OREGON CITY NINE LOSE TO ALBANY HIGH SCHOOL

ALBANY, May 20.—Albany high school's baseball nine hit and won yesterday after a five run lead had been attained over the locals by the Oregon City high school team. The score at the end of the first half of the fifth read six to one against the locals. In the Albany half of this inning two runs were acquired. Traylor set the visitors back the next two innings without a hit or a run tallying once more in the eighth. Albany annexed four runs in the sixth, putting herself in the lead. Three more in the seventh and three again in the eighth put the locals ahead with a safe margin. Score 13 to 7.

Batter is Feature.

A feature of the game was the thick headedness of one of the Oregon City batters, whether intentional or not. The first inning he came to the plate, struck at the first one and then walked out of his box, self conscious-like. While he was out of his box and with his back turned getting the once over of the bleachers, Traylor zipped over a fast one and the ump called it a ball, this was all right, with friend Landreger. He came to bat again in the eighth, with one strike, as before, called on him. He stroled out of the box, evidently trying to regain his composure. Traylor profited by the first inning decision and threw a strike over. The ump called it a strike, Friend Landy got mad and refused to get into his box. Traylor immediately tossed another one across the plate, and the umpire called the irate batter out. It took some little persuasion on the part of the umpires and the Albany pitcher to get the Oregon City man to lay down his bat and be a good sport. The Oregon City lot are a good bunch of ball players at that, but their pitching staff is weak. The infield made but two errors during the nine cantos, but made only five hits.

Ninth Ends Quick.

Handley and Ademack saved another run in the ninth, when with men on third and second, the batter hit a fly ball, Handley receiving and throwing to Ademack on second. The next man was easy meat for Traylor and the game ended.

Albany got a total of 16 hits. Ademack got five hits out of six times at bat, one of these a double clout. Traylor got two doubles and a single, he let five hits, fanned out five men and issued four bases. Laydon got a two base bingle, and made one bad tumble, making an error. Uhrhaufmer got two singles, Cox a single and a double. Handley turned in one run and two errors, Gilbert got one run and one single base hit. Steincipher got two singles, one run and made an error. Mason had an off day, fanning twice and flying out once. He made one run and one error. No substitutions were made.

The Oregon City lineup: Parry, 2b, one run and one hit; Cullivan, ss; Landreger, lf; Mayfield, cf, one run; Johnson, 1b, one run, two hits, one error; Burgham, rf, one run and one hit; Creswell, c, one run; Locke, p, one run, one hit, three bases on balls, four fanned out; Wilson, 3b, one error and one run.

Wilkinson and Beamis, umpires.

Score by innings:
Oregon City 0 0 3 2 1 0 0
Albany 1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 total
Oregon City 0 0 3 2 1 0 0 7
Albany 13 0 0 2 4 3 3 x—13

PORTLAND LUMBER YARD BURNS; 14 HORSES LOST

PORTLAND, May 22.—Fourteen horses were burned to death and costly hardwoods imported from the Orient were destroyed in a fire of unexplained origin which swept the Eastern & Western Lumber company property and completely destroyed the plant of the Emerson Hardwood company, at Front and Hull streets, early Sunday morning.

The total loss is now estimated at $90,000, according to Fire Marshall Grenfell, the greater part of which was sustained by the hardwood mill. The Emerson plant is owned by the Hoyt estate and is leased to the Emerson company.

SENATORIAL ENCOUNTER PREVENTED BY FRIENDS

WASHINGTON, May 22.—The staid old United States senate was thrown into an uproar today when a verbal clash between Senator Phipps, Republican of Colorado, and Senator Watson Democrat of Georgia, was prevented from becoming a physical encounter only through the intervention of mutual friends.

As it was, the two senators, hotly expostulating, expressed from the floor a desire to fight it out in the corridors. Friends reached them in time to prevent blows being exchanged.
