Farm Bureau Meet Give Party Friday

SANDY, May 22.—The Farm Bureau meeting Friday night was called to order by president Hart, Miss Margaret Miller sang, E. E. Milliron gave saxophone selections, Pier Angel, manager of the Dairy Journal gave a talk on the yellow invasion, and for the short time allowed made a very forceful speech, E. R. Lundburg, sec-treas, of the Dairy Journal also spoke. He thinks the Sandy locality is one of the best parts of the large northwest. Mr. Jorgenson, managing editor of the Portland News gave a short talk.

The community weed control leader was ordered to go after the thistle, and members are to back him to the limit. The next meeting will be June 16, at 8 p. m. at the Odd Fellow's hall.

Question of Water Taken Up By Club

SANDY, May 22.—A motion was carried at the regular community club meeting to take steps toward securing a water system for the town. It was brought out that the time would soon come when for sanitary reasons it would be necessary to put in a water plant, and it was shown that the reduction of insurance rates for the town would pay for the bond interest. The tragic need of a water system was urged by all the business men present. Other questions of interest were also talked over.

Mrs. R. C. Shipley Hostess to Club

SANDY, May 22.—Mrs. R. C. Shipley entertained the Women's Club on Thursday at "Bonnie View," her beautiful country home. Besides the regular program as outlined by Mrs. Shipley, president, interesting questions were discussed, Mrs. Thompson was appointed a committee to try to line up a Boy Scout movement for Sandy. There was music, and delightful refreshments, including cake and ice cream, were served.

Special Election To Be Held May 27

SANDY, May 24.—Remember the special school meeting Saturday night, May 27, which will be held at the Sandy City hall from 7 to 9 o'clock p. m. This election was ordered by the county superintendent, and everyone in district No. 46 should come and vote for the admission of Sandyridge, Greenwood and Hill Crest into the Union high school district.

High School Play Credit to Seniors

SANDY, May 22.—The play, given by the high school seniors Saturday night was a splendid success in every way and the "youngsters" deserve great credit for the natural way in which they personated the characters in the play. There was a large audience, and the receipts were $52.20. The money will be used to buy pictures for the school as the U. H. S. hasn't enough pictures to meet the full requirements of a standard high school. Miss Margaret Miller and Miss Elsie Lippold assisted the pupils in the preparation of the play.

Birthday Surprize Given by Friends

SANDY, May 22.—When the Hoffmann family returned home from the Baccalaureate services last night they found a house full of "company" and were never so completely surprised before. The lights were out in the living room and when they opened the door the lights came on, revealing a "packed house." Friends had made up this surprise party in honor of Mr. Hoffmann's birthday. There were refreshments served, and the party did not break up till 1:30 Monday morning.

ORIENT RANCH SOLD

SANDY, May 23.—J. B. Snedden of Orient sold his 20 acre place last week to a Portland man named Gross of Rose City for $8250.00. The new owner will move his family out next week and the Sneddens will move to Portland in a few days.

TRAFFIC CENSUS

SANDY, May 22.—F. D. Eason, resident highway engineer has completed the annual three day traffic census here as follows, which included vehicles of all kinds: Saturday, 175; Sunday 342, Monday 148. With a normal spring far more vehicles would have been recorded.

SANDY LOCALS

SANDY, May 22.—The Baccalaureate service Sunday night was a delightful occasion and well attended. Rev. Earl Cotton preached a fine sermon, Mrs. C. L. Clinefelter, favorite local singer, was the soloist and the Sandy quartet and the high school girl's chorus sang. The church was beautifully decorated.

The Community song program has been postponed from next Sunday night to Sunday evening June 11. There has been so much going on recently that it has been impossible to get singers together for practice.

The Cottrell community church people have already started plans for the Fourth of July picnic which they expect to have in connection with the plans laid out by the last district Sunday school convention held recently at Pleasant Home.

Mrs. F. D. Eason visited the schools one day recently. There has been much more interest shown in the schools this year by the patrons.

Alex Smith, brother of R. S. Smith, was out here for a few hours while on his return to his Kansas home from Seattle.

Mr. Stevens, piano tuner of Portland was doing considerable work here this past week.

Mrs. Anton Malar took pupils of her 5th grade to Portland for a pleasure trip because of the good work they have done.

Mrs. L. Lehnfield attended the 8th grade graduation exercises for pupils of Multnomah county, which were held at Lincoln high. Martha Snedden a granddaughter of Mrs. Lehnfield was an honor pupil. Martha received many flowers and graduation presents.

Mrs. Thomas Hagan has been in bed a portion of the week with a severe cold.

The death of Jack Gibbons, a well known Sandyridge farmer is reported as having occurred on Monday, May 15 at a hospital in Portland, and he was buried at Mt. Scott on Friday, Mr. Gibbons had been anemic for some time. He was in the sixties.

Mrs. Thomas Hagan and Mrs. John Marvany went to Portland last Friday to enjoy a luncheon at the home of Mrs. Bittner who will soon leave for San Francisco and Los Angeles, and will also go to Honolulu with the Shriners, whose convention will convene there in June. Mrs. Bittner formerly lived at Bull Run. She expects a fine trip.

Boitano and Pizola have bought a fine bull from the Johanson Jersey herd. The animal is three years old and is of the Carnation strain.

With 10 weeks of normal work which Jennie Ten Eyck will take at Monmouth this summer, and with the grades she has at the Oregon "U" Jennie will be entitled to a life diploma. She expects to teach next winter.

Calista de la Fontaine graduated May 17 from Berkeley and will start home by June 1. "Then for a little vacation," writes Calista, who no doubt has Sandy in mind.

Miss George, aunt of Miss Margaret Miller, was out from Wednesday till Saturday visiting with the Miller family and the Alfred Hoyts, who came out to their summer home on the Bluff road for several days.

Local papers in the middle west cost more than the Enterprise. Miss Miller's Iowa home paper is two dollars per year and is not as large as the Enterprise, and does not carry as much local news.

FOR SALE: 20 acres near Boring. Will divide into small tracts, Wm. Mueller, Sandy.

F. H. Lake of Pleasant Home has been doing a little painting around town recently.

Attilio Cereghino was busy with his decorating work in Portland at last account.

James Bell, precinct committeeman, presided at the political meeting last week.

Mrs. F. D. Eason and Mrs. Miller spent Saturday and Sunday in Portland with Mrs. W. D. Deaver and other friends.

Judge and Mrs. Anderson of Baker, (Mrs. Shillock) are spending two weeks in Portland. Mrs. Anderson is known at Sandy.

Beside entertaining friends from Portland Sunday the Duke family had Miss Miller and Miss Lippold as guests.

Joel Jari and Gilbert Hauglum took about a ten days apto trip to Southern Oregon recently, visiting the Rogue River valley, Medford, Ashland and other interesting points. Jari visited his family at Medford. Mrs. Jari will probably come home for the summer. Mildred will be here by June 10, Hauglum was much taken with the mineral springs at Ashland.

The Duke family gave a dinner party Thursday inviting Miss L. George of Portland, Miss Miller, Miss Lippold, Mrs. Connors and Mrs. Miller.

Mr. and Mrs. F. D. Eason are entertaining a friend, Mrs. Williams of British Columbia for two or three weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Smith entertained Miss Miller, Miss Lippold and Mrs. Connors at a splendid chicken dinner Tuesday night.

Mrs. J. C. Duke gave an interesting description of her trip to Crater Lake and the wonderful caves of Southern Oregon on Thursday to the high school students which was much appreciated.

The plan recently adopted of having graduation exercises at Gladstone for eighth grade pupils all over the county is not pleasing to the majority of school patrons in this section. People prefer to hold these affairs at their own community school houses or hall, and keep interest in home affairs alive, aside from the inconvenience and expense of going so far.

A farewell party was given for Archer Barber of Portland by Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Snedden of Orient Saturday night, which was attended by 20 guests. A midnight lunch was served and dancing was enjoyed. Mr. Barber leaves this week for Glasgow, Scotland.

A nine pound baby boy was born to Mr. and Mrs. Albert Plamblad of Powell Valley last Saturday, May 20. Mrs. Plamblad is a sister of Mrs. Jullius Sture of Sandy. The Stures' went right down to see their new nephew.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Perret and children, Mr. and Mrs. Anton Malar and children, Mrs. P. T. Shelley and children all had a fine picnic dinner at the Portland city park a few days ago. Included in the party were five 5th grade pupils of Mrs. Malar's room: Evelyn Mutchler, Jonne Shely, Nora Kesterson, Mildred Barnett and Tony Perret. Barbara Scharnke and Wayne Duncan were also invited.

Mrs. Mary Wheeler, Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Wheeler, daughter Wava and son Robert, all of Canby, were all day Sunday guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Smith.

Rev. and Mrs. F. Dobbertal enjoyed visits last Sunday from Portland, guests as follows: Prof. and Mrs. Sylvester and family, Mr. and Mrs. Brandes and Teacher Hillman.

Mrs. Dobbertal is enjoying a visit from her cousin Miss Kresien of Milwaukee, Wis., who arrived about a week ago. Miss Kresien is making a tour of the western country, and will visit Yellowstone Park before returning east.

The commencement exercises of the Union high school will be held tonight at the Odd Fellow's hall. Everyone is invited. The occasion will be a big event of the year, and no one can afford to miss it. The speaker, Prof. C. B. Mitchell of O. A. C., will give a splendid address, and diplomas will be presented to the following graduates: Carl DeShazer, Mildred DeShazer, Ruby Dodd, Bertha Hoffman, Carl Scharnke.

R. S. Smith recently had his house painted, and is now having his garage "dolled up."

Mario Boitano went to Oregon City early Saturday morning to carry the ballot box to its destination.

A contract for one-and-a-fourth more miles of railroad have been let by the Dwyer Railroad Co.

E. E. Milliron, accompanied by Mildred Bosholm, played several saxophone selections between acts while the "play" was shifting scenes Saturday night.

The Farm Bureau had a hard time getting its members together Friday night on account of the election work hanging on, but finally succeeded in having a very good meeting. Two speakers were out from the city, Miss Margaret Miller sang, and E. E. Milliron gave selections on his saxophone. One thing very noticeable when the names of prize winners were read at Gresham Saturday night, viz: that nearly all of the winners had foreign names, and on investigation it was found the greater number were children of parents born in Europe.

"Blondie" Clinefelter says he will import some ball players to help out this season as Sandy hasn't enough real ball players to make the same "go." Boring "swatted" Sandy, 15 to 0, last Sunday. It is likely another game will be played here Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. V. Erickson and two sons attended the presentation of prizes and program at the Masonic hall at Gresham Saturday night.

John Buchholz of Brightwood was in Sandy recently and saw to it that his Enterprise was renewed.

Nineteen Enterprise subscriptions went out from here in one day this week to take advantage of the special offer now on.

Thomas Kubitzka and Joe Loundree were the efficient marshalls on election day.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Bell enjoyed a visit at the Eagle Creek grange May day picnic which was largely attended.

Mr. and Mrs. M. Boitano and children were Sandy visitors Monday, and ed. They also enjoyed the big dance at night, at which 134 numbers were sold.

Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Allen and little Doris and a friend of the Allens drove out to the Shepherd ranch Saturday night after the entertainment at the Masonic hall in Gresham. Doris dancing was one of the most attractive numbers on the big program that was given in connection with the presentation of prizes.

Pearl Proctor, Ruth Krebs and Lewis Murray all made booklets that are works of art and wit in connection with their U. H. S. English work. These little expressions of individuality will be treasured in the sweet by and bye and shown off with the "family album."

Anna Lennartz, of Pleasant Home was one of the winners in Class 1 of the First State Bank of Gresham contests. Miss Lennartz is a senior in the Gresham high, and is well known here, being a former Sandy school girl.

It speaks well for the Boring school and the principal, Prof. Mallicoate that five of his pupils received prizes in the bank contest. Two of the winners were brother and sister.

Mrs. Laura Ripley Mack, supervisor on staff in the Eugene public schools sent remembrances to the graduating class, also sent a delightful letter to Miss Miller in which she spoke individually of the class, all of whom were former pupils of hers. Mrs. Mack formerly taught at Firwood, Sandy and Boring. She also mentioned that her son Lawrence Mack will graduate from the high school at Eugene in June.

Chas. F. Barber of Portland spent a couple of days working in his flower gardens at his Firwood acreage this week.

Mrs. Billy Allen of Brightwood was in town the first of the week on business.

The following delegates went to the annual convention of the I. O. O. F. at Eugene this week: A. C. Baumback and Harry Reed. To the Rebekah convention, Ethel Townsend and Mrs. M. J. Baker.

Mr. and Mrs. Max Kilgel and Carl, Miss Caroline Vaeretti and Rev. Father Bonaventura were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Perret.

The U. S. H. juniors entertained the seniors with a banquet at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Willard Bosholm on Wednesday evening of last week. The following menu was served: salad, roasted chicken, mashed potatoes, creamed peas, bread, butter, pickles, ice cream, fruit, assorted cakes and coffee. The evening was one of joy, and long to be remembered by the class of '22. Those present were Bertha Hoffman, Ruby Dodd, Carl Scharnke, Grant De Shazer, Mildred Bosholm, Ruth Krebs, Mildred DeShazer, Alta Beers, Pearl Dixon and John Motell. Miss Miller and Miss Elsie Lippold were also present.

After Commencement exercises to-night which will close the U. H. S. term, Miss Miller will return to her Portland home for the summer, and Miss Lippold will leave for her home at Salem. Sandy is going to miss both of these young ladies greatly. More popular teachers have never been connected with the schools here.

BULL RUN NOTES

SANDY, May 22.—Pupils of the Bull Run school have made an average of over 90 per cent in monthly attendance on the roll of honor at least once and some several times. Thelma Hagan was present every day during the year. Diplomas for "Excellence" were awarded by Superintendent Vedder.

Pupils receiving diplomas in arithmetic were Melvin Hanaberg, Vernin Woods, Thelma Hagan, Helen Miller, and Victor Bacon.

Those receiving diplomas in spelling are Melvin Hanaberg, Vernin Woods, Thelma Hagan, Eva Hanaberg, Lola Bacon. Fifteen minutes a day was devoted during the year to penmanship, and some of the best work was sent to the A. N. Palmer Co. for examination.

Thelma Hagan, Melvin Hanaberg, Terrascena Schiodo, Helen Miller, Roy Ward and Victor Bacon were awarded Palmer method buttons, and progress buttons were awarded to Eva Hanaberg and Vernin Woods.

School closes May 31 with a picnic and program to which all parents and friends are invited. Pack up a big lunch and come help eat it! Mrs. Ada Burch is the teacher at Bull Run.

COTTRELL NEWS

SANDY, May 22.—Bernard Robertson was one of the prize winners of the First State Bank of Gresham contest. Bernard was a seventh grade contestant.

Mrs. E. E. Van Fleet will be principal of the Cottrell school again next year. Miss Margaret Klock will attend normal at Monmouth, and will not teach next year to the regret of all the Cottrell school patrons and pupils.

The following fine program was given at the close of the Cottrell school: Song, "Beautiful Oregon Rose," by school; Exercise, "The Dollie's Show"; dialogue, "At the Naturalization Court"; exercise, "Flag of Many
