COUNTY HEALTH NURSE INJURED IN AUTO SMASH

Careless Driver Forces Car Off Road; Hilda Morris Is Bruised; Friend Escapes.

CANBY, April 26.—Miss Hilda Morris, county health nurse of Clackamas county, with headquarters in this city, accompanied by Miss Campbell, superintendent of the Open Air Sanitarium of Portland, while on their way from this city to Oregon City on Tuesday afternoon, had a narrow escape, when their automobile was struck by a careless driver of another machine going in the same direction. The women claim that no sound was made by the driver to announce his approach and in attempting to pass the car in which the women were driving, simply shoved their car from the road and into the bank, damaging the fender and badly bruising Miss Morris' leg below the knee.

The driver proceeded on his way without giving assistance, and the women failed to get the number.

CANBY PASTOR HONORED IN BIRTHDAY FUNCTION

CANBY, April 25.—Rev. Boyd Moore pastor of the Methodist church, was taken by surprise at the church parlors on Tuesday evening, April 25, when many friends gathered upon invitation of the Ladies' Aid Society, of the Methodist church, to assist in celebrating his 63rd birthday anniversary.

Rev. Moore and wife spent the day in Salem as guests of their son, Rev. Stanford Moore, while the women of the parish decorated the social room of the church with wild carnation and Japonica blossoms, the color scheme being red and green, and made other arrangements. Each family brought some delicacy to add to the menu, and the handsomely decorated birthday cake bearing the necessary candles to mark the number of birthdays observed by the pastor, was the handiwork of Mrs. W. H. Bair and Mrs. H. N. Brown. A number of candles were lighted and added to the beauty of the decorative scheme of the table.

During the evening a handsome traveling case was presented to Rev. Moore, who responded to the presentation address.

The affair was largely attended, many coming from a distance. Rev. Moore was recently re-appointed to the Methodist charge of this city.

CHILDREN TO COMPETE ON HIGH SCHOOL ESSAYS

CANBY, April 21.—The committee in charge of the proposed union high school, organized to be composed of districts in the vicinity of Canby, has offered a prize of $5 for the best essay written by any grammar school student attending school in any regular district of the proposed union. The subject of the essay will be "Why My District Should Enter the Proposed High School Union." This must not contain more than 600 words. In addition to the winning essay the committee will choose ten of the next best essays, and the writer of each to receive a prize of $1. Essays should be written on legal cap paper of good quality, and must contain the name, age, grade, address and number of the district of the writer. The teacher is to collect the essays and mail to the secretary of the committee, who is Lou Smith, of Barlow, on or before May 15th.

FIRST CANBY ASPARAGUS IS SHIPPED TO PORTLAND

CANBY, April 25.—The first shipment of home grown asparagus was sent out of Canby this morning, the grower being W. A. Reed, who purchased the famous Cummings farm some time ago, and is specializing on asparagus and rhubarb. The shipment was made to Portland, where Mr. Reed is to ship larger quantities later in the season.

Other growers who will soon begin shipping to Portland will be Harvey Douglas, Fred Hampton and Elmer Douglas.

The soil in Canby is well adapted to growing asparagus, and each year large shipments are sent from this section of the county, as this is one of the important asparagus centers of the state.

CANBY GRAMMAR NINE WINS IN HUBBARD GAME

CANBY, April 25.—On Friday afternoon Canby grammar school won an exciting baseball game from the Hubbard grammar school team on the Canby diamond by a score of 12 to 6. The feature of the game was the fielding of the Canby team and the batting of Leach and Hagen for the local team. The pitching for both teams was excellent and caused much favorable comment among the many spectators. Many from Hubbard attended and "rooted" for their home team.

The Canby second team won from the Barlow school at Barlow, this game resulting in a score of 14 to 2.

SUNDAY SETS RECORD IN HIGHWAY AUTO TRAFFIC

CANBY, April 26.—Sunday proved a record day for motorists passing over the Pacific highway and through Canby. A number of residents along the highway and J. W. Kane, driver of the Canby-Oregon City stage were among those "keeping track" of the number of automobiles passing in a short time. While Mr. Kane was on his way from Oregon City to Canby he counted 237 automobiles headed for Portland. This was on the 5:15 trip, and previous to that time the travel was still greater. Lawrence Ferguson, who resides on the highway near New Era, in company with a neighbor, counted 147 automobiles passing his place in 20 minutes' time. There were all kinds of machines, ranging from a "bug" to the finest make automobile.

VISITING ARTISANS ARE ENTERTAINED AT CANBY

CANBY, April 26.—Canby Artisan lodge entertained lodges of Salem, Woodburn and Portland at the Artisan hall last Thursday night, when there were over 100 enjoying the affair.

3 NIGHT RIDERS SHOT IN RIOT FOLLOWING RAID

LOS ANGELES, April 24.—Secret warrants were being issued from District Attorney Thomas Lee Woolwin's office today for the arrest of a coterie of alleged night riders believed to have participated in a sensational raid and gun battle at Inglewood yesterday. As a result of the Inglewood episode Constable M. B. Mosher is dead, Leonard Ruegg will probably die and Walter Mosher, son of the constable, is in the hospital with severe injuries. The fatal rioting started when 200 masked and white-robed men surrounded the home of Fidel Euduyan, a Spaniard whom the raiders accused of operating a whiskey still. The mob is alleged to have been diverted from its announced mission and to have roughly handled Mrs. Angella Euduyan and forced her two pretty daughters, Maria and Bernarda, to disrobe in front of the Euduyan home. The investigation today centers around the statement that the raid was the work of a "well organized band" members of which frequently mentioned their "organization."
