Pleasing Program Given At Estacada

ESTACADA, May 3.—The regular monthly meeting of the Community club was held at the high school auditorium last Friday night, with rather a poor attendance. G. E. Lawrence, vice-president, had charge of the meeting. As there was no business to transact, the time was devoted to the program. George L. Rauch, president of the Portland Ad Club, was present and gave a very interesting and informative address on Community clubs and their work and importance. The musical part of the program consisted of a vocal solo by Mr. Johnson, with Mrs. Gates at the piano, and orchestra music by a trio from Portland, composed of Miss Dwait, pianist, Cyril Grocket, violinist and Dumas Law, cello. Everybody enjoyed the excellent music and gave the musicians a hearty applause.

ROSEMONT HAPPENINGS

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Day are again at home after a couple of months absence at Jefferson, Ore. Their little son, Arthur Barnes Day, Jr., only four months old to the day, died on Friday, April 7, of pneumonia. He was taken suddenly ill at 2 o'clock in the morning and died at 5:20 a little over 3 hours after. The little chap had endeared himself not only to his devoted parents, but to all who ever saw him. Rosemont people in general extend their most heartfelt sympathy to Arthur and Mrs. Day in their great sorrow.

Mr. and Mrs. Armstrong have been called several times to the home of their daughter, Jane (Mrs. Frank Maroney) who has been quite ill. Mr. and Mrs. Mooney are residing between Clackamas and Baker's bridge on the north side of the river.

Mrs. C. J. Day has been in Portland and Oregon City shopping for several days.

Rosemont has quite a few additions to its family lately, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Wilson having purchased 5 acres just opposite the Robinson place from Dr. Welch. It is perhaps one of the most sightly spots in Rosemont.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Cass, also bought a piece of land across from Lou Ford's home place, buying it from Gene Horton very recently. Mr. and Mrs. Blaney have the Robinson ranch but the Robinsons will continue to live in their big, spacious home. Mr. and Mrs. Colacola have taken the Gill Horton place. Sam Landt has gone into farming. David Sheppard has been in caring for the Sheppard acres and orchard as he and Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Sheppard will return from Scotts Mills this fall and resume living on their old home place.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Blair, relatives of T. M. Lockett who lives on the Shepherd place, have gone to Parkwood, (east of Eastmoreland) to live where Mr. Blair has secured permanent work until Fall. Rosemont is still hoping they will decide finally to return and locate in its community.

Mr. and Mrs. Ira M. Lystel are having city water piped to their place.

On Wednesday evening, April 19th, a neighborhood surprise party, sponsored by Rosemont Community Club, was given to Mr. and Mrs. H. Reinke and family. A subscription taken by Alfred Anderson, from all neighbors and friends enabled Mr. Anderson to purchase one dozen teaspoons, 1/2 doz. soup spoons, 1 cold meat fork, which Captain Heggdale presented as a birthday offering to Mrs. Reinke. So Mr. Reinke would not feel slighted a box of cigars was handed him. The young folks of the Community put on a creditable program under the direction of Mrs. Heggdale and Fred and several local bits scored heavily with the audience. After this, the shoe box lunch sale was on and there was quite a trading of cheque slips and the young men weren't the only offenders. Coffee was served by Mrs. Heggdale, Mrs. Davenport, Mrs. Anderson and Mrs. Hall. Seventy persons were in attendance and one good time was enjoyed.

The regular community meetings which were dispensed with for about six months are now resumed every other Wednesday evening and things and beginning to take shape at last. Incorporation papers have been secured through the kindness of Judge Dimick, the land will be purchased by the time this goes to press, and on Wednesday the 26th, at the last club meeting with only 16 members in attendance $210 was pledged towards the building fund for the club house.

This with promised donations seems to spell a real roof raising at last. For the sinking fund the ladies
