$2,500 DAMAGE ACTION

Decided by Circuit Court

The $2,500 damage suit brought by Archie Hubbard on charges of false arrest, was won by the defendants, Ross Churchill, Lettie Brown and William Brown Wednesday. The jury in the circut court returned a verdict against the plaintiff in the action.

Hubbard, a farmer near Marquam, was suing for damage to his reputation. The action was the outgrowth of his arrest in July of last year. The man at that time was charged with cruelty to animals and was brought, before a justice court jury where he was acquitted. The complaint said that he had maltreated a dog.

Hubbard claimed that due to the case against him his reputation had been damaged to the extent of the amount asked. The hearing of the case was completed early n the day and the deliberation required in the jury was comparatively short,

Ed. C. Cannon, alias, Ed Canning, alias Eddie Shannon, is back in the county jail, a brief 24 hours after he escaped by sawing two bars from one of the windows. Leslie B. Chase, who escaped with Cannon Tuesday morning is also in custody again. The two men were taken Wednesday morning by the Portland police.

Cannon and Chase were arrested by two detectives at Kenton. They had excited the suspicion of the hotel keeper when they registered for a room and he informed the Portland authorities. Officers Ackerman and Thomas were sent immediately and identified the men.

Cannon was arrested here after a spectacular chase. He was charged with passing a spurious check on the Price Department store, Arraigned before Judge Noble Wednesday afternoon following his capture, he was committed to jail in default of $500 bail

Chase had four days of a 25-day sentence to serve when he escaped. He was convicted of petty yarceny. Chase is said to have told the police that the "Oregon City jail is lined with saws and any man with two hands can get out."

The original capture of Cannon here was made after he attempted to pose as "Eddie" Shannon, the Seattle boxer. He failed when he ran into a local telephone operator who knew the original Shannon and became suspicious. A strange sequel to this case occurred Wednesday, While Portland officers were searching for Cannon. a second stranger bent on forgery entered Price Bros, store and presented a fake check for $15.00 drawn on a
