EDITORS DISPUTE ENDS IN BATTLE; ONE SHOT DEAD

DURANGO, Colo., April 24.—William L. Wood, 35 years old, city editor of the Durango Herald, was shot and killed here today by Rod S. Day, 47, editor of the Durango Democrat. The shooting took place on Main street in the business district. Day gave himself up and was held at the sheriff's office. No witnesses to the shooting have been found.

The trouble between the two men is said to have grown out of an editorial article printed in the two papers. It is said to have begun when the Herald printed a clipping from another Colorado newspaper, which declared the Democrat was one of the few newspapers in the country fighting the 18th amendment to the constitution. The exchange of editorial comment had been going on about a week. It finally grew personal.

When Day and Wood met today, the latter is alleged to have started an argument. Wood then is alleged to have struck Day with some undetermined weapon, breaking Day's nose and inflicting other injuries. Day then is alleged to have drawn a revolver and to have fired two shots. Wood died in a hospital an hour later. Day declined to make a statement. Wood was married and came here from Montrose, Colo.

YEGGS BLOW SAFE; TAKE $1000; MAKE GETAWAY

PORTLAND, April 24.—Yeggs, expert but unethical, blew on the safe in the office of A. Jaloff, manager of the Columbia Stage company, in the Oregon Bus Terminal, Yamhill and Park streets, early this morning, and escaped with approximately $1000.

They took what has been estimated as $814 of the loot from Jaloff's safe, which they skillfully cracked open by nitro-glycerine from top to bottom directly through the combination. Then, stooping to lesser robbery, which, according to police detectives and crime thrillers in literature and stage, they are supposed to scorn, they scooped up on the run $150 from the cash register in the terminal cigar stand, and $22.50 from two tills behind ticket windows.

FIRE EXPLODES TANKS; 50 INJURED IS REPORT

LOS ANGELES, Cal., April 21.—Probably fifty people were injured, a number of them fatally, when an oil station at Fourth and Crawford streets caught fire at Downey today and the fire reached the underground storage tanks, causing them to explode with great force, throwing debris many feet.

The average man, whose allotted span is three score and ten years, sleeps 23 years and 4 months of that time, and he spends 6 years and four months of the seventy eating and drinking.

P.R.L. & P. TO GET POWER FROM CLACKAMAS RIVER

WASHINGTON, April 22.—Approval has been given by the federal power commission to the application of the Portland Railway, Light & Power company for power development on the Clackamas river, partly within the Oregon national forest in Clackamas county, Oregon, involving the use of water for Oak Grove and Three Link creeks. An installed horsepower of 40,000 is contemplated.

The application also includes construction of a reservoir at Timothy meadows, the headwaters of Oak Grove creek, but action on this part of the application awaits approval of state authority.
