TACOMA, Wash., April 7.—Attorneys for Mrs. Fred L. Stewart, who is suing to collect $45,000 life insurance carried by her husband, former Kelso banker who is reported dead, failed to shake the testimony yesterday of George Edwood, a former barber of Kelso, that he had seen Stewart in Hammet, Cal., in March of last year, after Stewart's death had been reported.

FATHER IN AXE TRAGEDY KILLS SELF BY POISON
CONCORDIA, Kan., April 7.—L. J. Tremblay, father of the family who were victims of the "axe fiend," near here Tuesday night, when one person was slain and five others injured, committed suicide this morning.
Tremblay, according to reports reached here, had been at the home of Joseph Bachand, 11 miles from here, since the tragedy. He slipped away from friends here, it was stated and took poison. How he obtained the poison was not revealed.
A finger print expert yesterday took photographs of the bloody imprints on the axe and on furnishings in the Tremblay home. Finger prints of Tremblay were also taken.
