

PETITIONS ASK MERGER OF 2 SCHOOL DISTRICTS

Petitions asking the consolidation of the Willamette and West Linn school districts for grammar school purposes were filed Wednesday with the district boundary board. These two districts at present constitute Union High School District number 3, but for grammar school purposes they are still separate.

The combination will involve the joining of Willamette to West Linn and the placing of the present three grammar schools under one board of directors composed of three members and one clerk. The schools thus affected would be Bolton, Sunset and Willamette. No change in the physical condition of the three schools could be made by the combination of the districts, except the abolition of one of the grammar school boards of directors. At present there are two schools in West Linn, Bolton and Sunset. The former, a four room structure which was recently completed has three teachers and the Sunset school employs four teachers. One school in Willamette employs eight teachers. The Union high school would not be affected by the change as the districts would remain in the second class which does not allow them joint control of both grade and high schools without their changes through petition to the boundary board. The school census of the Willamette district is 317 and that of West Linn, 324. The taxes in the joint district would not be materially affected by the change, County Superintendent Brenton Voder points out. There would be a slight equalization between them but not any great import. The valuation of the combined districts would be $2,942,060.50.

DISMISSAL IS SOUGHT IN ETHERIDGE FRAUD CASE

PORTLAND, June 7.—Dismissal of the indictment against John L. Etheridge, president of the defunct Morris Brothers, Inc., bond house, on charges of fraud, will be asked today in circuit court by W. P. La Roche, attorney for Etheridge, according to his announcement this morning. La Roche said that he will ask for the dismissal on the ground that the law requires a criminal action to be prosecuted by the state in the term of court following the returning of the indictment, which is about a month in this Etheridge case. Friend on our right rises to inquire where all the booze seized by the cops goes. That's easy. It goes to the booze-fighters.

2ND HUSBAND OF EX-MRS. HAWLEY GRANTED DIVORCE

Stories of a gay party which he discovered in progress in his wife's home upon his return from California marked the end of the romance between Max H. Luellwitz and Marjorie Hawley Luellwitz, the youthful husband testified in divorce court in Portland Wednesday morning. Luellwitz was granted a default marriage annulment by Circuit Judge Tazwell. The official grounds for the separation were that Mrs. Luellwitz had not been divorced from Willard P. Hawley Jr., wealthy paper manufacturer, for the required six months, before her second marriage. Luellwitz, however, went on the stand and told the story of discovering the party at 3:30 a. m. on his return here. Two men and two women were present, he declared. Mrs. Luellwitz was not in court and apparently made no effort whatever to oppose the annulment. Attorney Frank H. Hilton represented Luellwitz. Luellwitz and the pretty divorcee were married in Turlock, Cal., March 16. The bride had been divorced from her first husband November 16, 1921. The case, which really embraced two divorce actions, covered more than a year and once went to the state supreme court.

BENSON HIKERS DAMAGE PAPER COMPANY'S CABIN

PORTLAND, June 7.—Benson Polytechnic school hikers have protested to Supervisor T. H. Sherrard of the Oregon national forest at the aspersion placed on them because of vandalism said to have been committed a few weeks ago on the Crown-Willamette company's cabin on Larch mountain, which resulted in Sherrard's threatening to close the Larch mountain trail to the public. The Benson boys pleaded not guilty to the charge, and stated that it was a Benson teacher who was with other boys not students at Benson, who did the damage. They also stated that the damage has now been fully paid. The information previously given Sherrard from the representative of the Crown-Willamette company was that a group of Benson students, together with a Benson teacher, broke into the cabin by chopping a hole in the roof and did other damage amounting in all to about $60, which they then refused to pay.

FEDERAL AGENTS SEEK WAR FRAUD PRINCIPALS

WASHINGTON, June 7.—A member of government agents have been sent abroad to round up men wanted in the investigation of war contract funds and who fled the country some months ago, it became known today. The identity of the men sought, or the cases they are connected with is carefully guarded by the department.
