY FALL

SANDY, March 27.—Kenneth Proctor, son of Commissioner W. A. Proctor, had the misfortune to fall and break his arm recently while playing at school. Dr. W. H. Thompson set the injured arm.

SANDY LOCALS

SANDY, March 28.—C. L. Hensen of Zig Zag was a visitor in Sandy last week, coming down to attend the Masonic meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. F. D. Eason were Portland visitors Saturday and Sunday and attended the opera "Thais" on Saturday afternoon.

Chas. Scharnke is "mussing" the F. A. Proctor home all up this week but Proctor will have newly papered walls as the result of his stirring around.

Mrs. Miller enjoyed a luncheon with Mrs. Eason a few days ago.

Mrs. Tom Hasam got home the other night at 12 o'clock from a case at Troutdale and was called to Bull Run early the next morning.

Mrs. E. L. Power is going to Portland soon to remain for a month or so with her daughter, Mrs. Steinhilber. A woman and her son will keep house at the Power ranch while Mrs. Power is away.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Eason and Mary Elizabeth were out Sunday and spent the afternoon and evening at the R. E. Eason home.

Rev. Earl Cotton is having a week of vacation from Kimball School of Theology. Rev. Cotton was a Sunday night guest at the Miller home.

Al. Emily passed through town a few days ago. Emily is working at the Ogden mill.

Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Greene walked to the Lehnfield home, two miles distant, where they visited till Sunday afternoon.

H. S. Eddy is in his midst occasionally and is fixing up a real estate office near Shaw's blacksmith shop.

Of course everybody in reach of town will "stir up" twenty cents and come to see the "stunts," etc. at the high school show Saturday night: children, ten cents admission.

Miss Margaret Miller went home Friday evening to attend grand opera, and get all the thrills of the ever popular, the tragic Romeo and Juliet. Miss Miller returned Saturday evening so as not to miss the Bruns dinner.

Mrs. Florence Connors also went home over the week end as she felt the lure for "Thais," the opera of Saturday afternoon.

The Springtime vacation has passed for our O. A. C. students and Alfred Meinig, Ned and Harry Mitchell, and Raymond Murray have come back to school. Gertrude Meinig also left on Monday to continue her work there after a vacation of six weeks. Frances Meinig will remain home the rest of the term to help her father in the store.

Two needs of the grades are a volley ball and a drum. Arrangements will probably "bring them forth" soon.

The entertainment by the high school tomorrow night will not be any "April Fool," but those who do go will be fooled out of a perfectly good time.

John Maroney had a birthday last week but failed to tell how many years are heaped up against him.

Mrs. Ernest Bonett is still feeling quite miserably. The Bonetts are still in Gresham at the home of Mrs. Shoemaker.

Mrs. Miller, Miss Miller, Mrs. Connors and Miss Lippold were all guests at the Rebekah lodge social hour and enjoyed cream puffs and the other good things to eat. Mrs. Duke was hostess.

Mrs. Dave Douglass was sufficiently recovered last week to go back to her Cherryville home. Mrs. E. Dodd drove Mrs. Douglass home and stayed a couple of days to help out till Mrs. Douglass was stronger.

Mrs. W. Bosholm has had a relapse and has been down with the grip again.

Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Jackson of Gresham were recent visitors at the home of their niece, Mrs. Alma Maroney, remaining for lunch and dinner.

Miss Margaret Miller, Miss Elsie Lippold and Mrs. Miller had a most delightful time at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ed. F. Bruns on Sunday, remaining for both dinner and supper feast. There was music the day long, and the mill boys joined in the program. The Bruns hospitality will be remembered.

R. S. Smith and Cyril Gray donated a day's work on the Meinsinger lane last week.

B. Nelson was in town recently and renewed his "sub," as "B" could not think of getting along without the Enterprise. Thomas Clarke, John Burmeister and Ed Bruns are among the others who recently renewed their paper.

Willard Bosholm is going to Portland frequently to take chiropractic treatments for lumbago.

Hugh Devlin of Dover took his mother to Portland a few days ago. Mrs. Devlin was partially paralyzed.

C. O. Duke and his mother, Mrs. Annie Duke went to Portland Sunday. Mrs. Duke remained for a few days visit.

Corbett failed to appear for the hoop game at the Orient hall, but a "scrub team" was rustled and it beat the regulars by two points. Fred Junker was one of the "scrubs."

E. Beers and Ernest Harris have finished their work at Garfield and are at home again.

Mrs. Hannah Nelson is feeling much better and is not able to get around.

Emil Wendland was down from Firwood to attend the Masonic lodge meeting.

Hazel Dixon was home at Cherryville all last week because of her attack of ear trouble still hanging on. Pearl Dixon started to school too soon after her attack of illness and had to be out again last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Jayton of Madger Butte were all day visitors at the Lehnfield home Sunday, and with the Greens the "bunch" had music and a fine time.

The J. B. Snedden family have recovered from severe illnesses. Mrs. Snedden fainted while she was ill and cut her forehead badly.

Wm. O'Neill has sold his team that was recently advertised in the Enterprise.

Harry Reed had a new barber assistant come out to help with the Saturday night rush.

Miss Clara Mitchell, daughter of Mrs. E. J. Mitchell was out over the week end from Oregon City and attended the dance Saturday night.

The Lehnfields have been fortunate in getting an acre of potatoes and a quarter of an acre of onions planted regardless of weather. The also have early vegetables planted.

Mrs. John Mitchell drives to Pleasant Home every week with eggs for Morgan Bros. and Mrs. Mitchell usually spends the night with her sister Mrs. R. E. Williams. These two enterprising ladies have started to make candy on a small scale. Mrs. Williams being an expert in that line.

Adolph Dahrens was over from Cameron and Hohens' mill again recently and reports the family as well and content in their new quarters.

Gus Dahrens has been under the weather and took a few days lay off the past week from Dwyers'.

Mrs. Frank Kerr, daughter and maid attended Sunday school last Sunday. The Kerr's were out at Stronghurst for the day.

Mrs. A. Malar and Mrs. Florence Connors will attend the institute at Oregon City tomorrow.

Mrs. S. J. Allen was "up town" Sunday. The Allen family came out to the Shepherd place for the day. They are all fine.

J. B. Johnson the Cherryville shingle mill man was in Sandy recently on a business trip.

Paul Meinig went to the city recently on a business trip and to look up some interests in connection with the community club work.

Amil Wendland was down from Firwood to attend the Masonic lodge meeting.

Mrs. L. P. Johnson and little daughter from Truman's were down to do some shopping a few days ago. The Johnsons are new homesteaders and formerly managed a hotel in Portland.

The Riches' of Pleasant Home were out to attend the wedding of Miss Olive Shaw and Manley Childs at Dover.

W. J. Fabion, proprietor of La Casa Monte hotel, stopped while on his way to Portland last week and said there had been snow on the ground ever since the 18th of December. Mr. Fabion has resided up the mountains for the past fifteen years. Though the winter has been very snowy, there has been a good many tourists up that way at intervals.

Mrs. R. E. Esson had a letter from a sister in Kansas recently, and the weather there has been so bad the crops are not yet planted.

MEMBER
FEDERAL RESERVE SYSTEM

THE STRENGTH OF A BANK

Member Federal Reserve Bank.

Our bank is a member bank of the great Federal Reserve System and as such enjoys the privilege of being backed by the United States Government, thus insuring conservative management of the funds entrusted to our care and permitting greatly extended facilities in the rendering of services to our patrons.

FIRST STATE BANK
GRESHAM, OREGON

Schnitz are hoping she will take up her singing again and will lend her talent for community affairs.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Christiansens went to The Dalles last week, driving Mr. and Mrs. George Wolfe home after they had an enjoyable visit here among friends and relatives.

Miss Calista de la Fontaine writes from Berkeley that teaching here was really a "rest cure" compared to the mad rush she is in from 6 a. m. till midnight down here. Final exams will soon be on, however, and so it will not be long till Calista is an "alumna" of that great institution.

To a full house at Pleasant Home Prof. Herzog of Salem, sounded the challenge of life service in his sermon Sunday morning. Herzog stated the opinion of some of the greatest thinkers of today. Viz: That civilization is doomed unless the world soon gets a new vision of service. This opinion is based on the decay of the American home, and the wild desire of the youth for dress and selfish indulgences, with no thought for the sacred things of life.

Last week was the duldest socially of any week here for a year.

The Women's Club met at the lobby of the Sandy hotel last week and most of the afternoon was taken up with completing plans for the benefit dance which was called off the next day on account of the death of Miss Thomas.

Rev. Cotton reports the organization of a young people's club at Pleasant Home last Saturday night. The club is named "Tuckabatchee," and the Indian word interpreted means "get one, add two and stick together." The new venture is a singing class.

Don't forget the high school "youngsters" will give an evening of pleasure on Saturday April 1 at the Odd Fellow's hall.

Mrs. L. Lehnfield was down from Snag Camp for a short time the first of the week and reported lots of snow up there yet.

Mrs. Carl Wendland and Mrs. Ed. Gesch were down to see Mrs. Katie Koch a few days ago.

Herman Krebs is still faithfully "palling" the Adolph Dahrens cow.

Ed Grunert and John Graenk began making cord wood for Strack the first R. Kaiser a few days ago.

Henry Quam has gone to the Clatsop of the week.

John Naegle was pruning trees for keno country and has opened up a barber shop of his own.

J. E. Schultz of Gresham was in Sandy a few days ago.

Mrs. R. Dittert has been housed up the past week because of being ill.

Jim Allison seems to be the first man to spade up a tiny patch for early garden, and he had great temerity to try it!

A Portland man went through town the other day on his way to Government Camp and carried a pair of snow shoes along.

C. W. Newman was down from Dover recently to bring a batch of eggs and do some trading.

Otto Matz is working on his new ranch, (part of Revenue place) and is clearing up some acreage.

It is reported that the Wenzell place has been sold again.

There is a wonderful, big bed of crocuses blooming in the Paul Meinig lawn that is worth while to see.

Geo. Beers flitted to town again last Monday night. George is the "busiest" man in ten states.

visitor the first part of the week.

Mrs. Emma Thomas is still in Portland and may have to undergo an operation before she returns to her Marmot home.

Edgar Powell, worldwar veteran, has recently taken up a homestead on top of a mountain back of Aschoff's and is getting a new domicile fixed up.

Otto Aschoff captured 15 bobcats this winter without any great effort.

Chas. Delfel, the employer of Miss Lillian Thomas was out from Portland to attend the funeral and share in the grief of the family as far as possible.

Mr. and Mrs. John Bickford and little one left Tuesday morning for their home at Toledo, Wash.

"The most important project for years to come is the building of a union high school for this section," says a man who has no children to educate, nor any personal reasons for advocating school measures, "To fail to provide proper schooling, is to drive our young people away, and why pay more to other counties than it will cost to build up our own schools?"

Adolph Aschoff who has lived at Marmot for 29 years receives letters of appreciation from all over the world. Recently a letter came from a traveler in the South Sea Islands, expressing his kindest compliments and memories to visits at his Mountain Home. Mr. Aschoff is 73 years of age, drinks, two to four cups of coffee at a meal, but drinks no water, claiming his health is best preserved with the warm coffee. He goes to bed around two or three o'clock in the morning and has never slept over four hours on an average since he was a child. He is an artist, philosopher, poet and musician. In fact a scholarly man in many, many lines. He climbed the highest mountains in the United States only three years ago.

This section may well be proud of such a "grand old man." He says, "My religion is that of my Master, Unhindered by dogma or creed, Unhindered by classic theology, but proven by word and deeds."

A jolly frolic and a get-together of "youngsters-oldersters" and everybody is the object of the entertainment given by the high school Saturday night, April 1. After an attractive program games will be played by everybody. Only ten and twenty cents admission.

James G. DeShazer was up the Cherryville way last Tuesday to look after insurance business.

CHAIR DONATED

SANDY, March 31.—A fine chair has been donated by J. E. Metzger of Gresham to be raffled off to add to the fund of the benefit dance which will be given in the Odd Fellow's hall tomorrow night (Saturday). The chair is on display in the Scales store window.

VERETERAN VISITS

W. H. Boring, prominent pioneer of Clackamas county, whose home is at Boring, was in Oregon City on Wednesday and Thursday of this week. Mr. Boring has resided in the Boring section for over 50 years, and was honored when the little town of Boring was named for him. While in this city he was a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Bennett, the latter being the adopted daughter of the Meade Post, G. A. R., of which Mr. Boring is a member, being he is a Civil War veteran. Mr. Boring was on his way home from Sheridan, where he had been a guest of his niece.

AETNA IN ERUPTION

ROME, March 29.—The volcano Mount Aetna is in violent eruption and the inhabitants of the nearby villages are fleeing in panic, according to information from Palermo today. Streams of molten lava are flowing from the crater. Several earthquake shocks have been felt in the provinces of Palermo and Messina.

Rev. Edwards, Missionary, Here—Rev. G. N. Edwards, former pastor of the Congregational church, now making his home at Walla Walla, Wash., was in Oregon City on Tuesday, where he was a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Stevens. Rev. Edwards is now engaged as a Sunday school missionary, and travels continually.

SCENE OF $168,000 LOSS IN CONFLAGRATION AT 11TH AND MAIN AT MIDNIGHT FRIDAY WHEN BIG GARAGE, BURNED

Top—Scene of the fire, showing site where building was burned. The entire structure was reduced to below the street level.

Center—The burning remains. Fire men are playing a hose on the big gasoline tank directly in front of the flaming structure. The picture was taken less than an hour after the fire started.

Bottom—The flames in full force shortly after the alarm was sounded. The building was engulfed within 15 minutes.

Photos by J. A. Webber, Oregon City. Plate, courtesy Portland Journal.

TRACTOR COMPANY MAKES BIG SLASH

The largest reduction made by any track type tractor company has just been announced by the Cleveland Tractor company through their distributor for the Portland district, O. V. Badley. In conformity with the lower tone in other articles the price upon the Cletrac model F has been reduced $25, making the present price $325, f. o. b. Portland. It is said that increased production has made this new price possible.

"We now have over 800 Cletracs in Oregon alone," said Badley. "With the increased distribution planned, Oregon will stand out as one of the best tractor states in the West."

Badley has emphasized that the farmer of today can hardly ignore the economy in being able to play an acre of ground with a gallon of kerosene and that he has power which can work over an unlimited day without eating or sleeping; furthermore that whether the plowing is deep or shallow, the Cletrac is prepared to do the work.

DRY MEETING BOMBED

GREEN BAY, Wis., March 29.—Five hundred persons who had gathered in the Union Congregational church here last night to hear an address by William (Pussyfoot) Johnson, anti-liquor crusader, were thrown into a near-panic when a smoking bomb was hurled down the aisle by one of four men who drove to the church in an automobile.

F. G. Walker, an usher, was one of the first to see the infernal machine as it slid down the aisle. He seized it and put it out, but in doing so burned his hand.

HOPE DIMS IN STRIKE

NEW YORK, March 29. Casting aside as "remote possibility" the prospect of settling their difficulties in time to avert the general strike set for three days hence, members of the anthracite subcommittee on wage contract negotiations today eyed themselves for a long, hard struggle over the miners' nineteen demands.

Mrs. A. Bedgood in City—Mrs. A. Bedgood, whose home is at Portland, was an Oregon City visitor on Wednesday.

Phone Day 1901 Night 99X
J. E. METZGER
Funeral Director and Embalmer
Paul R. Meinig
Sandy Agent
Gresham, Oregon Lady Asst.

Auto Tops Recovered and Repaired.
All kinds of Top Material and Curtain Windows.
S. E. PALMQUIST
Auto Top Shop
Harness Repaired
Main St., Gresham Phone 1235

CHOICE MEATS—FAIR PRICES
As a good judge of Meats, you'll enjoy buying here where there are so many delicious Steaks, Chops and Roasts.
Quality Meats Only.
Gresham Meat Market
A. J. W. Brown

You can't afford to miss the
HIGH SCHOOL ENTERTAINMENT
Solos, Readings, Choruses
Saturday, 8 p. m. April 1
I. O. O. F. HALL
10 and 20 cents.