Goats Said Asset to Logged off Lands Throughout Oregon

The editor of the Angora Journal suggests that with the prevailing prices of mohair, there is a splendid opportunity for those owning logged off or brush land to utilize the same by raising Angora goats, as they will profit by the industry. During the past year a large number of the farmers of Oregon have become interested in the mohair business, having purchased the best of stock for the head of their herds.

The May issue of the Angora Journal, published in Oregon City, is off the press, and contains a number of valuable articles on mohair, and illustrations for the text. One of these articles is by S. Banks Hollings, editor of the Wool Record and Textile World, who is also British correspondent for the Angora Journal.

Among the illustrations are some of the famous goats of William Riddell and Sons, of Monmouth, Oregon, whose goats are always winners at the International Livestock Show held each year in Portland, also S. F. Zysant and Sons, of Scio, Oregon; Turner Brothers, of Junction, Texas; P. O. Landrum, of Laguna, Texas; C. A. Thomas and Son, Oakland, Ky.; J. A. Ward, Sonora, Texas; W. D. Gilliam and Son, Dalles, Oregon; U. S. Grant, Dallas, Oregon; John Church, Montague, Texas; B. M. Halbert, Sonora, Texas; L. W. Riddell, Lingsville, Texas; C. A. Popper, San Antonio, Texas; Carl M. Wolf, Junction, Texas, John B. Stump and Sons, Monmouth, and others. John B. Stump shows one buck that was awarded $500 in his class at the International Livestock Exposition.

Many of the farmers of Texas are following the goat industry as a sideline, and are finding profit in the mohair.

NEW NORTHWEST MAP IS WORK OF TOURIST BODY

Automobile clubs all over the United States and Canada are showing their interest in the Pacific Northwest by their willingness to display the new wall map of this region which is being distributed by the Pacific Northwest Tourist Association.

"In fifteen years experience in tourist matters," state Herbert Cuthbert, executive secretary of the Association, "I have not known of any piece of advertising that has been so universally commended and sought after as this. Upon return to the office after five weeks in California, I found hundreds of letters acknowledging the receipt of the map and asking for additional copies."

"A typical one from Lloyd C. Harris, secretary of the automobile club of Holyoke, Mass., says:
"It will certainly be a valuable addition to our display of wall maps and by far one of the most interesting and attractive. This is just the map we have been looking for for some time as it takes in all the territory in which our members are interested who are planning summer tours. Personally I believe that the views on the border are as much a feature as is the map itself and there is no doubt but they add interest and beauty to it."
"I am particularly interested in the map as I was born and brought up in Spokane, so that region naturally means much to me. If it were possible we could very conveniently use two more of these maps."
"Many of the letters are in a similar vein to that of Paul L. Powers of Boston who writes:
"Four years ago last summer I spent some two months in the region covered by your map. As a summer resort I know of no country in the world that is as attractive. I have already turned over the map you sent me to a friend who contemplates making the trip the coming summer, and should be pleased if you could spare me a half dozen maps, which I will use to advertise this region."

TWO BOMBERS CONFESS TO CRIMES IN CHICAGO

CHICAGO, May 16.—Four men have been identified as the bombers and slayers responsible for the reign of terror in Chicago, Charles Fitzmorris, chief of police, announced today.
Two occupants of the murder car from which volleys of shots were fired and dynamite hurled have confessed, the chief stated.
