L. E. JONES RETURNS TO HOME AFTER OPERATION

L. E. Jones, druggist, of this city, who recently underwent an operation at the St. Vincent's hospital, Portland, has improved so that he was able to return to his home in this city on Sunday. Mr. Jones was able to be out on the street this morning for a brief time, but will be at least a week before he will be back to his duties in the drug store.

RECONSTRUCTED TASTES
Dainty Delilah Delores DeLake Preferred to subsist upon candy and cake.

Her mother, although she in no wise agreed, Clearly saw that her daughter a lesson did need.

The doctor was sure he could soon pull her through,
But, my, how she suffered! Oh, what should she do?

A chastened Delilah finally came To eat with her folks, who were wise to the game,

When taking a trip in the auto, it is generally more comfortable to wear a soft, small hat, but we sometimes wish to take a more formal hat along.

Fast and near-fast are the colors in summer fabrics. Our own manufacturers are achieving it. However it is wise to test out a sample of the goods before purchasing, and, lest it be not absolutely fade-proof, to soak in salt water the ready made garment before washing it.

Fluffy, frilly, fly-away frumpery is the mode for hot-weather garments of organza, linen, lawn, or any sheer material. The idea is to be buffed and be-scaled and be-petalled until you look lika rose.

Moral danger in the short skirts, low necks, and thing materials of modern dress? Dr. Frank Parsons thinks not. "There is so much ugliness displayed by these abbreviations," says he, "that it does not constitute a moral danger."

WOMAN-TORIALS
Athletics in France
French women are entering athletics heretofore left entirely to men, even boasting a woman boxing champion.

Not "in the Trodden Paths."
That conservative old country China is coming along, according to Wu Ting Fang, who says "Chinese women bob their hair, wear tight trousers, and go their occasional sisters one better in many ways."

Improved Kitchen Contest.
Texas, under the auspices of its Agricultural college, is having an improved kitchen contest, the idea being to help women save time, strength and money. Kitchens are to be sanitary, walls and floors made so they will be easily kept clean, yet attractive; the best equipment and labor saving devices purchased for the smallest outlay of money; the furnishings grouped and so arranged that the work may be done with the greatest saving of time and energy.

Wanted—More Women in Politics There are 10,000 people being kicked away at the twigs and branches of the vicious social politics in the soil in which commercialized vice, graft, drug peddling and bootlegging grows.
This soil in each community may be sweet and clean, or it may be stony and poor and produce nothing but weeds. It is up to the women of each community to say what kind of civic garden they wish for their children.

Vice is 99 per cent commercialized.
It is a simple money-making business for a certain type of degenerate people. The police can stop it if they wish. But opinion must make them wiser. Women can make that public opinion and express through their vote.

Minnesota women are leading in organizing a Woman's Committee of the Anti-Lawbreaking League and are asking movies and newspapers to refrain from jokes or ridicule aimed at Prohibition or from anything which would create disrespect for law and make difficult its enforcement.

COLLEGE OR NOT
Colleges are over-flowing. It is therefore time for high school graduates to be laying plans and making application to the college of their choice. It is a mistake to leave this to chance or the last minute.

Every beginner in college should have in sight a good proportion of his first year's expenses, or at least know where it is coming from—but this is not absolutely essential if the student is resourceful, plucky and in sturdy health.

Consider the case of Joe Friedlander: He entered the University with just 75 cents in his pocket after he had paid his tuition fees. But he had a vicin which he played well; he had determination, and faith in his ability to make good.

By playing in orchestras, making himself useful to the house hold of the Dean of Men, and doing such other work as offered, he has put himself through four consecutive years and saved $800 to start his post-graduate course in Commerce. He is a member of a fraternity and the boys say he does not indulge in tobacco, swearing nor swaggar.
