LIQUOR THOT BROT NORTH FROM EUGENE

P. X. Johnson and C. Doolittle Held in Local Jail; Bond May be Arranged Today.

The first booze car to be taken on the run through Oregon City, was overhauled last night by Officer Jerry Hemmingway.

P. X. Johnson and C. Doolittle, both of Portland, are under arrest. Johnson is charged with being intoxicated. Both men are held for illegal possession, and transportation of liquor.

The car was stopped at 9th and Main streets by Hemmingway. The local officers have for some time been on the lookout for machines carrying booze through here. Both of the men arrested last night were coming north from Eugene. Doolittle was driving the car.

The booze found in the machine was comprised of a quart bottle of whiskey and a four gallon jug of similar liquor.

Both men were held over night and trial, or bond, will probably be arranged today.

Decree Is Granted In Divorce Suit Here

A decree of divorce was granted in the circuit court Friday in the case of Laura against Fred Marlets. The couple were married at Albany, Indiana, June 16, 1908. The suit was brought on the grounds of cruel and inhuman treatment and the custody of the two minor children was awarded to the plaintiff.

LEADERS CLAIM WIN IN NAVAL BUDGET DEBATE

WASHINGTON, April 12.—As the house proceeded with its third and last day of general debate on the 1923 naval budget, leaders urging and opposing an enlisted strength of 65,000 claimed victory, enough in sight today to win on a straight test on the bill point at issue. This may not be reached until next week.

Opposing an "insurgent" party fight to increase the total to 80,000, Chairman Maddy of the appropriations committee and Chairman Kelly of the subcommittee in charge of the measure estimated this would add $20,000,000 to the bill's total of $232,000,000 for men alone.

STATEMENT

Of the Ownership, Management, Circulation, Etc., Required by the Act of Congress of August 24, 1912, of Oregon City Enterprise, published weekly, at Oregon City, Oregon, for April 1, 1922.

STATE OF OREGON, County of Clackamas— Before me, a Notary Public in and for the State and county aforesaid, personally appeared Hal E. Hoss, who having been duly sworn, according to law, deposes and says that he is the business manager of the Oregon City Enterprise, and that the following is, to the best of his knowledge and belief, a true statement of the ownership, management, etc., of the aforesaid publication for the date shown in the above caption, required by the Act of August 24, 1912, embodied in section 442, Postal Laws and Regulations, to-wit:

1. That the names and addresses of the publisher, editor, managing editor, and business managers are:

Publisher, managing editor, E. B. Brodie, Bangkok, Siam; business manager, Hal E. Hoss, Oregon City, Oregon.

2. That the owners are: (Give names and addresses of individual owners, or, if a corporation, give its name and the name and the names and addresses of stockholders owning or holding 1 per cent or more of the total amount of stock.) E. B. Brodie, Bangkok, Siam.

3. That the known bondholders, mortgagees, and other security holders owning or holding 1 per cent or more of total amount of bonds, mortgages, or other securities are: Bank of Commerce, Oregon City, Oregon.

4. That the two paragraphs next above, giving the names of the owners, stockholders, and security holders, if any, contain not only the list of stockholders and security holders as they appear upon the books of the company but also, in cases where the stockholder or security holder appears upon the books of the company as trustee or in any other fiduciary relation, the name of the person or corporation for whom such trustee is acting, is given; also that the said two paragraphs contain statements embracing affiant's full knowledge and belief as to the circumstances and conditions under which stockholders and security holders who do not appear upon the books of the company as trustees, hold stock and securities in a capacity other than that of a bona fide owner; and this affiant has no reason to believe that any other person, association, or corporation has any interest direct or indirect in the said stock, bonds, or other securities than as so stated by him.

5. That the average number of copies of each issue of this publication sold or distributed, through the mails or otherwise, to paid subscribers during the six months preceding the date shown above is (This information is required from daily publications only.)

Sworn to and subscribed before me this 7th day of April, 1922.

A. C. HOWLAND, Notary Public for Oregon. (My commission expires June 13, 1923.)

T ONLY THREE MORE DAYS AFTER TODAY WIN A $50 CASH PRIZE OPEN TO EVERYBODY

TO OUR READERS How many objects the names of which begin with the letter "T" can you find in this picture? It's a big game in which everybody can take part. Who can find the most such objects? Take a pencil and get busy. Everyone in the home, Pa, Ma, Bobby, Mary Ann, Grandma and Uncle Bill. First see who gets the most at home. Then combine your list and send in the big list to the Enterprise office and if your list has the largest number of correct words you get a prize of $3.00.

But if with your answer you send in for one year's subscription to The Enterprise you get $15. If you send in two subscriptions you get $25.00 as 1st prize; and if you send in three subscriptions including one new subscription you get $35.00; and if you send four subscriptions, including two new ones, you will receive $50.

If the subscriptions are for the weekly edition of the Enterprise, the prizes will be awarded on the basis of one-half the amount paid for daily subscriptions. Schedule of subscription rates printed elsewhere on this page.

See table of prizes elsewhere in this announcement. There is no hitch or trick to this puzzle. It is easy and above board. It's the contestant with the sharpest eyes that will find the most objects and win the big prize.

It costs nothing to try in the first class. You will want the paper for another year anyway so you might as well get into the second class. But to make the game really exciting and worth while get into the third class by sending us a new subscriber; or better still into the fourth class by sending us to new subscribers and win a prize of $35.000. With very little effort you can break into the fifth class and qualify for the $50.00 cash prize.

It's going to be some fun. Now who gets the big prize? Can you find 50? Probably even more?

CONTEST CLOSES APRIL 17TH.

COPYRIGHT, 1922 by Tribune Printing Co. Willmar, Minn.

Rules of the Contest

- 1. Contest closes April 17, 1922, and all answers must be mailed on or before that day.
2. Anyone living in or outside of this city may compete in this contest. Employees of this paper and anyone else connected with the Enterprise however are barred from participating.
3. Answers should be written on only one side of the paper. Write your name and address plainly at the head of your lists. If you write of anything else use a separate sheet of paper.
4. Only English words found in the dictionary can be used. Obsolete words will not be counted, however.
5. A word used once cannot be used again as part of a compound word; and only compound words as given in the dictionary as such will be allowed.
6. The same object can be named but once. This does not preclude however the naming of an object which is a part of another object.
7. The word may be given in the singular or plural form but if the one is used the other cannot be.
8. The first prize will be awarded to the contestant whose answer has the largest and nearest correct list of words of objects (found in the picture) beginning with the letter "T". Second prize to the next, etc. Neatness and penmanship will not be taken into consideration, but every contestant should be careful about the spelling so that no mistakes will be made.
9. Only one prize will be awarded to members of the same household, or to any group outside of the family who may have co-operated in the answering of this puzzle.
10. The judges will be three well known citizens of this community having no connection with the Enterprise and will be selected for their fitness for such a task. The award of prizes as determined by these judges will be final and each contestant agrees to abide by their decision.
11. In arriving at this decision the judges will allow one point for each correct word. A margin of 15 incorrect words will be granted to each contestant to allow for a possible legitimate difference of opinion; but each incorrect word above that number will count one against.
12. If two contestants tie for first place the first and second prizes will be divided between the two pro rata according to their class. The next highest will receive the third prize, etc. If three tie for first place, the first, second and third prizes will be divided between the three in same manner, etc.
13. Subscriptions turned in by contestants must be accompanied by cash.

HERE ARE THE PRIZES OFFERED

Table showing prize amounts for different subscription classes. Columns include prize number, amount, and conditions for winning. For example, First Prize is $3.00 for a one-year subscription with answer.

Subscription to the weekly edition of the Enterprise is $1.50 per year. In event winner's subscription is for the weekly, the prizes will be one-half the above scale.
